

Contents

Table of Cases	ix
Table of Legislation	xv

1. THE CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH AFRICA: CONTEXT AND HISTORY	1
I. Introduction: A Constitution in Context	1
II. History	6
III. Political Context	17
IV. Conclusion: Context, Continuity and the Problem of Path Dependency	21
Further Reading	22
2. DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION	23
I. Introduction	23
II. Negotiating the 1993 Interim Constitution	29
III. The Role of Law in the Democratic Transition	32
IV. The Practice of Transitional Law	38
V. Conclusion: Transitional Law, Democratization and Justice Further Reading	41
	43
3. SOURCES OF THE CONSTITUTION	45
I. Introduction	45
II. Constitution-Making and the Constitutional Assembly	46
III. Legacies, Legal Traditions and the Limits of Path Dependency	59
IV. Text and Legal Interpretation	72
V. Conclusion	82
Further Reading	83
4. CONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLES	85
I. Introduction	85
II. Constitutional Principles	86

III. Constitutional Principles in The Constitutional Court	93
IV. Constitutional Principles in Practice	100
V. Founding Principles, Basic Structure and the Future	107
VI. Conclusion	110
Further Reading	111
5. THE BILL OF RIGHTS	113
I. Introduction	113
II. Constitutional Rights	115
III. Interpreting the Bill Of Rights	119
IV. The Bill Of Rights within the Frame of Dignity, Equality and Freedom	127
V. Socio-Economic Rights	132
VI. Bill Of Rights, Rule of Law and States of Emergency	146
VII. Conclusion: Pursuing Rights in A Land of Vast Inequalities	149
Further Reading	151
6. PARLIAMENTARY DEMOCRACY	153
I. Introduction	153
II. Electoral System, Political Rights and the Formation of Government	156
III. Parliament as Law-Giver	167
IV. Parliament As Watchdog	173
V. Conclusion: Democratic Participation and the Challenge of Post-Apartheid Democracy	181
Further Reading	185
7. EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT	187
I. Introduction	187
II. The President	192
III. Cabinet Government	205
IV. Governing Principles, Independent Institutions and Executive Governance	208
V. Conclusion	221
Further Reading	222

8. CONSTITUTIONAL ROLE OF THE COURTS	223
I. Introduction	223
II. Historical Context	225
III. Creation of the Constitutional Court	230
IV. Strategic Engagement and Judicial Pragmatism	242
V. Conclusion: Rights, Politics and the Margins of Judicial Power	246
Further Reading	249
9. CO-OPERATIVE GOVERNMENT, REGIONALISM AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT	251
I. Introduction	251
II. Origins and Principles of Co-Operative Government	255
III. Interpretation of Regional and Concurrent Powers	259
IV. Local Government and Service Delivery	265
V. Conclusion	282
Further Reading	284
10. THE CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH AFRICA: FACING THE FUTURE	285
I. Introduction	285
II. Legacies of Inequality	286
III. The Future of Rights	293
IV. Democracy	297
V. Conclusion	300
Index	301