

Contents

---

Introduction ix

Part One Questions

1	Why Maximize Value?	3
2	The Value Manager	6
3	Fundamental Principles of Value Creation	10
4	Do Fundamentals Really Drive the Stock Market?	13
5	Frameworks for Valuation	15
6	Thinking about Return on Invested Capital and Growth	18
7	Analyzing Historical Performance	19
8	Forecasting Performance	25
9	Estimating Continuing Value	28
10	Estimating the Cost of Capital	35
11	Calculating and Interpreting Results	39
12	Using Multiples for Valuation	41
13	Performance Measurement	43
14	Performance Management	45
15	Creating Value through Mergers and Acquisitions	48
16	Creating Value through Divestitures	51
17	Capital Structure	53
18	Investor Communications	55
19	Valuing Multibusiness Companies	57

viii CONTENTS

20	Valuing Flexibility	59
21	Cross-Border Valuation	61
22	Valuation in Emerging Markets	63
23	Valuing High-Growth Companies	70
24	Valuing Cyclical Companies	72
25	Valuing Financial Institutions	81

Part Two Answers

1	Why Maximize Value?	91
2	The Value Manager	93
3	Fundamental Principles of Value Creation	97
4	Do Fundamentals Really Drive the Stock Market?	99
5	Frameworks for Valuation	102
6	Thinking about Return on Invested Capital and Growth	106
7	Analyzing Historical Performance	107
8	Forecasting Performance	115
9	Estimating Continuing Value	122
10	Estimating the Cost of Capital	131
11	Calculating and Interpreting Results	134
12	Using Multiples for Valuation	136
13	Performance Measurement	138
14	Performance Management	140
15	Creating Value through Mergers and Acquisitions	143
16	Creating Value through Divestitures	146
17	Capital Structure	149
18	Investor Communications	152
19	Valuing Multibusiness Companies	154
20	Valuing Flexibility	156
21	Cross-Border Valuation	158
22	Valuation in Emerging Markets	160
23	Valuing High-Growth Companies	168
24	Valuing Cyclical Companies	170
25	Valuing Financial Institutions	179