

CONTENTS

Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Table of Cases	xxi
Table of Statutes	xxxv
Table of Statutory Instruments	xxxix
Table of Conventions	xli
Table of Abbreviations	xliii
Chapter 1
Introduction to Financial Remedies	1
Scope of this chapter	1
Definitions	1
The principles governing the exercise of the court's discretion	2
Equality and fairness	3
White v White	4
Miller and McFarlane	5
White v White re-affirmed	5
Three principles: meeting needs, compensation and sharing	6
Legitimate expectations and standard of living	7
Application to smaller money cases	7
Charman v Charman	8
Case-law since Charman	10
Equality and periodical payments	12
All the circumstances of the case	12
First consideration the welfare of children	12
No one factor more important than others	13
Financial resources	15
The duty of full disclosure	16
Income and earning capacity	17
Earning potential	17
Property	18
Dissipated assets	19
Expectations	19
Financial needs, obligations and responsibilities	21
Standard of living during marriage	22
Ages of parties and duration of marriage: age	23
Duration of marriage: short marriage	23
Pre- Miller/McFarlane cases	24

Miller/McFarlane guidance	26
Disability	27
Contributions	27
Financial contributions	28
Non-financial contributions	32
Future contributions	34
Conduct	34
Financial conduct	34
Non-financial conduct	35
Conduct in the course of the proceedings	37
Lost benefits	38
Agreements	39
Radmacher v Granatino	40
The general approach to agreements	41
Vitiating factors	42
The foreign element	42
Fairness	43
Agreements to compromise litigation	44
Law Commission	45
Self-sufficiency	45
Guidelines in children orders cases	46
When may orders be made?	46
Jurisdiction	46
Chapter 2
Periodical Payments	49
Introduction	49
Definitions	49
Who may apply?	49
Procedure	50
General principles	50
How does the court make its orders?	50
Should there be an order at all?	51
Earning capacity/potential	51
Cohabitation	51
Conduct	53
Length of marriage	53
What should be the amount of the order?	53
Periodical payments after Miller/McFarlane	55
Should the order be limited in duration?	59
Maintenance pending suit	59
Form of order	61
Tax considerations	61
The clean break	61
Introduction	61
Statutory provisions	62
Summary of statutory provisions	63
Judicial guidance as to when a clean break is appropriate	64

Should there be an immediate clean break?	64
Summary	68
The clean break on variation	69
Direction under the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Act 1975	69
Extension of terms	70
Form of order	70
Chapter 3
Secured Periodical Payments	71
Introduction	71
Statutory provisions	71
Nature of the order	72
Secure	72
The term	72
The amount to be secured	72
The security	72
When will such an order be made?	73
Variation and amendment	74
Chapter 4
Lump Sum Orders	75
Introduction	75
Statutory provision	76
Number of lump sums	76
How are lump sum orders calculated?	77
Cases where assets do not exceed needs	78
Big money cases	78
The millionaire's defence	79
The Duxbury fund	80
Business cases	81
Tax considerations	86
Chapter 5
Transfer of Property Orders and Housing Needs	87
Introduction	87
Statutory provision	87
Rules	88
The basis on which orders are made	88
Types of transfer of property orders	90
Outright transfer	91
Transfer subject to charge	92
Mesher orders	93
Martin orders	95
Other orders	95
Transfer of tenancy	95

Chapter 6
Settlement of Property Orders and Variation of Settlements	99
Introduction	99
Statutory provision	99
What is a settlement?	100
Variation of settlement	100
Chapter 7
Orders for Sale	105
Introduction	105
Order for sale under section 24A of MCA 1973	105
How is jurisdiction exercised?	106
Interim orders	107
FPR 2010, rule 9.24	107
The Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996	107
Chapter 8
Avoidance of Disposition and Other Injunctions	109
Introduction	109
Applications under section 37 of MCA 1973 for an avoidance of disposition order	109
Two types of remedy	110
The requirement for an application for a financial remedy	111
Only the applicant can apply	111
What is a ‘disposition’?	111
‘With the intention of defeating the claim for financial relief’	112
Special considerations in applications to set aside dispositions	113
Reviewable dispositions	113
Presumption of intention to defeat claim in some cases	114
Consequential directions	115
How will the court exercise its discretion?	115
Foreign property	115
Procedure	116
Forms	116
Applications for avoidance of disposition under the inherent jurisdiction of the court	116
Freezing injunctions	118
Search orders	118
Chapter 9
Consent Orders	121
Introduction	121
The duty of the court	121
Information required by the court	122
Exceptions to the general rule	123

Notes on drafting consent orders	124
The distinction between matters which may be ordered and those which may not	124
Recitals of fact	125
Recitals of agreement	125
Undertakings	126
Dismissal of claims and clean break orders	127
Some common faults	127
Forms	127
Chapter 10
Pensions	129
Introduction	129
Evolution of the courts' powers relating to pensions	131
1996 Reforms	132
Matters to which the court must have regard	133
2000 Reforms	133
Summary so far	134
Valuation	134
What weight is to be attached to the value of the benefits?	136
Summary	139
Loss of widow's pension rights	139
What orders may be made?	140
Pension sharing orders	141
Restrictions on making pension sharing orders	142
Pension attachment (formerly known as earmarking)	143
Summary of attachment provisions	144
Restrictions on making pension attachment orders	145
Judicial consideration of pension attachment	145
Offsetting	147
How should the court approach the use of its powers in relation to pensions?	148
Points to consider when considering the use of the courts powers to deal with pensions	150
Pension sharing orders	150
Pension attachment orders	150
Offsetting	151
Summary	151
Chapter 11
Children	153
Introduction	153
The Child Support Act 1991	153
Basic principles of the formula from March 2003	154
Changes from 2008	156
When may applications be made to the court?	158
(a) Cases where the Commission does not have jurisdiction	158
(b) Applications to the court permitted by the Act	158

(c) Certain consent orders	159
(d) Capital orders	159
(e) Applications under ‘transitional provisions’	159
(f) Variation and duration of orders	160
Applications to the court	160
Jurisdiction	160
Age limits	161
Principles on which the court exercises its jurisdiction	162
Periodic orders for children	162
Capital provision for children	164
School fees	165
Interim applications	166

Chapter 12

Insolvency and Rights of Creditors	167
Introduction	167
The Insolvency Act 1986 and sale of the matrimonial home	167
Effect of bankruptcy on order for financial relief	170
Property adjustment orders	170
Lump sum orders	172
Periodical payments orders	174
The rights of third-party creditors	175

Chapter 13

Variation	177
Introduction	177
Statutory provisions	177
What orders can be varied?	177
Capital orders	178
Maintenance pending suit and periodical payments	178
Secured periodical payments	179
Lump sum payable by instalments	180
Provision in respect of pension rights	180
Settlement of property or variation of settlement	180
The principles on which the court exercises its discretion	181
The clean break on variation applications	182
Changes in circumstances	182
Procedure	184
Forms of order	184
Variation subject to conditions	184

Chapter 14

Miscellaneous Applications	187
Introduction	187
Applications under MCA 1973, section 27	187
Applications under MCA 1973, section 10(2)	189
Orders for alteration of agreements during lifetimes of parties	191

Chapter 15
Financial Relief After Overseas Divorce	193
Introduction	193
Jurisdiction	193
Applications for permission	194
Orders which may be made	196
Chapter 16
Procedure	199
Introduction	199
Issue of proceedings	199
The overriding objective	201
Issue of application	201
Service and parties	203
Special rules relating to pensions	205
Filing of evidence	206
Other documents to be served	208
The statement of apparent issues	208
Questionnaires and requests for documents	209
The first appointment	210
Expert evidence	212
The financial dispute resolution hearing	213
The final hearing	215
Inspection appointments	216
Interim orders	218
Variation application	218
The protocols	219
Chapter 17
Costs	221
Introduction	221
Some general principles of costs	222
The general rule	222
Exceptions to the general rule	223
Failure to comply with rules, orders, etc	224
Open offers	224
Whether reasonable to raise or pursue allegations or issues and the manner in which allegations or issues were pursued or responded to	225
Any other aspect of conduct in relation to the proceedings which the court considers relevant	226
The financial effect on the parties of a costs order	226
How will costs be treated?	226
Procedure	226
The basis of assessment	228
What use should the court make of costs estimates?	228
Lump sum orders as to costs	229
Legal Aid	230

Orders for payments on account of costs	230
Wasted costs orders	230
Precedents for orders for costs	231
Security for costs	231
Chapter 18
Appeals and Setting Aside	233
Introduction	233
Permission required	233
Time limits	234
Routes of appeal	235
Contents of notice	235
Powers of appellate court	235
Material omissions	237
Procedure	238
Applications to set aside consent orders	238
Non-disclosure, fraud and misrepresentation	239
New or supervening circumstances	241
(1) Disputes as to the value of an asset	242
(2) Remarriage or cohabitation	243
(3) Death	244
(4) Other matters	245
Chapter 19
Enforcement	247
Introduction	247
The preliminary step	247
Execution	249
Charging orders	249
Third party debt order	250
Attachment of earnings	250
Judgment summons	251
Appointment of a receiver	252
Registration of order in a magistrates' court	253
The Maintenance Enforcement Act 1991	253
Execution of documents by nominated person	253
Sequestration	254
Reciprocal enforcement	254
Chapter 20
The Impact of the Human Rights Act 1998	255
Introduction	255
The principal provisions of the HRA 1998	255
Application and interpretation of Convention rights	256
Declaration of incompatibility	257
Acts of public authorities	257
Remedies available	258

Parts of the Convention which may affect ancillary relief	258
The right to a fair trial	259
Respect for private and family life	260
The right to marry and found a family	260
The right to freedom from discrimination	261
The right to property	261
Equality of rights of spouses	261
The effect of HRA 1998 in practice	261
Chapter 21
The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002	263
Introduction	263
The purpose of POCA 2002	263
Money laundering	264
Offences under POCA 2002	264
Judicial guidance as to the operation of POCA 2002	266
(a) Whether and in what circumstances it is permitted to act in relation to an arrangement	266
(b) Whether and in what circumstances a legal adviser, having made an authorised disclosure, is permitted to tell others of this fact	267
Good practice	269
Distribution of ‘tainted’ funds	272
Chapter 22
Future Developments	273
Introduction	273
Reform of MCA 1973, section 25	273
Enforcement	275
Harmonisation of Rules of Court	276
Agreements	276
The Family Justice Review	277
Chapter 23
A Summing Up	279
Introduction	279
The primacy of the statute	279
The importance of finding the facts	279
No mathematical starting point	280
Reasonable needs and ability to provide	280
The importance of housing	280
No redistribution for its own sake	281
The yardstick of equality	281
Self-sufficiency	281
Pensions not a separate regime	281
Some practical hints on preparing a case	282

Appendices

Appendix A

Precedents	285
1 Example of request for documents	285
2 Order for inspection appointment	286
3 Search order – discovery by order permitting entry of premises and search for documents	286
4 Ex parte order permitting entry to premises and search for assets and documents	287
5 Maintenance pending suit order	288
5A Order for maintenance pending suit to include a costs element	288
6 Order for maintenance payments to be paid by standing order	288
7 Periodical payments order for spouse	289
8 Order directing cessation of order made in magistrates' court	289
9 Secured periodical payments order	290
10 Periodical payments order to child	290
11 Order to parent or other person for child	290
12 Order to include payment of school fees	290
13 Lump sum orders	291
14 Order to transfer property to assisted person with direction that it be used as a home for funded person or his dependants	292
15 Mesher order – house in joint names – party to be allowed to live there until child attains a certain age	292
16 A more elaborate form of Mesher -type order	293
17 Mesher -type order with provisions for extended right of occupation and for occupant to pay rent from a specified date	294
18 Order for transfer of property to applicant and charge imposed in favour of respondent in a fixed sum	295
19 Alternative order for transfer of property to applicant and charge imposed in favour of respondent in a proportion	295
20 Suggested form of charge	296
21 Order for sale and for possession	297
22 Order varying settlement created by purchase in joint names (both having contributed) to the effect that the trust for sale continues on terms set out – Mesher -type provision with power to substitute property	297
23 Order for variation of settlement (pensions)	299
24 Martin -type order – house in joint names – party to be allowed to live there for life	300
25 Order for transfer on payment and provision for sale in default	300
26 Order dismissing claims to periodical payments, etc	301
27 Order for execution of contract or conveyance on behalf of person refusing to do so or who cannot be found	301
28 Injunction under MCA 1973, section 37 – interim injunction made ex parte (High Court)	302
29 Order setting aside disposition	302
30 General form of injunction	303

31	Examples of agreements and undertakings to be recited in preambles to consent orders	303
32	Variation of orders	306
33	Setting aside orders for ancillary relief	307
34	Undertaking to request commencement of pension on stipulated date and with sufficient benefits to meet order	308
35	Undertaking not to frustrate attachment order – personal pension/retirement annuity contract	308
36	Undertaking as to death benefits (occupational pension scheme)	308
37	Clean break recital: attachment order	309
38	Non-attached deferred lump sum order from pension	309
39	Attached periodical payments order	309
40	Attached lump sum order	310
41	Commutation order	310
42	Death benefits attachment order under MCA 1973, section 25C (occupational pension scheme)	311
43	Death benefits attachment order under MCA 1973, section 25C (personal pension/retirement annuity contract)	311
44	Pension sharing/attachment order	312
45	Orders for costs	319

Appendix B

Legislation

	321
Matrimonial Causes Act 1973	321
Family Procedure Rules 2010	358
Practice Direction 5A – Forms	449
Practice Direction 7C – Polygamous Marriages	463
Practice Direction 9A – Application for a Financial Remedy	464
Forms	471
Form A	471
Form A1	473
Form A2	476
Form B	479
Form C	480
Form D	481
Form E	482
Form E1	510
Form E2	525
Form F	533
Form G	534
Form H	535
Form H1	537
Form I	541
Form P	542
Form P1	546
Form P2	550
Pensions on Divorce etc (Provision of Information) Regulations 2000	553
Pension Sharing (Valuation) Regulations 2000	567

Divorce etc (Pensions) Regulations 2000

571

Index

577

<http://www.pbookshop.com>