

INDEX

A

- Admiration, mutual, in mentoring relationship, 200
- Advice, protégés' willingness to take, 173
- Allen, Fran, 7; biography of, 113–114, 273–274; mentoring philosophy of, 114–115
- Allen, Paul, 27
- Allen, Tammy, 70
- Archibeck, Patty, 7; attraction of mentor to, 118; biography of, 274; mentoring relationships of, 4, 40, 41, 42; observed mentor under pressure, 134; personal relationship between mentor and, 148–149; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 79–81
- Arthur, Michael, 308
- Asofsky, Lilach, 7; biography of, 274–275; goal setting in mentoring relationships of, 159–160; mentor's personal support for, 147–148; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 73–74; in Welch mentoring lineage, 153
- Attachment theory, 188–189
- Avedon, Barbara: interests shared by, 187–188; peer and step-ahead mentoring relationship of, 59–61, 163

B

- Ballmer, Steve, 27
- Barnes, Brenda, 192
- Barrier-busting mentors: benefits/challenges of, 65, 222; connecting with, 169–170; described, 57–58, 222
- Baugh, Gayle, 305
- Being personal, 147–149. See also Personal/emotional support
- Benefit Interview worksheet, 229, 230
- Benefits: expected, explicitness about, 261; identifying, you offer, 229–235; matching, with mentors/protégés, 235–237; of mentoring relationships to mentors, 17, 110, 271–272; of mentoring relationships to protégés, 16–17, 69, 97; mutual, of formal mentoring programs, 270; of power mentoring to organizations, 98–100; of specific types of mentoring, 64–65, 222–225
- Benefits you offer exercise, 231, 232, 233
- Bennis, Warren, 190, 205, 306
- Biondi, Frank, 61
- Blake-Beard, Stacey, 305
- Bochco, Steven, 82, 130–131
- Bogdan, Robert, 309
- Bogdanovich, Peter, 62
- Borg, Anita, 7, 275
- Boss mentors: benefits/challenges of, 64, 222; connecting with, 162–165; described, 47–48, 222
- Boundaryless careers, 44, 308
- Brasco, Donnie, 138–139
- Brown, George, 94
- Buckingham, Marcus, 15
- Buckland, Marc, 7; biography of, 82, 275–276; reciprocity in relationship of, 82–85; testing of/by, 130–131, 132–133
- Budco, 168
- Buffet, Warren, 27
- Bulriss, Mark, 34

- Bush, George W., 149, 192, 194
- Butler, Lee, 7; biography of, 94, 276; first impression made by mentor on, 141; interdependence in mentoring relationship of, 189; interests shared by, 188; on necessity of people skills, 198; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 94–96; trust in mentoring relationship of, 150
- Buzzallino, Joan, 7; attraction of protégé to, 124; biography of, 276–277; on mentoring as part of organizational culture, 264; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 88–90
- C
- Canfield, Jack, 67
- Career support: as benefit for power mentors, 99; as benefit for power protégés, 16, 97; with traditional mentoring, 29
- Careers: boundaryless, 44, 308; changing context for, 13–14; satisfaction with, 17, 29, 69
- Carsey, Marcy, 61, 163–165
- Carter, Larry, 7, 50; attraction of protégé to, 118; biography of, 277; goal setting in mentoring relationships of, 158–159; group mentoring by, 4, 40, 41, 42, 51, 168; on impression management, 127; observation of protégé by, 134; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 79, 80–81
- Challenges. See Tests and challenges
- Chambers, John, 80, 81, 118, 127, 159
- Chao, Georgia, 305
- Chu, Judy, 8; as barrier-busting mentoring protégé, 58, 170; biography of, 277–278; loyalty in mentoring relationships of, 145–146; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 91–93
- Chubb Group, 168
- Cisco, 50, 51, 168. See also Archibeck, Patty; Carter, Larry; Chambers, John; Garr, Dixie
- Cisneros, Henry, 171
- Classic mentoring. See Traditional mentoring
- Clinton, Bill, 27, 190, 242
- Closeness: degrees of comfort with, 188–189; development of, in power mentoring relationships, 186–190; evident in first impressions, 185; in marriages, 181, 323n4; variation in, in relationships, 178–179. See also Intimacy
- Coaching, mentoring vs., 115
- Coffman, Curt, 15
- Collins, Robert, 34
- Communication: frequency of, in mentoring relationships, 184–186; quality of, as test for protégés, 127–128; as relationship skill, 259
- Compensation: as driver of retention, 15; relationship between mentoring relationship and, 16, 29, 69
- Competition: avoiding, in mentoring relationships, 200–201; as potential source of power mentors, 169–170
- Complementary skills/perspectives: as approach to protégé/mentor pairing, 267; attractive to mentors, 118–119, 123–124
- Connectedness, development of, in power mentoring relationships, 186–190
- Connecting with mentors: barrier-busting mentors, 169–170; boss mentors, 162–165; as defining moment, 190; e-mentors, 168–169; family-member mentors, 162; group mentors, 168; inspirational mentors, 172–173; mentors for hire, 169; mentors of the moment, 170–172; peer mentors, 165–166; reverse mentors, 167
- Contemporary mentoring. See Power mentoring
- Contingency workers, number of, 14
- Coolidge, Martha, 8; biography of, 117, 278–279; on gender differences in film industry, 203–204; mentors of the moment of, 62
- Cooper, Anderson, 111–112
- Coppola, Francis Ford, 62, 63
- Corday, Barbara, 8; attraction of pro-

- tégés to, 120; biography of, 279; boss-mentoring relationship of, 163–165; interests shared by, 187–188; network of mentors of, 61; peer and step-ahead mentoring relationship of, 59–61
- Corman, Roger, 131–132, 247
- Corporate-citizen philosophy of mentoring, 105–108, 218
- Costs, of turnover, 15
- Cote, David, 34
- Couples, dual-career, 13
- D
- David, Steve, 167
- Deepening Your Current Relationship exercise, 250–252
- Defining moments, 190–196; gay/lesbian coming out as, 99–100, 193–194; importance of recognizing, 259–260; types of experiences mentioned as, 190–191; work-family balance and, 192–193
- Delegated mentoring, 115
- Dellums, Ron, 8; biography of, 117–279–280; defining moments in mentoring relationships of, 192–194; family-member mentor of, 56–57; inspirational mentor of, 54–55; mentoring philosophy of, 108–109
- Deloitte and Touche, 167
- Desired Mentoring Relationship worksheet, 227, 228
- Disengagement, among American workers, 14–15
- Disney, 31, 34, 266. See also Sweeney, Anne
- Diversity: formal mentoring programs to promote, 304–305; of interviewees, 5; in power mentoring relationships, 41–42, 317n9; in power vs. traditional mentoring relationships, 41–42. See also Barrier-busting mentors; Gays and lesbians; Gender; Race
- Donofrio, Nick, 8; biography of, 280; goal setting in mentoring relationships of, 159, 160; power mentoring by, 46–47, 48–49, 98
- Dougherty, Russ, 94
- Dow Chemical, 266
- Downing, Kathryn, 48
- Dreier, David, 8; barrier-busting mentoring relationships of, 170; biography of, 280–281; support by, for protégé in public scandal, 78, 131
- E
- E-mail, 13, 184
- E-mentors: article on, 305; benefits/challenges of, 65, 222; connecting with, 168–169; described, 49–50, 222; online mentors for hire as form of, 52–53
- Eastwood, Clint, 63
- Eby, Lillian, 305
- Eisner, Michael, 34
- Eliot, T. S., 142
- Ellis, Rodney, 202
- Emotional intelligence (EQ): attracting mentors/protégés using, 239–243; importance of, 123; maintaining mentoring relationship using, 197–198
- Emotional support. See Personal/emotional support
- Ending mentoring relationships: in formal mentoring program, 270–271; steps for, 252–253; when dysfunctional, 208
- Ensher, Ellen, 305
- Erikson, Erik, 38
- Establishing mentoring relationships. See Mentoring relationships, establishing
- Ethnicity, in mentoring relationship, 206. See also Race
- “Everyone Who Makes It Has a Mentor,” 26
- Exclusivity, of power vs. traditional mentoring relationship, 40–41
- F
- Failure: by protégés, 130–131, 135; trust and, 150–151. See also Risk taking
- Family-member mentors: benefits/challenges of, 65, 223; connecting with, 162; described, 55–57, 223

Federal government, number of employees, 14, 314n12

Feedback: with formal mentoring programs, 270; negative, difficulty of receiving, 200–201; protégés' willingness to listen to, 173; trust based on, 144–145

First impressions: closeness evident in, 185; importance of, of mentors on protégés, 141; mentors' looking beyond, of protégés, 156–157; as test for protégés, 126–127, 128. See also Impression management

Fisher, Kim, 8; biography of, 50, 281–282; connecting with family-member mentor, 162; on mentor-for-hire program, 53

Formal mentoring programs. See Mentoring programs, formal

Franzen, Jonathan, 1

Friends: benefit interviews with, 229, 230; questions about quality of relationships with, 179; of the road vs. of the heart, 272; situational, 61. See also Peer mentors; Step-ahead mentors

Fulbright, William, 27

G

Garr, Dixie, 8; biography of, 5, 117, 282; diversity in workplace and, 118, 205–206; initial connection of protégé with, 154, 180–181; intimacy in mentoring relationship of, 186–187; on listening skills of protégés, 199; mentoring philosophy of, 109–110, 111; testing by, 133

Gates, Bill, 26–27

Gays and lesbians, 99–100, 193–194

Geeks and Geezers (Bennis and Thomas), 190, 205

Gender: cross-gender mentoring, 117; differences in, in mentoring relationships, 201–205; of interviewees, 5; mentoring relationships with white men and, 320n6. See also Diversity

General Electric (GE), 34, 167. See also Welch, Jack; Wright, Bob

Generational differences, 205

Generativity: with global-citizen mentoring philosophy, 110; in power vs. traditional mentoring, 38–39

Gerstner, Lou: as boss mentor, 46, 47, 48; on encouraging women in technology, 114; as founder of lineage mentoring relationships, 4, 98; organizational culture changed by, 98–99, 100

Gibbons, Leeza, 8, 172–173, 282–283

Gibran, Kahlil, 14, 255

Glatter, Lesli Linka, 8, 62–63, 283

Global-citizen philosophy of mentoring, 110–113, 218

Goals, in mentoring relationships, 157–161, 253

Goleman, Daniel, 123, 242

Gonzalez, Araceli, 9; biography of, 283–284; “do the right thing” incident of, 2, 36–37; on ethnicity of mentors, 206; first impression of, of mentor, 271; generativity in mentoring relationship of, 38–39; as power protégé, 35, 36; reason mentor attracted to, 118; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 38, 77, 78

Goodman, Ellen, 272

Gottman, John, 200, 323n4

Group mentors: benefits/challenges of, 65, 223; connecting with, 168; described, 51–52, 223; example of, 4

Gwathmey, Judith, 9; biography of, 117, 284–285; defining moment in mentoring relationship of, 195; on testing protégés, 125

H

Hall, Tim, 308

Hansen, Mark, 67

Hay Group, 242

Hayter, Anthony, 9; biography of, 285; development of intimacy in men-

- toring relationship of, 186–187; initial connection of mentor with, 154, 180–181; listening skills of, 199
- Heinrick & Struggles, 257
- Higgins, Monica, 305, 306
- Hill, Linda, 257
- Holcomb, Rod, 82
- Hughes, Karen, 192
- Hurd, Gale Anne, 9; biography of, 285–286; testing of, by mentor, 131–132, 247
- I
- Ibarra, Herminia, 305
- Immelt, Jeffrey, 17, 34
- Impression management: defined, 155; emotional intelligence as basis of, 197–198; importance of, by protégés, 155–157, 174. See also First impressions
- Initial contact and connection, positive, 180–183
- Initiating mentoring relationships: by mentors, 140; by power protégés, 36, 140, 154; with power vs. traditional mentoring, 36
- Inspirational mentors: benefits/challenges of, 65, 224; connecting with, 172–173; described, 54–55, 224
- Interactions, frequency of, in mentoring relationships, 183–186
- Interdependence, in power mentoring relationships, 189–190
- Interests, sharing, 187–188
- International Business Machines (IBM): benefits of mentoring relationships to, 98–100; master-mentor philosophy at, 113–115; organizational culture of, 98–99, 100, 264; power mentoring at, 46–50; reciprocity in mentoring network at, 88–91; reverse mentoring program of, 167. See also Allen, Fran; Donofrio, Nick; Gerstner, Lou; Lickel, Charles; Morris, Martha; Sanford, Linda
- International Telementoring program, 169
- Internet: number of people with access to, 13; reverse mentoring to promote learning about, 167. See also E-mentors
- Interpersonal skills, 259. See also Emotional intelligence
- Interviewees. See Study participants
- Interviews: benefit, with colleagues/friends, 229, 230; informational, with potential mentors, 234–235; for study, 308–312, 321n13
- Intimacy: defined, 178, 186; development of, in power mentoring relationships, 186–190; gender differences in, 201–202; importance of, 178–179. See also Closeness
- Inventory Your Networks for Possible Mentors exercise, 221, 226
- J
- Jackson, Maynard H., 171
- Job mobility, 69
- Jobs: Boomers' typical number of, 14; satisfaction with, 17, 29, 69
- Jordan-Evans, Sharon, 15
- K
- Kaye, Beverly, 15
- Kim, Jay, 131
- King, Martin Luther Jr. (MLK), 54–55, 125
- Kirk, Ron, 9; biography of, 117, 286; conversation topics in mentoring relationship of, 202; mentors of the moment of, 171–172; self-disclosure in mentoring relationship of, 186
- Knowledge workers, 266–267
- Koch, Ed, 56–57
- Kolb Learning Style Inventory (LSI), 210, 326n3
- Koplovitz, Kay, 9, 143–144, 286
- Koss, Mitch, 4, 9; biography of, 286–287; loyalty in mentoring relationship of, 147; mentoring philosophy of, 111–113

Kram, Kathy, 29, 36, 304, 305, 306
Kuehler, Jack, 46

L

Larson, Chris, 27
Laybourne, Geraldine, 87, 106
Leaders, good vs. great, 6
Leadership development, mentoring as element of, 265–266
Learning: openness to, 120; styles of, 210, 326n3
Lee, Barbara, 194
Leung, Elsie, 119
Lickel, Charles, 9; biography of, 287; defining moment in mentoring relationship of, 193–194; first impression made by, on mentor, 156–157; mentor's communication with, 184–185; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 88, 89, 99–100
Lineages: as type of mentoring relationship, 4, 258. See also Gerstner, Lou; Welch, Jack
Ling, Lisa, 4, 9; biography of, 287–288; global-citizen philosophy of mentor of, 111, 112–113; loyalty in mentoring relationship of, 147
Linkage Incorporated, 265
Listening: to negative feedback, 200–201; as relationship skill, 259; as skill for maintaining mentoring relationship, 138–139
Lovett, Richard, 103, 200
Loyalty: as characteristic of ideal protégé, 121, 122; professional vs. organizational, 17, 42–44; trust manifested as, 145–147, 149
Lynch, David, 63

M

Madison, Paula, 9; biography of, 74, 117, 288; diversity-increasing efforts of, 118; mentoring relationships established by, 237, 238; as power protégé, 6, 34; reason mentor attracted to, 120; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 74–76

Madonna, 27

Maintaining mentoring relationships.
See Mentoring relationships, maintaining

Management support, for formal mentoring programs, 268

ManPower Plus, 14

Marginal mentoring, 260–261, 328n9

Marin, Rosario, 10; attraction of protégé to, 118; on benefits of mentoring, 271–272; biography of, 6, 117, 289; ethnicity of, and mentoring relationship, 206; generativity in mentoring relationship of, 38–39; personal relationship between mentor and, 149; as power mentor, 35, 36; protégé's first impression of, 271; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 38, 77, 78; supported protégé in challenge, 2, 36–37

Marriage, relationship in, 200, 323n4

Martínez, Sharon, 10; biography of, 289–290; identification of mentor by, 154; loyalty in mentoring relationships of, 145–147; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 92–93; testing of, by mentor, 129

Martucci, Debra, 10; biography of, 290; mentoring relationships of, 4, 40, 41; personal relationship between protégé and, 148–149; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 79–80, 81; on testing protégés, 126, 127–128
Master-mentor philosophy of mentoring, 113–115, 219

Matching Benefits with Mentors/Protégés worksheet, 235–236

McDonald, Marc, 27

McGraw, Phil, 175

Meaning, shared, 201

Media: power mentoring in, 59–63; reciprocity in mentoring relationships in, 71–76, 82–88. See also specific companies

Medina, Laura J., 10; biography of, 291; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 82–85; testing of, by mentor, 132–133

- Mental models, 105–116; corporate-citizenship, 105–108; defined, 104, 319n1; global-citizenship, 110–113; master-mentor, 113–115; pragmatic-mentor, 108–110. See also Mentoring philosophies
- Mentees. See Protégés
- Mentor (Greek wise elder), 28
- The Mentor Connection* (Zey), 29, 304
- Mentor Hall of Fame Web site, 27
- Mentor Preferences for Mentoring quiz, 214, 216–217
- Mentoring: additive approach to, 31; broadening definition of, 257; coaching vs., 115; delegated, 115; effects of, on bottom line, 261–262; marginal, 260–261, 328n9; negative side of, 261; outdated advice on, 17. See also Mentoring philosophies; Mentoring relationships; Power mentoring; Traditional mentoring
- Mentoring at Work* (Kram), 29
- Mentoring Functions in Your Relationship checklist, 244, 245
- Mentoring philosophies, 104, 105–116: corporate-citizen, 105–108, 218; for formal mentoring programs, 257; global-citizen, 110–113, 218; importance of, 258; master-mentor, 113–115, 219; pragmatic-mentor, 108–110, 218; quizzes to determine preferences for, 214–217
- Mentoring programs, formal: connecting with, 166–167; to deal with diversity, 304–305; implementing, 268–271; improving, 263–267; ineffectiveness of, 18–19; offering traditional mentoring, 29; prevalence of, 262–263
- Mentoring relationships: benefits of, 16–17, 69, 97, 110, 271–272; dysfunctional, 207–208; ending, 208, 252–253, 270–271; future research on, 260–262; informal, effectiveness of, 19; initiating, 36, 140, 154; tips for creating effective, 256–260; types of, 4. See also Mentoring relationships, establishing; Mentoring relationships, maintaining; Mentoring relationships, preparing for; Power mentoring relationships; Relationship Development Plan (RDP)
- Mentoring relationships, deepening. See Mentoring relationships, maintaining
- Mentoring relationships, establishing, 227, 229–244; approaching potential mentors/protégés, 238–239; identifying possible benefits you offer, 229–235; matching benefits with mentors/protégés, 235–237; positive initial contact and connection, 180–183; preparing for tests and challenges, 243–244; tips for mentors on, 237–238; using emotional intelligence to attract mentors/protégés, 239–243
- Mentoring relationships, maintaining, 196–203; assessing current relationships, 244, 245; assessing tests and challenges, 247–250; assessing trust, 244–246; avoiding competition in relationship, 200–201; being open to partner in relationship, 200; bringing others into network, 207–208; developing shared meaning, 201; emotional intelligence required for, 197–198; future research on, 261; gender differences and, 201–205; generational differences and, 205; listening skills needed for, 198–199; making effort to understand each other, 196–200; mutual admiration required for, 200; problem solving for, 201; race and ethnic differences and, 205–207; Relationship Development Plan (RDP) exercises/worksheets for, 244–252
- Mentoring relationships, preparing for, 212–227, 228; considering various types of mentoring relationships, 221, 222–225; desired mentoring relationship worksheet, 227, 228; inventorying network for possible mentors, 221, 226; metaphor for

- mentoring exercise, 217, 220–221; preferences quiz for mentors, 214, 216–217; preferences quiz for protégés, 214, 215; visualizing ideal relationship, 212–214
- MentorNet, 169, 269
- Mentors: benefits of mentoring relationship for, 17, 110, 271–272; benefits of specific types of, 64–65, 222–225; benefits you offer exercise for, 231, 232, 233; centrality of, 44–45; initiation of relationship by, 140; matching protégés with, in formal mentoring programs, 268–269; necessity of having, 26–27; “perfect” protégé as viewed by, 121–125, 136–137; protégé characteristics attractive to, 116–121, 136, 154, 157, 173–174, 320n6, 321n2; reasons protégés attracted to, 140–141; tips for, on establishing mentoring relationships, 237–238. See also Connecting with mentors; Mentoring philosophies; Power mentors; Study participants
- Mentors for hire: benefits/challenges of, 65, 223; connecting with, 169; described, 52–53, 223
- Mentors of the moment: benefits/challenges of, 65, 224; connecting with, 170–172; described, 61–63, 224
- Metaphor for Mentoring exercise, 217, 220–221
- Methodology, 303–312; interview analysis, 309, 312; interview method, 308; interview questions, 310–311, 321n13; interviewee selection, 3–4, 307; purpose of study, 303–304; study participants, 307–308; theoretical background, 304–307
- Meyer, Ron, 10; admiration of, for protégé, 200; attractions of protégés to, 119, 120; biography of, 291; on importance of meeting goals, 157–158; as respected power mentor, 102–103
- Mfume, Kweisi, 75
- Military, reciprocity in mentoring relationships in, 94–96. See also Butler, Lee
- Mirvis, Philip, 308
- Mistakes. See Failure; Risk taking
- Molina, Gloria, 202
- Morris, Martha, 10; biography of, 291–292; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 88, 89, 90; trust in mentoring relationship of, 152
- Murdoch, Rupert, 87, 106
- Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 210, 325n3
- N
- Napolitano, Grace, 170
- National Women’s Business Council, 263
- Networks: informal, gaining access to, 76; inventorying, for possible mentors, 221, 226; of mentoring relationships, 3, 18; snowball technique for building, 153–154
- Noe, Raymond, 316n3
- Noquez, Juan (John), 10, 292
- NVivo software tool, 309, 312
- O
- O’Brien, Patricia, 272
- Odysseus, 28
- Openness: to learning, 120; to partner in mentoring relationship, 200
- Organizational culture: changed by Gerstner, 98–99, 100; mentoring and coaching as part of, 264–265
- Organizational purpose, power vs. traditional mentoring and, 31, 34
- Organizations: benefits of power mentoring for, 98–100; connecting with mentoring initiatives offered by, 166–168; gaining access to informal networks in, 76; loyalty to, 42, 43; as source of mentors, 41; type of, with power mentoring, 44. See also Mentoring programs, formal
- Ovitz, Michael, 34, 102, 151

P

- Pairs: selecting, in formal mentoring programs, 268–269; as type of mentoring relationship, 4
- Paltrow, Bruce, 42–43
- Paltrow, Gwyneth, 27
- Participants. See Study participants
- Passion: communicating with, 127–128; of leaders, 6; of mentors with global-citizen philosophy, 113
- Pay. See Compensation
- Peer mentors: benefits/challenges of, 65; competition between, 200–201; connecting with, 165–166; described, 59–61, 224
- People: importance of, 17; skills for dealing with, 259. See also Emotional intelligence
- Performance, mentors attracted by, 119–120
- Personal characteristics, attractive to mentors, 119
- Personal/emotional support: as benefit for power mentors, 99; as benefit for power protégés, 97; given to protégé by mentor, 16, 147–149; with traditional mentoring, 29
- Pettit, Donald, 10; biography of, 94, 292–293; interdependence in mentoring relationship of, 189; interests shared by, 188; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 94–96; trust in mentoring relationship of, 150
- Philosophies. See Mentoring philosophies
- Pistone, Joseph D., 138–139
- Politics: mentoring across party lines in, 78, 170; power mentoring in, 53–58; reciprocity in mentoring relationships in, 77–78, 91–93. See also specific mentors; specific protégés
- Pollack, Tom, 151
- Potential, mentors attracted by, 119–120
- Powell, Colin, 94, 141
- Power mentoring: benefits/challenges of, 64–65, 222–225; characteristics of, 20; defined, 3, 30; typical scenario of, 30–31. See also Power mentoring vs. traditional mentoring
- Power mentoring relationships, 175–208; closeness and connectedness in, 186–190; defining moments in, 190–196; frequent interaction in, 183–186; goals in, 157–161; positive initial contact and connection in, 180–183; tests and challenges in, 125–135; tips for maintaining, 196–208; trust development in, 142–152. See also Mentoring relationships; Mentoring relationships, establishing; Mentoring relationships, maintaining; Mentoring relationships, preparing for; Relationship Development Plan (RDP)
- Power mentoring vs. traditional mentoring, 28–45; diverse relationships in, 41–42; exclusivity of relationship in, 40–41; generativity in, 38–39; loyalty of protégés with, 42–44; mentor centrality with, 44–45; organizational purpose and, 31, 34; reciprocity in, 37–38; relationship initiation and maintenance with, 36; source of mentors in, 41; summary comparisons of, 20–21, 32–33; test and challenges in, 36–37; type of organizations with, 44. See also Power mentoring; Traditional mentoring
- Power mentors: benefits of mentoring relationship for, 69–70, 98, 99; identification of, by power protégés, 152–155; inventorying network for, 221, 226. See also Mentors; Power mentors, types of
- Power mentors, types of, 45–63; barrier-busting mentors, 57–58, 65, 169–170, 222; boss mentors, 47–48, 64, 162–165, 222; e-mentors, 49–50, 65, 168–169, 222, 305; family-member mentors, 55–57, 65, 162, 223; group mentors, 4, 51–52, 65, 168, 223;

- inspirational mentors, 54–55, 65, 172–173, 224; mentors for hire, 52–53, 65, 169, 223; mentors of the moment, 61–63, 65, 170–172, 224; peer mentors, 59–61, 65, 165–166, 200–201, 224; reverse mentors, 48–49, 64, 68, 167, 200, 225; step-ahead mentors, 59–61, 65, 93, 224
- Power protégés: benefits of mentoring relationship for, 69, 97; goal-oriented attitude of, 157–161; identification of power mentors by, 152–155; initiation of mentoring relationship by, 36, 140, 154; matching mentors with, in formal mentoring programs, 268–269; role of, in determining mentoring relationship, 258–259; tests and challenges for, 125–135. See also Protégés
- Pragmatic-mentor philosophy of mentoring, 108–110, 218
- Preparing for mentoring relationships. See Mentoring relationships, preparing for
- Prescreening, formal mentoring programs, 268
- Problem solving: in mentoring relationships, 201; styles of, 210, 325n3
- Procter & Gamble, 167
- Productivity: enabled by trust, 149–152; increased by mentoring relationships, 100
- Professional loyalty, 17, 42–44
- Prologue International, 8, 52–53
- Promotions, increased by mentoring relationships, 17, 29, 69
- Protégé Preferences for Mentoring quiz, 214, 215
- Protégés: benefits of mentoring relationship for, 16–17; benefits you offer exercise for, 231, 232, 233; corporate-citizen mentoring philosophy and, 108; mentor characteristics attractive to, 140–141; “perfect,” mentors’ view of, 121–125, 136–137; reasons mentors attracted to, 116–121, 136, 154, 157, 173–174, 320n6, 321n2. See also Power protégés
- Q
- Questions: about quality of friendship relationship, 179; interview, 310–311, 321n13; to test protégés, 126, 128, 134–135
- R
- Race: cross-race mentoring, 117–118; differences in, and mentoring relationships, 205–207; mentoring relationships with white men and, 320n6. See also Diversity
- Ragins, Belle Rose, 305, 317(n9)
- Reagan, Ronald, 242
- Reciprocity, 68–101; defined, 66, 68; in media mentoring relationships, 71–76, 82–88; in military mentoring relationships, 94–96; in political mentoring relationships, 77–78, 91–93; in power vs. traditional mentoring, 37–38; in reverse mentoring relationship, 68; social exchange and, 68; in technology industry mentoring relationships, 79–81, 88–91
- Recruitment, improved with mentoring, 100
- Relationship Development Plan (RDP), 210–254; ending mentoring relationships, 252–253; establishing mentoring relationships, 227, 229–244; maintaining mentoring relationships, 244–252; overview of, 210–212; preparing for mentoring relationships, 212–227, 228
- Relationship skills, 259. See also Emotional intelligence
- Relationships: close, 177–179; with others at work, 2. See also Mentoring relationships
- Résumés, analyzing, 232, 234
- Retention, drivers of, 15
- Reverse mentors: benefits/challenges of, 64, 225; connecting with, 167; described, 48–49, 225; maintaining relationship with, 200; reciprocity with, 68
- Rewards. See Benefits
- Rice, Condoleezza, 78

- Richards, Ann, 186
- Risk taking: in boss-mentoring relationship, 164–165; self-disclosure and, 178; testing of protégés and, 130–131; trust as enabling, 150–151
- Robbins, Jim, 10, 50, 52, 293
- Robina, Diane, 10; biography of, 293–294; defining moment in mentoring relationship of, 193; first impressions of, of mentoring relationship, 185; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 87
- Rocco, Nikki, 11, 103; biography of, 294; reason mentor attracted to, 120; on testing protégés, 126; trust in mentoring relationship of, 151–152
- Rooney, Bethany, 11; attraction of protégés to, 120; biography of, 295; as power protégé, 42–43, 44; professional loyalty of, 44
- Rosencrans, Bob, 143–144
- Russell, Joyce, 305
- S
- Salary. See Compensation
- Sanford, Linda, 11; biography of, 295–296; communication with protégés by, 184–185; defining moment in mentoring relationship of, 193–194; first impression of protégé on, 156–157; on gender differences in mentoring relationships, 204–205; as power protégé/mentor, 46–48, 49, 98; reason mentor attracted to, 124; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 88–91, 99–100; on testing protégés, 126; trust in mentoring relationship of, 152
- Scandura, Terri, 305, 316n3
- Scorsese, Marty, 151
- Scowcroft, Brent, 78
- Self-awareness, 259
- Self-disclosure, 127, 178, 186, 259
- Self-management, by protégés, 160–161, 173–174
- Sense of humor, 118
- Shared interests, 187–188
- Shared meaning, 201
- Shared values, 143–144
- Sheinberg, Sid, 151
- Silicon Valley. See Technology industry
- Silverman, Fred, 87, 106–107
- Similarities, mentors attracted to protégés by, 117–118, 320n6
- Six degrees of separation technique, 153
- Snider, Stacy, 103
- Snowball technique, 153–154
- Social cognition, 319n1
- Social exchange, 68, 126
- Social Skills Inventory, 239–242, 326n9
- Solis, Hilda, 11; as barrier-busting mentor, 57–58, 170; biography of, 91, 117, 296; on gender differences in mentoring relationships, 202; identified as mentor by protégé, 154; loyalty in mentoring relationships of, 145–147; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 91–93; testing of protégé by, 129
- Spielberg, Steven, 63
- Step-ahead mentors: benefits/challenges of, 65, 224; described, 59–61, 224; example of, 93. See also Peer mentors
- Stevenson, Charles, 108–109
- Study participants, 307–308; biographies of, 273–301; characteristics of, 4–5; interviews with, 308–312, 321n13; list of, 7–12; selection of, 3–4, 307
- Succession planning, with power vs. traditional mentoring, 31, 34
- Sweeney, Anne, 11; attraction of protégé to, 119; biography of, 85, 296–297; defining moment in mentoring relationship of, 193; on leadership development program, 266; mentoring philosophy of, 106–107; protégé's first impressions of relationship with, 185; on quality of relationship and time, 269; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 85–88; testing by, 133
- Synchronicity, 149–150

T

- Taylor, Steven J., 309
- Technology: reverse mentoring for learning about, 167; work/personal life boundaries obscured by, 13
- Technology industry: power mentoring in, 46–53; reciprocity in mentoring relationships in, 79–81, 88–91. See also specific companies; specific mentors; specific protégés
- Telemachus, 28
- Tests and challenges: assessing, in current relationships, 247–250; with formal mentoring programs, 270; importance of, 125; in initial phase of mentoring relationships, 126–128; interview question about, 321n13; in power vs. traditional mentoring, 36–37; preparing for, 243–244, 259; that deepen mentoring relationships, 129–135
- Thomas, David, 305
- Thomas, Robert, 189, 205
- Thomas-Graham, Pamela, 11; biography of, 117, 297; initial connection with mentor by, 182–183; personal support given to protégé by, 147–148; as power protégé/mentor, 6, 34, 153; reciprocity in mentoring relationships of, 72–74; testing of, by mentor, 129–130; trust in mentoring relationship of, 143, 144–145, 150–151
- 360-degree assessments, 210–211
- Traditional mentoring: benefits/challenges of, 29, 64, 225; described, 28, 225; disadvantages of, 19–20; as element of power mentoring system, 29–30; formal programs for, 29; research studies of, 29. See also Power mentoring vs. traditional mentoring
- Training and support, for formal mentoring programs, 269
- Trust: assessing, in current relationships, 244–246; as being personal, 147–149; as characteristic of ideal protégé, 122–123; development of,

in formal mentoring programs, 267; feedback as basis of, 144–145; importance of, 142; loyalty as manifestation of, 145–147, 149; mutual workplace productivity enabled by, 149–152; self-disclosure as developing, 127; shared values as basis of, 143–144; testing of protégés and, 132–133

Trust Scale exercise, 246

Turnover, costs of, 15

U

- Union membership, 14, 314n11
- U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 13, 14

V

- Values, shared, 143–144
- Virtual mentoring. See E-mentors
- Virtual or organizational structures, 307–308
- Visualization, of ideal mentoring relationship, 212–214
- Voluntary participation, formal mentoring programs, 268
- Von der Ahe, Kathleen, 11; biography of, 297–298; formal mentoring relationship of, 106; on leadership development program, 266; reason mentor attracted to, 119; reciprocity in mentoring relationship of, 85–87; testing of, by mentor, 133

W

- Wal-Mart, 14, 314(n12)
- Wall Street* (film), 102
- Walters, Barbara, 30, 172–173
- Wannier, Louise, 11; biography of, 298; network of business contacts built by, 153–154; peer-mentoring relationship of, 166
- Watts, Lewis, 192
- Weiland, Richard, 27
- Welch, Jack: feedback given by protégé to, 144, 145; lesson learned from, 17; lineage of mentoring relationships begun by, 4, 153, 182; mentoring legacy of, 34; organization-wide

- mentoring initiative announced by, 167; reverse mentoring conceptualized by, 68; Wright as protégé of, 6
- Wells, Frank, 34
- West, Alice, 43
- Willingness to learn, mentors attracted by, 120
- Willis, Mark, 48
- Wilson, Pete, 6, 149
- Winfrey, Oprah, 170–171, 172–173, 175
- Wise, Robert, 62
- Women: comfort of, with female mentors, 117; female bonding between, 147–149. See also Gender
- Women's Technology Cluster, 50, 263
- Woods, Jacqueline E., 12, 203, 299
- Work: changing context for, 13–14; characteristics of great places to, 15–16; identity and life satisfaction's relationship to, 1–2; time U.S. workers spend at, 1
- Work-family balance, 13, 69, 192, 193
- Workforce, changing, 13
- Wright, Bob, 12; attractions of protégés to, 119–120; biography of, 71–72, 299–300; initial connection of protégé with, 182–183; as master mentor, 5–6; on observing people in nonwork contexts, 197; as power mentor, 34; reciprocity in power mentoring relationships of, 72–76; testing of mentor by, 129–130; trust in mentoring relationship of, 143, 144–145, 150–151; in Welch mentoring lineage, 153
- Wright, Fred, 27
- Wulf, William, 12, 158, 300

Y

- Yuen, Henry, 12; biography of, 117, 300–301; peer-mentoring relationship of, 166; reason peer mentor attractive to, 119, 124

Z

- Zey, Michael, 29, 121–123, 304

<http://www.pbookshop.com>