

INDEX

- Accenture HR practices 30
 ACFTU (All China Federation of Trade Unions) 62 acquisitions 2
 Adams, John Stacy 186
 adaptive approach
 cultural adaptation 92, 93–4
 HR practices 27–30, 35–6
 multinational companies 22–3, 24, 26, 27
 administrative control 172 agency theory 170, 175, 195
 agility see cultural agility aging populations 52
 agreeableness trait 147
 Aguinis, Herman 137
 All China Federation of Trade Unions (ACFTU) 62 alliances 2
 allowances for employees 182–3
 among-employee consistency 19
 Asia 49
 see also China; India assessment systems
 international assignees 145–9
 selecting employees 133–5, 140, 147–9
 assignees see international assignees assignees assistance programs see support practices asymmetries of information 173, 193 attitudes culture and 75–6
 managing 163–97, 201
 attracting employees 130–1, 179–80 see also recruitment autonomy, empowerment and 90 balance-motivated societies 88
 balance sheet approach, compensation 181–2
 balanced scorecard system 19
 Bartlett, Christopher 21
 Becker, Brian 12
 behavior management 163–97, 201
 safety behaviors 127–9, 133, 136
 subsidiaries 165–79, 192–3
 behavioral indices 159–60
 behavioral norms
 counter-culture behaviors 96
 cultural agility 92, 93–5
 national similarities 75
 see also social norms beliefs, culture and 75–6

- benefit-cost equation, international assignees 184-5
- benefits, employees' 43, 54-7
- 'best practices'
- human resource management 12-13, 23
 - motivating workforce 166
 - subsidiary cooperation 176-7
- Best Proven Practice* program, Unilever 23
- brand image 131
- Brazil 45-6
- business strategy 5-6, 9-39, 199-202, 205
- business unit, organization by 4
- Caligiuri, Paula
- cultural orientations 92
 - repatriation practices 156
- call centers 102, 112
- Canada 45, 47
- career prospects
- international assignees 190-1
 - repatriates 156-8
 - rewards policies 178
- CCT see cross-cultural training
- centralization
- HR activities 202
 - multinational companies 3-4
 - see also* headquarters
- Chapman, Jay 89-90
- children
- employment directives 59-60
 - of international assignees 146-7, 154-5
- China
- competitive wage rates 66
 - employee representation 62
 - labor supply 50-1
 - offshoring activities 109-11
 - training/development 137
- coaching employees 153
- codetermination rights, works councils 62-3
- collectivism 79, 90-1, 167-8
- communication
- cultural differences 85-91
 - offshoring risks 114
 - repatriates 157-8
 - virtual teams 118-19
- comparative HR systems 6, 41-71, 200
- compensation systems 179-89, 193-4
- see also* monetary incentives; wage rates
- competencies
- definition 129
 - workforce 42-8, 127-61, 201, 204-5
- competitive advantage
- global mobility 114-15
 - multinational companies 1
 - standardized HR practices 29-30
 - talent for 4-5
 - training/development 136, 138
- competitive wage rates 65-6
- competitor gains, repatriation 156
- complexity in HR practices 35
- conceptual equivalence 132-4
- conscientiousness trait 147
- consistency
- HR practices 95-6
 - messages to employees 18-19
 - workforce competency 129, 136
- consultation rights, works councils 63
- consumer behavior changes 52
- content domain, selection practices 132
- context factors
- comparative HR systems 41-71
 - strategic HRM 16-18, 32-3
 - see also* economic context
- contribution rule, compensation 187
- control systems
- adequacy of 193
 - centralization 3-4, 202

- country managers 164, 171–6
- decentralization 3–4
- controlled time cultures 88–9
- cooperation
 - cultural differences 97
 - mechanism for 36
 - among subsidiaries 30–2, 36, 176–9, 193
 - transnational teams 117
- coordination
 - HRM practices 68
 - multinational companies 12
- core values retention 24
- corporate integration programs 178–9
- corporate-level culture, selection practices 132
- corporate social responsibility 20
- corporation unit incentives 177–8
- cost of living allowances 182–3
- cost savings
 - externalizing work 120
 - HR system development 25
 - international assignees 184–5
 - mobility of people 107
 - offshoring 101–2, 109–10, 113–14, 120, 122
 - virtual teams 118
- costs of firing 54–5
- counter-culture behaviors 96, 128
- country-level context
 - business strategy balance 5
 - HR systems 41–3
 - see also* national-level culture
- country managers 164, 168–76
- country of origin, multinationals 2, 3
- credibility 81–4
- cross-border differences 64–8
 - employee representation 61–4
 - employment regulations 53–61
 - labor economics 48–53, 67
 - workforce competency 43–8
- cross-cultural differences see cultural differences
- cross-cultural training (CCT) 141–2, 149–53
- cross-national capabilities
 - international assignees 142–59
 - multinational companies 21
- cultural adaptation 92, 93–4
- cultural agility 74, 97–8
 - definition 73
 - interview questions 140–1
 - leadership development 138–42, 160
 - safety behaviors 128–9
 - understanding 92–5
- cultural attitudes 75–6
 - see also* attitudes
- cultural differences 6, 73–99, 200
 - control systems 173
 - framework for 80–91
 - HR practices 74, 77, 81, 85, 95–8, 203
 - motivating workforce 165–8, 192
 - observations of 75–6
 - understanding 91, 97–8
 - workforce competency 130–1, 134–5
- cultural dimensions 6, 43, 64–5, 73–99
 - control systems 173
 - Hofstede's 79–80
 - HR systems 200, 203
 - localized practices 28
 - motivating workforce 165–8, 192
 - multinational companies 3
 - training/development 137
 - transferring practices 31–3
 - workforce competency 127–30, 132–5, 137–42, 148–53
- cultural framework 80–91
- cultural homogeneity 78–9
- cultural integration 94–5
- cultural minimalism 92–3
- cultural orientations 89, 92–4, 139
- cultural values 76–7
- culture, definitions 74–80
 - see also* cultural dimensions

- customer service
 - conceptual equivalence 133–4
 - offshoring strategies 101–2
 - training programs 137
- decentralization 3–4, 168–9, 192
 - see also* localization
- decision-making
 - decentralization 168–9, 192
 - empowerment and 90
 - framework for 199
 - HR decisions 200–1
 - international assignees 145–7
- delegation practices 68, 169–70
- Dell Computer Company 101–3, 113
- demand for labor 50–1
- demographic trends 51–3
- design costs, HR practices 25
- development of employees 136–8
 - cultural agility 141–2
 - international assignees 143–4, 158, 191–2
 - leadership development 138–42, 160, 204
 - rewards policies 178
- developmental assignees 143–4, 158, 191
- developmental goals 158, 191–2
- direct communications 85–6
- directed cultures, empowerment and 90
- directives, EU 59–61
- discrimination laws 135
 - see also* employment regulations
- dispersion, geographic 3, 35
- diversity
 - credibility and 82
 - subsidiaries 25
 - virtual teams 119
 - see also* cross-border differences; cultural differences
- Doing Business project 54–5, 70
- domestic employees 105–6, 108
- e-CCT systems 151–3
- economic context 42, 43
 - cross-border differences 48–53, 67
 - Lincoln Electric study 32–3
 - multinational companies 1–4
 - offshoring activities 109–10, 113–14
 - see also* cost savings
- educational attainment 45–7, 82
- efficiency
 - delegation tradeoffs 169–70
 - mobility of people 107–8
 - offshoring activities 111–12
- electronic-based training 151–3
- emotional stability trait 148
- employee consistency 18–19
- employee contribution
 - maximizing 15–16
 - standardized HR practices 29
- employee representation differences 61–4
- employee suggestion systems 167–8
- employer image factors 130–1
- employment regulations 53–61, 135
- empowerment 89–90
- entrepreneurship 168–9, 172
- equity theory 186–7
- ethical concerns
 - central control 202
 - offshoring 114, 123
- EU see European Union
- European Commission
 - Directorate-General 60
- European Union (EU)
 - compensation systems 183
 - context factors 18
 - employee representation 62
 - employment laws 53–6, 59–61
 - labor supply 49–50
- European Works Councils (EWCs) 63–4
- executive assignees 143–4
- expatriates 30, 105–6

- compensation systems 182, 184–9
- as country managers 172
- global efficiency 108
- local responsiveness 107
 - see also* international assignees
- exporter approach 22, 26, 27, 95–6
- expressive cultures 87
- external referents, compensation 186
- externalizing work 120
- extroversion trait 147
- eye contact 134

- face-to-face interaction 121
- families of international assignees 145–7, 154–5, 157, 160, 189
- fashion industry 111
- feminine cultures 80
- financial counseling 157
 - see also* monetary assistance policies
- Finland 45–6
- firing costs 54–5
- firm-level strategy see business strategy
- fluid time cultures 89
- follow-the-sun strategies 112
- Ford Motor Company 170
- foreign employees 105, 114
 - see also* host national workers
- foreign service premiums 182–3
- foreign subsidiaries see subsidiaries
- formal communication cultures 86–7
- frame-of-reference training 135
- functional assignees 143–4, 158–9
- future-oriented cultures 89

- gender equality directives 60
- geographic dispersion 3, 35
- geographic organization of companies 3–4
- Germany
 - legislation 28

- offshoring activities 109–10
- transferring practices 31
- works councils 62–3
- Ghoshal, Sumantra 21
- 'global', terminology use 8
- global approach, referent salary 181
- global economy 1–4
- global efficiencies 107–8
- global firms see multinational companies
- global human resource management see international human resources
- global integration strategy 21, 23–4, 27
- global leadership
 - cultural minimalism 93
 - development of 132–42, 204
- global mobility 101–25, 201, 203–5
 - of jobs 104, 108–15
 - of knowledge 104, 115–22
 - of people 104–8, 115
 - workforce competency 142–59
- goal incongruence, headquarters vs subsidiary 164, 170–1
- Goal Zero, Shell 127–8
- government investments
 - health care benefits 56
 - workforce competency 47–8
- group-oriented cultures 90–1
 - see also* collectivism
- growth of multinational companies 1–4

- Hall, Edward T. 85
- headquarters
 - attitude/behavior management 164, 170–6, 192–3
 - cooperation/learning 36
 - cultural differences 97
 - international assignees 143
 - mobility of people 105–6
 - see also* centralization

- health care benefits 43, 56
- hierarchical cultures, credibility in 84
- high context communications 85–6
- high potential assignees 143–4
- Hofstede, Dr Geert 74, 77–80, 89
- home country approach, compensation 181–2
- homogeneity of culture 78–9
- host country approach, compensation 181
- host country nationals see host national workers
- host country visits, selection practices 148–9
- host national workers 105–6
 - compensation systems 181, 184–9, 194
 - global efficiency 108
 - local responsiveness 107
 - motivating 165–8
 - see also* foreign employees
- hours worked, cross-border differences 65
- housing allowances 182–3
- HR professionals see human resources professionals
- human resource management (HRM)
 - attitude/behavior management 166–7, 192
 - comparative systems 41–71, 200
 - competencies 129–38, 140
 - cultural differences 74, 77, 81, 85, 95–8
 - decision-making 200–1
 - global functions 201–5
 - planning global workforce 103–4, 114–15
 - principles of 10–27, 35
- human resources (HR) professionals
 - learning/cooperation 36
 - talent management 14–15
- Huselid, Mark 12
- IBM cultural dimensions 78–80
- IKEA work values 88
- ILO (International Labour Organization) 48, 69
- implementation costs, HR practices 25
- incentive systems 172–5, 193
 - international assignees 181–3, 185
 - Lincoln Electric 22, 32–4, 41–2
 - subsidiary cooperation 177–8
- income tax reimbursements 182–3
- India
 - incentive systems 174
 - labor supply 50–1
 - offshoring activities 109–11
 - training/development 137
- indirect communications 85–6
- Individual Employment Conditions, EU 50
- individualism 33, 79, 90–1, 168
- Indonesia 129
- informal communication cultures 86
- information technology (IT)
 - offshoring 111
 - training/development 138
 - virtual teams 119
- innovation 21, 26, 116
- inorganic growth 2
- inpatriates 105–6, 107–8, 175–6
- input–outcome ratio, equity theory 186–7
- integrated approach
 - corporate integration programs 178–9
 - cultural integration 94–5
 - multinational companies 21, 23–4, 26–7, 116–17, 121
 - strategic HRM 204
 - training/development 138
- integrity, managing with 133
- intellectual traits 148
- interaction levels, salary disparities 188

- 'internal consistency among practices' 19
- internal referents, compensation 186
- 'internal stickiness' 31
- 'international', terminology use 8
- international assignees 7, 201, 203–5
 - among-employee consistency 19
 - competency management 142–60
 - global leadership and 138–9, 141–2
 - KFC Corporation 164–5
 - motivation 179–92, 193–4
 - repatriation 155–60, 179, 180
 - see also* domestic employees; expatriates; host national workers; inpatriates; third country nationals
- international companies see multinational companies
- international human resources
 - functions of 201–5
 - principles of 11, 20–7
 - strategic 27–32
- international job experience 189–91
- international joint ventures 2
- International Labour Organization (ILO) 48, 69
- interpersonal sensitivity, compensation systems 188
- interviews for selection 134–5, 140–1
- investment by governments 47–8, 56
- IT see information technology
- Japan
 - cultural adaptation 93
 - demographic trends 52
 - Kentucky Fried Chicken in 163–5
 - standardized HR practices 29
 - workforce competency 45
- Jaques, Eliot 186
- jobs, global mobility of 104, 108–15
- Jobs, Steve 83
- joint consultation committees 64
- joint ventures 2
- Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC) 163–5, 168
- knowledge
 - global mobility of 104, 115–22
 - government investment 47
 - rewards policies 177–8
 - transfer strategy 27, 31–2
- Korea
 - demographic trends 52
 - employee representation 61
 - wage rates 65
 - workforce competency 45–6
- Kostova, Tatiana 31
- labor economics 42, 43
 - cross-border differences 48–53, 67
 - offshoring 109–10, 113–14
 - see also* cost savings
- labor force size 49–50
- labor-management relations 43
 - cross-border differences 54, 61–4
 - standardized practices 29
 - transferring practices 34
- labor supply 49–51, 109
- language skills
 - foreign employees 114
 - international assignees 148
 - training 141, 149, 153
 - see also* communication
- lateral integration mechanisms 178
- Latin America 16
- Lazarova, Mila 156
- leadership
 - cultural minimalism 93
 - development of leaders 138–42, 160, 204
 - international assignees and 138–9, 141–4

- leadership (Cont.)
 - safety behaviors 128
 - succession planning 203
- learning organizations 21, 25–6
 - global mobility 116
 - mechanism creation 36
 - subsidiaries 30–2
 - training/development 136
- legislation 42–3
 - cross-border differences 53–61
 - localized HR practices 28
 - selection of employees 135
 - transfer barriers 33
- life expectancy differences 52
- lifestyle counseling 157
- Lincoln Electric 9–10, 22, 32–4, 41–3, 56
- line managing talent 11, 14–15
- literacy rate differences 44–5
- ‘live to work’ cultures 87–8, 165
- local responsiveness
 - global mobility 107–8, 116–17
 - multinational companies 21, 22, 24, 27
 - selection of employees 132
 - training/development 136–7
- local workforce 165–8
 - see also* host national workers
- localization
 - HR practices 28, 96, 202
 - multinational companies 3–4
 - see also* decentralization
- location of employees
 - mobility factors 105–6
 - offshoring 122–3
 - virtual teams 118
- long-term demographic trends 51–3
- low context communications 85–6

- McKinsey Global Institute 30, 112
- management development,
 - international assignees 143
- ‘managing with integrity’ 133
- manufacturing sector wage rates 65–6

- maquiladoras* 67
- masculine cultures 80
- matrix-structure multinational companies 4
- Matsushita subsidiaries 170, 173
- meaning, communication and 85–6
- meetings, virtual teams 118, 119
- mentoring systems 157
- mergers and acquisitions 2
- Mexico
 - communications 86–7
 - employee representation 61
 - employment laws 53
 - workforce competency 45–7
- Microsoft ‘best practice’ approach 13
- minimalism, cultural 93
- minimum wage rate differences 66
- MNCs, see multinational companies
- mobility 101–25, 201, 203–5
 - of jobs 104, 108–15
 - of knowledge 104, 115–22
 - of people 104–8, 115
 - workforce competency 142–59
- monetary assistance policies 154–5
 - see also* financial counseling
- monetary incentives 177–8, 193
 - see also* compensation systems
- monitoring systems 171–2
 - strategic HRM 19–20
 - subsidiary performance 24–5
 - virtual teams 119
- Morgan Stanley context factors 16–18
- motivation
 - country managers 168–76
 - cultural differences 192
 - international assignees 179–94
 - local workforce 165–8
 - subsidiary cooperation 177–9
- multiculturalism 3, 35, 138–40
- ‘multinational’, terminology use 8

- multinational companies (MNCs)
 attitude/behavior management
 165, 167–70, 173–4, 176–7,
 183, 192
 definition 11–12
 demographic factors 52
 employee representation
 63–4
 global economy 1–4
 global mobility 106, 108,
 116–18, 120–2
 growth 1–4
 HRM principles 10–27
 OECD employment guidelines
 57–9
 strategic HRM 11, 14
 structure 1–4, 31–2, 116
 multisource approach, offshoring
 102
- Napoli, Silvio 174, 189–90
 national-level culture
 socializing agents 75, 91
 values 76–7, 165–6
 workforce competency 130–1, 135
 see also country-level context;
 cultural differences
 nationality of employees 105–6
 NatWest Bank 114
 needs rule, compensation 187
 Netherlands 65
 network-based structures 120–2
 Nokia motivation practices
 166–7
 non-employee networks 120–2 non-strategic practice social norms 28 norms behavioral 75, 92–6
 of reciprocity 16 social 16, 28, 31
- observational cultural differences
 75–6
- OECD see Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development
 offshoring 108–9
 cost savings 101–2, 109–10,
 113–14, 120, 122
 Dell Computer Company 101–3,
 113
 follow-the-sun strategies 112
 location determination 122–3
 risks 113–15
 round-the-clock shifts 111–12
 talent access 110–11
 online cross-cultural training
 149–53
 openness trait 148
 operating control 171
 operating safely competency 127–9, 133, 136
 operational efficiency, offshoring
 111–12
 optimization of tasks/activities
 23–4
 organic growth 2
 Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development
 (OECD) 57, 59
 demographic trends 52
 educational attainment 47
 employment guidelines 57–9
 labor supply 49–51
 organizational development,
 international assignees 143
 organizational structure of companies 3–4, 31–2, 116
 orientations, cultural 89, 92–4, 139 outcome controllability/measurability 174
 outcome–input ratio, equity theory 186–7
 outsourcing 120
 see also offshoring
- partners of international assignees
 146–7, 154–5

- past-oriented cultures 89
- performance incentives 182–3
- performance management
 - international assignments 191–2
 - subsidiaries 24–5
- personality traits 147–9
- Philips electronics 170
- piecework 34
- PISA (Program for International Student Assessment) 45
- planning global workforce 101–25
- population growth rates 51
- Pornpitakpan, Chanthika 93
- power distance, cultural differences 79
- present-oriented cultures 89
- Procter & Gamble subsidiaries 170, 173
- product development teams 178
- production processes offshore 112
- professional development see development of employees
- Program for International Student Assessment (PISA) 45
- promotion see career prospects
- R&D (research and development) 47
- rank, credibility and 83–4
- reciprocity norms 16
- recruitment of workforce 130–1, 159
 - see also* attracting employees
- redundancy costs 54
- referent salary system 181–2, 186–7
- refusals, international assignments 180
- regional guidelines 57–61
- regulatory systems 42–3, 53–61, 135
- relationship-oriented cultures 82–3, 91
- relocation of international assignees 145–6
- Renault HR practices 30–1
- repatriation 155–60, 179, 180
- reporting systems 172
- representation of employees 61–4
- reputation, corporate 20
- research and development (R&D) 47
- research professionals 51
- responsibility
 - comfort level with 89–90
 - corporate social 20
 - shared 14–15
- responsiveness
 - global mobility 107–8, 116–17
 - multinational companies 21, 22, 24, 27
 - selection of employees 132
 - training/development 136–7
- rewards policies 177–8
 - see also* compensation systems
- risks
 - delegation 169–70
 - incentive systems 175
 - offshoring 113–15
 - safety behaviors 127
- Robinson, Graham 128
- rotational assignments 144
- round-the-clock shifts 111–12
- Royal Bank of Scotland 114
- RW-3's Culture Wizard 149–51
- safety behaviors
 - conceptual equivalence 133
 - definitions 127
 - Shell 127–9, 136
- salaries, disparities 181, 184–8, 194
 - see also* compensation systems
- sales associate selection 132
- sales scenarios
 - cultural adaptation 93
 - training programs 137
- Schindler elevators 174, 189–90
- selection of employees 131–5, 159–60
 - central control 202
 - international assignees 147–9
 - leadership development 139–41

- self-assessment
 - international assignees 145–7
 - leadership development 140
- sequential cross-cultural training 153
- shared responsibility principle 14–15
- Shell safety behaviors 127–9, 136
- Silalahi, Darwin 129
- skills sets
 - cross-border differences 67
 - labor supply 50
 - offshoring 111
 - repatriates 159
 - see also* language skills
- social concerns, offshoring 114
- Social Fund, EU 60
- social inclusion directives 60
- social norms
 - knowledge transfer 31
 - localized HR practices 28
 - reciprocity 16
 - see also* behavioral norms
- social responsibility 20
- socialization as control 175–6
- socializing agents 75, 91, 175–6
- Sony Corporation 73–4
- speech
 - interpretation of 86–7
 - meaning and 85–6
- spouses of international assignees 146–7, 154–5
- standardization of HR practices 25–6, 27–30, 35–6
- ‘star’ workers 15
- status, credibility and 83–4
- stereotyping 91
- stock allocation 202
- strategic assignees 143–4, 158, 191
- strategic control 172
- strategic dimensions
 - business strategy 5–6, 9–39, 199–202, 205
 - competency management 129–38
 - offshoring risks 114
- strategic human resource management 27–32, 201–2, 204
 - cultural differences 98
 - definition 11
 - principles for 13–20
- Stringer, Sir Howard 73–4
- subcultures 91
- subsidiaries 3, 12
 - attitude/behavior management 164–79, 192–3
 - context factors 18
 - cooperation among 30–2, 36, 176–9, 193
 - cross-national capabilities 21
 - cultural differences 96–7
 - learning organizations 25, 30–2, 36
 - performance management 24–5
 - transnational teams 116–17
- succession planning 202, 203
- suggestion systems 167–8
- supply of labor 49–51, 109
- support practices, international assignees 153–5, 182–3
- Sweden 88
- Szulanski, Gabriel 31, 32
- talent management 203–5
 - comparative systems 42
 - competitive advantage 4–5
 - decision-making 201
 - global mobility 110–11, 122
 - HR strategy appropriateness 36
 - line managers 11, 14–15
 - offshoring 110–11
 - recruitment 130–1
- tax reimbursements 182–3
- team-based structures
 - network-based 120–2
 - product development 178
 - transnational teams 116–17
 - virtual teams 117–19
- technical assignees 143–4, 158–9

- technical performance dimensions 191
- terms of employment differences 53–4
- tertiary attainment 45
- test methods, selection practices 134
- third country nationals 106, 107, 108
- time control differences 88–9
- Timmer, Jan 170
- tourist fallacy phenomenon 91
- training 11, 136–8, 159–60
 - content determination 136–7
 - cultural agility 141–2
 - delivery methods 137
 - frame-of-reference training 135
 - international assignees 149–53
 - repatriates 157, 160
- transactional cultures 83
- transfer of HR practices 27, 30–4, 36
- transnational teams 116–17
- trust
 - gaining 81–4
 - virtual teams 119
- turnover
 - offshoring risks 113
 - repatriates 156
- uncertainty avoidance 80
- unemotional cultures 87
- unemployment rates 48–9
- Unilever's Best Proven Practice program 23
- union relations 34, 43, 54, 61–4
- university education attainment 82
- vacation time differences 54–6, 88
- value creation
 - knowledge mobility 116
 - offshoring 114–15
- values
 - culture and 75–6, 78–80
 - HR practices 203
 - motivating workforce 165–7
 - multinational companies 24
 - work values 78–80, 87–8, 130, 165–6
- vertical integration mechanisms 178
- virtual teams 117–19
- vision-setting 14
- visual aspects of culture 76, 77
- voluntary guidelines, OECD 57–9
- wage rates
 - competitive 65–6
 - legislation 53
 - offshoring 109–10
 - see also compensation systems
- Weston, Loy 161–4, 168
- 'what you know' cultures 83
- 'who you know' cultures 82–3
- women
 - EU directives 60
 - labor supply 50
 - norm of reciprocity 16
 - see also feminine cultures
- work-life balance 153–5
- work system transfers 33–4
- 'work to live' cultures 166
- work values 78–80, 87–8, 130, 165–6
- workforce competency 42, 43–8, 127–61, 201, 204–5
- working hours, cross-border differences 65
- working together
 - definition 90–1
 - success in 87–91
- works councils 62–4
- written communications 86
- Yamashita, Toshihito 170
- Zara fashion chain 171, 172
- Compiled by Indexing Specialists (UK) Ltd, Hove, East Sussex*