

Index

A

actionable array, 184–186 day trading, 216
after-market hours analysis, 172–173
aggressive investment decisions, 16–17, 23
  timing of, 37
Alerts Viewers, 168
asset allocation
  versus balance, 63
  definition of, 64
  and money managers, 70–71
asset classes, 64
  demand exhausted, 141 asset recovery, actual and presumed, 109
automated strategies, 168
  Day Trading Alert Viewer, 186
  trading, 271–278, 283

B

bailout packages, 83, 98, 280 balance, 91
  versus asset allocation, 63, 65 redefining, 75–80 balance sheet, personal, 145–152 behavior, observations of, 16 Boot Camp, 125, 127
bottom-up approach, 17 boundaries (of charts), 181–182

brackish investing, 45–48, 49–50,
  66, 69, 94–96, 105, 106, 107, 108, 114, 136
  and brokerage firms, 236
  and contemporary Darwinism, 87–88
  and 401k plans, 147
  and 10-year no-growth environment, 109
broker, decision to hire, 60–61 brokerage firms attitude toward cash, 51–52
  brackish investing, 44, 236
  and capitalistic economy, 49 conflict of interest with retail clients, 71–72
  delegation practices, 70
  failure to disclose risks, 101–102
  and the individual investor, 41–45, 48, 150
  priorities of, 41–42
  and revenue streams, 42, 43, 45, 70
broker-client relationship, 56–61, 70
  and diversification, 65–67
  historically, 58–59
bucket shops, 84–85, 135–136
buy and hold strategies, ix, 30, 31 adaptation to market conditions, 106
  as conditioned habit, 94

- buy and hold strategies
  - (Continued)
  - and major losses, 48
  - and 2008 meltdown, 33, 106–107
  - and problems in down periods, 35–36, 44, 47, 48
  - and up markets, 35
- buy signals, 185, 216
- C
- capitalism and risk, 99
- cash
  - as asset class, 64
  - as component of wealth
    - preservation, 51–53, 128
  - disincentive of money managers, 71
  - as part of the proactive model, 92, 122, 175, 190
  - reverting to, 130
- CDs, 51
- charts. See also technical analysis
  - daily market analysis, 176–178, 182, 183, 184
  - sample, long-term, 200, 201
  - sample, midterm, 197, 198, 199
  - sample, near-term, 195, 196
  - traditional line method, 193
- cheap money, 139–140, 141
- circular mistakes, 85–86, 91, 92
- Citigroup, 97–98, 99, 100, 101
  - Corporate Special Opportunities Fund (C.S.O.) debacle, 97–98
- comfort zone, 7, 33, 92, 124, 171, 236
  - achievement of, 285
  - path to, 50–53, 57
- Commodities Futures
  - Modernization Act of 2000, 84–85, 86
- comparative performance, 69
- confirmation level (Fibonacci calculations), 227
- conflict of interest, 51
  - conversion to cash, 71–72
- conservative stocks, 73
  - cash as better option, 70–71
  - misguided retreat to, in 2008, 67–69
- consumer debt, 40–41
- contemporary Darwinism, 81–89, 91, 93, 101, 104, 106, 108, 117, 118–119, 122
- contrarian indicators, 224
- corporate debt, 40–41
- corporate errors, 85–86
- correlation, 26–28
  - Investment rate and timing tools, 31
- crash of 1987, 55
- credit crisis of 2008, 33, 44, 81, 82, 88, 89, 163
  - long-term impact, 122
  - and rebuilding, 121
  - role of Hank Paulsen, 98–100
- cultural normality, 19
- cycles, 3–4, 16, 26–29, 33, 35
  - prediction of, 36–37
- D
- daily market analysis, 153, 156, 171–173
  - nine charts, 176–178
  - and slow pace of gains, 175
- data points, 189
  - adjustment for close proximity, 201
  - chart samples, 195, 198, 200
  - and strategy, 194–200
  - use of, to make trading plans, 179–184
- data sources, 20
  - double checking, 174
- day trading array, 216
- Day Trading model, 155
- Day Trading Strategy, 236, 249–256

- debt assumption, 279, 280–281 government, 40–41, 141
    TARP funds, 98–100
- declining markets, 136
    two choices, 108
- demand, as root of problem in 2008, 141
- demand cycles, 3–4, 7, 8, 24, 25, 26, 113
- demand ratios, 35, 44, 48, 131
    declining, 142, 280–281 deterioration of, during down cycle, 46
    measuring immediate,
    138–140
- demographic analysis, 7, 24
- demographic cycles, 3, 7, 16
- direction, determining, 194.
    See also market direction
- discipline, 92, 94, 102, 153 and analyses, 172, 174
    and automated trading, 271 importance of, 53, 76–77, 89 and independence, 105
    and modification to the system, 123–124
    of technical analysis, 194
- diversification
    asset allocation versus balance, 63 and big brokers, 65–66
    and risk, 73
- Dow Analysis, 176–177, 178
    and long-term models, 180
- down markets, 51, 104
    positive returns in, 47, 92, 94, 106–107, 282–283
    trends, 64–65
- down periods, 27–28, 29, 30, 44, 45 and “brackish investors,” 46 buying at the beginning of, 35
    third major U.S., 45, 47–48
- E
- economic cycles and market
    trends, 3–4, 16, 29, 93
    circulatory process, 85
    predicting, 36–39
- economic indicators, and the Investment Rate, 24–25
- economic policy, circulatory, 85
- economics, as study of people, 2, 22, 76
- economy
    and correlation with Investment Rate, 25
    modern, and natural selection, 82–85
    trends, 7
    as a whole and the individual, 88
- education, as investment variable, 22
- emotional bias, 6, 53, 128
- emotional freedom, 75–76, 186, 188 and mechanical adherence to strategies, 173, 174
- emotional tie, 134–135, 147
    breaking the, 72–73
    and broker-client relationship, 56–61, 70
- emotions and conditioning, 187, 233
    control of, 56–61, 64, 102, 103, 118, 122, 145, 155
    interpretation of the market, 157
    and the market, 14–15, 66–67, 104
- entry range, 222
- equity exposure. See risk
- ETFs, market-based, 44, 66, 75, 133
- extremes, adjustments for, 218

F

fear, as a factor for investors, 6–7, 92
Featured Stock of the Day, 155, 236, 237–240
Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC)
    and interest rates, 12–14
Federal Reserve
    Fed Funds Rate, 14
    and interest rates, 12
fees, lower, 44
Fibonacci calculator, 213, 226–231
    example, 228–230
Fibonacci oscillation cycles, 140 flexibility, 44 fundamental analysis versus technical analysis, 191–192

G

Game Plan, 171–190
General Motors, 82–83, 101
Golden Sequence (Fibonacci), 226
Goldman Sachs, 59–60, 99, 100
    Hank Paulsen, 99
government bonds, 33 government debt, 40–41, 47 government policy, 29, 68, 81–84, 141, 279–281 GDP versus debt, 41 and the Investment Rate, 33, 37
    lax restrictions, 40 and predatory practices, 135–136
    and TARP funds, 98
    tax revenues as disincentive to change, 114 Great Depression, 27, 28, 31, 35, 38, 45, 141, 279
    bucket shops, 84
    recovery from, 110
    risk of another, 47
Greater Depression, 279–283
greed cycles, 99, 114, 130

H

hazards, identification of potential, 54–56, 62, 146–149 hedge funds, 59, 88–89, 92, 98, 101, 102, 162 underperformance of, 96
hidden orders, 222
history of Investment Rate, 24–25, 26–28, 72 horizontal analysis, 176, 178 housing, 18, 20, 21
    bets on the market, 84
human nature, 18–19, 21–22

I

income stream, for brokers, 42, 43, 45, 48, 49, 70, 72, 135 independence, 103, 105–119, 116, 118, 134, 236
    as conditioned routine, 156 independent advisors, 59
index funds, 44
individual investors adaptability of, 113 example, real life, 287–291 and personal journals, 187–189 information flow, 57–59 inherited wealth, 147
in-house investment vehicles, 59, 60 initial public offerings (IPOs), 59–60 interest rates
    as example of noise, 12–14
    versus the market, 13
Internet, as tool, 171
Internet bubble, 5–6, 7, 41, 44, 72, 85, 108
intraday analyses
    avoiding, 172–173, 190 and technical analysis, 185 intraday market cycle chart, 161 investing, reasons for, 16, 18

- investment banking business,
  - 59–60
  - and brokerage houses, 41–42
- Investment patterns, 17
- Investment Rate, 1, 3–9, 16, 19, 71, 104, 109–110, 126, 131, 133, 279
  - as basis for decision making, 8, 72
  - and current down period, 45, 108
  - declining periods, 64, 73
  - and demand cycles, 113
  - derivation of, 24
  - effect of, on our investments, 9, 93
  - and fundamental analysis, 192–193
  - graph, 4
  - historically, 25, 26–28, 72
  - ignore the noise, 165
  - and the KEE AGE, 24
  - long-term, 30, 38
  - and long-term impact of credit crisis, 122
  - predefinition of major down cycles, 33, 143
  - and predicting the future, 34, 36, 37–38, 72
  - stemming from Technical Analysis, 168
  - and timing tools, 31
  - understanding and acceptance of, 11
  - and upward sloping trends, 44
- Investment Rate model, x, 15
  - demand for, 113
  - systematic and aggressive, 16–17
  - investment strategy and balance, 76
- J
  - journal, personal, as 5th tool, 187–189, 190
- K
  - KEE AGE, 22–23
    - as determinant of Investment Rate, 24
  - KISS theory, 15, 20, 78, 148–149, 166, 167, 172
  - 401k plans, 147
- L
  - life stages and financial commitments, 17–18, 19, 24
  - lifestyle choices, 75–79, 92, 94, 104, 115, 236
  - Lipper Analytics, 65, 69
  - liquidation
    - fear of, 98
    - forced, 70–71
  - liquidity, 26, 27, 28, 39, 280
  - Lock and Walk Strategy, 155, 236, 262–269, 277
  - longer-term cycles, 93, 95, 111, 133–134, 154
  - longer-term investment objectives, 126
    - as “hook,” 57
  - long-term analysis, 176, 178
  - growth and asset allocation, 64
  - process, 181
  - sample chart, 184, 200, 201
  - trends as foundation for, 12
  - long-term trading array, 216
- M
  - managed accounts, 42–43, 44
  - market
    - evaluation of, 162–163
    - signals, 166–167
  - market-based ETF, 44, 66
  - market conditions
    - importance of adjustments for, 103
    - and performance, 108
    - volatile, 70

- 1987 market crash, 44, 108
- market direction, 6, 7, 97, 158
  - correlation with the Investment Rate, 24
  - determining, 194
  - and interest rates, 13
- market trends and economic cycles, 3–4, 6–7
- 2008 meltdown, 33, 81, 86, 95, 97, 98, 106–107, 163
  - brokerage firm policies, 44
  - recovery time, 108–109
- methodology, 20–21
- midterm analysis, 176, 178
  - NASDAQ sample chart, 197
  - process, 181
  - sample chart, 183
- mistakes, 82–86, 98–101
  - and the personal balance sheet, 152
- money managers
  - comparative performance ratios, 69
  - investor decision to hire, 60–61
  - and the 2008 meltdown, 106–107
  - restrictions on, 70
  - role of, in brokerage firms, 42, 43
- money market accounts, 51
- Morgan Stanley, 59–60
- mortgage-backed derivatives, 99, 101
- mortgages
  - as investment variable, 22
  - low rates and unregulated standards, 140
  - payments, 21
- mutual funds, 44, 135, 162
  - and the individual investor, 44–45
  - Lipper Analytics, 65
  - objectives, 71
  - in volatile market conditions, 70
- N
- NASDAQ, 212
  - comparison with other indexes, 181
  - focus of, 180
  - uniqueness of, 184
- NASDAQ Analysis, 176–177, 178
  - as arbitrary starting point, 180
- natural selection in modern economies, 82–85
- near-term analysis, 176–178, 181
  - NASDAQ sample chart with data points, 195
  - sample chart, 182
- negative returns, touted as positive, 69, 73
- new investment/new money
  - effect on, individual investors, 9
  - as predictor of economic trends, 7, 8
  - rate of, 24
- news events
  - ability to ignore, 189
  - reacting after the fact, 163–164
  - reacting in advance of, 162
- no growth, periods of, 106
- noise, 14–15, 18
  - and choice of asset class, 64
  - daily news, 156, 164
  - eliminating, 124, 126–127, 189
  - interest rates as example, 12–14
  - learning to discount, 236
- O
- obligations, lessening of, 17–18
- observation, 16, 19
- opportunity, 94, 104, 106, 132–136
  - loss of, with brackish investing, 110
  - missed, 91
  - and proactive strategies, 92
  - versus* risk, 115
  - and risk aversion, 162

- and rule-based trading strategies, 233, 234
  - in up and down cycles, 279
  - oscillation cycles, 191–212, 280
  - identification of, 194
- P
- paper trading, to learn process, 235
  - parity, return to, 137–144, 280
  - passivity of investors, 38, 39, 41.
See also brackish investing
  - Paulsen, Hank, 98–100
  - pension-driven retirement plan, 19
  - performance, 105
    - independent of market conditions, 108
    - of proactive model, 109, 110
  - Personal Balance Sheet, 145–152, 188
  - daily reference, 175
  - definition of, 148
  - sample, 150
  - personal financial advisors, 50
  - personal hazards, identification of, 146–149
  - personal journal, 187–189, 190
  - planning in advance, 155–158
  - portfolio balance, definition of, 64–65
  - positive returns in down markets, 47
  - preservation of wealth, x
  - private equity, 139–140
  - private money managers, 59
  - proactive aversion, 91–104
  - proactive models, 155
    - outperformance of, 109, 110
  - proactive strategies, 47, 48, 53, 62, 75, 87, 89, 100, 103, 104, 111–113, 128, 167–168
    - ability to succeed in all market environments, 92, 94, 282–283
    - difficulty with shifting to, 131
    - eliminating the noise, 126
    - and emotional ties, 73
    - example of individual investor, 287–291
    - first steps to adopting, 117
    - integration of, 273–274
    - in periods of decline, 106–107
    - and personal financial advisors, 50
    - transition process, 96
  - proactive trading, 47, 116
    - stock reports, 214–219
  - proactive trading strategies, 124, 234
    - Day Trading Strategy, 155, 236, 249–256
    - Featured Stock of the Day, 155, 236, 237–240
    - Lock and Walk Strategy, 155, 236, 262–269
    - as logical alternative in 2008, 102, 110
    - Stock of the Week, 155, 236, 240–244
    - Strategic Plan, 155, 236, 244–249
    - Swing Trading Strategy, 155, 236, 256–262
  - profit stops, 222
- R
- Random Walk Theory, 11, 37
  - recovery
    - full, 108–109
    - time, 45, 47, 48, 95, 106, 110
  - redemption, effect of, on allocation of funds, 70–71
  - reflexivity, 39, 76, 91, 119, 179, 188
    - and contemporary Darwinism, 88
  - regulation, repeal of, 84, 99
  - relative strength, identification of, 223–224

- resistance levels, 185, 186, 192, 193, 194, 196 and buy signals, 216
Fibonacci calculations, 227
and short signals, 216
- responsibility, personal, 51–52, 61, 71–73, 89, 136
- retirement
as investment variable, 22
life stage, 17
planning for, 18, 19, 21–22, 133, 147
- return to parity, 137–144
- risk
corporate, 85–86
and greed cycles, 99
and hedge funds, 96–97
investor control of, as imperative, 48, 71–73 legislation permitting bucket shops, 84 management of, 31, 37, 39, 43, 89, 283 risk assessment, 101–102
risk-averse investment strategies, 47–48, 64 risk aversion, 162
risk control, ix, xiv, 92, 94, 104, 112, 114, 117–118, 121–122, 129–130, 143, 169, 218, 222, 279, 285 change in perceptions, 101
and contemporary Darwinism, 87
and embracing independence, 105
and government policy, 68 integral to all strategies, 56 investor responsibility for, 48, 71–73 mechanical adherence to, 173 versus opportunity, 115 predetermination of, as strategy, 235
and proactive strategies, 96, 97, 155
and rule-based trading strategies, 233
rule-based strategies, xi, 233–269, 278
Rule Based Trading, 155
- S
- second homes, as investments, 19
- sentiment table, 213, 223–226, 231
and identification of relative strength, 224 short signals, 185, 217 simplicity, 15, 89, 127, 145
of technical analysis, 195
smart money, 162
the market and technical trends, 168 societal norms, 19
- Soros, George, 38–39, 43, 50, 61, 88, 91
- S&P Analysis, 176–177, 178
S&P 500 focus of, 180
- Stagflation, 27, 28, 31, 38, 45, 279
problem with buy and hold strategies, 36
recovery from, 110
- stock broker, outdated of, 42
- stock filters, 213, 219–223, 231
four quadrants, 220–222
- Stock of the Week, 155, 236, 240–244
- stock reports, 213–219, 231
- Stock Traders Daily, 103, 105, 154–155, 214, 215, 217, 220, 221, 223, 225, 228, 229, 230
- Stock Traders Daily website, 5
- stop loss strategies, 218, 222
- Strategic Plan, 155, 236, 244–249
- strategies. See also proactive strategies Investment Rate as basis for, 8 rule-based, xi

- summary technical analysis, 202–212
- Superbubble, 39, 50
- supply and demand ratios, 26
- supply-side theory, discounting of, 26
- support levels, 193, 194, 198
  - Fibonacci calculations, 227
- swaps, unregulated, 84, 99
- Swing Trading analysis, 155, 217
  - array, 216
  - sample, 160
- Swing Trading Strategy, 155, 236, 256–262
- systematic and aggressive investment, 16–17, 23
- T
- target prices, 222
- Technical Analysis, 167, 168, 169
- technical analysis. See also tools
  - characteristics, 185
  - versus* fundamental analysis, 191–192
  - necessity of, 190
  - sample summary report, 202–212
  - and trading strategies, 193–194
- tests of support or resistance, 218
- timing
  - of analyses, 172
  - of decisions, 52
  - of investments, 17–18, 23, 104, 226
  - techniques, 52–53
  - tools, 31
  - of trades, 268
    - Trend Tracker, 275
- tools, 171–172
  - Fibonacci calculator, 213, 226–231
  - positive results, integral to, 236–237, 241, 245, 250, 257, 264
  - sentiment table, 213, 223–226, 231
  - stock filters, 213, 219–223, 231
  - stock reports, 213–219, 231
  - trade plan summary, 223
  - trading, automated, 271–278
  - trading arrays, 216
  - trading strategies, 217
    - choosing among, 218–219
    - and data points, 179–184
    - defined by technical analysis, 193–194
    - features of, 222
    - proactive, xiii–xiv, 5–6
    - rule-based, 233–269
- Treasury bonds, 51, 87, 101, 102
  - circular trap, 142–143
- trend lines, sample charts, 199, 201
- trends, importance of knowing, xi, 7, 8
- Trend Tracker, 271–273, 275–278
  - and time constraints, 275
- Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP), 98
- U
- unit investment trusts, 59
- up periods, 26–27, 28, 29–30, 35, 44, 104
- V
- vertical analysis, 176, 178
- W
- warning signals, respect for, 37–38
- wealth preservation, x, 6, 47–48, 51–52, 89, 103, 110, 111, 119, 128, 154, 234–235, 279
  - asset allocation, 64
  - and brackish investment styles, 235
  - and brokerage firm revenue streams, 42, 43, 45
  - problem with buy and hold strategies, 36

<http://www.pbookshop.com>