

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

About the Author xiii

Preface xv

1 Motor City Sadness 1

Overview of Lean fundamentals

How Lean looks different in white-collar environments
vs. the factory

Waste in health care and the restaurant business

2 Lotus Land 19

The nature of big companies

Big Company Disease

Obstacles to transforming big companies

Role of the Shusa

viii Contents

- 3 What Have I Learned? 37
 - Lean fundamentals
 - Lean thinking—core mental models
 - Waste in business processes
 - Introduction to problem solving
 - Nature of transformation
- 4 How Will We Change Their Thinking? 67
 - Reflections on how to deepen and extend mental models
 - The nature of value and waste in knowledge work
 - Grasping the situation by going to see for yourself
 - Basics of system thinking
- 5 Focus and Alignment—When You’re a Jet, You’re a Jet 85
 - Fundamentals of strategy deployment
 - Defining True North, our strategic and philosophical objective
 - How strategy making actually works in organizations
 - How the New York Jets might apply strategy deployment
- 6 Cluing into Chloe 103
 - Politics in large organizations
 - Creating a shared vision
 - Strategy deployment in action
 - Deploying targets and tactics through Catchball
- 7 A Trip to Boston to Dispel the Fog 121
 - Role of the leader
 - The Water Ring model
 - How complex systems fail—and succeed
 - The Four Rules—Standards, Connections, Pathways, Improvement
 - The Remedy to Big Company Disease
- 8 Marketing—Leaning Out the Mad Men 137
 - Marketing basics
 - Mental models in marketing
 - Waste and value in marketing
 - Yamazume
 - Takt, flow, and pull in Marketing
 - Expected, Specified, and Delightful Value
- 9 Design and Engineering—Making Knowledge Flow 157
 - Mental models in Design
 - Value and waste in Design and Engineering

	Production physics—implications for Design
	Small batch learning
	Takt, flow, and pull in Design
	Set-based concurrent engineering
10	Nick Papas Falls into the Abyss	173
	Mental models in health care
	Value and waste in health care
	Lean fundamentals in health care
	Our health-care mess—root cause and countermeasures
	The Four Capabilities
	The remedy to Big Company Disease—reprise
11	My Beautiful Mind—Leaning Out Our Supply Chain	187
	Mental models in supply chain
	The Nash equilibrium
	The importance of information flow
	The Groundhog Day effect
	The bullwhip effect—causes and countermeasures
	What is heijunka?
	Process and system kaizen
12	Dealers, Spielers, and Concealers	205
	Mental models in retail
	Principles of Lean provision
	Provision/consumption maps
	Politics in large organizations
	Financial aspects of Lean
	Possible effects of standard cost accounting
	Lean in Human Resources
13	Scylla and Charybdis	225
	Politics in large organizations
14	Be My Phenomena	235
	Nature of transformation
	Ethics
	The cardinal virtues
	Lean leadership
	Glossary	247
	References	251

<http://www.pbookshop.com>