

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
CHAPTER 1 Who Am I, and Why the Heck Should You Listen to Me?	1
You don't know me from anyone—but I'm known. And I've gotten my clients known. Who am I? Why should you listen to me?
CHAPTER 2 PR Basics	11
What IS PR? What is GOOD PR? What is BAD PR? What makes reporters want to listen? What makes them want to shut you off and block your e-mail from their system? What makes reporters and the public nappy? What makes them unhappy?
CHAPTER 3 Coming Up with the Off-the-Wall Idea, and Making It Stick	33
Talking about how not to be afraid of reaction to an idea, the beginnings of how to think differently, ways to get into that kind of think-different mindset, getting out of the office and into a good brain. . . ROAR to get your idea approved!
CHAPTER 4 Coming Up with and Implementing the Big Idea—Part One	51
WebDive 2000 and our first of many “ARE YOU INSANE?” comments.

CHAPTER 5	Coming Up with and Implementing the Big Idea—Part Two The Flying Fingers Yarn Bus—Best Campaign of 2005.	69
CHAPTER 6	Coming Up with and Implementing the Big Idea—Part Three The AirTroductions Launch—One website, over 250 media outlets around the world.	87
CHAPTER 7	Coming Up with and Implementing the Big Idea and What Happens When It's Too Successful? The RegisterFree.com Free Domain Name Hour—Or, how to shut down the Internet.	107
CHAPTER 8	What Happens When You Lose Your Voice? Legal has just told you to shut up. Or a 60 Minutes crew is waiting in your lobby. No matter how much fun PR is, there's always crisis management to think of. A primer.	127
CHAPTER 9	You Don't Have to Run Over Someone to Get Press It's not about celebrity all of the time. In fact, sometimes it can be, just by not being.	145
CHAPTER 10	What Happens When Your Perfectly Thought-Out Plan Hits a Snag? When your parachute opens and you get spun around, line twists are often the result. Kicking out of them tends to work and get you down safely. Here's how to kick out of potential snags that could leave you hung up.	163

CHAPTER 11	Putting It All Together	177
	Wrap-ups, what we've learned, what if something happens that we didn't talk about.
CHAPTER 12	The Resources Section!	193
	Places to get more info, websites, mailing lists, groups, organizations, etc.
Index		205

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>