

Contents

List of Exhibits xv

About the Author xix

About the Contributing Authors xxi

Foreword xxv

Preface xxvii

Acknowledgments xxix

1 Overview of Business Valuation Discounts and Premiums and the Bases to Which They Are Applied	1
Discounts and Premiums Are Big-Money Issues	2
“Entity Level” versus “Shareholder Level” Discounts and Premiums	3
How the Valuation Approaches Used Affect the Level of Value	8
Use of Public Company Data to Quantify Discounts and Premiums	9
How the Standard of Value Affects Discounts and Premiums	10
American Society of Appraisers Business Valuation Standard VII: Valuation Discounts and Premiums	12
Summary	13
2 Minority Discounts and Control Premiums	15
Relevant Definitions	15
Basic Minority/Control Value Relationship	16
Prerogatives of Control	17
Factors Affecting Degree of Control	18
How the Valuation Methodology Affects the Minority Discount or Control Premium	25
Do Publicly Traded Minority Stock Prices Reflect Control Value?	29
Treatment of Control Premiums in the Delaware Courts	35
How the Purpose of the Valuation Affects Minority Discounts or Control Premiums	37
Summary	38
3 Empirical Data Regarding Minority Discounts and Control Premiums	41
Premiums Paid in Acquisitions	41
Identifying Industries with Higher or Lower Control Premiums	62
Caveats Regarding Use of Control Premium Data	63
Are Control Premiums Too High?	65

Percentage Discounts from Net Asset Value 66
 Summary 66

4 Minority Discounts and Control Premiums in the Courts 68

Gift, Estate, and Income Tax Cases 70
 Discounts for Lack of Control in Employee Stock Ownership Plan Cases 74
 Dissenting Shareholder Cases 75
 Shareholder Oppression Cases 80
 Marital Dissolution Cases 80
 Bankruptcy Case 82
 Summary 82

5 Discounts for Lack of Marketability for Minority Interests:
 Concept and Evidence 86

Public Market Benchmark for Marketability 86
 Empirical Evidence to Quantify Discounts for Lack of Marketability 87
 Restricted Stock Studies 88
 Pre-Initial Public Offering Discount for Lack of Marketability Studies 90
 Courts' Aversion to "Benchmarking" 91
 Regulatory and Court Recognition of Empirical Marketability
 Discount Studies 92
 Summary 92

6 Synopsis of Restricted Stock Studies 95

Securities and Exchange Commission Institutional Investor Study 96
 Gelman Study 100
 Trout Study 100
 Moroney Study 101
 Maher Study 101
 Standard Research Consultants Study 101
 Silber Study 101
 FMV Opinions Study 103
 Management Planning Study 104
 Johnson Study 110
 Columbia Financial Advisors Study 110
 LiquiStat Database 111
 Summary 111

7 LiquiStat Database (Restricted Stocks, Options, Warrants, and Convertible Securities) 113

Restricted Stock as a Basis 114
 Biases Beyond Illiquidity in Traditional Restricted Stock Studies 114
 How LiquiStat Is Different 115
 Options and Warrants in LiquiStat 116
 Convertible Securities in LiquiStat 117
 Summary 117

Contents	ix
8 Blockage Discounts	118
Blockage Is Distinct from Restricted Stock	119
Factors to Analyze in Quantifying Blockage Discounts	119
Must Consider Ways of Selling Stock	122
“Price Pressure” and “Market Exposure”	122
Block Buyer Could Ameliorate Blockage Discount	122
Blockage Discounts Recognized in Estate and Gift Tax Regulations	123
Blockage Discounts in U.S. Tax Court	123
Financial Accounting Standards That May Affect Blockage Discounts	126
Blockage Discounts Used to Estimate Illiquidity Discounts	126
Summary	126
9 John Emory Pre-Initial Public Offering Discount for Lack of Marketability Studies—Complete Underlying Data	128
Study #1: Adjusted Study, January 1980–June 1981	129
Study #2: Adjusted Study, January 1985–June 1986	129
Study #3: Adjusted Study, August 1987–January 1989	130
Study #4: Adjusted Study, February 1989–July 1990	130
Study #5: Adjusted Study, August 1990–January 1992	130
Study #6: Adjusted Study, February 1992–July 1993	130
Study #7: Adjusted Study, January 1994–June 1995	131
Study #8: Adjusted Study, November 1995–April 1997	131
Study #9: Adjusted Study, Dot-Com Companies, May 1997–March 2000	131
Study #10: Adjusted Expanded Study, May 1997–December 2000	133
Summary	133
10 Valuation Advisors Discount for Lack of Marketability Study	182
Description of Study	182
Results of Study	184
Summary	185
11 Factors Affecting Discounts for Lack of Marketability for Minority Interests	186
Size of Distributions	187
Prospects for Liquidity	191
Pool of Potential Buyers	193
Risk Factors	194
Summary	198
12 Discounts for Lack of Marketability for Controlling Interests	200
Discounts for Lack of Marketability for Controlling Interests: A Controversial Concept	202
“Control, Marketable” Is an Oxymoron	202

Bases from Which Controlling Interest Discounts for Lack of Marketability May Be Deducted	202
Factors Affecting Controlling Interest Discounts for Lack of Marketability	204
Public versus Private Company Acquisition Multiples	207
Court Treatment of Controlling Interest Discounts for Lack of Marketability	210
Summary	211
13 The Quantitative Marketability Discount Model: A Shareholder Level DCF Model	213
Introduction	213
The Structure of the Shareholder Level DCF Model	214
A Visual Representation of the Shareholder Level DCF Model	217
Factors Contributing to Marketability Discounts	218
Summary	223
14 Marketability Discounts in the Courts—Minority Interests	225
Gift and Estate Tax Cases	227
Employee Stock Ownership Plan Case	231
Dissenting Shareholder Cases	232
Minority Oppression Cases	234
Marital Dissolution Cases	234
Summary	238
15 Marketability Discounts in the Courts—Controlling Interests	241
Gift and Estate Tax Cases	241
Marital Dissolution Cases	243
Summary	244
16 Voting versus Nonvoting Stock	245
Voting versus Nonvoting Stock Scenarios	245
Empirical Studies Show Little Differential for Small Minority Interests	246
Transactions Involving Premiums for Control Blocks	251
Court Cases Involving Voting versus Nonvoting Stock	251
Summary	258
17 Key Person Discounts and Premiums	260
Empirical Evidence Supports Key Person Discount	261
Internal Revenue Service Recognizes Key Person Discount	263
Factors to Consider in Analyzing the Key Person Discount	264
Quantifying the Magnitude of the Key Person Discount	265
U.S. Tax Court Cases Involving Key Person Discounts	266
Key Person Discounts in Marital Dissolutions	270
Key Person Discounts in Other Types of Cases	272
Summary	274

Contents	xi
18 Discounts for Trapped-In Capital Gains Taxes	276
Rationale for Trapped-In Capital Gains Tax Discount	277
“General Utilities Doctrine”	277
Tax Court Recognizes Trapped-In Capital Gains	278
Internal Revenue Service Acquiesces to Trapped-In Capital Gains Discount	279
Subsequent Tax Cases Regularly Recognize Trapped-In Capital Gains Tax Discount	280
Trapped-In Capital Gains in Dissenting Stockholder Actions	282
Trapped-In Capital Gains in Bankruptcy Court	283
Trapped-In Capital Gains Taxes in Marital Dissolutions	283
Treatment of Capital Gains Tax Liability	286
Treatment of Capital Gains Tax Liability in S Corporations	288
Summary	288
19 Nonhomogeneous Assets (“Portfolio”) Discounts	291
Portfolio Discount Principle	291
Empirical Evidence Supporting Portfolio Discounts	292
How to Value Companies with Disparate Portfolios	294
Quantifying the Portfolio Discount	295
Portfolio Discounts in the Courts	295
Summary	298
20 Discounts for Environmental, Litigation, and Other Contingent Liabilities	300
Concept of the Contingent Liability Discount	300
Financial Accounting Standard #5 May Provide Guidance in Quantifying Contingent Liabilities	301
Treatment of Contingencies in the U.S. Tax Court	301
Treatment of Contingencies in Marital Dissolution	304
Summary	304
21 Discount Adjustments for Limited Partnership Interests and Other Asset Management Entities	305
Introduction	307
Partnership Features	307
Other State Law and Regulatory Issues	308
Compliance with Federal Income Tax Regulations	308
Compliance with Federal Transfer Tax Regulations	309
Analysis of Ownership and Classes of Interests	309
Analysis of Underlying Adjusted Net Asset Value	310
Analysis of Income Capacity Value	310
Valuation of Noncontrolling Entity Interests	311
Discounts for Lack of Control and Marketability	313
Court Cases Regarding Limited Partnership Values	315
Summary	321

22 Adjusting Values for Differences in Size	323
Income Approach	323
Market Approach	325
Criticisms of the Size Premium	329
Court Cases Involving the Size Premium	329
Summary	334
Sources of Additional Data	334
23 Discounts and Premiums in ESOP Valuations	337
ESOP Definition, Types, and Benefits	337
“Adequate Consideration” for ESOP Valuation Purposes	338
Control Premiums in ESOP Valuations	339
Discounts for Lack of Marketability in ESOP Valuations	339
ESOP Court Cases	340
Summary	344
24 Discounts and Premiums in Divorce Disputes	345
Control Premiums in Divorce	345
Discounts for Lack of Marketability in Divorce	345
Discounts for Lack of Voting Rights in Divorce	346
Key Person Discounts in Divorce	346
The Effective Discount for Personal Goodwill in Divorce	346
Active versus Passive Appreciation	347
Summary	347
25 Discounts and Premiums in Corporate and Partnership Dissolution and Oppression Cases	349
Dissolution for Shareholder (Partner) Oppression	349
Discounts	351
California Oppression Cases	357
Delaware’s Approach	359
Summary	360
26 Discounts and Premiums in Fair Value for Financial Reporting	362
Introduction	362
Fair Value of Reporting Units	363
Fair Value of Share-Based Compensation	369
Summary	371
Additional Reading	371
27 Premium and Discount Issues in Undivided Interest Valuations	372
Description and Characteristics of Undivided Interests	373
Appraisal of Assets in Fee-Simple Interest	376
Factors Affecting the Value of an Undivided Interest	379

Contentsxiii

Valuation Adjustments for Undivided Interests	381
Court Decisions Related to Undivided Interest Discounts	389
Summary	395

28 Common Errors in Applying Discounts and Premiums 397

Using Synergistic Acquisition Premiums to Quantify Premiums for Control	398
Assuming That the Discounted Cash Flow Valuation Method Always Produces a Minority Value	398
Assuming That the Guideline Public Company Method Always Produces a Minority Value	398
Valuing Underlying Assets Rather Than Stock or Partnership Interests	399
Using Minority Interest Marketability Discount Data to Quantify Marketability Discounts for Controlling Interests	399
Using Only Restricted Stock Studies (and Not Pre-Initial Public Offering Studies) as Benchmark for Discounts for Lack of Marketability	399
Inadequate Analysis of Relevant Factors	400
Indiscriminate Use of Average Discounts or Premiums	400
Applying (or Omitting) a Premium or Discount Inappropriately for the Legal Context	400
Applying Discounts or Premiums to the Entire Capital Structure Rather than Only to Equity	401
Quantifying Discounts or Premiums Based on Past Court Cases	401
Using an Asset Appraiser to Quantify Discounts or Premiums for Stock or Partnership Interests	401
Summary	401

Appendix A Bibliography 403

Books	403
Articles	404
Periodicals	407

Appendix B Data Resources 410

Control Premiums/Minority Discounts	410
Discounts for Lack of Marketability	410
Discounts from Net Asset Value for Limited Partnership Interests	412
Discounts from Net Asset Value for REITs and REOCs	413
Discounts from Net Asset Value for Closed-End Investment Funds	413
Discount and Capitalization Rates	414

Appendix C How Much Can Marketability Affect Security Values? 416

I. The Framework	417
II. The Upper Bound	418
III. A Comparison	420
IV. Conclusion	422
References	422

Appendix D Internal Revenue Service Revenue Ruling 77-287	424
Section 1. Purpose	424
Sec. 2. Nature of the Problem	424
Sec. 3. Background and Definitions	424
Sec. 4. Securities Industry Practice in Valuing Restricted Securities	425
Sec. 5. Facts and Circumstances Material to Valuation of Restricted Securities	427
Sec. 6. Weighing Facts and Circumstances Material to Restricted Stock Valuation	428
Sec. 7. Effect on Other Documents	429
Appendix E Securities and Exchange Commission Rules 144 and 144A	430
History	442
Appendix F Table of Cases	448
Index	455

<http://www.pbookshop.com>