

Page references followed by fig indicate illustrated figures; followed by t indicate a table; followed by e indicate an exhibit.

A

Accelerated learning, 48–50

Accommodations: planning travel arrangements and hotel, 107; providing learner, 82–94

Acronyms, 43, 266

Acrostics, 43

Active evaluation, 403–404

Activities: celebration, 411–416; creating workshop “rules,” 335; energizers, 379–383; engaging learners through, 364–365, 374–383; final concept review, 396–400; flip chart memory, 368–370; floating rubber ducks, 400–401; icebreakers, 374–379; Learning Reflections, 397; lesson plan on, 158–159; Live Voting, 403–404; musical chairs, 202; providing learner feedback through, 367; review, 350–351; Sample Leaf, 399*fig*; small group, 185*fig*, 186*fig*, 230, 364; Story of the Day, 399–400; Tree of Learning, 397–398*fig*. See also Engaging learner strategies; Games, Instruction strategies/methods

ADDIE process: analysis phase of, 127–130; design phase of, 130–137; development phase of, 137–138; evaluation phase of, 139; implementation/delivery phase of, 138–139; introduction to, 4, 8; ISD process used in conjunction with, 127–130, 136–139. See also Workshop design
“Administrivia” (workshop flow), 349

Adobe Persuasion, 285

The Adult Learner: A Neglected Species (Knowles), 15

Adult learning principles: 1. adults need motivation, 15–16; 2. adults need to be self-directing, 16; 3. adults have life experience to draw on, 16–17; 4. adults are motivated to learn when they experience need, 17–18; 5.

adults have task-, problem-, or life-centered orientation, 18; 6. adults have extrinsic and intrinsic motivators, 18–19

Age differences: learning and learner, 168; targeting audience, 56–62

Alderfer, C., 8, 19

Alessandra, T., 263

Allergies, 175

American Society for Training and Development (ASTD), 260

American Society of Composers, 114

Anecdotes: auditory learners and, 44; engaging learners by using, 219–220

Animation, 39

Aristotle, 164

Articles: copyright permission for using, 113–115; written as part of marketing effort, 110

Artwork/drawing, 229–230

Atmosphere of trust, 335–337

- Attendees: identifying your audience among, 56–62; marketing to attract, 108–112; planning accommodations for, 107; registration of, 112–113; travel arrangements for, 107. See also Learners
- Attitude surveys, 76
- Audience: Baby Boomers (1946–1964), 58–59; Builder Generation (1901–1945), 56–57; Generation Xers (1965–1980), 59–60; identifying your workshop, 56–62; Millennials (1981–1999), 61–62
- Audio recordings, 296
- Audio-based workshops, 1
- Audiotapes (or CDs), 42
- Audiovisual aids: audio recordings, 296; computer-generated slides, 285–293; description of, 284–285; digital visual projectors, 296; Internet as, 298; multimedia, 298; using overhead transparencies, 293–295; videotape/DVD, 297. See also Visual aids
- Auditory learning modality: description of, 28, 31; identifying learners with, 32–34; using noisemakers/sounds in workshop design, 44, 195–202; strategies for engaging learners, 42–44
- Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), 114
- Average rate of speech: multicultural communication and, 279; normal range of, 263–264
- B
- Baby Boomers (1946–1964), 58–59
- Baseball game, 415
- Beecher, H. W., 197
- Behavior change: modeling, 235–236; organizational support of, 392–395. See also Knowledge exchange
- Behavior evaluation level, 141–142, 407–408
- Behavioral modeling, 235–236
- The Big Book of Flip Charts* (Lucas), 190, 193, 300
- Blended learning workshops, description of, 1, 106
- Bodily-kinesthetic intelligence, 22–23
- Body of workshop, 349–350
- “Brain foods,” 202, 203–206
- Brain Gym, 226
- Brain “pleasure center,” 411–412
- Brain-based learning: creating experiences to facilitate, 166; description of, 50–52, 164–165; implications of, 165–166
- Brain-based learning environment: comparing standard and, 168–169; effect of sound and noise on, 195–202; furniture/seating arrangements in, 175–187; room and facility of, 170–176. See also Learning environment
- Brain-Based Learning* (Jensen), 198
- Brain-based theory, 51
- Brainstorming, 226–227, 407
- Breaks: “administrivia” information on, 349; building in adequate workshop, 83–84; encouraging timely return from, 224; providing stimulation during, 200–201
- Brewer, C., 199
- Broadcast Music Incorporated (BMI), 114
- “Brown bag” events, 106
- Builder Generation (1901–1945), 56–57
- Building-block approach, 124
- Bush, G. W., 164
- Bush, L., 263
- “Business casual” dress, 253–254
- C
- Campbell, D., 198
- Carnival games, 413, 415–416
- Case studies, 227–228
- Categorization approach, 124
- CCICOLOR Institute for Color Research, 191
- CDs (or audiotapes), 42
- Celebration activities: brain “pleasure center” stimulated by, 411–412; carnival games as, 413, 415–416; creating a festive atmosphere for, 412; drawings for door prizes, 413; games as, 413–414; group photographs, 412–413; praise as part of, 415; prizes given out during, 414–415
- Cell phones, 349
- Certifications, 260
- Certified Professional in Learning and Performance (CPLP), 260
- Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), 260
- Certified Toastmaster (CTM), 260
- Chan, J., 221
- Change Bag, 348
- Chronological résumé worksheet, 240e–242e
- Chunking strategy: description of, 125; examples on how to apply, 125–127
- Circular-style seating, 184*fig*
- Circular-style seating with table, 181*fig*
- Classroom Jeopardy (electronic game), 213
- Clinton, B., 263
- Clip art, 303
- Closed-ended questions, 270–271, 272
- Closing rituals: using music as, 416–417, 419; “Pomp and Circumstance” when passing out certificates, 418
- Closure: celebrations component of, 411–416; closing rituals component of,

- 416–418; creating a positive environment through, 350–352; End-of-Session Evaluation passed out during, 140, 405e–406e; ensuring transfer of training during the, 391–395; final concept review activities, 396–400; importance of, 388–391; last remarks to learners, 419; review of key concepts during, 395–401; session follow-up after, 2, 106, 408–411; thank your learners during, 418. See also Evaluation
- Clothing: “business casual” dress, 253–254; colors projecting professional image, 255; professional image projected through, 192, 253–255
- Cluster-style seating: with tables, 182fig; without tables for small group activities, 185fig
- Coaching: group, 411; one-on-one, 410; telecoaching, 411
- Color: color code key concepts, 39; emotions of, 193t; used on handouts, 192, 194; power of using, 191–195
- Communication: average rate of speech, 263–264, 279; gestures as part of, 268–269; increasing multicultural communication awareness, 278–280; practicing positive, 272–274; supplementing verbal information with written material, 94; verbal breakdowns in, 266; voice volume and inflection for, 264–265; words that strengthen relationships with learners, 262. See also Discussions; Language issues
- Communication skills: improving your questioning, 270–272, 277; listening, 274–277; polishing your speaking, 262–267e; practicing non-verbal, 267–270; self-assessing your, 267e
- Computer-based training (CBT), 2
- Computer-generated slides: description and use of, 285–286; effective use of, 289–293, 295; sample mirror images, 288fig; sample WordArt, 287fig; software packages to use with, 289
- “Concentration” game, 385
- Conclusion. See Closure
- Confidence, 256–257
- Confirmation letter, 325e–326e
- Copyright permission, 113–115, 417
- Creative Presentation Resources: carnival type games, 415–416; using colored pointers on overhead projectors, 294; floating rubber duck: available from, 400–401; Game Show Presenter and Classroom Jeopardy, 213; Game Show Themes for Trainers (CD), 201; musical chairs activity, 202; 101 Movie Clips That Teach and Train (Pluth), 297; Plinko game, 413–414; TAG Attention Getter, 259; VoxProxy software package, 289
- Crescent-style seating: with tables, 180t; without tables, 184fig
- Cultural differences: creating learning environment accommodating, 89–93; increasing multicultural communication awareness of, 278–280; learner expectations and, 66
- D
- Dart ball game, 415
- “Decade of the brain,” 164
- Demonstrations: addressing learning modalities by using, 40; engaging learners by incorporating, 228–229, 364
- Dennis the Menace, 248
- Digital visual projectors, 296
- Digital whiteboard, 307
- Discussions: encouraging workshop, 195–196; engaging auditory learners with small group, 44; engaging kinesthetic learners with, 45; learners with disabilities and small group, 84; passing out paddles to encourage participation in, 339–340. See also Communication
- Distracting noises, 196
- Diverse learners: learners with special needs, 79–82; meeting needs of, 78–79
- Diversity: meeting learner needs in context of, 78–93; reality of workplace, 78
- Door prizes, 413
- Double U-shape style seating, 180fig
- Drawing/artwork, 229–230
- Dress code. See Clothing
- Dry erase boards, 305–306
- Dry Erase eraser, 308
- Dry Erase markers, 175
- DVD/videotape, 297
- Dyads: “Concentration” game for, 385; encouraging discussion through, 230; engaging students through role play with, 237–238. See also Small group activities; Small group discussions
- E
- e-Group follow-up, 409–410
- E-mail follow-up, 409–410
- E-mailing marketing lists, 108–109
- E-zines (as marketing), 110
- Einstein, A., 14
- Electronic flip charts, 303–304
- Electronic writing surfaces, 307

- Embry, D., 191
- Emergency exits/evacuation plans, 176
- Emotion: color and, 193*t*; using music to spark, 199–200
- Empowering learners, 338–339
- End-of-Session Evaluation, 140, 405*e*–406*e*
- End-of-Session “T” Chart, 407
- Energizers activities, 379–383
- Engaging learner strategies:
 - artwork or drawing, 229–230;
 - ask for feedback regularly, 362–364; behavioral modeling, 235–236; Brain Gym, 226; brainstorming, 226–227, 407; case studies, 227–228; demonstrations, 228–229, 364; using dyads or triads, 230, 237–238, 385; encouraging friendly competition, 223–224; experiential learning applications, 235–236; journal writing, 232–233; mix up your techniques, 222–223; nominal group process activities, 233–235; puzzles, 236; question-and-answer (Q&A), 236–237; role play, 237–238; storytelling, 44, 219–220, 239, 336–337; visualizations (visioning), 41, 239–240; worksheets, 240*e*–242*e*. See also Activities; Games
- Engaging learners: building rapport with learners for, 214; choosing right workshop structure for, 213–214; creating stimulating learning event for, 212–225; gaining and maintaining interest for, 216–224; learning participant names for, 217–218*fig*; selecting best training methods for, 224–225; strategies for connecting and, 361–374. See also Learner readiness; Learners
- Engergizer activities, 45
- Enthusiasm: demonstrating positive attitude and, 255–256; projecting, 221–222
- EP - CP = Performance Gap, 74
- Equipment: cluster-style seating with tables and, 182*fig*; crescent-style seating with tables and, 180*fig*; double U-shape style seating with, 180*fig*; horseshoe-style with tables, 181*fig*; laptop/Internet connection, 178*fig*, 179*fig*, 181*fig*, 184*fig*, 190; LCD projector, 178*fig*–181*fig*, 184*fig*, 187–188; open square with tables and, 183*fig*; overhead projectors, 180*fig*, 191; portable technological, 177; U-shape style seating with, 179*fig*; V or Chevron style with, 178*fig*; as workshop success factor, 105. See also Flip charts
- Estra, I., 284
- Evaluation: ADL/IE process of, 138–139; End-of-Session Evaluation form for, 140, 405*e*–406*e*; End-of-Session “T” Chart for, 407; field, 402–403; of learning success, 401–403; Live Voting activity for, 403–404; one-on-one, 402; process of active, 403–404; small-group, 420. See also Closure; Feedback
- Evaluation levels: behavior as, 141–142, 407–408; learning as, 140–141, 407; reaction of learners as, 139–140, 404; results as, 142, 408
- Evans, D., 419
- Existence Relatedness Growth theory, 19
- External practitioner perspective, 72
- Extrinsic (external) motivators, 18–19
- F
- Facilitators: enhancing role of, 19; skills used by, 260–261; training contract on roles of, 334*e*. See also Trainers
- Facilities: accessibility for all learners, 171; brain-based learning environment, 170–176; emergency exits/evacuation plans from, 176; furniture/seating arrangements in, 176–187, 328–329; lighting of, 171–172; room temperature of, 173–174; safety mechanisms in, 176; visit available venues to select best, 104; as workshop success factor, 104
- Feedback: asking for, 362–364; behavioral modeling providing positive, 236; brainstorming for, 226–227, 407; caution regarding language used for, 93; end-of-session evaluation forms for, 140; End-of-Session “T” Chart for, 407; importance of providing learners with, 366–367; 360-degree surveys for, 76. See also Evaluation; Learners
- Felt boards, 307
- Field evaluation, 402–403
- Fishbowl-style seating, 186*fig*
- Flash cards, 40
- Flexibility, 337–338
- Flip charts: The Big Book of Flip Charts (Lucas) resource on, 190, 193, 300; Change Bag, 348; color used on, 194–195; description and use of, 299–300, 304–305; designing creative pages for, 300–303; electronic, 303–304; Live Voting activity, 403–404; memory activity using, 368–370; for pages with quotes, 42; positioning your, 189*fig*; seating arrangements

- for use of, 180*fig*–181*fig*, 182*fig*–183*fig*, 184*fig*; tips for facility and use of, 188–190. See also Equipment; Static visual aids
- Floating rubber ducks activity, 400–401
- Flyers (marketing), 110–111
- Focus groups, 76
- Foldable strips of cardboard, 314
- Follow-up. See Session follow-up
- Fonteyn, M., 320
- Food. See Refreshments
- Formats. See Workshop delivery formats
- Freud, A., 56
- Furniture: comfort issues of, 176–177; instructor's table, 187; seating arrangements, 178–187; tablecloths used with, 186–187
- G
- Game Show Presenter (electronic game), 213
- Game Show Themes for Trainers* (CD), 201
- Games: baseball, 415; carnival type, 413, 415–416; as celebration activities, 413–414; Classroom Jeopardy (electronic game), 213; “concentration,” 385; dart ball, 415; engaging kinesthetic learners using, 45; engaging learners using, 230–231; Game Show Presenter (electronic game), 213; guidelines for choosing, 232; milk bottle, 415; musical chairs, 202; Plinko, 413–414; prize wheel spinner, 416; “Simon Says,” 364–365. See also Activities; Engaging learner strategies; Instruction strategies/methods
- Gardner, H., 8, 20
- Gardner's multiple intelligences: bodily-kinesthetic intelligence, 22–23; interpersonal intelligence, 25; intrapersonal intelligence, 25–26; linguistic intelligence, 23–24; logical-mathematical intelligence, 23; musical/rhythmic intelligence, 21–22; naturalistic intelligence, 26–27; overview of, 20–21*fig*; visual/spatial intelligence, 24–25, 229
- Gender differences, 167–168
- Gestures, 268–269
- Godwin, G., 358
- Graphic organizers, 309–310
- Graphics: clip art used as, 303; visual learning modalities and, 40
- Greeting learners, 332
- Ground rules, 90
- Group coaching, 411
- Group photographs, 412–413
- Guest speakers, 42
- H
- Handicapped, 80. See also Learners with disabilities
- Handouts: “administrivia” information on, 349; color used in, 192, 194; supplementing verbal information with, 94; tips on use of, 315–317
- “Happy Trails to You” (Rogers and Evans), 419
- Harvard Graphics, 285
- Hearing impairments, 86–88
- Herzberg, F., 8, 18
- Hierarchy of Needs theory, 18
- Hollow square/solid square seating with tables, 182*fig*
- Horseshoe-style seating with tables, 181*fig*
- Hotel accommodations, 107
- Humor: caution against using offensive, 359; caution regarding use of, 92; creating positive environment through, 338; engaging learners through, 220
- I
- “I Have a Dream” (King), 263
- Icebreakers, 374–379
- I'll Take Learning for 500*, 213
- In-basket activities, 45–46
- Instruction strategies/methods: for engaging learners, 41, 44, 219–242*e*, 364, 385, 407; as workshop success factor, 105. See also Activities; Games; Strategy for success
- Instructional system design (IDS): ADDIE process used in conjunction with, 127–139; chunking strategy of, 125–127; origins of, 124–125; training needs analysis role in, 74; workshop/training role of, 3–5. See also Workshop design
- Instructor's table, 187
- Interim reviews, 383–385
- Internal practitioner perspective, 71–72
- International Alliance for Learning (IAL), 49
- Internet resources, 298
- Internet/laptop connection, 178*fig*, 179*fig*, 181*fig*, 184*fig*, 190
- Interpersonal intelligence, 25
- Interpreters for hearing impairment, 86–87
- Interview training needs analysis, 76
- Intrapersonal intelligence, 25–26
- Intrinsic (internal) motivators, 18–19
- Introduction of workshop, 346–347
- J
- Jensen, E., 198, 200, 366
- Job aids, 311, 313–314
- Johnson, V., 191
- Joke telling. See Humor
- Journal writing, 232–233

K

Kennedy, J. F., 263

Kennedy, R. F., 263

Kinesthetic learning modality:
description of, 28, 31;
identifying learners with,
36–38; strategies for engaging learners, 45–48; tips for appealing to, 48

King, M. L., Jr., 263

Kirkpatrick, D., 139, 402

Kirkpatrick's evaluation
model, 139–142, 402,
404, 407–408

K.I.S.S. principle (Keep It Short and Sweet), 116

Knowledge exchange:

creating positive emotional
environment for, 327–340;
ensuring the, 391–395;
identifying your facilitator role in, 14–15; leading by example for, 340–346;
organizational support role in, 392–395; planning for successful outcome of, 320– 327; workshop components for, 346–352. See also

Behavior change; Learning;
Learning environment

Knowles, M., 8, 15

KSAs (knowledge, skills, and attitudes): adult learning for application of, 18; coaching to facilitate implementing,
410–411; enhancing learner's,
18; performance gap (PG) related to, 74–77; training
purpose to improve, 141,
250, 251

Kwik Chek Paddles, 339

L

L-tryptophan, 207–208

Language issues: non-verbal cues, 91; strategies for accommodating, 89–94. See also Communication

Laptop/Internet connection,
178*fig*, 179*fig*, 181*fig*,
184*fig*, 190

Last-minute check, 331

LCD projector: expensive and availability of, 293; seating arrangements for use of,
178*fig*–181*fig*; tips for facility and use of, 184*fig*, 187–188

Leading by example, 340–346

Learner accommodations:
cultural and language
differences and, 89–94;
hearing impairments
and, 86–88; learners with disabilities and, 82–84;
mobility impairments and,
88; vision impairments and,
84–85

Learner attention: curve of,
249*fig*; indicators of lost,
363; limiting video segments
to accommodate, 227;
MEGO effect (My Eyes Glaze
Over) and, 362–363; using noisemakers to attract, 197

Learner profile: importance of developing a, 69–70;
strategies for creating, 70–71

Learner readiness: connecting with learners to maintain,
361–374; ensuring,
358; managing learner
expectations to manage,
359–361; opening remarks to facilitate, 359. See also
Engaging learners

Learners: becoming a valuable resource to, 351–352;
building enthusiasm in,
256; building rapport with,
214; confirmation letter sent to, 325*e*–326*e*; conveying expectations to, 332–333;
empowering your, 338–339;
encouraging friendly
competition between,
223–224; engaging by using names of, 217–218*fig*;

ensuring internalization
of, 391–392; greeting
the, 332; identifying your audience among, 56–62;
interim reviews provided to,
383–385; last remarks to,
419; managing expectations of, 359–361; needs of diverse, 78–84; needs,
wants, and expectations of,
62–68; passing out paddles to encourage discussion by, 339–340; providing a “heads up” on the workshop to,
320–324; thanking your,
418; training contract with,
333*e*–334*e*; training needs analysis of, 71–78; words that strengthen relationships with,
262; workshop focus on your,
68–72. See also Attendees;
Engaging learners; Feedback
Learners with disabilities:
emergency exits/evacuation plans for, 176; facility accessibility for, 171; handling non-disclosure by, 81–82;
increasing your awareness about, 79–81; strategies for accommodating, 82–84. See also Handicapped
Learners with special needs:
accommodations for, 82–89;
awareness of, 79–80; cultural and language issues, 89–93;
facility accessibility for, 171;
strategies for handling non-disclosure by, 81–82
Learning: accelerated, 48–50;
brain-based, 50–52, 164–166;
evaluating success of,
401–403; factors affecting,
166–168; importance of nutrition on, 202–208;
memory relationship to,
367–368; power of color on,
191–195; power of sound

- and noise on, 195–202;
 principles of adult, 15–19;
 task-, problem-, or life-
 centered orientation to, 18;
 thank them as part of your closure, 418; workshop
 format relationship to, 5. See also knowledge exchange
- Learning environment: Baby
 Boomers (1946–1964) and,
 58–59; Builder Generation
 (1901–1945) and, 56–57;
 creating positive emotional,
 327–340; effect of sound and noise on, 195–202; furniture/
 seating arrangements for,
 176–187, 217–218*fig*,
 328–329; Generation Xers
 (1965–1980) and, 59–60;
 Millennials (1981–1999) and,
 61–62; power of color in, 39,
 191–195; tablecloths as part of, 186–187; technological tools for enhancing, 213.
See also Brain-based learning environment; Knowledge exchange
- Learning evaluation level,
 140–141, 407
- Learning events: building
 rapport with learners for,
 214; choosing right workshop
 structure for, 213–214;
 creating a stimulating,
 212–213; gaining and
 maintaining interest,
 216–224; training methods to aid with, 224–225. See also
 Lesson plans
- Learning factors: age differences,
 168; gender differences,
 167–168; understanding,
 166–167
- Learning Modalities Self-
 Assessment, 29*e*–31*e*
- Learning modalities
 (styles): addressing, 31,
 38–39; auditory, 28, 31,
 32–34, 42–44; importance
 of understanding, 27–28;
 kinesthetic, 28, 31, 36–38,
 45–48; self-assessing your,
 28–31*e*; visual, 28, 31, 34–36,
 39–42
- Learning objectives: action
 verbs for, 119*t*–120*t*;
 behavior component of,
 118; conditions component of, 118, 121; examples of behavioral, 122; identifying workshop, 117–118; standards component of, 121–122
- Learning Reflections activity, 397
- Lectures (“information dumps”), 42–43
- Lesson plan text: planning for required time, 154; three benefits of using detailed,
 153–154; on training aids
 and materials needed, 154–155; transition: between key points, 155–158
- Lesson plans: activities, 158–159;
 checklist for development of,
 150–151; color-coding items on your, 152; cover sheet and instructor notes components of, 152; developing comprehensive, 142, 149–150;
 repetition (redundancy)
 component of, 159; sample format for, 143*e*–149*e*; text components of, 153–159. See also
 Learning events
 “Letter to me” idea, 410
- Liberman, J., 172
- Light: Medicine of the Future*
 (Liberman), 172
- Lighting (room), 171–173
- Linguistic intelligence, 23–24
- Listening Assessment Self-
 Assessment, 275*e*–276*e*
- Listening skills: importance of developing, 274, 276; self-assessing your, 275*e*–276*e*;
 strategies for effective, 276–277
- Live Voting activity, 403–404
- Logical-mathematical intelligence, 23
- Long-term memory, 371–374
- Lotus Freelance, 285
- Lozanov, G., 8, 48–49
- Lucas, R. W., 31, 68, 149,
 193, 410
- “Lunch and Learn” mini-seminars, 410
- M
- Mager, R. F., 117, 118
- Magnetic boards, 306–307
- Mail follow-up, 409
- Marketing strategies: using articles, e-zines, flyers or posters, 110–111; e-mail to targeted list, 108–109;
 mail to potential attendees,
 109; using partnerships as,
 111; setting up advanced workshop marketing, 327;
 speaking engagements as,
 112; telephone contact as,
 109; website listing as, 110; as workshop success factor, 108
- Maslow, A., 8, 18
- MEGO effect (My Eyes Glaze
 Over), 362–363
- Memory: flip chart activity to improve, 368–370; learning relationship to, 367–368;
 long-term, 371–374; repeat
 information to aid, 159,
 367–368, 373; short-term
 (working), 370–371
- Microsoft PowerPoint,
 285, 289
- Milk bottle game, 415
- Millbower, L., 201
- Millennials (1981–1999), 61–62
- Miller, G. A., 125, 370
- Mind maps, 40, 310–311, 312*fig*
- Mirror images slide, 288*fig*
- Mnemonic devices, 43
- Mobility impairments, 88–89
- Morning snack, 206–207

- Motivation: adult need for learning, 15–16; intrinsic and extrinsic, 18–19
 “Mozart effect,” 198
 Multicultural communication: guidelines for improving, 279–280; increasing your awareness of, 278
 Multimedia, 298
 Multiple intelligences. See Gardner’s multiple intelligences
 Murphy’s law, 337–338
 Music: closing rituals using, 416–417, 419; copyright issues related to using, 114, 417; “Pomp and Circumstance” when passing out certificates, 418; sparking emotion using, 199–200; value of using, 197–199. See also Sounds
 Musical chairs game, 202
 Musical/rhythmic intelligence, 21–22
 Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 26
- N
 NASA (National Aeronautics and Space Administration), 174
 National Speakers Association (NSA), 260
 Naturalistic intelligence, 26–27
 9/11 attacks, 176
 Noisemakers. See Sounds
 Nominal group process activity: conducting, 233–234; description of, 233; principles of, 235
 Non-verbal communication: distracter types of, 269–270; gestures as, 268–269; practicing, 267–270; watching learners for non-verbal cues and, 362–363
 Note-taking: engaging kinesthetic learners with, 46; engaging visual learners with, 39
- Novell Presentations, 285
 Nutrition: “brain foods,” 202, 203–206; learning and, 202–208. See also Refreshments
- O
 Obama, B., 263
 Odors, 174–175
 On-the-job observation, 75
 One-on-one coaching, 410
 One-on-one evaluation, 402
 101 Movie Clips That Teach and Train (Pluth), 297
 Online computer help screens, 313
 Online registration software, 112
 Open square seating with tables, 183fig
 Open-ended questions, 271–272
 Opening comments, 347–348, 359
 Oral instructions, 43–44
 Organizational learning support, 392–395
 Overhead projectors, 180fig, 191
 Overhead transparencies, 293–295
- P
 Paint mental pictures, 41
 Partnership marketing approach, 111
 PDAs (personal digital assistants), 349
 Performance: gathering data or reports on, 75; on-the-job observation of, 75
 Performance gap (PG): formula for determining, 74; learning objectives to close the, 118; needs analysis strategies for determining, 74–77
 Personal Profile System (PPS), 26
 Photographs, 41
 Plants/vegetation, 174
 Plays (or acting out skits): engaging kinesthetic learners with, 46; organizing team, 22
- Plinko game, 413–414
 Pocket guides, 313
 Positive attitude, 255–256
 Positive emotional environment: atmosphere of trust for, 335–337; doing a last-minute check for, 331; empowering your learners for, 338–339; ensuring adequate support for, 330; focusing on the details for, 330–331; follow structured process for, 346; following a plan for, 329; introductory activity creating “rules” for, 335; making the first few minutes count, 332–333; preparing nurturing and welcoming atmosphere, 327–331; remaining flexible for, 337–338; start on time for, 345–346; workshop components and strategies for, 346–352
 Posters: marketing, 110–111; as visual aid, 308–309
 PowerPoint, 285, 289
 Pre- and post-test comparison, 141
Preparing Objectives for Programmed Instruction (Mager), 117
 Presenters, 260
 Prize wheel spinner, 416
 Problem solving, 46
 Professional image: being prepared as part of, 251–253; clothing for, 192, 253–255; projecting a, 251–259, 341–346
 Professionalism: admitting mistakes as conveying, 257–258; confidence versus cocky, 256–257; guidelines for, 281; positive attitude and enthusiasm projecting, 221–222, 255–256; simple guidelines for projecting, 281. See also Trainers

- Props: colored, 195; engaging kinesthetic learners with, 46
Public workshop provider, 73–74
Puzzles, 236
- Q
Question-and-answer (Q&A), 236–237
Questioning skills, 270–272
Questionnaire (training needs), 76
Questions: asking for learner feedback through, 363–364; closed-ended, 270–271, 272; listening by asking appropriate, 277; open-ended, 271–272
- R
Reaction of learners evaluation level, 139–140, 404
Rectangular/conference-style seats with tables, 183*fig*
Reference guides, 313
Reflections for the Senses (slide presentation), 191
Refreshments: “adminstrivia” information on, 349; afternoon snack, 208; lunch, 207–208; morning snack, 206–207; providing advance workshop information on, 324; workshop design planning on, 107. See also Nutrition
Registration, 112–113
Repetition (redundancy), 159, 367–368, 373
Results evaluation level, 142, 408
Review activity, 350–351
Reward system information, 349
Rhymes, 43
Rhythmic sounds, 44
Rock, C., 221
Rogers, R., 419
ROI (return on investment), 142
Role play: engaging kinesthetic learners with, 47; engaging students through, 237–238
Room temperature, 173–174
Rush Hour (film), 221
- S
Safety mechanisms, 176
Sample Leaf activity, 399*fig*
Say It with Charts: The Executive’s Guide to Visual Communication (Zelancy), 310
Scheduling: day of the week, 99–100; month, 102–103; time of day, 100–102
Seating arrangements: circular-style, 184*fig*; circular-style with table, 181*fig*; cluster-style with tables, 182*fig*; cluster-style without tables, 185*fig*; creating positive and emotional environment using, 328–329; crescent-style with tables, 180*fig*; crescent-style without tables, 184*fig*; double U-shape style, 180*fig*; fishbowl-style without tables, 186*fig*; hollow square and solid square with tables, 182*fig*; horseshoe-style with tables, 181*fig*; open square with tables, 183*fig*; rectangular and conference-style with tables, 183*fig*; remembering learner names through charts of, 217–218*fig*; U-shape style, 179*fig*; V or Chevron style, 178*fig*
Self-study courses, 2
Sequential order approach, 123–124
Serotonin, 208
Session follow-up: e-mail or e-Group, 409–410; group coaching, 411; importance of the, 408–409; mail, 409; one-on-one coaching, 410; telecoaching, 411; teleseminar or teleclass, 2, 106, 411; “Tip of the Week,” 410
Short-term (working) memory, 370–371
“Simon Says,” 364–365
Simple to complex approach, 124
SimSoc (Simulated Society), 47
Simulations, engaging kinesthetic learners with, 47
Sizzle & Substance (Jensen), 366
Skinner, B. F., 125
Skits: engaging kinesthetic learners with, 46; organizing team, 22
Small group activities: cluster-style seating for, 185*fig*; fishbowl-style seating for, 186*fig*; getting learner feedback through, 364. See also Dyads
Small group discussions: dyads or triads for, 230; learners with disabilities and, 84; learning facilitated through, 44; triad, 230. See also Dyads
Small-group evaluation, 402
Smells, 174–175
“Smile sheets,” 140
Society of Neuroscience, 197
Sounds: attracting learner attention using, 197; distracting, 196; impact on workshop, 195–202; workshop design inclusion of, 44. See also Music
Soundtracks for Learning (Brewer), 199
Speaking engagements (as marketing), 112
Spelling errors, 258
Staff: planning accommodations for, 107; travel arrangements for, 107; as workshop success factor, 103–104. See also Trainers
Stage fright, 342–344
Static cling pages (sheets), 308
Static visual aids: additional examples of, 314–315; description of, 299; dry erase boards, 305–306; electronic writing surfaces,

- Static visual aids (continued)
 307; felt boards, 307; graphic organizers, 309–310; handouts, 94, 192, 194, 315–317, 349; job aids, 311, 313–314; magnetic boards, 306–307; mind maps, 40, 310–311, 312*fig*; posters, 308–309; static cling pages, 308; tent cards, 311. See also Flip charts
- Story of the Day activity, 399–400
- Storytelling: auditory learners and, 44; creating atmosphere of trust through, 336–337; engaging learners through, 219–220, 239
- Strategy for success: activity for creating workshop “rules,” 335; addressing learning modalities, 31; Baby Boomer learning environment, 59; brainstorming session, 227; Builder Generation learning environment, 57; building learner enthusiasm, 256; carnival games during closing celebrations, 415–416; color of clothing tips, 255; color used on workbook cover sheets, 194; color-coding lesson plan items, 152; computer-generated slides, 295; creating brain-based learning experiences, 166; creating workshop ground rules, 90; dealing with spelling errors and other mistakes, 258; demonstrations, 229; doing advance analysis of workshop learner knowledge, 52; emergency exits/evacuation plans, 176; encouraging timely return from breaks, 224; end-of-session evaluation forms, 140; End-of-Session “T” Chart, 407; energizer activity, 379–383; engaging students through physical activities, 364–365; flip chart memory activity, 368–370; flip charts tips, 301–303; flip-chart pages with quotes, 42; floating rubber ducks activity, 400–401; for Generation Xers learning environment, 60; handling non-disclosure from learners with disabilities, 81–82; using humor, 220–221, 338, 359; icebreakers, 377–379; identifying trainee expectations, 67–68; importance of facility selection, 171; incorporating adult learning principles into workshop as, 20; instructor’s tables, 187; introducing smells into learning environment, 175; introductory transition phrases, 155–158; learner profile development, 70–71; maintaining your enthusiasm, 222; for Millennial learning environment, 52; on multiple marketing efforts, 108; using music, 200; musical chairs, 202; noisemakers and sounds, 44; 101 Movie Clips That Teach and Train (Pluth), 297; opening comments, 347–348; passing out paddles to encourage discussion, 339–340; “Pomp and Circumstance” when passing out certificates, 418; practicing changing voice inflection, 265; pre- and post-test comparison, 141; professionalism guidelines, 281; providing written materials supplementing verbal information, 94; Reflections for the Senses (slide presentation), 191; registering attendees, 113; relaxation techniques, 345; remembering learner names by seating chart, 217; review activity, 350–351; role play, 238; seating arrangements for positive environment, 328–329; setting up advance workshop marketing, 327; software packages for slides, 289; sounds for attracting learner attention, 197; TAG Attention Getter, 259; team skits, 22; technological tools for enhancing learning, 213; “Tip of the Week,” 410; tips for appealing to kinesthetic learners, 48; tips on using handouts, 316–317; training needs analysis, 76–77; visit available workshop venues, 104; workshop flyer, 111. See also Instruction strategies/methods
- Stretching exercises, 47–48
- Subject-matter expert (SME), 19
- “Suggestology,” 49
- T
- Tablecloths, 186–187
- Tables/charts, 41
- TAG Attention Getter, 259
- Team skits, 22
- Telecoaching, 411
- Telephone marketing, 109
- Teleseminars (or teleclasses): description of, 2, 106; follow-up coaching through, 411
- Tent cards, 311
- Thanking your learners, 418
- Thatcher, M., 263
- The Thiagi Group, 231
- 3M, 308
- 360-degree surveys, 76
- “Tip of the Week,” 410
- Toastmasters International, 260
- Top Tunes for Teaching* (Jensen), 200
- Trainers: avoiding stage fright, 342–344; being a valuable resource to learners,

- 351–352; certification of, 260; communication skills of, 267–274, 278–280; creating positive emotional environments, 327–340; excel in your role as, 19; external practitioner as, 72; humor used by, 92, 220, 338, 359; identifying your facilitator role, 14–15; improving your questioning skills, 270–272; internal practitioner as, 71–72; learner profile development by, 69–71; listening intently to learners, 274–277; polishing your speaking skills, 262–267*e*; preparing for a positive outcome, 248–250; professionalism of, 250–259, 281; projecting positive personal image, 341–346; public workshop provider as, 73–74; trainer needs analysis by, 71–78; Training Pre-Planning Checklist for, 131*e*–136*e*; training, presentation, and facilitation skills of, 259–262. See also Facilitators; Professionalism; Staff; Workshops
- Trainer's toolkit, 252–253
- Training: instructional system design (IDS) role in, 3–5; KSA improvement object of, 141, 250, 251; relationship between workshop and, 1–3. See also Workshops
- Training aids: audiovisual, 284–298; doing a last-minute check on, 331; static types of, 299–317; two key things to remember about using, 284; as workshop success factor, 105
- Training contract, 333*e*–334*e*
- Training needs analysis: additional sources for, 77–78; determining performance gap (PG), 74–77; external practitioners perspective on, 72; internal practitioner perspective on, 71–72; public workshop provider perspective on, 73–74
- Training Pre-Planning Checklist, 131*e*–136*e*
- Transition phrases, 155–158
- Travel arrangements, 107
- Tree of Learning activity, 397–398*fig*
- Triad discussion groups, 230
- Trust building, 335–337
- Two-Factor theory, 18
- U
- U-shape style seating, 179*fig*
- V
- V or Chevron style seating, 178*fig*
- Vegetation/plants, 174
- Video clips, 41
- Video-based workshops, 2
- Videotape/DVD, 297
- Vision impairments, 84–85
- Visual aids: audiovisual type of, 284–298; static types of, 299–317; two key things to remember about using, 284; as workshop success factor, 105
- Visual learning modality: description of, 28, 31; using flip-chart pages with quotes for, 42; identifying learners with, 34–36; strategies for engaging learners, 39–42
- Visualizations (visioning), 41, 239–240
- Visual/spatial intelligence, 24–25, 229
- VoxProxy, 289
- W
- Web sites: animated clip art, 39; author's, 52; on brain-based learning resources, 52; CCICOLOR Institute for Color Research, 192; Change Bag, 348; Kwik Chek Paddles, 339; Reflections for the Senses, 191
- Webinars, 2, 106
- Website marketing, 110
- Website seminars, 3
- “Who's on First” (Abbott and Costello clip), 221
- Wolverton, B. C., 174
- Word association, 44
- WordArt slide, 287*fig*
- Working (short-term) memory, 370–371
- Workplace diversity: meeting learner needs in context of, 78–93; reality of, 78
- Worksheets: Chronological Résumé, 240*e*–242*e*; Communication Self-Assessment, 267*e*; Confirmation Letter, 325*e*–326*e*; End-of-Session Evaluation, 405*e*–406*e*; Learning Modalities Self-Assessment, 29*e*–31*e*; Lesson Plan Format, 143*e*–149*e*; Listening Assessment Self-Assessment, 275*e*–276*e*; Training Contract, 333*e*–334*e*; Training Pre-Planning Checklist, 131*e*–136*e*
- Workshop components: body of workshop, 349–350; closure of, 140, 350–352, 388–419; introduction, 346–347; opening comments, 347–348, 359; session follow-up, 2, 106, 408–411; workshop flow, 349. See also Workshops
- Workshop delivery formats: ADDIE process of planning, 138–139; importance of, 6–7; learning outcomes related to, 5; overview of various, 1–2; sequential order of, 123–124; as success factor, 105–106; typical options for, 106

- Workshop design: breaks, 83–84, 200–201, 224, 349; common elements to consider in, 130, 136–137; comprehensive lesson plan component of, 142–159; copyright permission for, 113–115; development phase tasks for, 137–138; evaluation component of, 138–142; focusing on specifics, 116; helping learners to make connections, 116–117; identifying learning objectives, 117–122; K.I.S.S. principle (Keep It Short and Sweet), 116; making everything meaningful, 115; sequencing content, 122–124. See also ADDIE process; Instructional system design (IDS)
- Workshop flow (“administrivia”), 349
- Workshop information: advance preparation requirements, 322; any restrictions, 323–324; confirmation letter sent to participants, 325e–326e; identifying academic and professional credits, 323; location, parking, entrance, 321; pertinent reminders, 324; planned meals and refreshments description, 324; program description and objectives, 322; security instruction, 321–322; timing and dates of workshops, 320–321
- Workshop rules, 335
- Workshop success factors: equipment, training aids, strategies or methods as, 105; facility as, 104; food and refreshments, accommodations, and travel arrangements as, 107; format as, 105–106; marketing as, 108–112; powerful workshop title as, 98–99; registration as, 112–113; scheduling as, 99–103; staff as, 103–104
- Workshop title, 98–99
- Workshops: choosing the right structure for engaging learners, 213–214; creating ground rules for, 90; double-checking everything an hour before, 331; elements of a successful, 98–107; focusing on your learners, 68–72; how development impacts the, 6; instructional system design (IDS) role in, 3–5; interim reviews during, 383–385; knowledge exchange during, 14–15, 320–352; preparing for a positive outcome, 248–251; refreshments/snacks during, 107, 206–208; relationship between training, 1–2; start on time, 345–346; Training Pre-Planning Checklist for, 131e–136e. See also Strategy for success; Trainers; Training; Workshop components
- X
- Xers (1965–1980), 59–60
- Y
- Yeats, W. B., 388
- Z
- Zelancy, G., 310
- Ziglar, Z., 263