

INDEX

A

“About Me” section, 250, 255–256, 328–329
Acceptable use policies (AUPs): best practices for blog, 87; description of, 2; e-discovery of, 37; helping to manage vicarious liability, 13–14, 24, 25; media policy audit questionnaire on, 153–154; mobile device use, 108–109, 118; prohibiting anonymous blogging and posting, 223; reputation management through use of, 221–222; social media policy audit of your, 139–162; testing your know-how about, 4; tips for blogging, 87, 95–99. See also Best practices; Sample policies; Social media policies
Accident-related liability, 23, 25, 114–118
Acknowledgment: form requirement, 208–209
Action plan. See Social media action plan
Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 20
Amended Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP), 313–314. See also Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP)
American Management Association, 7, 19, 23, 68, 73, 114, 118, 172, 211
American Medical Response (AMR), 71–72
American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), 324
Americans with Disabilities Act, 20
Anonymous blogging, 101
Anti-Defamation League, 188
Archive: categories of, 316; definition of, 314
ArcMail Technology, 44
Armstrong, Heather B., 320
Associated Press, 69
Attachment, 314

Audits. See Social media policy audits
Authenticity, 314
Automatic archiving system, 34

B

Backup system: definition of, 315; ESI stored using, 33; “virtual shredding” of tape, 33–34
Banning sites: German workplace practice of, 80; growing challenge of, 169–170. See also Blocking sites
Best practices: automatic archiving of ESI, 34; blog policies, 87, 95–99, 102–105; company privacy and security, 66, 80–81; compliance management, 8; compliance with international privacy laws, 14, 76, 113; a comprehensive legal review of policy as, 231–232; content management rules, 198–199; effective records management team and record retention policy, 45–47; effective social media policies, 87, 166, 180–181; employee privacy protection, 68; financial services industry regulatory compliance, 59; know the state rules affecting your company, 39; knowing international privacy/monitoring laws, 76; legal compliance, 23–25; management of third-party comments, 95–99; management of vicarious liability risk, 13–14; mobile devices use, 25, 110–114, 119–120; policy is essential to compliance management, 8; policy training, 212–213, 222; private social networks, 60–61, 327, 331, 336; records management and e-discovery compliance, 47–49, 327; Regulation FD

- compliance, 55; regulatory compliance, 63–64; reputation management, 221–229; reviewing your ESI legal compliance, 43; seven-step action plan, 130–131; social media and networking policies, 70–71, 72–73, 87, 166, 180–181; social media policy audit, 161–162; SOX compliance, 55; technological tools supporting regulatory rules, 113–114. See also Acceptable use policies (AUPs); Social media policies
- Blawg, 315
- Blocking sites: employee gripe, 223; German workplace practice of, 80; growing challenge of, 169–170. See also Banning sites
- Blog policies: best practices for, 87, 95–99, 102–105; creating community guidelines for, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; litigation hold, 325–326; making sure that you have up-to-date, 87; samples of different, 249–280; tips for managing third-party comments, 95–99; writing rules for business bloggers, 99–102
- Blogger written rules: adhering to FTC blogging rules, 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 184, 196, 223, 225–226, 322; on banning anonymous blogging, 101; financial, 100; on handling media inquiries, 100; requiring a legal disclaimer, 102; reviewing posts prior to publication, 102
- Bloggerati, 315
- Bloggers: “About Me” information or profile of, 250, 255–256, 328–329; citizen journalists, 317; definition of, 315; engaging brand, 226–227, 316; form relationships with influential, 226
- Bloggging: banning anonymous, 223; on Deepwater Horizon oil spill by “Leroy Stick,” 219–220; mobile, 326
- Bloggging risks: confidentiality, 90–91; electronic discovery, 91; litigation, 88; productivity, 92; public relations disasters and blog mob attacks, 92–93; regulatory, 88–89; security, 89–90; splog (fake blog), 89, 90. X-rated blogs, 187–188
- Blogosphere, 315
- Blogroll, 315
- Blogs: “About Me” profile of, 250, 255–256, 328–329; business, 14–17, 24; C-level executive, 225; CEO’s ability to create and respond to news through, 95, 224–225; definition of, 315; dos and don’ts to manage content, 191–198; e-discovery of, 30–43; e-discovery risk of, 91; Federal Trade Commission (FTC) rules governing, 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 184, 196, 223, 225–226, 322; FINRA rules on, 56–57, 89, 208, 322; as heart of web 2.0, 83–84; how resentful employees use, 9–10, 203–204; how they can benefit your business, 93–95; litigation hold on, 325–326; mobile devices used for, 87–93; permalink (“permanent”) links on, 327; photoblog type of, 328; reputation management by using, 227; reputation management through monitoring of, 222–223; self-assessing your know-how about, 84–87; social media policy audit on use of, 136; social media presence through, 138, 224; Technorati’s 2010 State of the Blogosphere report on, 88; thinking before you post, 188–191; vlog (video) type of, 335; web diary type of, 336; workplace risks of mobile, 88–93. See also Third party blog comments
- Blogstorms (cybersmear), 92–93, 315–316, 318
- BP reputation attacks, 219–220
- Brand bloggers, 226–227, 316
- Breach notification laws, 316
- Burson-Marsteller’s The Global Social Media Check-Up, 218
- Business blogs: ensuring legal compliance, 15–17, 24; legal liabilities triggered by, 14
- Business blogs best practices: deactivate your blog’s comment function, 16–17; establish community blogging guidelines for third parties, 15; requiring visitors to register before commenting on your blog, 15; review third-party comments prepublication, 16
- Business-critical email, 316
- Business record, 316
- C
- C-level executive blogs, 225
- CareerBuilder survey, 7
- Categories, 316
- Cell phones. See Mobile devices; Smartphones
- Chats, 316–317
- Chief executive officers (CEOs): blogs written by, 94; C-level executive blog by, 225; creating and responding to news through blogs, 95, 224–225; educating external online community role of, 211; positioning as “thought leader,” 94; written policy support by, 180
- Chief financial officers (CFOs): C-level executive blog by, 225; positioning as “thought leader,” 94
- Chief information officers (CIOs): C-level executive blog by, 225; educating external online community role of, 211; policy on ISP connection authorization by, 303; positioning as “thought leader,” 94; as social media policy team member, 125–126; social media risks expressed by, 75–76; written policy support by, 180
- Chief information security officers (CISOs): educating external online community role of, 211; social media risks expressed by, 76
- Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (1998), 284
- Citizen journalists, 317
- Civil e-discovery procedures: Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP) on, 5, 32–35; individual state rules on, 39–42, 333
- Clearswift’s Web 2.0 in the Workplace Today report (2010), 2, 6, 80

- CNN, 69
 ComedyCentral.com, 170
 Comment spam, 89–90, 317
 Comments: definition of, 317; risks of third party blog, 30–43, 89–90, 95–99, 217; threads of, 333–334
 Communication: how blogs facilitate two-way, 94; social media form of, 332; Web 2.0 form of, 335
 Communications Decency Act (1996), 217, 219, 317
 Community blogging guidelines, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180
 Compliance management. See Social media compliance management
 Confidentiality: blogging risk to, 90–91; HIPAA rule on, 60–62, 89, 91, 113, 184, 321, 324–325. See also Privacy; Privacy laws
 Connections (LinkedIn), 317, 326
Consumer Reports 2010 “State of the Net” survey, 66
 Content: definition of, 317–318; hidden readers of, 325; intended readers of, 325; rules governing, 184–199, 206; unintended readers of, 334
 Content risks: Anthony Weiner scandal, 185; bloggers who break boundaries, 187–188; dos and don’ts to manage, 191–198; sexual harassment, 186–187; Tweets triggering terminations, 187; YouTube video, 188
 Content rules: best practices for management of, 198–199; compliance management role of, 184–185; dos and don’ts, 191–198; think before you post or publish, 188–191; training on, 206; understanding consequences of broken, 185–188. See also Netiquette
 Content syndication, 318
 Copyright: definition of, 318; DMCA protections for, 17–18, 25, 97–98, 319; don’ts to avoid violating, 193; providing instructions for reporting infringement of, 98–99; risk of violating, 17
 Corporate evangelists, 318
 Credibility: examples on how content can destroy, 185–188; unauthorized photos/videos impacting, 5
 “Cross promoting” policies, 139
 Customer evangelists, 318
 Cybersmear (blogstorms), 92–93, 315–316, 318
 Cybersmear lawsuit, 228–229. See also Reputation management
- D
 Daimler, 80
 Dallas Mavericks–San Antonio Spurs basketball game, 69
 Data Protection Act (UK), 76
 DAX 30 Financial Index, 80, 318–319
 Deepwater Horizon oil spill (2010), 219–220
 Defamation: company liability for, 18; definition of, 18, 319, 325; “false light,” 218; libel versus slander forms of, 325, 331
 Deleted file, 319
 Deletion schedule, 319
 Delicious, 331
 Destructive retention policy, 44–45, 319
 Deutscher Aktien 30 Index, 318–319
 Digg: allowing damaging content to last forever, 217; as social bookmarking site, 331; social media policy audit on use of, 136
 Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), 17–18, 25, 97–98, 319
 Digital Sky Technologies, 57
 Discrimination: job applicant screening triggering claims of, 19–20, 74; “protected classes” and, 19–20, 74, 329
 Domino’s employees’ YouTube, 220
 Dooced, 320
 Doximity, 60, 320
 “Drivers’ ed” training, 117–118
 Driving: Facebook posting while, 115; high cost of distracted, 115; pending legislation on cell phone bans while, 117; vicarious liability of accidents while, 23, 25, 114–118
- E
 e-Discovery: Amended Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP) application to, 314; blogging risk to, 91; complexity and time-consuming task of, 35–38; definition of, 30, 320–321; Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP) for, 5, 32–35; media policy audit questionnaire on, 142–143; real-life open records disaster stories, 43; sampling of types of documents included in, 36–38; states rules of civil procedure and guidelines for, 39–42, 333; testing your know-how about, 28–29
 Electronic Business Communication Code of Conduct, 309–311
Electronic Business Communication Policies and Procedures Survey (2009), 6, 19, 23, 68, 114, 118, 211
 Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA), 67, 205, 222, 238, 298, 320
 Electronic protected health information (EPHI): confidentiality requirement for, 90; definition of, 321; dos and don’ts to protect, 192, 196; HIPAA privacy requirements for, 60–62, 89, 91, 113; private social networks to protect, 60–61, 327, 331, 336; samples of different policies on, 267, 301. See also Health care information
 Electronically stored information (ESI): Amended Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP) on, 313–314; backup tape used to store, 33–34; best practice recommendation to archive, 34; e-discovery of, 30–43, 320; Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP) on, 5, 32–35, 46; how to identify a, 31; legal definition of, 6, 30–31;

- legal penalties for failure to produce, 34–35; media policy audit questionnaire on, 143–144; OCC Advisory on financial services firms and, 58; retention issues of, 44–45; sampling of types of documents requested, 36–38; social media policy audit on exposure of, 136. See also Record retention/management
- Email: best practice advice for employee privacy of, 67; business-critical, 316; deleted file of, 319; deletion schedule for, 319; destructive retention approach to, 44–45; e-discovery of, 30–43, 320–321; legally defined as ESI, 6, 30–31; netiquette used for, 197, 198, 212, 327; no expectation of privacy for employee, 67; open records disaster stories about, 43; sample policy on, 298–302; sexual harassment through, 186–187; thinking before you post, 188–191; X-rated postings, 187–188. See also Instant messaging (IM)
- Employee gripe sites, 223
- Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), 44
- “Employee Rights Under the National Labor Relations Act” poster, 71, 252, 263, 268
- Employees: acknowledgment form signed by, 208–209; best practice for privacy protection by, 68; conducting “drivers’ ed” for, 117–118; docced for blogging, 320; Electronic Business Communication Code of Conduct for, 309–311; expectations of privacy by, 67–68, 204–205; Generation Y (Millennials) employees, 73; how blogs can recruit and retain, 95; how social media can derail hiring of, 19–21, 73–75; how social networking can lead to termination, 68, 69, 71–72; liability from resentful, 9–10, 203–204; mobile devices and accident-related liability by, 23, 25, 114–118; motivating social media policy audit participation by, 140–141; no expectation of privacy by, 67; positioning organizational relevance to younger, 224; posting notice of rights under NLRA for, 71; providing copy of policy to every, 209–210; social media policy audit questionnaire for, 155–160; social media policy training for, 13, 117–118, 123, 201–213, 222; tweets that trigger terminations of, 187. See also Job applicant screening
- Encryption, 78–79, 321
- Enterprise-grade social networking, 321
- Entry (post), 322, 328
- The ePolicy Institute, 6, 7, 19, 23, 68, 73, 115, 118, 172, 211
- Erasing data remotely, 112
- F
- Facebook: children’s names and photos posted on, 66; community guidelines for, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; consequences of inappropriate use of, 5; corporate banning of, 6, 80; definition of, 322; developing social media presence using, 138; e-discovery of, 30–43, 320–321; employee termination over posting on, 69; employee time spent on, 6–7; FINRA rules on, 57; friends on, 324; how resentful employees use, 9–10; legally defined as ESI, 6, 30–31; mobile device risks related to, 109; number of active users on, 216; patient information being posted on, 66; personal use rules on, 165–171; as possible barrier to employment, 7; posting while driving, 115; Regulation FD violations related to postings on, 56; reputation management by using, 227; screening job applicant using, 20; social media policy audit on use of, 136; social media presence through, 138, 224; U.S. and international corporations using, 218
- Fact-checkers, 217
- Fadlallah, Grand Ayatollah Mohammed Hussein, 69
- Fair Credit Reporting Act, 20
- “False light” defamation claim, 218
- Farm Boy, 69
- FDIC Advisory, 58–59
- Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP): know and adhere to, 32–35, 99-day rule of, 34; records management team familiarity with, 46; testing your knowledge of, 5. See also Amended Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP)
- Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 184, 196, 223, 225–226, 322
- FedEx, 116
- TerceHealthIT’s Hospital Impact blog, 80
- Filtering, 322
- Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), 56–57, 89, 208, 322
- Financial regulatory compliance: Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), 56–57, 89, 208, 322; Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), 53–54, 89, 91, 184, 324; IT Risk Management Program (IT-RMP), 58–59; NYSE risks and, 58; OCC Advisory on electronic record keeping, 58; Payment Card Industry–Data Security Standard (PCI DSS), 58; Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX), 54, 55, 330–331; SEC Regulation Fair Disclosure (FD), 54–56; Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and, 44, 88–89, 184, 208, 228, 331; “three-e” approach to effective, 52, 63; U.S. Patriot Act, 59
- Firewall, 322–323
- First Amendment, 205, 323
- Flickr: definition of, 323; how resentful employees use, 9–10; personal use rules on, 165–171; social media policy audit on use of, 136
- Followers, 323
- Forums, 323
- Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 29, 30, 42, 323–324, 327
- Freedom of speech, 205
- Friends, 324
- Fulbright’s Seventh Annual Litigation Trends Survey*, 51

G

“Generation Standby” workers, 2
 Generation Y (Millennials) employees, 73
 German Frankfurt Stock Exchange, 318–319
 Germany: DAX 30 Financial Index of, 80, 318–319; proposed law prohibiting workplace social media use, 75; social media sites banned at workplaces in, 80
The Global Social Media Check-Up (Burson-Marsteller), 218
 Goldman Sachs, 57
 Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), 53–54, 89,
 91, 184, 324

H

Health care compliance: HIPAA and, 60–62, 89,
 91, 113, 184, 321, 324–325; HITECH data security rules, 77–78, 324; protected health information (PHI) encryption security, 78–79,
 321; real-life HIPAA disaster stories on, 61–62
 Health care information: HIPAA protection of, 60–62, 89, 91, 113, 184, 321, 324–325;
 HITECH data security rules on, 77–78, 324;
 how mobile devices increase security risks for,
 79–80; physician-only sites for exchanging,
 60–61, 320, 327, 331, 336. See also Electronic protected health information (EPHI)
 Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH) Act, 77–79, 324
 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability
 Act (HIPAA), 60–62, 89, 91, 113, 184, 321,
 324–325
 Hidden readers, 325
 “The Huffington Post,” 219
 Human resources (HR) director, 126

I

Instant messaging (IM): definition of, 325; media policy audit questionnaire on, 153; sample policy on use of, 302; sexual harassment through, 186–187. See also Email; Text messaging
 Intellectual property (IP): definition of, 325; risk of exposure, 91. See also Security risks
 Intended readers, 325
 International laws: researching privacy, 14, 113;
 U.S. privacy laws versus, 76, 113
 Internet: firewalls between private networks and the, 322–323; social media policy on, 303–305
 IT director, 125–126
 IT Risk Management Program (IT-RMP), 58–59

J

Job applicant screening: Germany proposed law prohibiting social media, 75; how social media can prevent hiring, 73–75; online mistaken identities when, 20–21; social searches and discrimination claims, 19–20, 74. See also Employees

L

Laptops: how wage and hour laws are impacted by, 21; legal risks driven by, 22–23. See also
 Mobile devices
 Leahy, Patrick, 67
 Legal compliance: to battle vicarious liability, 13–14, 24, 25; best practices for, 23–25;
 copyright, 17–18; media policy audit questionnaire on, 141–142; media social policy helping to maximize, 11; screening job applicants, 19–21; understanding how social media maximizes exposure, 10; wage and hour laws, 21. See also Regulatory compliance
 Legal disclaimers, blog rule requiring, 102
 Legal risks: business blogs and third parties creating, 14–17; copyright violations, 17–18, 97–99; defamation claims, 18, 218, 319, 325;
 how mobile devices help drive, 22–23, 107–120;
 how smartphones impact wage and hour laws,
 21; invasion of privacy claims, 19; media policy audit questionnaire on, 141–142; media social policy helping to minimize, 11; screening job applicants using social media, 19–21. See also
 Litigation liability; Social networking risks
 Legislation: Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 20; Amended Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP), 313–314; American
 Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA),
 324; Americans with Disabilities Act, 20;
 cell phones bans while driving, 117;
 Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act
 (1998), 284; Digital Millennium Copyright Act
 (DMCA), 17–18, 25, 97–98, 319; Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA), 67,
 205, 222, 238, 298, 320; Employee Retirement
 Income Security Act (ERISA), 44; Fair Credit
 Reporting Act, 20; Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP), 5, 32–35, 46; Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 184, 196, 223, 225–226, 322; Financial
 Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA),
 56–57, 89, 208, 322; Freedom of Information
 Act (FOIA), 29, 30, 42, 323–324, 327;
 Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), 53–54, 89,
 91, 184, 324; Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH)
 Act, 77–79, 324; Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 60–62, 89,
 91, 113, 184, 321, 324–325; National Labor
 Relations Act (NLRA), 68, 70, 71–72, 205,
 251, 263, 268, 326–327, 329; Payment Card
 Industry-Data Security Standard (PCI DSS), 58;
 Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX), 54, 55, 330–331;
 SEC Regulation Fair Disclosure (FD), 54–56;
 Title VII (Civil Rights Act), 20; Uniform
 Free Trade Secrets Act, 334; United States
 Communications Decency Act, 217, 219, 317;
 U.S. Patriot Act, 59. See also United States
 Lenses (Squidoo), 332–333
 Liability. See Litigation liability
 Libel, 325

Library of Congress, 98, 318

LinkedIn: community guidelines for, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; connections in, 317, 326; consequences of inappropriate use of, 5; definition of, 326; FINRA rules on, 56–57, 89, 208, 322; how resentful employees use, 9–10, 89, 208; social media policy audit on use of, 136

Links: definition of, 326; permalink (“permanent”), 327

Litigation hold, 325–326

Litigation liability: blogging risk for, 88–89; cybersmear lawsuit, 228–229; “false light” defamation claim, 218; media policy audit questionnaire on mobile devices and, 150–151; mobile devices and, 23, 25, 114–118, 150–151; from resentful employees, 9–10, 203–204; respondeat superior, 330; vicarious liability and, 11–14, 23, 24, 25, 114–118, 150–151, 334–335. See also Legal risks; Real-life disaster stories

M

Mackey, John, 57

Managers: creating separate audit questionnaire for, 140; public relations (PR) manager, 127; records, 126; social media policy audit questionnaire for, 141–154; training, 126–127

Massachusetts’ data security laws, 78–79

McAfee report Web 2.0: A Complex Balancing Act, 184, 216

Media relations director, 127

Microblogging, 326

Millennials (Generation Y) employees, 73

Mistaken identities, 20–21

Mobile blogging, 326

Mobile devices: acceptable use policies for, 108–109, 118; best practices for, 25, 110–114, 119–120; blogging with, 87–93; definition of, 326; health care security risks increased by, 79–80; how the bottom line is affected by, 109–111; how wage and hour laws are impacted by, 21; legal risks driven by, 22–23, 107–120; Massachusetts’ data security laws on, 78–79; media policy audit questionnaire on risks of, 150–151; pending legislation on driving while using, 117; reimbursement rules for, 110–111; sample policy on cell phone and text messaging, 286–291; sample policy on smartphone and mobile devices, 292–297; security risks increased by, 111–114; sexual harassment through, 186–187; vicarious liability related to, 23, 25, 114–118. See also Laptops; Smartphones

Monitoring: content management by being aware of company, 194; international employer research of rules for, 14; international privacy laws versus U.S. laws on, 76, 113; legal rights of U.S. employers to engage in, 13; policy training on realities of, 204–205; possible employee termination due to, 68; reputation management through, 222–223. See also Privacy laws

MSM (mainstream media), 326

N

National Highway Transportation Safety Administration, 115

National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), 68, 70, 71–72, 205, 251, 263, 268, 326–327, 329

National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), 68, 70, 205, 327

Netiquette, 197, 198, 212, 327. See also Content rules

New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), 58

Newsvine, 332

99-day rule (FRCP), 34

Nixle, 327

Nucleus Research, 6

O

Oakwood Hospital (Michigan) HIPAA violation, 62

Obama, Barack, 185, 324

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) Advisory, 53

Ohio State University, 78

Onex Corp., 25

Online community: creating social media guidelines for third party, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; policy education for your external, 211; reputation attacks from the, 216–220; reputation management following attacks by, 221–229, 329. See also Third party blog comments

Open records disaster stories, 43

Open records (state sunshine) laws, 42, 327, 333

Organizational productivity. See Productivity risk

Outbound Email and Data Loss Prevention in Today’s Enterprise, 2010 survey (Proofpoint), 22, 91, 111, 184

P

Page (social media site), 327

Payment Card Industry–Data Security Standard (PCI DSS), 58

PeerCase, 60, 327

Permalink (“permanent link”), 327

Personal data, 328

Personal use rules: application to personal tools, 169; best practice for, 166; challenge of banning and blocking sites to enforce, 169–170; providing clear and specific, 165; sample policy and, 167–168; video snacking and, 170–171, 335; what constitutes effective, 166–167

Pew Internet & American Life Project, 2010, 138

Photoblog, 328

Physician-only sites, 60–61, 320, 327, 331, 336

Plagiarism, 193, 328

- Podcast, 328
- Policies. See Sample policies; Social media policies
- Policy compliance management. See Social media compliance management
- Policy portal solution, 328
- PoliticalLunch.com, 170
- Post (entry), 322, 328
- Privacy: employee expectations of, 67–68, 204–205; legal rights of international vs. U.S. employees, 13–14; real-life story on breach of patient, 66. See also Confidentiality
- Privacy laws: best practices for compliance with, 80–81; Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA), 67, 205, 222, 238, 298, 320; employees have no expectation of privacy under, 67–68; Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 60–62, 89, 91, 184, 321, 324–325; invasion of privacy claims under, 19; jurisdiction variations on, 75–76; legal rights of U.S. employers, 13; real-life story on patient privacy poached, 66; researching international rules and, 14; taking swift action in case of violation, 14; U.S. monitoring laws versus international, 76, 113. See also Confidentiality; Monitoring; Security laws
- Privacy Rights Clearinghouse, 78
- Private social networks, 60–61, 327, 331, 336
- Productivity risk: blogging as, 92; media policy audit questionnaire on, 145–148; social media as drain and, 6–7
- Profile (“about me” information), 250, 255–256, 328–329
- Proofpoint’s Outbound Email and Data Loss Prevention in Today’s Enterprise, 2010 survey, 22, 91, 111, 184
- Proprietary information, 329
- “Protected classes,” 19–20, 74, 229
- Protected concerned activity, 329
- Protected health information (PHI): issue of, 78; mobile devices and breach of, 79
- Public relations: bloggers and cybersmear disasters for, 92–93, 315–316, 318; drafting plan addressing social media disasters, 227–228; responding quickly to online attacks, 221. See also Real-life disaster stories; Reputation management
- Public relations (PR) manager, 127
- companies, 61, 62; on mobile device, 23, 79–80; on mobile phone use while driving, 115; on NLRB lawsuit over employee termination, 71–72; on Ohio State University’s computer system breach, 78; on open records, 43; on patient privacy being poached, 66; on stolen patient records, 79; on Whole Foods Market CEO’s social networking posts, 57. See also Litigation liability; Public relations
- Record retention/management: destructive retention approach to, 44–45; establishing a policy for, 47; forming a records management team to oversee, 45–47; issues to consider for, 44–45; media policy audit questionnaire on, 143–144; testing your know-how about, 28–29. See also Electronically stored information (ESI)
- Records management team, 45–47
- Records manager, 126
- Reddit, 332
- Regulation FD, 54–56
- Regulatory compliance: logging risk for, 88–89; financial services firms and, 52–59; FTC rules governing blogging and tweeting, 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 134, 196, 223, 225–226, 322; impact of social media on health care, 60–62; importance of, 51–52; media policy audit questionnaire on, 144–145; social media best practices for, 63–64
- Regulatory Notice 10–06, 56
- Remote data erasing, 112
- Reputation attacks: cybersmear lawsuit response to, 228–229; description of, 93; drafting social media plan addressing, 227–228; real-life tale on BP experience with external, 219–220; real-life tale on Domino’s experience with internal, 220; respond swiftly to, 227; ten reasons why critics reply on social media for, 216–219
- Reputation management: best practices for, 221–229; definition of, 329; as primary business concern, 215–216. See also Cybersmear lawsuit; Public relations
- Reserve Management Co., Inc., 67
- Respondet superior*, 330. See also Vicarious liability
- ReTweet (RT), 329–330
- Risks. See Social networking risks
- RSS feed, 330
- RSS (Really Simple Syndication), 328, 330
- Q
- Qualcomm, 34
- R
- Real-life disaster stories: on employee MySpace profile, 12; on employee YouTube damaging Domino’s reputation, 220; on employees terminated for postings/tweeting, 69; on external online attacks against BP in 2010, 219–220; on HIPAA violations by health care
- S
- Safe harbor protection (DMCA), 18, 25, 98, 319
- Sample policies: Blog Policy, 1, 265–269; Blog Policy, 2, 270–272; Blog Policy, 3, 273–275; Cell Phone and Text Messaging Policy, 286–291; Community Guidelines for Blogs and Social Media, 1, 276–278; Community Guidelines for Blogs and Social Media, 2, 279–280; Electronic Business Communication Code of Conduct, 309–311; Email Policy in

- the Age of Social Media, 298–302; Internet Policy in the Age of Social Media, 303–305; Sexual Harassment Policy in Age of Social Media, 306–308; Smartphone and Mobile Device Policy, 292–297; Social Media and Blog Policy, 2, 253–258; Social Media and Blog Policy, 3, 259–264; Social Media Policy, 1, 233–236; Social Media Policy, 2, 237–244; Social Media Policy, 3, 245–248; Social Networking and Blog Policy, 1, 249–252; Social Networking and Video-Sharing Policy, 281–285. See also Acceptable use policies (AUPs); Social media policies
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX), 54, 55, 330–331
- SC Magazine, 65
- SEC Regulation Fair Disclosure (FD), 54–56
- SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission), 44, 88–89, 184, 208, 228, 331
- Security laws: best practices for compliance with, 80–81; best practices for mobile device compliance, 113–114; HITECH data security rules, 77–79, 324; media policy audit questionnaire on, 148–149; proposed data breach notification, 77. See also Privacy laws
- Security risks: best practices to limit mobile device, 111–114, 115, 119–120; blogging as, 89–90; media policy audit questionnaire on, 148–149; mobile devices and increased, 111–114. See also Intellectual property (IP)
- Self-assessment: your know-how about blogs, 84–87; your know-how about compliance management, 3–4; your know-how about e-discovery, record retention, and policy compliance, 28–29
- Sermo, 60, 331
- “Sext” messages: content risk of, 186; problem of employee-sent, 9; X-rated blogs or posts, 187–188
- Sexual harassment: content rules to prevent, 186–187; reporting suspected violations of, 307–308; sample policy on social media and, 306–308; “sext” messages as, 186, 187–188
- Sites: banning and blocking, 80, 169–170; employee gripe, 223; Germany practice of workplace banning, 80; physician-only, 60, 320; social bookmarking, 331–332; video-sharing, 335
- Slander, 325, 331
- Smartphones: definition of, 331; how wage and hour laws are impacted by, 21; legal risks driven by, 22–23; patient information security risk of, 80; pending legislation on driving while using, 117; sample policy on mobile devices and, 292–297; vicarious liability related to, 23, 25. See also Mobile devices
- Social bookmarking sites, 331–332
- Social media: definition of, 332; e-discovery of, 30–43, 320–321; lack of professional fact-checkers used in, 217; legal compliance related to, 9–25; legally defined as ESI, 6, 30–31; maximizing electronic exposures through, 10; netiquette rules for, 197, 198, 212, 327; risk management 101 for, 11–14; sexual harassment through, 186–187; widespread business use of, 1–2
- Social media action plan: best practices for a successful, 130–131; developing a time line for, 128, 130; sample of a, 129–130; small business owners and, 127–128. See also Social media policies
- Social media action plan steps: step 1: form a social media policy team, 122, 124–128; step 2: develop an action plan and time line, 122, 128–130; step 3: conduct social media policy audits, 122, 133–162; step 4: write effective policies/content rules, 122–123, 163–199; step 5: educate employees, 123, 201–213; step 6: enforce policy with disciplinary action, 123, 210–211; step 7: policy audits to support social media policy, 122–124, 134–162
- Social media compliance management: content rules critical to, 183–199, 207; legal aspects of, 9–25; need for strategic, 4–8; policy training programs for, 13, 117–118, 123, 201–213, 222; social media best practices for, 8; social media policy as foundation of, 5–6; testing your know-how about, 3–4
- Social media know-how: about blogs, 84–87; about compliance management, 3–4; about e-discovery, record retention, and policy compliance, 28–29
- Social media policies: using 21st-century tools to create effective, 164–165; best practices for, 87, 166, 180–181, 231–232; compliance management through best practices of, 8; a comprehensive legal review of, 231–232; conducting audits for, 122, 133–162; “cross promotion” of your, 139; employee and community education to support written, 177–180; establishment and annual update of, 13; mobile device use, 108–109, 118; personal use clear and specific rules for effective, 165–171; as social media compliance management foundation, 5–6; tips for blogging, 87, 95–99; tips for writing effective, 173–177; training employees for, 13, 117–118, 123, 201–213, 222; what constitutes effective written, 171–173. See also Acceptable use policies (AUPs); Best practices; Sample policies; Social media action plan
- Social media policy audits: as action plan step, 123–124; best practices for, 161–162; description of, 122, 133; employee questionnaire for, 155–160; managers, supervisors, and executives questionnaire for, 141–154; putting the results to work, 160–161; structuring an effective, 140–141; ten steps to, 134–139
- Social media policy team: action plan call for forming a, 124; CIO or IT director, 125–126; description of, 122; HR (human resources) director, 126; legal counsel or compliance officer of, 125; public relations (PR) manager

- or media relations director, 127; records manager, 126; senior executive of, 124–125; training manager, 126–127
- Social media policy training: best practices for, 212–213, 222; “drivers’ ed,” 117–118; educate your external online community, 211; managing vicarious liability through, 13; as part of action plan, 123; reputation management through, 222; tips for effective, 201–211
- Social media policy training tips: address privacy expectations and monitoring realities, 204–205; discuss business record retention and disposition, 207–208; educate everyone, 201–202; enforce policy and training with disciplinary action, 123, 210–211; help shield your organization from liability, 203–204; incorporate certification quizzes, 203; keep secrets safe, 207; maintain records of your training program, 209; ongoing instead of one-time event, 205–206; provide employee with copy of policy, 209–210; require users to sign acknowledgment forms, 208–209; review content rules, 206; review regulatory rules and requirements, 208; take advantage of multiple training options, 202–203
- Social media presence: developing a, 138; reputation management by creating, 224
- Social media risk management: best practices for legal compliance and, 23–25; of copyright violations, 17–18; of defamation claims, 18, 218, 319, 325; of invasion of privacy claims, 19; of mobile devices that help drive legal risks, 22–23; on screening job applicants using social media, 19–21; of smartphones impact on wage and hour laws, 21; of third parties risks for business blogs, 14–17; of vicarious liability, 11–14
- Social media written policy: ABCs of effective, 175–176; best practices for effective, 180–181; considering your audience, 171; creating community guidelines, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; employee and community education to support, 177–180; focusing on your policy goals, 172; tips for writing effective, 173–177; understanding trends in, 172–173
- Social networking: best practices recommendations on, 70–71, 72–73; content rules for, 184–199, 207; creating community guidelines for, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; enterprise-grade, 321; media policy audit questionnaire on business of, 152–153; media policy audit questionnaire on personal use of, 151; netiquette rules for, 197, 198, 212, 327; NLRB rules governing employee, 68, 70, 71–72, 205, 327; no expectation of employee privacy related to, 67; personal use rules on, 165–171; reputation management and recovery from nightmare, 215–229; sexual harassment through, 186–187. See also Technology
- Social networking risks: as barrier to employment, 7; blogging, 88–93; content rules to control, 184–199, 207; employee termination, 68, 69; ESI (electronic business records) as, 6; inappropriate tweets triggering lawsuits and audits, 5; leaked secrets sinking companies and careers, 5–7; liability from resentful employees, 9–10, 203–204; social media policy audit questionnaire on business use and, 152–153; social media policy audit questionnaire on personal use and, 151; social media creating productivity drain, 6–7; time-wasting employees as, 7; unauthorized photos/videos causing humiliation, 5; understanding the, 4–5. See also Legal risks
- Social networks, 332
- Socialtext, 136, 167, 332
- Souza, Dawnmarie, 71–72
- Spam blogs (splog), 89–90, 332
- Spoliation, 332
- Squidoo: definition of, 332–333; social media policy audit on use of, 136
- State of Enterprise Security Report* (Symantec), 77
- State of the Blogosphere* report (Technorati), 88, 115
- “State of the Net” survey (Consumer Reports), 66
- State rules of civil procedures: definition of, 333; e-discovery, 39–42; FOIA and state sunshine laws, 42, 327, 333
- Stick, Leroy (alias), 219–220
- StumbleUpon, 331
- Sunshine (open records) laws, 42, 327, 333
- Symantec’s 2011 State of Enterprise Security Report, 77
- T
- Tablet PCs: definition of, 333; how wage and hour laws are impacted by, 21; legal risks driven by, 22–23
- Tehotchke, 333
- Techmeme, 217, 333
- Technology: archive, 314, 316; Internet, 303–305, 322–323; portal, 328; social media policies using 21st-century tools, 164–165; web 2.0, 335. See also Social networking
- Technorati: monitoring through, 223; 2010 State of the Blogosphere report, 88, 115
- Terminations: doctored for blogging, 320; how social networking can lead to, 68, 69, 71–72; how tweets can trigger, 187
- Text messaging: accident-related liability related to, 23, 25, 114–118; sample policy on cell phone and, 286–291; “sex,” 9, 186, 187–188. See also Instant messaging (IM)
- Third party blog comments: addressing readers,’ 97; deactivating the comment function for, 97; e-discovery of, 30–43, 320–321; legal liability protection from, 217; republication review of, 96–97; risk of splog and comment spam, 89–90, 332; threads of, 333–334; tips for managing blog, 95–99. See also Blogs; Online community

Third party liability: business blog best practices for minimizing, 15–17; for business blogs, 14; defamation claims related to, 18, 319; DMCA safe harbor protection from, 18, 25, 98, 319

Threads, 333–334

“Three-e” approach, 52, 63

Title VII (Civil Rights Act), 20

Title XIII (ARRA), 324

Trade secrets, 334

Training manager, 126–127. See also Social media policy training

Tweeters: engaging brand, 226–227, 316; form relationships with influential, 226

Tweets: definition of, 334; ReTweet (RT) of, 329–330; that trigger terminations, 187

Twitter: Anthony Weiner’s credibility destroyed by, 185; banning anonymous, 223; community guidelines for, 15, 96, 171–172, 173–174, 179–180; confidentiality breaches due to, 6; consequences of inappropriate use of, 5; corporate banning of, 6, 80; definition of, 334; developing social media presence using, 138; dos and don’ts to manage content, 191–198; employee termination over posting on, 69; Federal Trade Commission (FTC) rules governing, 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 184, 196, 223, 225–226, 322; FINRA rules on, 56–57, 89, 208, 322; followers of, 323; how resentful employees use, 9–10; legally defined as ESI, 6, 30–31; number of active users on, 216; personal use rules on, 165–171; reputation management by using, 227; ReTweet (RT) on, 329–330; screening job applicant using, 20; sexual harassment through, 186–187; social media policy audit on use of, 136; social media presence through, 138, 224; termination triggered by, 187; thinking before you post, 188–191; @Username component of, 314

2009 Electronic Business Communication Policies and Procedures Survey, 6, 19, 23, 68, 114, 118, 211

U

UBS, 33, 172

Uniform Free Trade Secrets Act, 334

Unintended readers, 334

United Kingdom: Data Protection Act of, 76; privacy laws of the, 76

United States: civil procedure in individual states in the, 39–42, 327, 333; First Amendment and freedom of speech in the, 205, 323; international privacy laws versus monitoring laws of, 76, 113. See also Legislation

United States Communications Decency Act, 217, 219, 317

United States Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 62–63, 77, 78, 89, 101, 184, 196, 223, 225–226, 322

University of California–Los Angeles (UCLA) Health System, 61

URL block, 334

U.S. employers, legal right to monitor by, 13

U.S. Patriot Act, 59

@Username, 314

V

Vicarious liability: definition of, 11–12, 24, 334–335; media policy audit questionnaire on mobile device risks for, 150–151; mobile devices and accident-related, 23, 25, 114–118; MySpace profile story on, 12; seven best practices to help battle, 13–14, 24. See also Respondent superior

Video blog (vlog), 335

Video-sharing sites, 335

Video snacking, 170–171, 335

Virgin Atlantic, 69

Vlog (video blog), 335

W

Web 2.0, 335

Web 2.0: A Complex Balancing Act report (McAfee), 184, 216

Web 2.0 in the Workplace Today report (2010), 2, 6, 80

Web diary, 336

Weiner, Anthony, 185

Whole Foods Market, 57

Wiki, 336

Wikipedia, 336

Worm, 336

Written policy. See Social media written policy

Y

Yammer, 136, 167, 336

YouTube: definition of, 336; developing social media presence using, 138; Domino’s employees’ damaging, 220; e-discovery of, 30–43, 320–321; how resentful employees use, 9–10; legally defined as ESI, 6, 30–31; mobile device risks related to, 109; number of videos uploaded daily on, 216; personal use rules on, 165–171; police officer and sister post racist videos, 188; reputation management by using, 227; sexual harassment through, 186–187; social media policy audit on use of, 136

Z

Zubulake, Laura, 33