

Index

A

Accessibility, 60
Accountability, 68–69
Animal Farm (Orwell), 137
Aspiration, 54
Assembly line, 19–20
Authority, 139

B

Baby boomers, 37
Baill, Barbara, 81
Baldrige Award, 5, 68
Best practices, 97–98
Billable hours, 21
Blogs, 33, 36. See also Social media
Bossidy, Larry, 87
Buckingham, Marcus, 46–48, 62–63
“Burning platform”, 87–88

C

Carnegie Mellon, 29
Change communication, 8; and openness, 78–80. See also Communication
Communication: and business performance, 22–25; challenge of, 25–26; changing role of, 138–142; and downsizing, 8–9; and employee engagement, 57–58; measurement, 102–104; outputs and outcomes, 20–22; proactive, 30; reactive, 30; SOS strategy, 52; trust in, 138, 139–140; typical reactive communication process, 119; in Xerox Corporation downsizing, 6–7. See also Change communication; Face-to-face communication; Information
Communication audit. See Organization assessment

Communication professionals: at a crossroads, 142–145; and face-to-face communication, 70–71; and openness, 75–76
Company call centers, 21
Context, and line of sight, 109–110
Contributions, recognition for, 44
Corporate democracy, and social media, 34–37
Cover, Stephen R., 31–32
The Cult of the Amateur (Keen), 36

D

Data gathering, 88–89. See also Research
Downsizing, 2; and communication, 8–9, 79–80; long-term costs of, 7. See also Layoffs

E

Electronic communication. See Technology
Employee engagement, 43, 53–56; and communication, 57–58; possible level of, 56–57; study at Gallup Organization, 46–48. See also Participative management
Employee satisfaction, 48–51
Executive interviews, 89–90; typical interview questions, 90–92

F

Face-to-face communication, 11–12, 47–48; accessibility, 60–61; accountability, 68–69; augmenting high tech with high touch, 69–70; frontline communication, 62–67; and the professional communicator, 70–71; tools, 69;

Face-to-face communication (continued)
 training, 68, 69; what it looks like,
 59–60. See also Communication

Fagan-Smith, Barbara, 81–82

FedEx Express, communication initiative, 24

First, Break All the Rules (Buckingham), 46, 62–63

Focus groups, 92; agenda, 96–97; guidelines, 92–95

Ford, Henry, 19

Friedman, Thomas, 105–106

G

Gallup Organization, employee engagement study, 46–48

General Electric (GE), 144; Light
 Military Electronics Department, 107

General Motors, 107

Generation X, 37

Generation Y, 35, 37–41

Gladwell, Malcolm, 110

Gommersall, Earl, 43–46, 56

The Great Jackass Fallacy (Levinson), 136

H

Heath, Chip, 111

Heath, Dan, 111

Henley College, 28

I

Ignorance, three levels of, 80–81

Immelt, Jeffrey, 40–41

Information, 10–11; accuracy, 20–21;
 and business performance, 22–25;
 challenge of, 25–26; completeness,
 21; consequences of technology,
 26–29; democracy, 32–34; mixed messages, 21, 22; technology and role definition, 29–32; timeliness, 20. See also Communication

Information purveyors, 17–18

Information society, 18

INFORMS acronym, 14–15

Inspiration, 54

Institute for the Future, 28

Intellectual capital, 19–20

Internal communication, 74–75; typical reactive communication process, 119.
See also Communication

Invisible Hand theory, 135

J

Job mastery, 44, 49

Just In Time, Ltd. (JIT) fictional scenario, 121–133

K

Kearns, Dave, 2–5

Keen, Andrew, 36

L

Layoffs: and communication, 8–9;
 long-term costs of, 7; Xerox Corporation, 1–5

Leadership, 22

Levinson, Harry, 136

Lewis, Sheryl, 81

Line of sight: and context, 109–110; from vertical to horizontal, 106–108

M

Made to Stick (Heath and Heath), 111

Marketplace, 90; context and line of sight, 109–110; as rationale for the story, 112–115; stickiness, 110–112; triple convergence, 105–106; from vertical to horizontal line of sight,
 106–108; and workplace, 13

Martinez, Arthur, 110

Medill Integrated Marketing
 Communications (IMC) graduate program, employee satisfaction study, 51

Message boards, 34. See also Social media

Millennials, 38. See also Generation Y

Morale, 48

N

Nadler, David, 5

Needs of the audience, 11, 43; determining needs in your organization, 52–53; employee satisfaction, 48–51; employee's communication needs on the job,
 66; Gallup Organization study, 46–48;
 Texas Instruments study, 43–46. See also Employee engagement

O

Open-Book Management, 80–81

Openness, 12, 73–76; and change communication, 78–80; examples, 80–85;

- inevitability of, 85; need-to-know doctrine, 76–78; three levels of ignorance, 80–81
- Organization assessment: developing the plan, 99–100; executive interviews, 89–90; map of, 89; presenting findings, 98–99; typical interview questions, 90–92. See also Research
- Orwell, George, 137
- P
- Participative management, study at Texas Instruments, 43–46
- Perdue, Frank, 61–62
- Perdue Farms, 61–62
- Pitney Bowes, 28
- Potter, Les, 37–38
- Power shift, 137–138
- Predictability, 44
- Proactive communication, 30
- Procter & Gamble, 34
- Prophets in the Dark* (Kearns and Nadler), 5
- Q
- Quirke, Bill, 52
- R
- Reactive communication, 30; strategic solution, 121–133; typical reactive communication process, 119. See also Communication
- Reed, Stu, 103
- Research, 12–13; best practices, 97–98; data gathering, 88–89; executive interviews, 89–90; focus groups, 92–97; measurement of results, 102–104; presenting findings, 98–99; quantitative vs. qualitative, 100–101; translating into a plan, 99–100
- ROI Communication, 81–82; Executive Communication Forum, 103–104
- Role definition, 29–32
- S
- Sears, 110
- Shaffer, Jim, 22–23, 24, 61–62
- Sirota, David, 48–49
- Smith, Adam, 135
- Social media: and corporate democracy, 34–37; and information democracy, 32–34
- SOS strategy, 52
- Spaulding, George, 61
- SRC Holding Corporation, 80
- Stack, Jack, 80–81
- Stickiness, 110–112
- Strategic Communication Management*, 36
- Strategy, 13–14, 117–121; strategic solution to reactive communication, 121–133; and tactics, 121
- Surveys, 100–101
- T
- Tactics, and strategy, 121
- Technology, 18, 41; as an end in itself, 138, 141; information and role definition, 29–32; information consequences of, 26–29; and information democracy, 32–34; studies of technology and information overload, 27–29. See also Social media
- Texas Instruments, participative management study, 43–46, 56
- Tools, 69
- Towers Perrin: employee engagement study, 53–56, 57; Perdue Farms, 61–62
- Training, 68, 69
- Transparency, 73–74. See also Openness
- Triple convergence, 105–106
- Trust, 138, 139–140
- Tzu, Sun, 117, 121
- W
- Welch, Jack, 144
- Wikis, 33–34. See also Social media
- Winslow, Frederick, 19
- Wolf, Maryanne, 142
- Workers, changing profile of, 137–138
- Workplace, and marketplace, 13
- X
- Xerox Corporation: full employment policy, 1; layoffs/downsizing, 1–5; Leadership Through Quality initiative, 68; manager effectiveness survey, 61

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>