

Index

80-20 Rule, 162

A

Abitibi-Consolidated, 143–144, 150, 151

Absorption, 16

Acceptance, 86

Acculturation. See culture

Acculturative conflict and stress, 94.

See also culture

Acquired CEOs: dealing with, 96–97

Acquired mind-set, 85–86

Acquisitions, 12; Cisco's five rules for, 59–61. See also M&A

Adaptation: to changing circumstances, 60–61; psychology of, 22–23; timing of, 245–246

AdMob, 10

AHG. See Pfizer

Alcatel, 237

Amoco, 81–82

Anger, 86

Anxiety, 94

Apollo, 194–195

Ashkenas, Ronald, 317

AT&T, 12

B

Bargaining, 86

Behavior: modeling new behaviors, 255–256

Ben & Jerry's, 23–27, 61

Best Foods, 260–264

Best of both, 16–17

Best practices, 44–51

Blumenthal, W. Michael, 112–113, 122, 126–127

Boeing, 149–150, 193

BOHICA, 22

Bolman, Lee, 190

Bossidy, Larry, 22

Boston Scientific, 11–12

Bower, Joseph, 327

Bowick, Susan, 185, 277

BP. See British Petroleum

Branding the combination, 240–241

Braun, Harald, 211

British Petroleum, 81–82

Buffet, Warren, 9

Building an internal M&A shop, 320–325

Burgelman, Robert, 277–278, 279

Burroughs, 112–113, 126–127, 241

Buyer mind-set, 84–85

C

Capabilities transfer, 10

Cartwright, Sue, 13–14

Cary, Jim, 144, 145

CEOs: CEO address, 130–131; dealing with acquired CEOs, 96–97; ego, 63; picking the wrong executive, 266–268; Ten Commandments of Combination Leadership, 119–121

Challenge sessions and reviews, 160–161

Chambers, John, 59–61, 115

Change: change fatigue, 20; stages of, 21–22

- Changing, 21–22
- Chase Manhattan Bank, 182
- Chemical Bank, 182
- Chen, Steve, 116
- Cisco: building an internal M&A shop, 321–323; five rules for acquisitions, 59–61
- Clarke, Jeff, 276
- Clarkson, William M.E., 110–112, 128
- Combination checklist, 215–217
- Combination forms, 12–19
- Combination management:
 - building a competence in, 325–327; culture, 48–49;
 - four truths about, 51–52;
 - organization, 48; people, 48;
 - strategy, 47; transition management, 49
- Combination phase, 38–39;
 - CEO's Ten Commandments of Combination Leadership, 119–121; complications, 107–108;
 - leadership tasks during, 114–115;
 - phases the combination process, 138–139; principles for the transition, 121–123; prioritizing combination issues, 136; tracking, 298–306. See also culture clash; leading the combination; transition management; transition structures
- Combinations. See corporate combinations
- Commitment: vs. stress, 165
- Common interests, 87
- Communication campaign,
 - 171–172; content, 172–174;
 - processes, 174–175; regular updates, 175–176; upward communication, 187
- Compaq, 8, 185–187, 275–279
- Complementary organization changes, 238
- Complementary skills, 87
- Confidence: developing in a new team, 255–256
- Conglomerate mergers, 31
- Cooper, Cary, 13–14
- Cooperative competitiveness, 87
- Coordination group, 139
- CoreBrand, 12
- Corporate combinations: current wave of, 32–34; forms, 12–19; and globalization, 32; history of, 30–32; phases of, 35–40; rate of failure, 3; reasons for failure, 3–4; vertical combinations, 30–31
- Corporate social responsibility, 27
- Corporate staff hegemony, 38
- Cost synergies, 7–8
- Counseling, 177–179
- Critical success factors, 118
- Cross-cultural surveys, 70–72
- Cross-functional relations, 228–232
- Cross-national culture clashes, 211–214
- Cross-unit needs, 229–230
- CSFs. See critical success factors
- CSR. See corporate social responsibility
- Cultural end state, 78
- Culture: addressing identity and acculturation, 187–188; combination management, 48–49; in combinations, 189–191; combining cultures, 14–17; cross-cultural surveys, 70–72; cultural assimilation, 209–210; cultural clash, 25–26; cultural differences and combination outcomes, 18; cultural fit, 17–19; cultural integration, 207–209; cultural pluralism, 205–207; cultural transformation, 210–211; Denison culture model, 70, 71; postcombination management, 50–51; precombination management, 46–47; reculturation, 23; at the working level, 238–239. See also culture clash

Culture building, 232–233;
acculturation by default, 234–235; acculturation by design, 235; in cross-national combinations, 235–237; culture training, 239–240; keeping the old ways, 233–234; leverage for, 237–240

Culture clash, 191; cross-national culture clashes, 211–214; culture clarification exercises, 200–202; deepening cross-cultural learning, 199–202; defining a desired cultural end state, 197–199; driving the combination toward the desired end, 205–211; losing and winning, 193; managing culture change, 196; multiple modes of acculturation, 198–199; pacing the combination with cultural sensitivity, 202–205; stages of, 191–192; “The Stepford Wives”
vs. the “Hell’s Angels”, 194–195.
See also culture

Customers: tracking, 310–311

D

Daimler-Chrysler, 8, 38–39

Damage control and recovery, 265–266; four elements of damage control, 269; picking the wrong executive, 266–268;
redirecting a combination,
275–279; stuck in transition,
268–275

Davé, Hemang, 158

Deal, Terrence, 190

Deep cross-cultural learning, 199–202

Dell, Michael, 276

Delta Airlines, 29

Denial, 86

Denison, Dan, 70

Denison culture model, 70, 71

Depression, 86

Disney, 13

Disposal of idle assets, 7

Diversity: managing, 256

Divestiture: preparing people for, 100–103

Dow, 62

Downsizing, 7, 183–184. See also
workforce reductions

Dozen don’ts for doing a deal, 64–65

Due diligence, 3, 66–68; behavioral and cultural, 69–70; diligent due diligence, 68–69

E

Ego: of CEOs, 63

Electronic Art, 10

Eli Lilly, 62

Emotional reactions, 93–94;
managing emotions, 176–180

Empathy, 133, 269–271

Employees: connecting to, 99; downsizing, 7, 183–184; the human side of M&A, 19–27;
maintaining morale, 184–185;
retention, 94–96; speaking to, 129–134; staffing and redundancies, 180–185; surveys of, 291; workforce reductions, 186–187

End states, 15–17, 72, 77–78;
defining a desired cultural end state, 197–199; driving the combination toward the desired end, 205–211; no shared view of desired end state, 308

Energy, 269, 272–274

Enforcement, 269, 274–275

Engagement, 269, 271–272

Equity, 94

Exit interviews, 292

F

Fatigue, 223–224; change fatigue, 20

Feedback, 279–280

Feldman, Mark, 310

Financial services combinations:
 tracking, 296–307
 Fiorina, Carly, 276, 278
 Fisher-Price, 241
 Focus, 224
 Focus groups, 291–292
 Freese, Walt, 26, 280
 Funds, 224–225

G

GE Capital, 69–70, 318. See also
 General Electric
 General Electric, 22, 209–210.
 See also GE Capital
 Gerstner, Lou, 206
 Ghosn, Carlos, 39
 Gillette, 9, 207–209
 Gladwell, Malcolm, 238
 Global cross-currents, 33
 Globalization: and corporate combinations, 32
 Google, 10, 116
 Goulet, Philip, 199–200
 Graphic Controls, 110–112, 128
 Groupthink, 42
 Growth bets, 35
 Guidant, 11–12
 Gunning, Louis W. “Tex”, 261
 Gut check, 62–63

H

Handy, John, 85
 Harris Microwave, 210–211
 Haspeslagh, Philippe, 7–8 Health care: search criteria for health care deals, 66
 Hewlett, Walter, 276
 Hewlett-Packard, 8, 185–187, 194–195, 275–279
 Hexcel, 117–118
 Hierarchy, 139
 Hill, N. Sharon, 93
 Hindalco, 318–320
 Human costs, 4
 Human reactions to combinations, 90–94

Human resources: merger response plan, 100, 101; merging HR departments, 185–188
 Hurd, Mark, 278–280
 Hurley, Chad, 116

I

IBM, 147, 158–159, 205–207
 Identity, 187–188
 Implementation planning, 162–163
 Independent planning, 138
 Industry benchmarks, 292
 Industry overcapacity, 34
 Industry roll-up, 34–35
 Industry transformation, 35 Influencers, 238
 Informal conversation, 292
 Information, 167, 170
 Informed management, 287–288
 Insecurity, 94
 Insight, 167–169
 Inspiration, 167, 169–170
 Integration: accelerating, 186–187; degree of between combining companies, 73–75; operational vs. strategic, 277–278; speed of, 134–136; for synergies, 75–77
 Integration manager, 139–140
 Integration planning, 138
 Integration steering committee
 (ISC), 141, 143–144, 160–161
 Integration team sponsors, 142 Integration teams, 142; unproductive, 309. See also transition teams
 Interactions, 239; reinforcing, 237 International combinations:
 cross-national culture clashes,
 211–214; culture building in, 235–237; transforming an Asian leadership team, 260–264
 Interviews, 291
 Involvement, 167, 170–171
 ISC. See integration steering committee (ISC)

J

Janis, Irving, 42
Jemison, David, 7–8
Joint ventures, 12
Justice, 94
JV. See joint ventures

K

Kitchen cabinet, 139
Knowing what is going on, 287–288
Knowledge building, 140, 156–157
Knowledge transfer, 10
Kovacevich, Richard (Dick),
64–65
Kübler-Ross, Elisabeth, 86
Kumar, Nirmalya, 319

L

Leadership alignment, 237
Leadership team, 123–129
Leading the combination, 109–110;
CEO's Ten Commandments
of Combination Leadership, 119–121; exemplary leadership, 110–114; leadership tasks in combination phase, 114–115;
principles for the transition, 121–123; selecting and developing the leadership team, 123–129; speaking to employees,
129–134; speed of integration, 134–136; vision for the combination, 115–118
Learning from M&A, 313–317
Leaver, William Hesketh, 25
Lessons learned from a successful
combination, 315–316
Levinson, Harry, 23
Lewin, Kurt, 21–22
Licensing, 12
Linksys, 60
Lockheed Martin, 117 LOHAS (Lifestyles of Health and Sustainability) market, 61
Loss of attachments, 94
Loss of identity or membership, 94

Lotus, 147, 158–159, 205–207
Lucent, 237

M

M&A: action stages, 317–318; building a core competency in
combination management, 317–320; building an internal M&A shop, 320–325; building competency, 285–286, 312–313;
emotional reactions, 93–94;
gaining experience through, 318–320; human side of, 19–27; learning, 313–317; levels of competency, 313–325; scale and scope, 5–6; strategic intent for,
61–63; synergies, 6–12
Malekzadeh, Ali, 197
Managed subsidiary, 74 Managers: focusing and prioritizing executive attention, 135–136; getting managers ready for their speech, 131–132; rallying the ranks, 132–134; when to make appointments, 125–128
Manufacturer's Hanover, 182
Manzy, Jim, 206
Marriage: comparing corporate combinations to, 13–14
Mattel, 241
McKinnel, Hank, 182
Media, 292
Meetings, 239
Megamergers, 31
“Merganic” strategy, 4
Merged and consolidated, 74–75
Merger Survey, 299–304 Merger Syndrome, 40, 309; cultural signs of, 43–44; organizational signs of, 42–43; personal signs of, 41–42; renewed, 219
Mergers, 12; conglomerate mergers, 31; megamergers, 31; principles for merging, 122–123. See also
M&A
Mergers and acquisitions. See M&A

Meritocracy, 122
 Merrifield, Tim, 60
 Middle managers: role of, 97–98
 Mind-sets: of the acquired, 85–86; of the buyer, 84–85; combination mind-sets, 84; engaging minds, 87–90; partnering mind-sets,
 86–87; postcombination, 248–251
 Montero, Sylvia, 144, 145
 Morale: maintaining, 184–185
 Morton, Dean, 279

N

Nadler, David, 80
 Nahavandi, Afsaneh, 197
 Nissan, 8, 39
 North American Rockwell, 149–150, 193
 Northwest Airlines, 29–30
 Novelis, 319–320

O

Observation, 292
 Operating relationship, 73–77
 Operational control, 74 Organization: combination management, 48;
 postcombination management,
 50; precombination
 management, 46
 Organizational end state, 78

P

Papows, Jeffrey, 296
 Parameters, 58, 72–78
 Parenting abilities, 76
 Partner, 3, 58, 66–72
 Partnering mind-sets, 86–87
 Partnership, 122
 Peers: power of, 238
 People, 58, 78–79; combination management, 48; ensuring that people matter, 327–328;
 postcombination management,
 50; precombination
 management, 46

Performance: managing, 256
 Performance records, 292
 Pfizer, 8, 144–147, 154, 182–183,
 198–199, 226–228, 229–230
 Pixar, 13
 Planning, 4
 Platt, Lew, 279
 Play: using to surface merger issues,
 176–177
 Playfish, 10
 Policies: integrating, 230–232
 Postcombination checklist, 281–283
 Postcombination management:
 culture, 50–51; organization, 50;
 people, 50; strategy, 49–50;
 transition management, 51
 Postcombination phase, 39–40, 223–225; branding the combination, 240–241; building
 cross functional relations, 228–232; building the postcombination organization, 225–228; clarifying cross-unit needs, 229–230; common problems, 219–221; culture building, 232–240; developing effective postcombination teams, 256–260; meshing policies and practices, 230–232;
 postcombination mind-sets, 248–251; teambuilding, 242–248; tracking, 306–307. See also
 damage control and recovery
 Precombination checklist, 104–106
 Precombination management:
 culture, 46–47; organization, 46;
 people, 46; strategy, 44–46;
 transition management, 47
 Precombination phase, 36–37; challenges, 94–99; common problems, 53–54; planning during, 81–82; tracking, 297–298. See also psychological preparation; strategic and operational preparation

Preparation: preparing people for divestiture, 100–103;
preparing to be acquired, 100;
on the seller's side, 99–103.
See also psychological preparation; strategic and
operational preparation;
strategic and psychological preparation
Preservation, 16
Price, 3
Private equity, 33
Process improvement, 158–159
Proctor & Gamble, 9, 207–209
Product/market consolidation, 35
Product/market extension, 35
Psychological preparation, 83;
combination mind-sets, 84–87
Psychology of adaptation, 22–23
Purpose, 58, 61–66
Put-downs, 192

R

Raiders, 31–32
Randall, Lyman, 111
Reculturation, 23
Redirecting a combination,
275–279
Redundancies, 180–185
Refreezing, 22
Relationship building, 141, 157–158
Renault, 8, 39
Repurposing a business unit, 227–228
Resource combinations, 8–9
Revenue enhancement, 9
Reverse takeover, 16
Reviews of change implementation, 227
Reward systems, 187
Role development, 253–254
Role reversal, 89–90
Rules of engagement, 123

S

Sales staff: managing, 98–99
SBC Global, 12
Schmidt, Eric, 116
Schweiger, David, 199–200
Screening. See due diligence
Seagrams Spirits and Wine Group, 100–103
Search criteria, 63; dozen don'ts for doing a deal, 64–65; for health care deals, 66
Sensitization, 176–180; workshops,
88–90
Seo, Myeong-Gu, 93
Separate holding company, 74
Settings, 239
Showers, Marilyn, 80
Showstoppers, 80–81
SmithKline Beecham, 144–147, 226–228
Social entrepreneurs, 24
Sovereign states, 33
Sperry, 112, 126–127, 241
Staffing and redundancies, 180–185
Stages of reaction to death and loss, 86 Stereotypes, 192
Stern, Paul, 127
Storyline: for the combination, 116–118
Strategic alliances, 12
Strategic and operational preparation, 57–58; Four P's of preparation, 58; parameters, 58, 72–78; partner, 58, 66–72;
people, 58, 78–79; purpose, 58, 61–66
Strategic and psychological preparation, 21. See also psychological preparation
Strategic control, 74
Strategic end state, 77–78
Strategy: combination management,
47; postcombination management,
49–50; precombination
management, 44–46

Stratex Networks, 210–211
 Stress: vs. commitment, 165; factors adding to stress, 92–93; reasons for stress due to combinations, 91–92
 Stuck in transition, 268–275
 Support, 177–179
 Surfacing merger issues, 176–177
 Surveys: of employees, 291; Merger
 Survey, 299–304
 Survivor guilt, 20. See also employees
 Synergies: cost, 7–8; integrating for, 75–77; new knowledge and capabilities, 10; resource combinations, 8–9; revenue enhancement, 9; searching for,
 10–12; seeking, 33–34

T

Talent: retaining, 94–95
 Team advisors, 142
 Team development, 128–129
 Team facilitators, 142
 Team leaders, 142
 Teambuilding: developing effective, postcombination teams, 256–260;
 developing trust and confidence, 255–256; molding individuals into a team, 251–256; postcombination, 242–248; role development, 253–254; sources of tension in building new teams, 250–251; stages in building a new team, 252;
 team effectiveness framework, 257–258; transforming an Asian leadership team, 260–264
 Ten Commandments of Combination Leadership,
 119–121
 Thompson, John, 206
 Times-Mirror, 110–112
 Tipping point, 238

Top-level oversight, 226–227
 Tracking the combination:
 after-action review, 307–310;
 benefits of combination tracking,
 288–290; combination phase
 measurement, 298–306;
 gathering action-oriented data, 295; guidelines, 295–296;
 knowing what is going on,
 287–288; methods, 291–292;
 postcombination measurement,
 306–307; precombination
 measurement, 297–298;
 resistance to tracking, 290–291;
 tracking customers, 310–311;
 tracking financial services
 combinations, 296–307;
 what to monitor and how,
 292–294
 Transformation, 17. See also industry transformation
 Transition management, 20–23,
 57–58, 141, 164; activities,
 138–139; combination management, 49; communication campaign, 171–176; managing emotions, 176–180; managing front-end fears, 166–171;
 postcombination management,
 51; precombination
 management, 47; principles for the transition, 121–123; stress vs. commitment, 165;
 stuck in transition, 268–275
 Transition managers, 142, 144–147
 Transition organization, 140;
 components of, 141–148; sample, 142
 Transition planning, 138–139, 162–163
 Transition structures, 137, 139–141; benefits, 148–149; components of a transition organization, 141–148

Transition teams, 147–148;
 accelerating the work of, 156–159; challenge sessions and reviews, 160–161; clarifying team charters and guidelines, 152–153; cross-team
 coordination, 159–160;
 deliverables and timetables, 153–155; enhancing the effectiveness of, 149–161;
 internal processes, 150;
 issue-identification and decision-making process, 150;
 looking outside the box, 161–162; minding relations with the rest of the organization, 151; organizing around value creation, 149–150; resistance to the process, 154–155; selecting skilled members and leaders, 151–152. See also integration teams

Trust, 86; developing in a new team, 255–256

U

UBF Asia, 261–264

Unfreezing, 21

Unilever, 23–27, 61, 260–264

Unity, 122

Upward communication, 187

V

Value capture, 7–8

Values: buying, 24–25; creating, 6

Vermeulen, Freek, 77

Vertical combinations, 30–31

Vision for the combination, 115–118

W

Walking the talk, 179–180

Warner-Lambert, 8–9, 182–183, 198–199

Web sites, 292

Wells Fargo, 64

Work processes, 239

Workforce reductions, 186–187.

See also downsizing

Y

Young, John, 279

YouTube, 116

Z

Zisman, Michael, 206

<http://www.pbookshop.com>