

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
INTRODUCTION	1
1. KEY THEMES IN VIETNAM'S CONSTITUTIONS AND CONSTITUTIONAL DEBATES	5
Introduction	5
The Special Problem of Party Constitutions	8
The Death of South Vietnam's Constitutions—and the Beginnings of Re-Reading in Vietnam Today	15
The Constitution of 1956	15
Southern Constitutional Politics in the 1960s	20
The 1967 Constitution	22
Further Reading	26
2. THE 1946 CONSTITUTION: A CHARTER FOR INDEPENDENCE AND UNITY	27
The Ethos of the 1946 Constitution	27
Rights and Duties in the 1946 Constitution	28
The Economic System	30
The Role of the Legislature and Its Standing Committee	30
Referenda and Recall Processes in the 1946 Constitution	32
Referenda	32
Recall	32
The Role of the President	33
The Government	34
Local Government	36
The Judiciary	37
Interpretation, Enforcement and Amendment of the Constitution	38
The 1946 Constitution in the Light of History	38
The Aftermath of the 1946 Constitution	39
Further Reading	44

3. THE 1959 CONSTITUTION: A CHARTER FOR SOCIALISM IN THE NORTH	45
Defining the Nation in the 1959 Constitution	48
The Economic and Social System of Early Socialism	48
Rights and Duties of Citizens	50
The Role of the National Assembly in a Socialist State	51
The Role of the President	55
The Role and Functions of the Government	55
The Challenges of Local Government	56
The Role of the Judiciary and Procuracy	58
Amendment and Revision of the Constitution	60
The Problems of Referenda and Recall—and Democratic Decline in the 1959 Constitution	60
The 1959 Constitution and the Years After	62
Further Reading	65
4. THE 1980 CONSTITUTION: A CHARTER FOR REUNIFICATION UNDER SOCIALISM	67
The Relationship between the Party and the Constitution	69
The Role of the National Assembly, Local People’s Councils and Mass Organisations	70
The Role of Government and Executive Agencies	71
Economic Policy in an Era of Socialism	73
The Rights and Obligations of Citizens	74
The Roles of the Courts and Procuracies	76
Key Problems in Implementing the Constitution	79
The 1980 Constitution in Historical Perspective	80
Further Reading	82
5. THE 1992 CONSTITUTION: A CHARTER FOR RENOVATION (DOI MOI)	83
The Framework of the 1992 Constitution	84
The Preamble: Setting the Stage by Reviewing Vietnamese History and the Role of the Constitution	84
The Political System: The Role of the Communist Party	86
The Political System: Institutional Elements	89
The Economic System	90
Culture, Education, Science and Technology	92
Rights and Duties of Citizens	92
The National Assembly	96
The State President	98

The Government	100
Local People's Councils and People's Committees	102
The Courts and the Procuracy	103
The National Flag, Emblem, National Anthem, Capital and National Day	107
The Role of the Constitution and its Amendment	107
The Contentious 1990s in Vietnam and the Constitution	107
Further Reading	109
6. REVISING THE 1992 CONSTITUTION: DEBATES AND DECISIONS AFTER FIFTEEN YEARS OF RENOVATION (DOI MOI)	111
The Implications of Constitutional Debate	111
The Process of Revising the 1992 Constitution	113
Broadening the Debate	115
Channelling the Debate and Agreeing on Constitutional Amendments	118
Continuing the Debate at the National Assembly	119
The 2001 Revisions to the 1992 Constitution	120
Vietnam's Patriotic Traditions	120
Strengthening a 'State Governed by Law' and Government Coordination (Not Separation of Powers)	120
Strengthening the Constitutional Discussion of Corruption, Bureaucratism and Officials' Links to Citizens	121
Gradually Increasing Recognition of Social Organisations	121
Economic Reform, the Private Economy, Markets and International Economic Integration	121
A Renewed Emphasis on Science and Technology	123
Enhancing the Role of Foreign Investment	123
Strengthening the State Commitment to Education at a Time of Rapid Economic Reform	123
Strengthening Outreach to Overseas Vietnamese	123
Strengthening Government Accountability—Votes of Confidence on Government Officials in the National Assembly	124
Clarifying the Roles of the National Assembly, the Government and the Prime Minister	125
Narrowing the Jurisdiction and Functions of the Supreme People's Procuracy	125
Dealing with Difficult and Controversial Amendments	126

The Aftermath of the Constitutional Amendment Process	127
Further Reading	129

7. IMPLEMENTING CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEES: THE PROBLEM OF

ASSOCIATIONAL RIGHTS	131
Freedom of Association and Its Implementation in Vietnam	131
The Role of Associations and Other Voluntary Organisations	133
Control Mechanisms in the Legal Regulation of Social Organisations, 1946–90	135
Opening Channels for Social Organisations through the Transition from ‘Approval’ to ‘Registration’ in the 1992 Science and Technology Decree	138
Recognition of Social Organisations in the 1995 Civil Code	140
The Long Road toward the Constitutional Guarantee of Freedom of Association: The Law on Associations in Vietnam	141
The Battleground of the 2003 Decree on the Organisation, Operation and Management of Associations	142
Debating the Constitutional Guarantee: The Conflicts over the Law on Associations	145
Should Party-Related Mass Organisations be Subject to the Law on Associations?	147
Should the ‘Dual Management’ Role of the State be Maintained?	148
How Complex and Cumbersome Should Registration of Associations Be?	149
The Problem of Geographic Restrictions on Registration	149
Should Non-Resident Vietnamese, Foreigners and Foreign-Invested Enterprises in Vietnam be Permitted to Join Vietnamese Associations?	150
Detailing the Constitutional Guarantee: The Alternative Draft Law on Associations (2005–06)	150
Conflict, Denouement—and Beginning Again	150
Awaiting the Constitutional Guarantee of Freedom of Association	152
Implementing the Constitutional Guarantee: Key Issues for the Future	152
Prohibited Purposes and Activities and the Scope of Constitutional Guarantees to Form Associations	153
Should the ‘Dual Management’ Role of the State be Maintained?	153

Will Party-Related Mass Organisations be Subject to the Law?	154
How Complex and Cumbersome Should Registration of Associations Be?	154
Geographic Restrictions on Registration	155
Organisational Membership: Non-Resident Vietnamese, Foreigners and Foreign-Invested Enterprises in Vietnam	155
The Special Role of Government Appropriations	156
The Scope of Advocacy Allowed to Associations	157
The Role of Taxation in Associational Formation and Regulation	157
Fighting for Civil Society? Constitutionalism and the Conflict over the Law Governing Freedom of Association	157
Further Reading	159
8. THE PROBLEM OF JUDICIAL INDEPENDENCE IN A PARTY-DOMINATED STATE	161
The Do Son Land Case and the Emergence of Judicial Interference onto the Public Stage	163
Sidestepping a Constitutional Guarantee through Policy and Official Letters (Cong Van)	170
Judicial Interference Unresolved	173
The Long and Tortuous Road Ahead for Judicial Independence in Vietnam	173
Demanding Results from the Courts, Not Seeking Their Autonomy	174
Official Letters and the Perversion of Judicial Autonomy	176
Party Regulation versus the Constitutional Guarantee of Judicial Autonomy	177
The Results of Do Son	177
Lifting the Veil on Interference with the Judiciary and Legal Process	178
Further Reading	181
9. ENFORCING THE CONSTITUTION: THE DEBATE OVER 'CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION' AND A CONSTITUTIONAL COURT	183
Early Discussion of Constitutional Review, Enforcement and Protection in Vietnam (1946–57)	185
Constitutional Supervision and Enforcement (1959–92)	186
The 1992 Constitutional Framework and Beyond: Constitutional Enforcement and Review in the Vietnamese Constitutional Scheme	186

The Constitutional Revision of 2000–01 and the Debate on Constitutional Review and Enforcement	188
The Renewed Discussion of Constitutional Review after the 2001 Constitutional Revisions	191
The Current Debate: Delineating Options and Debating Structures for Constitutional ‘Protection’, Enforcement and Review	193
Constitutionality and the Hierarchy of Law: The Problem of Over-Reaching Local and Ministry Legislation and Legal Documents	195
Motorcycle Rights: Constitutionalism Hits the Streets in Hanoi and the Implications for Constitutional Review and Enforcement	197
Moving Forward on Constitutional Debate	200
The Future of Constitutional Review and Enforcement in Vietnam	207
Further Reading	210
AFTERWORD: THE FUTURE OF THE VIETNAMESE CONSTITUTION	211
Bibliography	213
Index	217