

Index

A

Anxiety

Baby Boomer

generation, 74, 78, 118

frustration with

technology, 156, 158, 168, 169, 173, 186

Attitudes, generational. See

Generational attitudes

Automation, 22, 23

B

Baby Boomer generation

anxiety, 74, 78

attributes, 45, 57, 63, 68–71, 79, 80

birth years, 3, 18

and blogging, 8, 82

and career changes, 11

and change, rapid pace of, 74, 183–185

and changing workforce,
17

and collaboration

technology, 64, 213

and decline of standards, 82 education, 71

executives, 69

frustration with

technology, 156, 158, 168, 169, 173, 186

Generation X, conflicts with, 145, 150

and generational bias in technology, 152

high-tech devices as status symbols, 73

Internet use, 12, 75, 165

late-wave Boomers, 68, 132–135, 146, 152.

See also Generation
X-ecutive

leadership, 77, 152

learning, 12, 13, 75, 166–168, 213. See also

Older Adults

Technology Services
(OATS)

life span, 66

- Baby Boomer (Continued)
 management style, 69, 76, 77
 older Boomers, 11, 65, 68–71
 and personal computers
 (PCs), 68, 72–74, 132, 134 retirement, 11, 18, 19, 22, 70, 71
 second-wave. See Generation X-ecutive
 and technology, 4–8, 64, 71–84
 technology workstyle, 59, 60
 and top-down versus bottom-up information environments, 79–84
 and training programs,
 75. See also Older
 Adults Technology Services (OATS); Training and retraining transition into old age, 63
 values, 70
 work ethic, 71, 73, 132, 144, 147, 172
 workforce contributions, 71 workforce percentage, 64
 workstyle matrix, 58
- Blogger, 28
- Blogs and blogging, 28, 29, 33, 64, 81–83, 86, 99,
 105, 109, 113, 116,
 122, 124, 125, 147,
 181, 182, 212, 213,
 215–217, 219, 223,
 226, 229, 230, 234, 239
- Board of the Future. See
 Microsoft Information Worker Board of the Future
- C
- Change
 management, 11
 rapid pace of, 74, 183–185
 receptiveness to, 75
 as result of technology, 27–35
- Chief executive officers
 (CEOs), 69
- Collaboration technology
 and Baby Boomers, 64,
 73, 180, 186, 213
- blogs. See Blogs and blogging
- collaborative filtering, 175
- and digital age gap, 76
- and knowledge
 management, 86–88
 and Millennials, 92, 105,
 106, 115, 116–118,
 120, 121, 124
- and productivity, 26, 27

- and security issues, 122, 123
 - self-regulation, 83
 - and Silent generation, 79, 180, 186
 - university group
 - example, 4–8
 - wikis. See Wikis
 - work, impact on, 28–30
 - and younger workers, 12
- Competitive advantage, 25–27
- Competitive disadvantage, 76–78
- Complexity
 - and connected information technologies, 26
 - proficiency with software versus competence in subject matter, 40, 41
 - software, 36–38
 - specialization and isolation, 38–40
- Computer-aided design (CAD), 37, 38
- Conflict
 - Baby Boomers and Generation X, 145, 150
 - Baby Boomers and technology, 4–8
 - and digital age gap, 212
 - Generation X and Millennials, 145, 150
 - and generational technology issues, 11
 - and generational work attitudes, 18
 - seniority and resistance to knowledge sharing, 41
- Connected information, 18, 23, 26–28, 30, 33–35, 38, 74, 79, 116, 131, 132, 155–157, 172–174, 212, 216, 220, 238
- Content subscription services, 26
- D
- Demographics, 19–21
- Digital age gap
 - benefits of technology, need for clear explanation of, 211–217
 - bridging, 231–237
 - business context for technology policies, 217–220
 - collaboration technology, 76
 - conflict between people and technology, 212
 - and organizational culture, 225–230
 - outlook, 237–239
 - and personal computers, 3
 - and workstyles, 220–225

- Digital Generation. See Millennials generation
- Disruptive impact of technology, 35–41
- Distance learning, 86
- Distributed workplace, 30–32
- Diversity of workforce, 10
- E
- Echo Boomers. See Millennials generation
- Education, 35, 202. See also Learning; Training and retraining
- Enterprise information systems, 32
- Enterprise search, 26
- Europe, skills shortage in, 21, 22
- F
- Facebook, 28, 93, 100, 112
- Forecasting and generational analysis, 48–50
- Frustration with technology, 156, 158, 168, 169, 173, 186
- G
- Gates, Bill, 208
- Generation Jones, 132
- Generation X. See also Generation X-ecutive
- attributes, 18, 57, 135–139
- Baby Boomers, conflicts with, 145, 150
- birth years, 3, 18, 135
- as entrepreneurs, 140, 141
- ethnic diversity, 135
- as executives managing change, 11
- and generational bias in technology, 152
- leadership, 131, 132, 150–152
- military experience, 139
- Millennials, conflicts with, 145, 150
- and personal computers (PCs), 131, 132, 136, 137
- second-wave Boomers, 68
- and social networking, 213
- and technology, 138, 145–150
- technology workstyle, 59, 60
- and telework, 141–144
- values, 46
- workforce characteristics, 140–145
- workplace goals, 211, 212
- workstyle matrix, 58

- Generation X-ecutive, 11, 131, 132, 150–152
- Generation Y (Why). See Millennials generation
- Generational analysis
- as forecasting methodology, 48–50
 - generational attributes, 57
 - and stereotypes, 50, 51
 - use of, 61
 - workstyles, 56, 58–60
- Generational attitudes
- described, 53, 54
 - exceptions, 52, 53
 - impact of, 10–13, 54, 55
 - and organizational approach to technology, 55
 - and productivity, 11, 12
 - research and perspectives on, 51, 52
 - role of, 3
 - and stereotypes, 1
 - and technology, 49, 50, 54, 55
 - and workstyles, 18, 56–61
- Generational differences
- versus age differences, 3, 4, 45–47. See also Generational attitudes
 - Baby Boomers example, 4–8
 - and changing workforce, 17, 18
 - Millennials example, 8–10
- Generational personalities. See attributes under individual generations
- Generations and life stages, 45–47
- Global Business Network (GBN), 193, 196
- Government and public agencies
- age of workforce, 22
 - and future shortage of workers, 10
- Guest worker programs, 22
- H
- Hackers, 133, 136
- I
- Immigration, 22
- Information work, 24–27
- Innovation, resistance to, 12, 13
- Instant messaging (IM)
- Baby Boomers, 147
 - Generation X, 147
 - Millennials, 99, 105, 106, 108, 111, 118, 122–125, 213
- Internet
- and Millennials, 97–99, 101
 - relevance of research to older adults, 165
 - senior use of, 12, 75

- IT initiatives and failure to consider workstyles, 12
- J
 “Just-in-time comprehension,” 35
- K
 Kamber, Thomas, 159–169, 175, 176
 Knowledge capture, 41, 85–88
 Knowledge economy, 2
 Knowledge loss, 85, 86
 Knowledge management (KM), 86–88
 Knowledge sharing, 40, 41
- L
 Leadership
 Baby Boomers, 77, 152
 Generation X, 131, 132, 150–152
 Generation X-ecutive, 131, 132, 150–152
 Learning
 forecast for, 206
 Millennials, 118, 119
 older adults, 12, 13, 75, 166–168.
 See also Older Adults Technology Services (OATS)
 Life stages, 45–47
 LinkedIn, 28
- M
 Management
 Baby Boomer
 management style, 69, 76, 77
 change, 11
 knowledge management (KM), 86–88
 Marketing, technology products, 52
 Mashups, 26
 Microsoft Corporation, 191, 208, 209
 Microsoft Information Worker Board of the Future
 2004 Board, 193–197
 2005 Board, 197–209
 forecasts, 205–208
 outcomes, 208, 209 purpose of, 192, 193 scenario planning, 193–197, 203–205 survey of perceptions, 200–203 Millennials generation attributes, 9, 57, 91–96, 102–109
 authority, response to, 96, 104, 108, 109
 birth years, 3, 18
 and blogs, 99, 103, 110, 113, 116, 122, 123, 125
 boomeranging, 103

- and changing workforce, 17, 189
 - collaborative orientation, 35
 - expectations and job satisfaction, 120–125
 - global orientation, 93, 104, 108, 109, 112, 113, 125
 - impact on workforce, 189, 190. See also Microsoft Information Worker Board of the Future
 - instant messaging (IM), 99, 105, 106, 108, 111, 118, 122–125
 - Internet use, 97–99, 101
 - as members of workforce, 102–104
 - and mentoring programs, 109
 - military experience, 93
 - multitasking, 92, 99, 100, 116–119
 - and personal computers (PCs), 97
 - priorities, 109–116
 - social networking, 91, 93, 100, 104–106, 107, 108, 112, 113, 116, 122, 125
 - and social responsibility, 113
 - and strategic planning, 189–191, 209. See also Microsoft Information Worker Board of the Future
 - teamwork, 94, 105, 115, 116
 - and technology, 8–10, 18, 19, 96–102, 120–125
 - technology workstyle, 59, 60
 - training, 114, 115, 116
 - and transparency, 104, 112, 113, 122
 - values, 46, 47
 - volunteerism, 96, 112
 - work ethic, 96, 117
 - workplace goals, 212
 - workstyle, 116–119, 125
 - workstyle matrix, 58
- Mobile devices, 147, 148
- Mouse and keyboard familiarity, 164, 165
- Multitasking, 92, 99, 100, 116–118
- MySpace, 50, 94
- N
- NetGen. See Millennials generation
- Nontraditional workers, 22, 23
- O
- Offshoring, 22

- Older Adults Technology Services (OATS)
 blogging, 181, 182, 185
 collective knowledge, 179–181 confidence, instilling, 170–174, 184, 185 distrust, 228
 founding of, 159
 intergenerational program, 182, 183, 235 key concepts to training older adults, 186, 187 key principles, 163–169 learning environment, 174–176 learning style of older adults, 162, 163, 166–168
 and Millennials, 109
 mission, 159
 nonlinear, unmanaged information, dealing with, 176–182 program overview, 160 rapid change, keeping up with, 183–185
 Senior Planet Web site, 179, 180 skills and experience of older workers, value of, 172–174
 social networking, 181, 182, 184 success of program, 159, 160, 187, 228 validating information, 177–179 workforce development training, 160–162
- P
- Personal computers (PCs)
 and Baby Boomers, 68, 72–74, 78, 132, 134
 and digital age gap, 3
 and Generation X, 131, 132, 136, 137
 and Millennials, 97
 and Silent Generation, 71, 72, 78
 and Veteran generation, 73, 134
 Phishing, 177
 Physical environment, 165, 166
 “Presenteeism,” 65, 142
 Productivity, 23–27, 48
- R
- Real-time collaboration, 26
 “Red phone” device, 207
 Relevance of content, 165, 213
 Remote access, 30, 64, 65
 Reputation systems, 26, 33, 105

SSilent Generation

approach to information technology, 71, 72, 75
attributes, 65–67
barriers to adoption of new technology, 65
birth years, 65
and blogging, 81
and collaboration technology, 79 contributions to workforce, 67, 68
and decline of standards, 82
formality and decorum, 81 institutions, trust in, 69, 79
Internet use, 12, 75, 165
learning, 166–168, 213.
See also Older Adults Technology Services (OATS)
and personal computers, 71, 72
retirement, 65, 66
and technology, 67, 71–75
work habits, 66, 67
workplace goals, 211

Skills shortage, 10, 17–22, 75 solutions to shortage, 22–27

Social computing

applications, 26

Social networking. See also

Facebook; MySpace
and Generation X, 213
and Millennials, 91, 93, 100, 104–106, 107, 112, 113, 116, 122, 125

Software

developers, 148, 149, 151, 208 enterprise information and planning, 32 productivity software, 146

Specialization, 38–40

Stereotypes, 1, 50, 51, 213

Strategic planning and Millennials, 189–191, 209. See also Microsoft Information Worker Board of the Future

T

Telework, 30, 31, 64, 141–144, 206

Training and retraining. See also

Older Adults Technology Services (OATS)
Millennials, 114, 115, 118, 119

- Training (Continued)
and older workers, 13, 22, 23, 155–159
- Transparency, 27, 32, 33, 41, 104, 105, 112,
113, 122
- U
- Unstructured information work, 24–26
- V
- Veteran generation, 65, 66, 69, 73, 134
- W
- Web 2.0, 28, 29, 76, 86–88, 122, 124, 227, 228
- Wikipedia, 28, 83
- Wikis, 29, 64, 81, 83, 84,
86, 147, 212, 213,
228, 230
- Windows Live, 28
- Workstyles
Baby Boomers, 58–60
and digital age gap, 220–225
Generation X, 59, 60
and generational attitudes, 56, 57
generational workstyle matrix, 58
Millennials, 59, 60, 116–119, 125
and technology, 12–14
- Y
- YouTube, 94

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>