

Contents

Foreword	xi
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introducing the Next Step: Navigating New Media	1
This Book's Setup	3
This Book Is Alive	13
Chapter 1 Mastering Digital Innovation: The Role of Digital and New Media on Innovation and Commercialization	15
Breaking It Down: The Key Words Are 'Exceptional,' 'Value,' and 'Listening'	16
Risky Business: Focusing on Failure Drives Failure	16
The Open Innovation Myth: No Initiative Can Defeat a Closed Culture	17
Jumping In with Both Feet: Digital Innovators Must Become Experts	17
A Walk through Your Digital Customer Community	18
A Social Revolution: People Are Talking All the Time, All Over	20
The Exceptional Layer: Defining Value Layer by Layer	21
Criminal Behavior: Digital Disposes of Every Level below Exceptional	22
How You Can Become Exceptional: Manage Your Culture to Become a Listener	23
Are You Trapped in Analog? Comparing Digital Socialists to Digital Capitalists	24
Communication—The Key to Everything	25
Full-Duplex Dialogue Takes the Win	26

vi Contents

Digital Innovation Best Practices: Commanding the Digital World	26
Creating Your Platform: Defining Wants Provides Filter Backdrop	28
Value Layered Innovation: Invent at Each Point of Contact	28
Chapter 2 The Digital Sandbox: Play, Listen, Invent, and Deploy for a Successful Strategy	31
A Walk through the Future of Mobile Technology: More and More Smart Connections	34
Blogs: The Foundation for the Social Web	37
Learning to Listen with Radian6: Helping Companies Communicate and Deploy	39
Conversations: A Previously Untapped Resource, But Are You Listening?	41
The Sandbox Mentality: Learning to Play, Listen, Invent, and Deploy	42
Playing Nice in the Sandbox: Be Aware and Share the Space	43
Giving Employees a Voice: Sharing the Brand to Make It Stronger	44
Learning New Communication: Traditional Media No More	44
A Paradigm Shift: From Listening to Engagement	45
The New Digital Multipliers: Real People Create Real Loyalty	45
Gaining Customer Credit by Being in the Conversation, Not Just Problem Solving	46
A Theory of Relativity: Weighing “What You Get” versus “What You Expected”	47
No. 251?! No More Lines	47
A Social Shift in Customer Service: Cost Effective with Power Going to the People	48
Chapter 3 The Digital Enterprise: Harnessing Social Media Intelligence, Smartly	51
The Spigit Community	52
A “Gap” in Judgment: Followers Cry Out for Old Logo	55
Cisco Looks to the Public: Widening the Idea Net	55

	Contents	vii
AAA Looks to Gen Y: Spigit Creates Innovation Community		56
A Need to Stand Out: Veridian Credit Union Pulls in Collective Intelligence of Employees on the Front Lines		57
Innovating with Collective Intelligence: Taking the Ideas and Running with Them		58
Chapter 4 The Digital Video Revolution: Digital Technology Gives Anyone the Ability to Make a Quality Television Show		61
Philip Nelson on NewTek: Revolutionizing Desktop Video		62
Chasing the Elusive Dollar: How Do Companies Monetize Their Video Efforts?		65
Video to Tell and Sell		67
Lasting Value Creates Durability		68
Taking It Live: Going Live Gets People to Plan to View		69
From Airwaves to the Screen: Radio Goes Digital		70
Live Streaming Expands Brand Potential: MTV and The Hills		71
Getting Behind the Velvet Ropes: People Like the Inside Scoop		72
The End of the Dorm Room Video: Video Makers Gain Credibility with the Advent of TV-Quality Production		72
Melding of the Screens: From Television to Cell Phones, It's All about the Content		75
The Next Five Years		76
Chapter 5 Flying High: An Open Culture Keeps an Airline Company on Top of the Competition		79
First Taste of Social Media: Video Series Ends, New Communications Begin		80
Content Controls: Editor Approves Comments with Moderation		81
An Open Culture: How Tough Is It Showing the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly?		82
Direct Line to Customers		83
Making Friends on Facebook		84
Responses for All: Yes, You'll Get Some Crazy's, But It's Important to Respond to Good and Bad		84

viii Contents

Putting in the Time: Listening and Understanding the Feedback	86
Keeping Up with the Changes; Southwest Finds a Natural Fit with Already-Open Culture of Communication	87
Lessons from Southwest	87
Video at Southwest: Vital Communication with Employees and Customers	88
The Pits: What to Avoid in the Social Media World	89
The Next Five Years: Keep Creating Content and Finding the Best Channels	90
Chapter 6 Picture Perfect Social Media: How Kodak Got Social Media Right	93
Finding a Digital Culture: Kodak Finds a Voice to Join the Conversations	95
Behind the Brand: Kodak Connects by Sharing Stories and Correcting Misconceptions	96
What Are the Opportunities, What's in It for Us, and How Do We Create Value for Them?	98
An Open, Active Ear: Kodak Staffs Chief Listener Position	100
Making Your Customers Blue: Recognizing Actionable Listening Moments	102
Active Listening: Air Traffic Controller for Those Insights	104
A Story with a Moral: Kodak Learns Fast Action and Personal Response Avert Disaster	106
The Flavors of Communication: Learn Which to Use and When	107
A Product That Stands on Its Own: Allowing the Community to Discuss Your Brand	107
A Matter of Trust	109
Chapter 7 The Army Way: Digital Leadership from a Surprising Source	111
Eye-Opener at Blog World	111
Hands Off! Let Go or Lose It All	114
"If It's Good Enough for the Army . . ."—Despite the Risks, the Military Creates a Real Community	115
Army Strong Stories: A Matter of Trust and Respect	118

Learning from the Army	123
A Learning Process	125
A Real Commitment to Communication: Openness Is the Driving Force behind Innovations	127
The Army Can, and You Can Too	127
Chapter 8 Winning the Digital Race: IndyCar Creates the Ultimate Brand Forum with Its Strategic Multimedia Approach	129
Developing an Online Persona: How the IZOD IndyCar Series Has Added Value for Their Fans through Social and Digital Media	130
Behind the Scenes: The IndyCar Blog	134
Making Friends: Facebook and IndyCar	135
A New Community: Flickr and IndyCar	136
More Streaming: Livestream and IndyCar	138
Speed Tweeting: Twitter and IndyCar	139
Eyes on Content: YouTube and IndyCar	140
Verizon and the IndyCar Mobile App	141
Talking Back to IndyCar.com	141
The Ultimate Fan Experience	142
The Conclusion to the IndyCar Story: Keeping Up with IndyCar Communities	144
Maximizing Innovation Potential	146
Chapter 9 Digital Direct: Innovation Commercialization through Digital Direct Marketing	147
Direct Response Marketing: Advertising's Measurable Cousin	147
DR to Branding: "We've Got Creative Differences"	148
The Internet and Digital DRM: Your Media Roadmap	150
Using the Internet to Improve Allocation of Marketing Dollars	154
Online Testing the Quick and Easy Way	156
Ad Measurement: How You Know You're Winning	158
The Internet Makes Creative Fast and Easy	161
Media Optimization: More Bang for Your Buck	162
Engagement Optimization: Keeping Up with Your Customers	163
Five Advanced Digital Media Tactics to Get Even More Customers	164

x Contents

What Now?	166
Turning to Innovation Strategy	166
Chapter 10 RealOpen Innovation: Developing a Framework to Manage the Flow of Ideas and Technologies	169
A Prescription, Not a Diet	171
What Is the RealOpen Innovation Framework?	172
What Is an Innovation Platform?	175
The Seven Ways to Find New Technologies and Ideas for Your Business	177
Creating a Filter with Customers in Mind	184
Forward, Forge, Forget: Fast-Track Methodologies	190
RealOpen and the Four-in-One Garlic Press	196
Innovation Scenario Tactics	199
A Medical Device Industry Example	201
Chapter 11 Creating a Digital Culture: Organizational Culture Is a Symptom: The Underlining Causality Is Collective Team Focus	207
External Focus versus Internal Focus	208
Success Referencing	212
The Four Characteristics That Define Cultural Excellence	213
The Critical Role of Leadership	217
The Components of Digital Innovation	220
Chapter 12 Rules of Engagement: Protecting the Value of Your Intellectual Property	229
One Giant Leap for Mankind	230
Rules of Engagement	233
Chapter 13 The Innovation Game Plan: Are You Ready to Deploy?	245
Learning from the Best and Brightest	246
The Most Important Takeaways	246
Becoming a True Digital Enterprise	252
About the Author	255
Special Book Offer	259
Index	261