

INDEX

- absolute score methodology 54
- Accenture 133–135
- activation 51, 233
 - authentic 228–229
 - budgeting 219
 - channels 75–77
 - sensory experience 83–84
- Adidas 144
- advertiser-funded programming 3
- advertising 76, 82, 85, 153–155
- agency alignment 81
- All Blacks 144
- ambush marketing 79–80, 233
- anticipated value delivered 80
- assessment methodologies 52–58, 133
 - absolute score 54
 - decision trees 52–54
 - gut feeling 58
 - qualitative judgments 57–58
 - weighted selection 54–57
- asset checklist tool 153–155
- assets 16–23, 233
 - auditing 157–161
 - impacts 157–158
 - implementation 72–73
 - in-sourcing versus out-sourcing 23–26
 - intangible 17–19, 160–161
 - purchasable benefits 158
 - rights-holders 124–125, 151–155
 - selection criteria 50
 - sponsors and rights-holders 19–20
 - tangible 16, 159–160
 - valuation model 158
- auditing assets 157–161
- authentic activation 228–229
- aversion to risk 226
- awareness 211–213, 235
- B2B see business-to-business
- benchmarks 96, 156–157
- benefit in kind (BIK) 131–133, 166
- benefits 58–63, 163–165, 233
 - errors 68
 - marketing in kind 133–137
 - optimization 58–63
 - proposals 188–189
 - value in kind 131–133
- best practice
 - comparison 139–140
 - evaluation 114–115
- BIK see benefit in kind
- brainstorming 84–85
- branding 6–7, 71–78, 150–151
 - cross-selling 136–137
 - implementation 71–77
 - integration 77–78
 - perception measurement 213–214
 - sensory experience 83–84
 - strategy discovery 30–31
- British Superbikes 87–88
- broadcast sponsorship 53
- budgets 51, 90
 - activation 219
 - closing sales 194–195
 - events 156
 - implementation 73–74
 - recession 226
 - ringfencing 81

- business focus 31–32
- business-to-business (B2B) 85, 154
- cameo sponsorships 41
- campaigns, Think! 87–88
- Carling 145–146
- Carlsberg 190–191
- car manufacturers 173–174
- case studies
 - Accenture 133–135
 - broadcast sponsorship 53
 - cricket 166–167
 - cross-selling 136–137
 - Deloitte Ignite 135–136
 - Department of Transport 87–88
 - ECCO shoes 32
 - electronic gaming brands 83
 - evaluation 107–115
 - financial services brands 36–38, 57–58
 - football 163–165
 - golf 167
 - grassroots sponsorship 142–143
 - Horizon Air 215–216
 - Maruti 166–167
 - mobile telecoms brands 12–13, 86–87, 98, 131–133
 - Morgan Stanley 18
 - Nivea for men 13–14
 - Nokia 131–133
 - O₂ 12–13, 86–87
 - olympic/paralympic games 8
 - Siemens 15, 44–45
 - Spatone 89
 - sports 8–15
 - strategy review 44–45
 - The O₂ 86–87
 - value in kind 132–133
 - Vodafone 12
 - World Wildlife Fund 131–133
- cause-related marketing 3
- chairman's whim 58
- challenges of implementation 89–93
- changing roles 227–229
- channels
 - exposure management 208–211
 - implementation 75–77
- checklists
 - assets 153–155
 - sales proposals 189–190
- closing sales 192–195
- cold beer amnesty 145–146
- cold calling 176–179
- commercial sponsorship 2
- common understanding 78–79, 217
- communication 5–7
 - advertising 82, 85
 - business-to-business 85
 - channels 6
 - consumer touchpoints 85, 123
 - enabling 137–139
 - exposure management 208–211
 - internal, buy-in 81–82
 - management involvement 91
 - media, proposal 187
 - media exposure 153–155
 - reaching employees 84, 155
- competitors
 - ambush marketing 79–80, 233
 - comparing best practice 139–140
- conflicts, internal 130
- consideration 62, 128–129
- consumer reactions 91–92
- consumer touchpoints 85, 123
- contracts 2–3, 62–66
 - consideration 62
 - essential terms 64
 - legal frameworks 63–64
 - pro forma 65
 - regulation 63–64
 - sponsors 63–66
 - timing 64–65
- cookie cutter proposals 181–182
- co-ordinating implementation 89–90
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) 155
- co-sponsors 92–93, 136–137, 163–165
- costs, in-sourcing versus out-sourcing 23–26
- creating value 218–219
- creativity in execution 82–89
- cricket 166–167
- cross-selling 136–137
- CSR (corporate social responsibility) 155
- cultural challenges 90–91
- customers see consumer...
- decision maker analysis 175–176
- decision trees 52–54
- definitions of sponsorship 2–4
- Deloitte 135–136
- demographics 186
- Department of Transport 87–88

- development
 - common understanding 78–79
 - economic 5
 - future prospects 225–232
 - industry 4–7, 229–230
 - social evolution 5
 - strategy 34–46, 121–146
- discovery, strategy 30–34
- ECCO shoes 32
- economic development 5
- electronic gaming brands 83
- elevator pitches 191
- emotional baggage 116
- employee engagement 84, 155
- enabling communication 137–139
- endorsement 155
- errors of judgement 66–68
- establishing need 48–49
- evaluation 95–117
 - active phase 96–97
 - awareness 211–213
 - best practice 114–115
 - brand perceptions 213–214
 - impacts 99–101
 - market research 103–105
 - multiple effects 107–115
 - post investment 97
 - program planning 95–97
 - qualitative 104–107, 207–208
 - quantitative 104–107, 207
 - regularized reporting 115
 - renewal 216–217
 - ROI versus ROO 101–103
 - SMART objectives 97–101
 - visibility 206–211
- events
 - budgets 156
 - creation 4
- evolution, social 5
- exclusions 51
- exclusivity 17, 19
- execution 20–22, 80–89
 - creativity 82–89
 - rights-holders 22
 - sponsors 20–21
- expenditure 51, 90
 - activation 219
 - implementation 73–74
 - recession 226
 - ringfencing 81
- exploitation 71–93
 - assets 72–73
 - challenges and solutions 89–93
 - channels 75–77
 - coordination 89–90
 - co-sponsors 92–93
 - multiple markets 92
 - objectives 77
 - resources 73–75
 - selection criteria 49
 - strategy 43
 - target audiences 77
- exposure 125, 153–155, 158
 - awareness 211–213
 - management 208–209
- external perspectives 31–34
- FedEx 143–144
- FIFA 163–165
- financial resources 51, 90
 - activation 219
 - events 156
 - implementation 73–74
 - recession 226
 - ringfencing 81
- financial services brands 36–38, 57–58, 141
- five-a-side football 13
- five questions 204–217
- flexibility 198–200
- football 13, 163–165
- footprint 35–36
- Formula One 12, 14
- free channels 76–77
- full proposals 184–189
- future perspectives 225–232
 - authentic activation 228–229
 - partnership development 227–228
 - rights-holders 230–231
 - sponsors 229–230
- gaming brands 83
- geographic footprint 49–50
- global financial services brands 36–38, 57–58
- global retail brands 107–115
- global sponsorship 35–39, 164–165
- golf 167
- grassroots sponsorship 142–143
- gut feeling 58

- hierarchy creation 162–165
- historical review 123–124
- Horizon Air 215–216
- hospitality 112–114, 154
- HSBC 141
- human resources 82

- IFM Sports Marketing Surveys 140, 157, 165, 194, 208
- image transfer 125, 153–155
- impacts 99–101, 157–158, 203–204
 - recession 225–231
- implementation 71–93
 - assets 72–73
 - challenges and solutions 89–93
 - channels 75–77
 - consumer reactions 91–92
 - co-ordination 89–90
 - co-sponsors 92–93
 - management involvement 91
 - multiple markets 92
 - objectives 77
 - resources 73–75
 - selection criteria 49
 - strategy 43
 - target audiences 77
- incentives 76
- indirect exposure 210
- industry development 4–7
- inputs 99–100, 204
- in-sourcing 23–26
- intangible assets
 - concepts 17–19, 160–161
 - implementation 72–73
- integration 77–78
- intelligent funding model 133–135
- internal best practice 114–115
- internal changes 129
- internal communications for buy-in 81–82
- internal conflicts 130
- internal perspectives
 - strategy 31–33
 - stress-testing 42–43
- involvement
 - employees 84, 155
 - management 91

- judgement errors 66–68

- key components 1–26
 - assets 16–23
 - case studies 8, 12–15
 - in-sourcing versus out-sourcing 23–26
 - objectives 11
 - process 20–23
 - property 9
 - target audiences 10
- key deliverables 35
- key factors 127
- key rights 187–188

- lack of control 228–229
- lead times 80
- legal frameworks for contracts 63–64
- leveraging see implementation
- Lincoln, A. 152
- Lloyds TSB 50
- local sponsors 164–165
- low cost channels 76–77

- McDonald's 142–143
- mailing lists 154
- management involvement 91
- marketing 6–7, 125, 150, 179, 198–200
 - car manufacturers 173–174
 - global financial services brands 36–38
 - implementation 75–77
 - partnership development 227–228
 - proposal 187
 - strategy 35
- marketing in kind (MIK) 133–137
- market realities 171–172
- market research 3, 103–105, 213–214
- Maruti 166–167
- measurement 95–117
 - active phase 96–97
 - awareness 211–213
 - best practice 114–115
 - brand perceptions 213–214
 - impacts 99–101
 - increased sales 214–216
 - market research 103–105
 - multiple effects 107–115
 - planning 95–97
 - post investment 97
 - qualitative, visibility 207–208
 - quantitative, visibility 207
 - regularized reporting 115
 - renewal 216–217
 - ROI versus ROO 101–103
 - SMART objectives 97–101

- sponsors 95–117
- visibility 206–211
- media
 - exposure 110, 153–155, 208–211
 - proposal 187
 - value 158
- mentoring 141, 155
- merchandising 112, 155
- MIK see marketing in kind
- mobile telecoms brands 98
- money can't buy experiences 143–145
- Morgan Stanley 18
- Motocross World Championships 139
- motorcycle racing 139
- motorcycle safety 87–88
- motorsports 12, 14, 87–88, 139
- multinational mobile telecoms brands 98
- multiple effect measurement 107–115
- multiple markets 92
- music festivals 145–146
- mutual sponsorship 2

- need establishment 48–49
- negotiation 58–63
- network sales 110–112
- New Zealand All Blacks 144
- Nivea for men 13–14
- Nokia 131–133
- non-cash benefits 128–137
 - marketing in kind 133–137
 - value in kind 131–133

- O₂ 12–13, 86–87
- objectives 11
 - errors 68
 - implementation 77
 - SMART 97–101
- oil companies, Formula One 14
- Olympic games 8
- online media 155
- opportunities see strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats
- optimizing benefits packages 58–63
- outcomes 99–101, 204
- outputs 99–100, 204
- out-sourcing 23–26
- ownership 49, 90

- paralympic games 8
- partnership development 227–228
- people, as resources 75

- performance measures, contracts 65
- personalization of proposals 182–184
- perspectives 150–151, 198
- physical resources 75
- planning
 - assessment methodologies 52–58
 - competitor response 79–80
 - evaluation program 95–97
 - execution 80–89
 - implementation 71–77
 - integration 77–78
 - negotiation 58–63
 - rights-holders 22
 - selection criteria 49–51
 - selection errors 66–68
 - sponsors 20–21, 47–69
- policy 39–40
- portfolio audit matrix 40–41
- portfolio audits
 - establishing need 48–49
 - strategy 40–41
- Powerleague five-a-side football centers 13
- practical parameters 51
- precious metal fatigue 163
- presentation
 - personalization 182–184
 - proposals 180–192
 - summary proposal 181–184
- presenting sponsorships 168
- prioritization 80
- product placement 3, 155
- pro forma contracts 65
- proposals 180–192
 - benefits 188–189
 - checklist 189–190
 - full 184–189
 - key rights 187–188
 - personalization 182–184
 - summary 181–184
 - value 189
- purchasable benefits 158

- qualitative judgements 57–58
- qualitative research 104–107, 207–208
- quantitative research 104–107, 207
- Quantum of Solace 136–137

- reaching employees 84, 155
- recession 225–231
 - change catalysis 227–229
- regional sponsors 164–165

- regulation of contracts 63–64
- renewal 95–117, 197–221
 - errors 116
 - evaluation 216–217
- research 174–179
 - cold calling 176–179
 - decision maker analysis 175–176
 - properties 52
 - trigger events 179
- resources
 - activation 219–220
 - financial 73–74, 81, 90, 156, 194–195
 - implementation 73–75
 - in-sourcing versus out-sourcing 23–26
 - people 75
 - physical 75
 - rights-holders 125–126
 - strategy discovery 33
- return on investment (ROI) 51, 101–103, 202–203
- return on objectives (ROO) 51, 101–103, 202–203
- reviewing
 - awareness 211–213
 - consumer reactions 91–92
 - five questions 204–217
 - resources 125–126
 - rights-holders 22–23
 - sponsors 20–21, 200–217
 - strategy 43–44
 - visibility 206–211
- rights acquisition 58–63
- rights-holders 19–20, 50, 119–219
 - asset checklist tool 153–155
 - assets 124–125, 151–155, 157–161
 - benchmarks 156
 - budget 156
 - closing sales 192–195
 - elevator pitches 191
 - enabling communication 137–138
 - execution 22
 - future perspectives 230–231
 - historical review 123–124
 - impacts 157–156
 - intangible assets 160–161
 - internal changes 129–130
 - mentoring 141
 - negotiation 58–63
 - partnership development 227–228
 - perspectives 198
 - pricing 191–192
 - proposals 180–192
 - checklist 189–190
 - full 184–189
 - summary 181–184
 - purchasable benefits 156
 - research 174–179
 - resources 125–126
 - reviewing 22–23, 197–217
 - risks 129–130
 - sales 149–196
 - closing 192–195
 - preparation 149–169
 - price setting 161–162
 - process 171–196
 - proposals 180–192
 - servicing 197–221
 - sponsor flexibility 198–200
 - sponsor hierarchies 162–165
 - sponsor perspectives 122–123, 125, 137, 150–151
 - strategy 21–22, 121–169
 - development 121–146
 - sales 149–169
 - tangible assets 159–160
 - target audiences 137
 - valuation 156–161
 - rights segmentation 164–165
- ringfencing 81
- risks
 - aversion 226
 - rights-holders 129–130
 - sharing 162, 195
- ROI see return on investment
- ROO see return on objectives
- rowing 15
- rugby 9, 143–144
- sailing 134–135
- sales
 - closing 192–195
 - elevator pitches 191
 - preparation 149–169
 - asset organization 151–155
 - price setting 161–162
 - valuation 156–161
 - presentation 171–172
 - pricing 191–192
 - process 171–196
 - research 174–179

- sponsor products 214–216
 - strategy 172–174
 - tips 190–191
 - trigger events 179
- sales proposals 180–192
 - benefits 188–189
 - checklist 189–190
 - full 184–189
 - key rights 187–188
 - personalization 182–184
 - summary 181–184
 - value 189
- seekers see rights-holders
- segmentation of rights 164–165
- selection criteria 49–51
 - assessment methodologies 52–58
 - geographic footprint 49–50
 - gut feeling 58
 - practical parameters 51
 - qualitative judgements 57–58
 - weighted methodologies 54–57
- selection errors 66–68
- sensory experience 83–84
- service level agreements 65
- servicing 197–221
 - activation 219–220
 - common understanding 217
 - impact 203–204
 - importance 217–218
 - reviewing 200–217
 - value added 218–219
- sharing risk 162, 195
- shoes, ECCO 32
- Siemens 15, 44–45
- six step approach 29–46
- SMART objectives 97–101, 204
- social evolution 5
- Social media 2, 155, 174, 188, 199, 205, 215–216, 220, 228–229, 232
- Spatone 89
- specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, timebound (SMART) objectives 97–101, 204
- spending on global sponsorship rights 4
- sponsor hierarchies 162–165
- sponsors 19, 27–117
 - associated sales 214–216
 - authentic activation 228–229
 - common understanding 78–79
 - competitor response 79–80
 - contracting 63–66
 - co-sponsors 92–93
 - decision makers 175–176
 - establishing need 48–49
 - evaluation 52–58, 95–117
 - execution 20–21
 - flexibility 198–200
 - frustration 172
 - future perspectives 229–230
 - implementation 71–93
 - challenges and solutions 89–93
 - channels 75–77
 - competitor response 79–80
 - execution 80–89
 - resources 73–75
 - internal best practice 114–115
 - market research 103–105
 - mentoring 141
 - needs 122–123, 125, 140–141, 164–165
 - negotiation 58–63
 - partnership development 227–228
 - perspectives 198
 - planning 20–21, 47–69
 - point of view 150–151
 - presenting 168
 - process 20–21
 - renewal errors 116
 - reviewing 20–21, 200–217
 - five questions 204–217
 - rights-holder perspectives 133
 - ROI versus ROO 101–103
 - selection criteria 49–51
 - strategy 20–21, 29–46
 - title 166–168
 - top industries 173
- sponsorship assets see assets
- sponsorship impacts see impacts
- sponsorship property 9
- sponsorship pyramid 204–206
- sports 8–16, 98, 163–167
 - British Superbikes 87–88
 - cricket 166–167
 - FIFA World Cup 163–165
 - football 163–165
 - golf 167
 - motorsports 12, 14
 - olympic/paralympic games 8
 - rowing 15
 - rugby 9, 143–144
 - sailing 134–135

- strategy
 - available resources 33
 - business focus 31–32
 - development 34–40, 121–146
 - discovery 30–34
 - external perspective 33–34
 - future perspectives 227–231
 - historical review 123–124
 - implementation 43
 - internal environment 31–33
 - planning process 47–69
 - policy 39–40
 - portfolio audits 40–41
 - reviewing 43–44
 - rights-holders 21–22, 121–169
 - sales 172–174
 - six step approach 29–46
 - sponsors 20–21, 29–46
 - stress-testing 42–43
 - timing 33
- strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats (SWOT) analysis 50
- stress-testing 42–43
- success, key factors 127
- summary proposals 182–184
- superbikes 87–88
- SWOT see strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats
- tangible assets
 - concepts 16, 159–160
 - implementation 72–73
- target audiences 10, 35, 137, 153–155, 186
 - financial services brands 37–38
 - implementation 77
- target groups 125
- technological revolution 6
- technology revolution 209–211
- Telecom 144
- telecommunications companies 12–13, 98, 131–133, 144
- themes 35
- The O2 86–87
- Think! campaign 87–88
- threats see strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats
- timeframes 51
- timing
 - contracts 64–65
 - evaluation 99
 - strategy development 33
- title sponsorships 166–168
- tone of voice 228
- top sponsoring industries 173
- trigger events 179
- UNESCO 141
- validation research 51
- valuation 156–161, 189
- value added 218–219
- value in kind 131–133
- V charity 142–143
- venue use 154
- visibility 206–211
- Vodafone 12
- weaknesses see strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats
- websites 155
- weighted selection criteria 54–57
- world cups
 - cricket 166–167
 - FIFA 163–165
- World Wildlife Fund 131–133
- youth volunteering 142–143

Compiled by Indexing Specialists (UK) Ltd