

Index

A

Abercrombie & Fitch, 240
Accenture, 187
Accountability: control through, 32; for pay levels, 222–223; for performance management, 190; performance management for, 183–184
Activity-based work, 162–165, 174
Aggressiveness, strategic, 61, 63–64, 65–67, 89, 90, 289
Agility: ambidextrous organization for, 141–146; capabilities, 13; in command and control organizations, 15–16; forces of, 14–16; in high involvement organizations, 15–16; integrated approach to, 19; leadership for, 260–261; network organization for, 146–153; strategic intent and, 59, 65; work systems for, 168–170
Aging workforce, 15, 34
Airline industry, 90–91
Aisin Seiki, 160–162, 164, 165–166, 167, 168, 170, 172–173
Alegent Health, 157–159, 162, 163, 166, 167–168, 172
Align Technologies, 286
Alliance Imaging, 89
Alternative futures. See Futuring; Scenarios
Ambidextrous organization, 141–146
American Express, 45–46, 54
American International Group, 264
Anderson, R., 280–281, 283, 285, 288, 291
Andreessen, M., 52
Annual budget, 136–137
Apparel retailers, 16
Apple, 82, 144, 206, 231
Applied Materials, 231

Aravind Eye Clinic, 86
Asbestos, 43
Assembly line, 3, 208
Assessment questions: on boards, 125–126; on futuring, 94–95; on identity and strategy, 67–68; on leadership, 276–277; on performance management, 198–199; on rewards, 224–225; on structure, 153–154; on talent management, 249–250; on work systems, 173–174
Attention management, 255–257
Attraction: employer brand and, 206, 223–224, 240–242; rewards and, 205–206. See also Talent management
Automobile industry, 54, 67, 169; bailout of, 263; chief executive officers in, 263; Japanese, 73, 159–162; scenarios for, 79

B

Balanced scorecard, 120, 137, 189, 193
Ballmer, S., 44
Bankruptcies, corporate, 99–100, 102–103, 104
BCD. See Harris Corporation Broadcast Communications Division
Behavior: managers' impact on, 261–265; negative managerial, 182; rewards' impact on, 202–206; senior executives' impact on, 261–265; standardization of, 50
Behavior change: of board members, 122–123; in transformation to sustainable management organization, 289–291
Ben & Jerry's, 279–280
Bennett, S., 188
Bennis, W., 254

- Beyond budgeting movement, 136–138
- Bhopal, 152
- Big hairy audacious goals, 47, 63. See also Stretch goals
- Black, L., 66
- Blake, F., 264
- Blockbuster, 24
- Blogs, 87
- BMW, 54
- Board(s), 99–126; assessment questions on, 125–126; composition of, 105–111; as crisis managers, 104–105, 115–116; diversity in, 27, 108–109, 126; evaluation of full, 122, 184; executive compensation role of, 99–100, 114–115, 117, 118–119; executive evaluation role of, 114–115, 121; expertise required for, 105–106, 109–111, 126; external consultants for, 119–120, 298; failures of, 99–100, 102–104, 105–106; leadership of, 114–116; roles of, 100–105; size of, 106, 111; strategizing and futuring roles of, 75, 77, 79, 80, 101–105, 120, 124; succession management role of, 107, 117, 121–122; sustainability transformation commitment of, 284–285; of sustainable management organizations versus command and control organizations and high involvement organizations, 26–27, 100; talent management roles of, 103, 109–110, 119–122
- Board chair, 114–116
- Board committees, 116–120
- Board members, 105–111; behavioral change of, 122–123; chief executive officers as, 107, 109, 110, 112, 114–116; compensation and rewards for, 123–125; election of, 112–113; evaluation of, 122–123, 184; expertise areas of, 105–106, 109–111, 126; independent, 107, 115, 116, 118–119; insider, 107, 118; number of, 106, 111; selection of, 111–114; stakeholder, 107–108
- Body Shop, The, 279–280
- Boeing, 217, 257
- Bonuses: for board member performance, 124; choice in, 218, 219; principles of giving, 208–210, 211–212, 220; timing of, 212–214
- Books and literature, business management: “eco-groovy,” ix; on leadership, 253, 271; on performance management, 177, 178, 191; “pure play,” ix; on rewards, 203
- Brand promise: alignment of, 56; aspects of, 54–55; organizational identity and, 23, 54–56, 295–296. See also Employer brand; Leadership brand
- Breadth, strategic, 61, 62–63, 90, 289
- British Empire, 277
- BP, oil well explosion, 18, 99, 152, 186
- Brundtland Commission, 16
- Budgets: flexible resource allocation systems versus, 136–138, 150; performance management substitute for, 181
- Built to Change* (Lawler and Worley), xi–xii, xiii, xiv, 9, 14, 15, 43–45
- Bureaucracy, 3. See also Command and control organizations; Hierarchical organization
- Business boots. See Books and literature, business management
- Business schools, 271
- C
- Capabilities, organizational: board monitoring of, 118; decisions about, in transformation to sustainable management organization, 291–293; leadership brand and, 268; long-term futuring for, 80–81; medium-term futuring for, 89; in multi-stakeholder collaboration, 292–293
- Capability initiatives team, 81
- Capital One, 170–172, 190, 272
- Carbon footprint, 18, 62, 63, 159, 287–288
- Career diversity, 238–239
- Career management: individuals’ responsibility for, 242–245; for managers, 274–275; sustainable management organizations’ support for, 243–245
- Carpet business, 280–284
- Carpets International, 280
- CCOs. See Command and control organizations
- Center for Effective Organizations, 301
- CERES Principles, 301

- Challenger shuttle disaster, 152
- Chambers, J., 127–128, 131, 132
- Change, organizational: acceleration tools for, 300–303; board responsibility for, 101–105; identity change for, 37–38, 293–296; leadership for, 37–38, 260–261, 302–303; network organization for, 146–153; for organizational effectiveness, 7; as source of competitive advantage, 4, 168; talent management and, 229–230; work systems for, 155–174. See also Agility; Innovation; Transformation
- Change, rapid environmental: command and control organizations' difficulty with, 3–4, 11, 76; as competitive advantage, 4, 24–25; forces of, 13–19; future focus and, 73–74, 76; high involvement organizations' difficulty with, 3–4, 13, 76; hypercompetitive, 21; management scenario in future, 1–2; strategizing process for, 24–25, 71–95. See also External environment
- Change acceleration practices, 300–302
- Chenault, K., 45–46, 54
- Chernobyl, 152
- Chesbrough, H., 85
- Chick-fil-A, 8
- Chief executive officers (CEOs): behavioral impact of, 261–265; board evaluation of, 114–115, 121, 184; board leadership and, 114–116; as board members, 107, 109, 110, 112, 114–116; emergency standby for, 115–116; firings of, 264; human capital management knowledge of, 110; imperial model of, 262–265; management styles of, 116; performance management involvement of, 184–185; succession management for, 107, 117, 121–122
- China: Cisco in, 14; environmental degradation of, 18; McDonald's in, 287; Microsoft in, 50; Starbucks in, 58–59; technological capability of, 14
- Chipchase, J., 83
- Choice, in rewards, 218–219
- Chouinard, Y. (YC), vi–vii
- Chrysler, 265
- Cisco Systems: in China, 14; “councils and boards” structure of, 129, 131–141, 151, 164, 168, 265; external ownership stakes of, 86–87; identity of, 58, 127–128, 131; leadership in, 265; work teams at, 164
- Civil Action, A*, 43
- Coalitions, spontaneous, 28
- Collaboration: capability of multi-stakeholder, 292–293; coordination processes for, 133–136; cross-functional teams for, 127, 131–133; lattice structure for, 149–151; resource allocation systems for, 133–134, 136–138, 150, 152–153; transparent decision making for, 138–140; virtual, 168. See also Cross-functional teams; Teams
- Command and control organizations (CCOs): budgeting in, 136–137; decision making in, 137–138; diversity and, 50; examples of, 3; failure of, to pursue momentary advantages, 60; family of practices of, 21; good fits for, 11; governance of, 31; historical evolution of, 2–3, 10–11; information sharing in, 31; leadership of, 10, 38–39, 254; management approaches of, 10–11; managers in, 172; multiple stakeholder demands and, 18, 19; people in, 17, 36; performance management in, 32, 183, 184, 185, 186–188; persistence of, 11, 151–152; purpose of, 23, 26; reasons for obsolescence of, 3–5, 6, 11, 13–19; rewards in, 32–33, 208, 214–216, 219–223; short-term focus of, 89, 90; structure of, 28, 31; talent management in, 228, 235; transforming, into sustainable management organizations, 279–303; value creation in, 25, 26, 88, 284; work quality in, 207–208; work systems of, 31, 162–163, 166, 168
- Communication: by leadership, 255–257, 266, 268, 302–303; shared language for, 301–302; technology for, 147–148; about transformation to sustainable management organization, 290, 302–303. See also Information sharing; Information systems
- Community-created value, 84–87
- Compaq-HP merger, 155–156
- Competencies, core. See Core competencies

- Competencies, workforce: developmental goals for, 193–194; hiring for, versus developing, 229–231, 234–235; for leadership, 266, 270–273; pay based on, 214–217, 219–220; performance goals for, 186; travel-light management of, 229–231, 234–235, 271
- Competitive advantage(s): change as source of, 4, 168; globalization as source of, 14–15; momentary, futuring processes for, 71–95; momentary, pursuing, 47, 49, 59–65; in multi-stakeholder world, 62–65; people as source of, 3, 31; strategic intent and, 59–65; strategizing process for, 24–25, 26, 71–95; talent management for, 229–231; uncertainty of, 24, 168; work systems for, 168–170
- Condoms, 80
- Conseco, 102–103
- Consultants: board, 119–120, 298; for decision accelerator (DA) design, 298
- Consulting firms, work design in, 163–164
- Container Store, The, 30
- Continuous improvement processes, 157, 163
- Contract labor, 237
- Control systems, 31–32. See also Performance management
- “Cool IT” leaderboard, 128
- Coordination processes, 133–136
- Core competencies: board expertise in, 111; board monitoring of, 118; leadership brand and, 268; talent management based on requirements for, 215, 216–217, 234–235
- Corporate social responsibility programs, 13, 76. See also Social responsibility
- “Councils and boards” structure: coordination processes and, 135–136; flexible resource allocation systems and, 136–138; leadership in, 265; surface area maximization and, 131–133; transparent decision making and, 139–140
- Crisis management, board role in, 104–105, 115–116
- Crooke, M., ix
- Cross-functional teams: coordination processes with, 133–136; in high involvement organizations, 166; maximum surface area with, 127, 131–133; resource allocation systems with, 133–134, 136–138. See also Teams
- Crucible jobs, 273
- Csikszentmihalyi, M., vii
- Cubicles, 170
- Culture, organizational: identity and, 53–54, 295; of independent versus parent organization, 144–145; purpose and, 23; of shared leadership, 261–265
- Customer-centric organizations, 129, 131, 257
- Customer focus, surface area maximization for, 129–133
- Customer relationship management (CRM) software, 178
- D
- D’Aveni, R., 21
- Davis, S., 258–259
- Davis, W., 111
- DaVita, 9, 37, 140, 257
- De Geus, A., 47
- Debt leveraging, 47
- Decision accelerators (DAs): framing in, 165; in merger integration process, 155–156; for new work system design, 157–159; in transformation-to-sustainable management organization process, 297–300
- Decision making: in command and control organizations, 138–139; cross-functional, 135; IV Forces model of, ix; multi-stakeholder, 155–156, 157–159, 167–168, 292–293; portfolio, 135, 138; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 28; transparent processes of, 138–140
- Decision science, 33, 245–246, 266
- Delivery drivers, 236–237
- Demand growth. See Growth, demand
- Developing countries: environmental degradation in, 4, 17–18; globalization and, 15–16; product modification for, 145; profit maximization and, 287–288; as sources of innovation, 4–5; technology adaptation in, 83–84. See also Globalization

- Development (workforce): goal setting for, 193–194; HIO commitment to, 228–229; in leadership capability, 231, 267–275; rewards discussion and, 191–192; rewards for, 215; for shared leadership capability, 267–275; in sustainable management organizations, 229, 234–235; 360-degree appraisals for, 192; transparent systems of, 274–275; workforce change versus, 229–231, 234–235. See also Talent management; Training
- Development experiences, 272–273
- Dialogue, in extreme strategizing, 92–93
- Differentiation, strategic, 61, 64–65, 90, 289
- Direct observation, 181–182
- Disaster relief, “on demand” delivery process for, 93
- Disney, 50, 61, 158
- Diversity: board, 27, 108–109, 126; career, 238–239; in careers and work arrangements, 238–239; command and control organizations’ difficulty with, 4–5, 50; cultural, respecting, 50, 287; high involvement organizations’ difficulty with, 4–5, 50; homogenization versus, 50, 287; management of, 34–35; outsourcing for, 238; rewards and, 201–202, 203–206, 217–219; social value creation with, 49–50; as source of innovation, 4–5, 50; trend toward, 15, 16–17, 34; types of, 15. See also Globalization
- Divisional structures, 199
- Doctors Without Borders (Médecins Sans Frontières), 203, 225
- Dot.com bust, 127, 283
- DOW Chemical, 146
- Dow Jones Sustainability Index, 82
- E
- eBay, 93
- Eco-Alegent program, 159
- EcoBoard, 133
- Ecological degradation. See Environmental degradation
- Ecological value. See Environmental responsibility
- Ecology of Commerce, The* (Hawkins), 281
- Economic growth. See Growth, economic
- Economic value, viii; board responsibility for, 100–101; futuring for, 74; organizational identity and, 56–58; single-minded focus on, 43, 44, 46, 137; sustainable creation of, 22, 43–49; sustainable target metrics for, 285–288. See also Profit motive; Shareholder returns
- Ecosystem, value capture by, 85, 86, 87
- Ecosystem mapping, 75
- EDS, 187
- Education effort, for transformation to sustainable management organization, 289–291
- Education levels, in workforce, 11
- Effectiveness. See Organizational effectiveness; Sustainable effectiveness
- Efficiency, balancing innovation with, 141–146, 260–261
- Eli Lilly, 8–9
- Ellison, L., 100
- Employee development. See Development
- Employee relationship management (ERM) system, 178–181
- Employees. See People; Workforce
- Employer brand, 206, 223–224, 240–242
- Employment management. See Performance management; Rewards; Talent management
- Employment relationship or deal: communicating a new, 303; flexibility in, 229–231, 238–239; in high involvement organizations, 228–229; performance management and, 258; statement of, 240–241; in sustainable management organizations, 33–34, 201, 229–231, 303
- Enron, 99, 102–103, 186, 262
- Enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems, 10–11, 14, 147–148
- Enterprise segment council, 134
- Enterprise-wide information systems, 135
- Environment, business. See External environment
- Environmental degradation: command and control organizations and, 5, 11, 17–18; to developing countries, 4, 17–18; due to profit-maximizing philosophy, 5, 45, 46; high involvement organizations and, 5

- Environmental responsibility: board committee on, 116–117; board expertise on, 111; companies committed to, 8; futuring for, 74, 75; increased demand for, 16–18; integrated approach to, 19; macro-value of, x; management reset for, 2, 16–18, 19, 293; organizational identity and, 56–58; profit pursuit in line with, 45–47; setting target metrics for, 287–288; as source of innovation, 145–146; strategic intent and, 64–65; transforming to sustainable management for, 280–284; value creation for, 5, 22, 24, 49
- Environmental scanning, 71, 74–76, 89, 91–93, 102
- Evergreen services agreement, 281–282
- E-waste, 64
- Execution, balancing flexibility and, 146–153
- Executive compensation: board determination of, 99–100, 114–115, 117, 118–119; excessive, 99–100, 220, 263
- Executives. See Chief executive officers; Top management
- Experience, learning from, 302
- External environment: information transparency with, 30; maximizing contact with, 27, 91, 129–133, 207; redefining the organization's relationship with, 284–289; scanning, 71, 74–76, 89, 91–93, 102. See also Change, rapid environmental
- External focus: structures for, 127–128, 127–141; surface area maximization for, 91, 129–133; sustainable management organization need for, 88
- Extreme strategizing, 75, 89, 92–93
- Exxon: 3; Valdez oil spill, 79, 152
- F
- Facebook, 87
- Fadem, J., 158
- Fairness: in pay levels, 216–217; in travel-light talent management approach, 230, 232, 239
- Fast-food companies, 287
- FedEx Corporation, 236–237
- Feedback: intra-team, 195–196; online versus face-to-face, 196–198; peer, 267; training in giving and receiving, 190–191
- Fiat, 264, 265
- Finance industry: board failures in, 99–100, 105–106; crisis in, 19, 73, 99, 104; office space design in, 170–172; scandals in, 186, 262; scenarios for, 79
- Financial conservatism, 47, 48–49
- Financial expertise, in boards, 110
- Financial performance. See Economic value; Shareholder returns
- Financial Times*, 220
- Finnish National Research Program, 82
- Flexibility: in employment relationships, 229–231, 238–239; in fringe benefits, 219; of network organizations, 146–153
- Flextronics, 16–17
- FLOW, vii
- Followership, 265, 266, 267
- Football (American) teams, 210
- Footprint: aggressive strategic intent and, 63, 67; carbon, 18, 62, 63, 159, 287–288; innovation and controlling, 146, 159; market breadth and, 62; profit motive and, 287–288; social, 16
- Forced distributions, 187–189
- Ford, H., 3
- Ford Motor Company, 54, 73
- Forecasting, 75, 77, 81–89; value creation-value capture matrix for, 83–88
- Forest products, characteristics of, 24
- ForestEthics, 64–65
- Fortune's* "Best Companies to Work For" list, 282, 289, vii
- Friedman, M., v–vii, ix, xii
- Fringe benefits, 218–219
- Functional organizations: coordination processes for, 133–136; focuses of, 129; maximizing surface area in, 129–133; resource allocation systems for, 133–134, 136–138; sustainable adaptation of, 127–141; transparent decision-making processes for, 138–140. See also Structure, organizational
- Future: focus on, 73–76, 89–90, 266; forecasting the, 75, 77, 81–89; leadership for, 266; management scenario of the, 1–2; playing with the, 77–79
- Future state definition, 296–297, 298
- Futuring: assessment questions on, 94–95; board role in, 75, 77, 79, 80, 101–105; dimensions of, 74–76, 102; for

- economic value, 74; for environmental value, 74; establishing a process for, 300; forecasting in, 75, 77, 81–89; long-term, 74, 75, 76–81, 120, 124; in management scenario of the future, 1, 2; medium-term, 74, 75, 81–89; need for, 73–74, 76; number of scenarios in, 75; ongoing, 73; outputs of, 75, 77, 80–81, 88–89, 93; participants in, 75, 77, 81, 90–91; portfolio of options and, 47, 49; purposes of, 75; scanning process in, 89, 91–93, 102; scenario planning in, 76–81, 101, 102; short-term, 74, 75, 89–93, 130–131; for social value, 74; strategizing based on, 24, 71–95; tools of, 75; transparency in, 94–95
- Futurists, 75, 77
- G
- Galbraith, J., 127
- Gaming the system, 137, 186, 189
- Gap Inc., 16, 140, 280
- Garmin, 59–60
- Gates, B., 51, 52, 58
- Gates Foundation, 58
- Geely, 54
- Gender diversity, on boards, 109
- General Electric (GE): Citizenship Report of, 8; global approach of, 50, 145; leadership development at, 264, 271; ownership stakes of, 86–87; performance management at, 180, 183, 187–189; transforming of, 280
- General Foods, 207
- General Motors (GM): 3, 64, 67, 73, 104, 145; electric car (EV1), 64
- Generational differences, 239
- Glass Door, 223
- Global organizations: command-and-control management in, 10; cultural diversity and, 50; diverse practices in, 34–35; footprint of, 62, 287–288
- GPS company, 59–60
- Global warming, 18, 79
- Globalization: board diversity and, 108; command and control organizations' difficulty with, 4–5, 11; cultural diversity and, 34, 50; high involvement organizations' difficulty with, 4–5; impact of, 14–15; social responsibility and, 16–17, 50. See also Developing countries; Diversity
- Goal setting: coordination processes for, 135; elements of, 165–166; mistakes in, 186–187; in performance management system, 185–187, 193–194; resource allocation systems and, 137; for talent development, 193–194; in transformation to sustainable management organization, 285–288
- Goals, performance: importance of measurable, 185–187, 205; as motivators, 186–187, 204; stretch, 47, 63, 186; work design according to, 165–166
- Goldman Sachs, 192, 272
- Golub, H., 54
- Good Business* (Csikszentmihalyi), vii
- Good to Great*, 285
- Google: Analytics, 87; employer brand of, 206, 242; on external transparency, 30; on innovation, 157; talent management at, 231, 242
- Google Chrome, 52
- GLAT (Google Lab Aptitude Test), 242
- Gore: See W. L. Gore
- Governance: board responsibility for, 100; of sustainable management organizations versus command and control organizations and high involvement organizations, 31. See also Boards
- Government agencies, futuring involvement of, 75
- Government takeovers, 104
- Greed, 19, 264
- Green field plants, 207
- Greenberg, H., 264
- Greenpeace, 46, 58, 82, 128
- Grove, A., 47
- Growth, demand: command and control organizations' assumption of, 3–4, 19; first management reset and, 3; high involvement organizations' assumption of, 19; uncertainty of, 3–4, 19, 48
- Growth, economic: aggressive, 63, 65–66, 69, 286, 287–288, 289; assessment question on, 68–69; conservative or reasonable, 47, 48–49, 286–287; ecological impact of, 287–288; focus on present and, 73–74; target setting for, 285–287

Gulf of Mexico oil disaster, 18, 99, 152, 186

H

Hamel, G., 151

Harris Corporation Broadcast Communications Division (BCD), 128, 142–145, 151

Hawkins, P., 281

He Eye Hospital, 86

Health care organizations: aggressive intent for, 89; collaborative innovation among, 86; social values in, 9, 57, 86

Health care reform, 89

Hewlett Packard (HP), 83, 142

Hewlett Packard-Compaq merger, 155–156

Hierarchical organization: converting, to network organization, 151–152; job-based work design in, 162–163; power and status in, 151–152, 153, 221; rewards based on, 219–220. See also Command and control organizations

High involvement organizations (HIOs): board expertise in, 109–110; coordination processes in, 133–134; diversity and, 50; egalitarianism of, 36; examples of, 3; failure of, to pursue momentary advantages, 60; family of practices of, 21; good fits for, 12; governance of, 31; historical evolution of, 3; implementation challenges of, 12–13; information sharing in, 31; leadership of, 12, 39, 257; management approaches of, 11–13; managers in, 172; multiple stakeholder demands and, 18, 19; performance management in, 32, 36; purpose of, 23, 26; reasons for obsolescence of, 3–5, 6, 13–19; rewards in, 33, 36, 207–208, 215, 220–221; short-term focus of, 89, 90; strengths of, 12; structure of, 31; talent management in, 36, 228–229; transforming, into sustainable management organizations, 279–303; value creation in, 25, 26, 88, 284; work quality in, 17, 207–208; work systems in, 29, 31, 163–164, 166, 168

HIOs. See High involvement organizations

Hiring. See Attraction; Selection; Talent management

Home Depot, The, 104, 264

Homogenization, 50, 287

Honda, 63

Human capital management: board committee on, 117–120; board expertise in, 109–110, 119; managerial expertise in, 245–247. See also Talent management

Human capital scorecard, 118

Human resource committee, 117–120, 121

Human resource (HR) function: administrative aspects of, 238, 248–249; electronic systems of, 243–245; as managerial career stop, 248; performance management role of, 185; strategic role of, 247–249. See also Performance management; Rewards; Talent management

Hummer, 64

Hutton, E. F., 105–106

Hypercompetitive environment, 21

Hypocrisy, 297

I

IBM, 51, 63, 142, 144, 244, 263, 272

Identity, organization: assessment question on, 67–68; brand and, 23, 54–56; for command and control organizations, 26; definition and aspects of, 22–24; discovering and aligning, 56–57, 101; employer brand and, 223–224, 240; for high involvement organizations, 26; leadership and, 266; leadership brand and, 268; in multi-stakeholder world, 56–58; organizational culture and, 53–54, 295; strategic breadth and, 62–63; strategic intent and, 43–44, 58–59, 65–67, 90; strategy and, 51–58; for sustainable management organizations, 22–24, 52–58; transforming, 37–38

Ikebuchi, K., 161

Image, 295

Immelt, J., 264

In-N-Out Burger, 240

Inattentional blindness, 73–74

India, 14, 16, 83–84, 86

Infinity, 54

Information sharing: decision making and, 138–140; in network organization, 150–151; of performance information, 29–30; in performance management,

- 195; about salaries, 221–223; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 29–30, 31; of talent data, to board, 118–119; transparent, 29–30, 138–140, 150–151. See also Communication; Transparency
- Information systems: for human resource management, 243–245; for performance management, 178–181; for sustainable functional organization, 138–140. See also Web-based systems
- Information technology: globalization of, 14–15; network structures and, 147–148; for performance management, 178–181, 195, 196–198; rapid change in, 13; work systems and, 170–172. See also Internet; Web-based systems
- Innovation: ambidextrous organization for, 141–146; balancing efficiency with, 141–146, 260–261; diversity as source of, 4–5, 50; environmental goals as source of, 145–146; in-house and community-driven, 84–88; leadership and, 260–261; network organization for, 146–153; open, 83–84, 85, 87; performance management for, 182–183; prototyping for, 169–170; and pursuit of momentary advantages, 59–65; social goals as source of, 145–146; work system design for, 29, 155–174. See also Change, organizational
- Intel, 17, 47; identity and strategic breadth of, 62–63; ownership stakes of, 86–87; performance management at, 190; talent management at, 231
- Interface Flooring Systems, 146; identity and culture change of, 295; large group interventions at, 298; strategic intent dimensions of, 289; transformation outcomes of, 288, 289, 296; transformation story of, 280–284; workforce education in, 291
- Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), 17–18
- Internet: browsers, 52; impact of, 14; reward system data on information on, 223. See also Information technology; Web-based systems
- Internet Explorer, 52
- Invisalign orthodontics, 286
- Irami, R., 100
- Ishikawa, M., 161–162
- Iterative work systems, 168–170
- IV Forces (IVF) model, vii–ix
- J
- Jackson, S. A., 111
- J&J Industries, 45
- Japanese auto industry, 73, 159–162
- Jet Blue, 257
- JM Eagle, 224
- Job application process, 241–242
- Job assignments, challenging, 273
- Job descriptions: absence of, 2, 15, 163, 215, 234; activity-based work versus, 162–165, 174, 208; pay based on, 214–216; performance management substitute for, 181; purpose of, 162–163; talent management substitute for, 234–235
- Job enrichment, 207–208
- Job previews, 241–242
- Job satisfaction, 204, 206
- Job security in, high involvement organizations, 228–229; importance of, to employees, 204; sustainable management organizations' lack of, 201, 238, 231, 241; trend away from, 17
- job titles, 9
- Jordan, V., 111
- J.P. Morgan Chase, 103
- Just-in-time manufacturing, 160
- K
- Kidney dialysis centers, 9, 57
- Kit Kat, 46
- Kludge, 19
- Knowledge work: difficulty of observing, 181–182, 205; high-involvement approach and, 13; job design and, 15; talent management for, 235
- Knowledge work companies, purpose definition for, 24
- Kodak, 24, 73
- Kozlowski, D., 99
- Kraft, 145
- L
- Language, shared, 301–302
- Large-group interventions, 155–156, 167–168, 170, 173–174, 297–300. See also Decision accelerators

- Large organizations: ambidextrous structure for, 141–146; coordination processes for, 133–136
- Lateral integration mechanisms, 127, 129.
See also Cross-functional teams
- Lattice structure, 149–151
- Leaders: and followers, 265, 266, 267; imperial versus approachable, 262–265; managers versus, 255–256; transformational role of, 302–303. See also Chief executive officers; Managers; Top management
- Leadership: assessment questions on, 276–277; attention-management role of, 255–257; of boards, 114–116; in command and control organizations, 10, 38–39, 254; to compensate for lack of structure, 254–258; competencies for, 266; culture creation by, 261–265; development of, 231, 267–275; followership and, 265, 266, 267; in high involvement organizations, 12, 39, 257; imperial versus approachable, 261–265; for innovation, 260–261; management and, 254–255; of organizational change, 37–38, 260–261, 302–303; situational, 268–269; sustainable effectiveness focus of, 258–259; sustainable management organization-specific roles of, 37, 253–265; in sustainable management organizations, 8, 36–39, 253–277; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 36–39, 253; for transformation to sustainable management organization, 37–38, 302–303. See also Chief executive officer; Shared leadership; Top management
- Leadership brand, 267–269, 270, 276
- Leadership moments, 262, 267
- Learning, 73, 301–302
- Lehman Brothers, 99–100, 105–106
- Leveraged buyouts, vi
- Lexus, 54
- Lilly, E., 8–9
- Limited Brands, 64
- Linux, 87
- Living Company, The* (de Geus), 47
- Lockheed Martin, 144
- Lotus 1-2-3, 51–52
- Lovins, A., 146
- Loyalty, 17
- Lumber company, v–vii
- M
- Machine metaphor, 10, 254
- Macro-values, vii–ix. See also Economic value; Environmental responsibility; Social responsibility; Triple-bottom line
- Management: elements of, 7–9, 22; future scenario of, 1–2; history of, 2–5, 10–13. See also Command-and-control organizations; High-involvement organizations; Sustainable management
- Management assessment software, 272
- Management reset(s): case for new, vi, viii–ix, 1–20, 279; first, 2–3; integrated approach to, 19; obsolescence of former, 3–5, 6, 13–19; second, 3. See also Sustainable management
- Managers: appraisal of, 189–190, 272; behavioral impact of, 261–262; in command and control organizations, 172; development of, 267–275; in front-line jobs, 257; in high involvement organizations, 172; leaders versus, 255–256; leadership roles of, 254–255, 261–265, 266; negative behavior in, 182; performance management involvement of, 189–191, 244–245, 266; short-term futuring role of, 90–91; strategic responsibilities of, 172–173; in sustainable work designs, 172–173; talent management involvement of, 244–247, 266. See also Leadership; Top management
- Managing* (Mintzberg), 258–259
- Manchester United, 201, 202, 207, 210–211, 216, 223
- Manufacturing companies: decision accelerators (DAs) for, 299; in developing countries, 16–17; high-involvement teams in, 207
- Marchionne, S., 264, 265
- Mass production technology, 3
- Matrix structures, 129, 149–150
- McCord, P., 202–203, 232–233, 260–261
- McDonald's Corporation, 66, 165, 287
- McGregor, D., 11–12
- McKinney, W., 155
- McNerney, T., 257

- Measures, performance: goal setting for, 185–187, 285–288; motivation and, 205; transparency about, 30
- Médecins Sans Frontières (Doctors Without Borders), 203, 223
- Meiko Machinery Co., 162
- Mercedes, 54
- Merger integration process, 155–156
- Merit increases, 208–210
- Merrill, D., 105–106
- Micromanagement, 103–104
- Microsoft, 44, 73; brand promise of, 55; in China, 50; culture of, 53; employer brand and, 206; environmental practices of, 58; programmers' productivity at, 235; social practices of, 58; strategic identity of, 51–53, 55, 56–57, 58
- Microsoft Excel, 51–52
- Microsoft Office, 51
- Microsoft Word, 51, 52
- Mind-sets, changing, 284
- Mintzberg, H., 258–259
- Mobile telephone industry, 59–60, 77, 81–84
- Morgan Chase, 103
- Motivation: bonuses and, 208–210; carrot-and-stick approach to, 204–205; intrinsic rewards and, 203, 207–208; merit increases and, 208–210; organizational purpose and identity as, 223–224; performance goals and, 186–187, 204; power sharing and, 257–258; profit-sharing plans and, 211–212; rewards and, 33, 191–192, 202–205, 208–210; work design for, 196, 207–208
- Motorola, 82
- Movie industry, 169
- Mozilla Firefox, 52
- MP3 players, 141
- MS-DOS, 51
- MTV, 50
- Multiple stakeholders. See Stakeholders, multiple
- MySiebel, 179–181
- MySpace, 24
- N
- Nardelli, R. (B.), 104, 264
- National Labor Relations Act, 222
- Natural Step, The, 301
- Nestlé, 46
- Netflix: agility value of, 260–261; customer recognition of, 202–203; talent management at, 231–233, 241
- Netscape, 52
- Network for Regional Healthcare Improvement, 159
- Network organization, 28, 146–153; case example of, 148–151; characteristics of, 146–148; future of, 151–152; networks versus, 147; technology and, 147–148; work design in, 163
- Networks: informal, 147; network organization versus, 147; pharmaceutical, 8–9; social, 28, 87; value creation in, 84–87
- New product development, 64, 143, 299
- New York Times, The*, 227
- Nike, 16
- Nintendo Wii, 52
- Nokia, 81–84
- Nokia Oper Studio, 83–84, 87
- Nokia Research Center (NRC), 83–84, 86
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs): factoring process involvement of, 75; power of, 18
- Nordstrom, 30, 158, 240
- Northrop Grumman Corporation, 285
- Norway, 109
- O
- Occidental Petroleum, 100
- Ocean transportation, 287–288
- Office space, 2, 170–172
- Oil industry, 18, 77–79
- Olympic athletes, 223
- One Minute Manager, The* (Blanchard), 271
- Online auctions, 93
- Open innovation, 83–84, 85
- Open source movement, 87
- Open Studio model, 83–84, 87
- Operating Committee (OC), 131, 132–133, 136
- Oracle, 100
- OPEC, 78, 80
- Organizational effectiveness: board committee on, 120; dimensions of, 6–7; employee performance variation and, 235–237; group or function, 249

Organizational transformation. See
 Change, organizational; Transformation
 Outsourcing, 217, 237–238, 249

P

P-valve manufacturing, 159–162
 “Padding the numbers,” 137
 Palmisano, P., 263
 Parks Canada, 258–259
 Participative community, 11–12
 Participative leadership, 12, 39
 Patagonia, Inc., 2, 279; culture of, vi–vii, viii; employer brand strength of, 8, 223, 240;
 as successful sustainable management organization, 279–280
 Patronization, 4–5
 PayPal, 93
 Peer control, 32
 People: in command and control organizations, 17; as competitive advantage source, 3, 31; critical versus low-level, 235–237; differential treatment of, 35–36, 202, 216–217, 235–237; in high involvement organizations, 3, 12–13, 17, 31;
 investment in, 12, 13, 227–228; respectful treatment of, 17, 50, 230; in sustainable management organizations,
 7–8, 31–36. See also Performance management; Rewards; Talent management; Workforce
 PeopleSoft, 178
 PepsiCo, 2, 38, 223, 271, 280
 Performance appraisal: appraisal of appraisers in, 189–190; of board members, 123–125; of chief executive officer, 114–115, 121; design principles for, 184–198; flaws of traditional,
 177–178, 182, 183, 184, 186–187,
 187–189; frequency of, 194, 213–214;
 issues of, 181–183; of managers,
 189–190, 272; measurable goals for,
 185–187; online versus face-to-face,
 196–198; rating practices in, 187–189;
 reward linkage to, 191–193, 205; sustainability principles of, 193–198; of teams, 195–196; of top management, 121–122; training in, 190–191;
 universal principles of, 184–193. See also
 Performance management

Performance information: board responsibility for evaluating, 102–103;
 transparency about, 29–30, 31,
 179–180, 195
 Performance management, 177–199;
 assessment questions on, 198–199; cascading, 184–185; in command and control organizations, 32, 183, 184, 185, 186–188; elements of, 31–32; example of good, 178–181; failure of traditional, 177–178, 182, 183, 186–187; goal setting in, 185–187; in high involvement organizations, 32, 36; human resource department role in, 185; importance of, for sustainable management organizations, 178, 181–184; information technology for, 178–181, 195, 196–198; leadership and, 258; rating practices in, 187–189; reasons for, 181–183; sustainability principles for, 193–198; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 31–32, 36; transition of, 299; universal principles for, 184–193
 Performance review sessions, 190–191
 Performance variation, 235–237
 Persistence identity, 52, 53, 55, 56
 Personality traits, performance appraisal based on, 185, 189
 Pfizer, 112
 Pharmaceutical companies, 8–9, 159, 169
 Philips, 23, 50
 Physical space design, 170–172
 Polman, P., 262
 Portfolio decision making, 135, 138
 Portfolio of options, 47, 49
 Post Cereals, 105–106
 Power: in hierarchy, 151–152, 153; informal influence without, 267; limits on sharing, 257–258
 Prahalad, C. K., 145
 Prediction markets, 75, 89, 91–92
 Present, focus on future versus, 73–76, 89
 Process production plants, 12
 Procter & Gamble Company (P&G), 3, 83,
 145, 207, 271, 280
 Product development, 64, 143, 299
 Product modification, 145
 Professional service organizations,
 163–164, 194, 244

- Profit motive: environmental degradation and, 5, 45, 46; maxim of maximizing, 6, 8, 45, 287–288, v–vi. See also Economic value; Shareholder returns
- Project-based work: performance review of, 194; teams for, 148–151, 164–165
- Promotion, 219–220
- Prototyping, 169–170
- Purpose, organizational: of command and control organizations, 23, 26; definition and aspects of, 22–24, 101; employer brand and, 223–224, 240; of high involvement organizations, 23, 26; of sustainable management organizations, 22–24, 26
- Q
- Quality, macro-value of, viii
- Quality of work life, 17
- Quotas, 109
- R
- Rain forest destruction, 46
- Ranking, 187
- Rating practices, 187–189, 190, 192–193
- Realistic job previews, 241–242
- Recession, of 2008, 91, 104, 178, 204, xi
- Recognition, 202–203, 217–218, 221
- Recruitment, 241–242
- Reengineering, 10
- Reputation, 54–56, 295–296, 297
- Resource allocation: flexible systems of, 133–134, 136–138, 150, 152–153; for transformation to sustainable management organization, 302–303
- Retail companies, short-term futuring in, 74
- Retention: factors in, 204, 205–206; travel-light approach versus, 232–233
- Reward importance, 203–204, 217–219
- Rewards, 201–225; assessment questions on, 224–225; attraction and, 205–206; behavioral impact of, 202–206; for board members, 123–125; challenges of, in sustainable management organizations, 201–202; combined approach to, 204; in command and control organizations, 32–33, 208, 214–216, 219–221; competency-based, 214–217, 219–221; design of, 206–224; development discussion and, 191–192; diversity and, 201–206, 203–204, 217–219; employer brand and, 206, 223–224; excessive, for unreachable goals, 186; fairness in, 216–217; financial, 191–192, 202, 208–209, 211–212; frequency of, 212–214; in high involvement organizations, 33, 36, 207–208, 215, 220–221; individualized approach to, 217–219; intrinsic, 203, 207–208; for leadership behavior, 270; motivation and, 33, 191–192, 202–205; performance reviews and, 191–193, 205; recognition, 33, 202–203, 217–218; retention and, 206; satisfaction and, 205; secrecy about, 221–223; seniority-based, 220–221; sustainability principles for, 214–224; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 32–33, 36; for sustainable performance, 212; for teams, 33, 185–196, 210–211; transparent, 221–223, 225; types of, 202–203; universal principles for, 207–214
- Risk management, 47, 124
- Ritz-Carlton, 158
- Royal Dutch Shell, 71–73, 80
- Ryder Cup, 211
- S
- Salaries: competency-based, 214–217, 219–221; fairness in, 216–217; hierarchy-based, 219–220; job-based, 214–216; market resource on, 214–216; merit increases in, 208–210; seniority-based, 220–221; transparent versus secret, 221–223, 225. See also Executive compensation; Rewards
- SAP, 178
- Scenario planning: board role in, 101, 102, 120; for long-term futuring, 76–81
- Scenarios: diversity in, 79–80; elements of, 79–80; for long-term future, 75, 76–81; number of, in futuring processes, 75; preparing for possible futures with, 72; types of, 74. See also Futuring
- Segment councils, 131–133, 140
- Selection: of board members, 111–114; employer brand and, 206, 223–224, 240–242; of nonpivotal workers,

Selection (continued)

- 237–238; of pivotal employees, 236; process of, 240–242; top management involvement in, 227–228. See also Talent management
- Self-containment, 133–134
- Self-control, 32
- Self-managed careers, 242–245, 274–275
- Self-managing teams, 12; appraisal of, 195–196; motivation of, 207–208
- Semiconductor industry, 260, 261
- Senior executives. See Chief executive officer; Top management
- Seniority, rewards based on, 220–221
- Shadow organizations, 137
- Shared language and meaning, 301–302
- Shared leadership: attitudes toward, 276–277; chief executive officer role and, 121; creating a culture of, 261–265; development of capability for, 267–275; in high involvement organizations, 12, 39; intra-team feedback and, 196; limits on, 257–258; roles of, 266–267; in sustainable management organizations, 36–37, 39; top management support for, 269–270. See also Leadership
- Shareholder returns: board responsibility for, 100–101; command and control organizations' focus on, 18; focus on maximizing, v–vi, 6, 43, 45–47, 284, 287–288; sustainable approach to, 45–47, 284–285. See also Economic value; Profit motive
- Shareholders, board member election by, 112–113
- Shell, 71–73, 80
- Siebel, T., 178, 179, 180
- Siebel Systems, 178–181, 194, 195, 212
- Siemens, 50
- Situational leadership, 268–269
- Six-sigma, 157, 163
- Skunk Works, 144
- Slack, 28, 152–153
- Small-group visioning exercise, 127
- SMOs. See Sustainable management organizations
- Soccer teams, 201, 210–211
- Social networking systems, 28, 87, 147–148
- Social responsibility: board committee for, 117; corporate citizenship macro-value and, vi, vii, xii; futuring for, 74, 76; globalization and, 16–17; increased demand for, 16–18; integrated approach to, 19; in management reset, 2; nonexploitation for, 24; organizational identity and, 56–58; profit pursuit in line with, 45–47; setting target metrics for, 287; as source of innovation, 145–146; in talent management, 230; technology adaptation and, 83–84; value creation for, 22, 24, 49–50; for workforce, 17, 50
- Social responsibility committee, 117
- Software companies, 51–53, 87, 231, 235, 236
- Software programmers, 231, 235, 236
- Somic Ishikawa Inc., 161–162
- Sony, 141
- Sony PlayStation, 52
- Southwest Airlines, 30, 90–91, 241, 257
- Spain, 109
- Sports teams, 201, 210–211
- Stakeholders, multiple: board member selection, participation of, 112, 113–114; board membership of, 107–108; board responsibility for, 100–101; command and control organizations and, 18, 19; commitment to, 284–285; compliance approach to, 19; decision-making participation of, 155–156, 158–159, 167–168, 292–293; demands of, 13–14, 16–19; direct contact with, 129–133; goal-setting involvement of, 165; high involvement organizations and, 18, 19; integrated approach to, 19; in large-group interventions, 155–156, 158–159, 167–168, 170, 297–299; leadership for, 258–259, 266; momentary advantages in, 62–65; organizational identity and, 56–58; shared leadership and, 39; strategizing involvement of, 25, 92–93; in value creation–value capture matrix, 84–87; work teams of, 166–168; workforce as, 228. See also Environmental responsibility; Shareholders; Social responsibility; Triple-bottom line
- Starbucks: employer brand of, 240; identity and strategy of, 58–59, 61–62, 65–67, 74, 259
- Startups: leadership of, 255–256; sustainable management, 280–281

- Status, in hierarchy, 151–152, 221
- Stock plans: for board members, 124; choice in, 218, 219; principles of offering, 211–212, 220
- Strategic intent(s): aggressiveness dimension of, 61, 63–64, 65–67, 89, 90, 289; board role in developing and evaluating, 101–105; breadth dimension of, 61, 62–63, 90, 289; defined, 59; differentiation dimension of, 61, 64–65, 90, 289; dimensions of, 59–65, 288–289; identity and, 43–44, 58–59, 65–67; long-term futuring for possible, 73, 74, 75; medium-term futuring for, 88; and pursuit of momentary advantages, 59–65; reconciling, with redefined value creation, 288–289; short-term futuring for current, 74, 75, 89–93; technological transitions and, 128
- Strategy, 43–70; assessment questions on, 67–69; board responsibility for, 101–105, 124; dilemmas of, in sustainable management organizations, 284–289; HR function's responsibilities for, 247–249; identity as guidepost for, 51–58; managers' responsibilities for, 172–173; new perspectives on value creation and, 44–51; robust, 7, 43–70
- Strategy development, 71–95; assessment questions on, 94–95; board role in, 101–105, 120, 124; broad participation in, 25; calendar-driven, 25; elements of, 72–73; extreme, 75, 89, 92–93; futuring processes for, 71–95; of sustainable management organizations versus command and control organizations and high involvement organizations, 24–25, 26
- Stretch goals, 47, 63, 186
- Structure, organizational, 127–154; adaptation of traditional functional, 127–141; ambidextrous, 141–146; assessment questions on, 153–154; core, 142–143; defined, 128–129; elements of sustainable management organization, 27–28, 128; independent-unit, 143–146; leadership for lack of, 254–258; network, 146–153; surface area maximization in, 91, 129–133, 299–300; of sustainable management organizations versus command and control organizations and high involvement organizations, 27–28, 31; transformation of, 299–300
- Succession management, 107, 117, 121–122
- Supply chain: ecological, 281–282; for innovation, 159–162
- Surface area maximization: attitudes toward, 153–154; benefits of, 129–131; “councils and boards” structure for, 131–133; in network organization, 149–151; scanning and, 91; in transformation to sustainable management organization, 299–300
- Sustainability, defined, 16
- Sustainability committee, 116–117
- Sustainability initiatives, 13, 293
- Sustainable effectiveness: board responsibility for, 101, 116–117, 124–125; defined, 22; human resources for, 31–36; leadership development for, 267–275; leadership for, 36–39, 253–277; performance management for, 183, 193–198; perspective on, 51; profit maximization versus, 43–44, 287–288; strategies for, 43–70; structures for, 127–154; target metrics for, 285–288; value creation for, 22–26, 43–70, 71–95; work organization for, 26–31; work systems for, 155–174
- Sustainable management: elements of, 21–40; evolution of, 20; examples of successful, 279–280; forces demanding, 13–19; need for, 279, v–ix; organizational effectiveness and, 6–7, 22; overview of, 6–9
- Sustainable management organizations (SMOs): board roles in, 100–105; budget processes in, 136–138; dilemmas of, 284–293; examples of successful, 279–280; integrated approach of, 19, 39–40; issues to focus on in, 129; leadership development for, 267–275; leadership in, 36–39, 253–277; management dimensions of, 7–8, 22; management elements of, 21–40; organizational effectiveness dimensions of, 6–7; people in, 7–8, 31–36, 227–250; performance management in, 177–199; radical aspects of, 8–9; reward

Sustainable management organizations (SMOs) (continued)
 systems in, 201–225; startup, 279–280; strategies of, 43–70; strategy dilemmas of, 284–289; structures for, 127–154; talent management in, 229–250; transformation to, 37–38, 279–303; value creation in, 7, 22–26, 43–70, 71–95; work organization in, 26–31; work systems of, 155–174

Sweatshops, 4

SWOT analysis, 89

Systemic view, 135, 166–167, 298, 301

T

Talent management, 227–250; analysis for, 33; assessment questions on, 249–250; board expertise in, 109–110, 119; board role in, 103, 117–120; in command and control organizations, 228, 235; example of travel-light, 231–233; fairness and respect in, 17, 50, 230, 232, 239; in high involvement organizations, 36, 228–229; metrics on, given to boards, 118, 119; performance management and, 183; principles of, 234–249; rapid change and, 229–230; in sustainable management organizations, 7–8, 229–249; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 33–34, 36, 227–228, 228–231; targeted, 235–237; top management involvement in, 227–228, 245–247, 249–250, 266; for transformation to sustainable management organization, 289–291; travel-light approach to, 229–250, 271, 274–275. See also Attraction; Development; People; Performance management; Selection; Termination; Workforce

Target metrics, establishing sustainably effective, 285–288. See also Measures

Tartan Yachts, 48–49

Teams: performance appraisal of, 195–196; reward systems for, 33, 195–196, 210–211; virtual collaboration of, 168; work systems based on, 166–168. See also Collaboration; Cross-functional teams

Technology, information. See Information technology; Web-based systems

Technology companies: high-involvement approach and, 13; short-term futuring in, 74; talent management in, 231

Temporary innovation units, 143–146

Temporary labor, 237

Temporary work systems, 168–170

Tenure, rewards for, 220–221

Termination, 232–233, 275, 290–291

Theory Y, 12

3M, 157

360-degree reviews, 192–193

T-Mobile, 62

TNT, 124

Top management: attention management role of, 255–257; behavioral impact of, 261–265; board evaluation of, 121–122, 184; commitment of, to transforming to sustainable management organization, 284–285; future involvement of, 75, 77, 81, 89, 90; leadership development support by, 269–270; performance management involvement of, 184–185, 199, 266; rewards for, 209, 212, 214; talent management involvement of, 227–228, 245–247, 249–250, 266. See also Chief executive officers; Leadership; Managers

Total quality management, 10, 157

Toyota: Production System (TPS) network, 160–162, 164, 168; quality problems of, 63, 67

Training, in performance feedback skills, 190–191. See also Development

Transfers, internal, 243–245

Transformation, to sustainable management: acceleration of, 300–303; board and top management commitment to, 284–285; capabilities dilemma in, 291–293; case study of, 280–284; companies engaged in, 280; dilemmas to address in, 284–293; identity development for, 37–38, 293–296; knowledge and awareness dilemmas in, 289–291; leadership for, 37–38, 302–303; local-level implementation of, 302; management of, 293–303; of performance management system, 299; premature

- advertising about, 297; resource commitment to, 302–303; sequence of changes for, 294, 296–300; startup sustainable management organizations versus, 279–280; strategic intent definition for, 288–289; strategy dilemmas in, 284–289; of structure, 299–300; target metrics for, 285–288; value creation decision in, 284–285; of work system, 297–300; workforce education and change, 289–291. See also Change, organizational
- Transparency: in decision making, 138–140; in futuring process, 94–95; of leadership development plans, 274–275; in network organization, 149–151; of performance information, 29–30, 31, 179–180; in performance management, 178–181, 195; of rewards, 221–223, 225. See also Communication; Information sharing; Information systems
- Travel-light talent management, 229–250, 258, 271, 274–275. See also Talent management
- Triple-bottom line: ambidexterity for, 145–146; balanced scorecard for, 193; board and top management commitment to, 284–285; economic value creation and, 43–49; environmental value creation and, 49; leadership for, 258–259; organizational identity alignment with, 56–58; performance management and, 183; principle of, 6–7; rewards based on, 124, 212; social value creation and, 49–50; strategic intent and, 62–64; target metrics for, 285–288; transparent decision making for, 139–140. See also Economic value; Environmental responsibility; Social responsibility; Stakeholders, multiple
- Trust: in high involvement organizations, 13; in leadership brand, 268–269; in network organizations, 152–153
- Truth telling, of leaders and managers, 266, 268
- TRW, 207
- Turnover, factors in, 204, 206
- Tweets, 87
- Tyco, 99, 100
- U
- Unilever, 2, 239, 262, 280
- United Health, 112
- UPS (United Parcel Service), 93, 140, 236–237
- United States: boards in, 115, 116, 118; diversity within, 109; patronizing attitude in, 4
- U.S. Marines, 240
- U.S. Secret Service, 71–73
- United Technologies, 146
- V
- Valdez oil spill, 79, 152
- Value creation: CCO approach to, 25, 26, 88, 284; environmental, 5, 22, 24, 49; HIO approach to, 25, 26, 88, 284; in-house and community driven, 84–87; new perspectives on, 44–51; redefining the nature of, 284–285; robust strategy and, 43–70; social, 22, 24, 49–50; strategy development and, 71–95; sustainable economic, 43–49; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 7, 22–26. See also Strategy; Strategy development
- Value creation–value capture matrix, 84–88
- Values-in-use, 296–297
- Victoria's Secret (VS), 64–65
- Viral marketing, 87
- Virtual meetings: for employment flexibility, 239; performance reviews in, 196–198; work design and, 168
- Virtual offices, 2
- Virtual presence technology, 14
- Virtual work: in future management scenario, 1–2; performance review process for, 181–182
- Vision, strategy, and execution (VSE) document, 133, 136
- Vision communication, 302
- Volvo, 54, 207
- W
- W. L. Gore, 9, 128, 134, 148–151, 164–165
- Walking the talk, 266
- Wall Street Journal, The*, 188, 220
- Washington Mutual, 103
- WD40, 61

- Web 2.0, 14, 148
- Web-based systems: human resource information system (HRIS), 243–245; management assessment, 272; performance management, 178–181, 195, 196–198. See also Information technology; Internet
- Welch, J., 183, 188–189
- Weldon, W., 45
- Weyerhaeuser, 24
- Whole Foods, 3, 221, 224
- Winby, S., 155–156, 157–159
- Women, 109, 239
- WordPerfect, 52
- Work assignments: challenging and developmental, 273; permanent versus changing, 208; providing rewarding, 207–208; system for changing, 243–245; top management involvement in, 245
- Work organization: changes in, 15; elements of, 26; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 7, 26–31. See also Boards; Structure; Work systems
- Work systems, 155–174; activity-based versus job-based, 162–165, 174; assessment questions on, 173–174; characteristics of sustainable, 162–173; in command and control organizations, 31, 162–163, 166, 168; for continuous innovation, 157; decision accelerators (DAs) for design of, 155–156, 157–159, 167–168, 297–300; goal structure and, 165–166; in high involvement organizations, 29, 31, 163–164, 166, 168, 207; iterative, 168–170; large-group interventions for, 155–156, 167–168, 170, 173–174, 297–300; motivational, 166, 207–208; natural emergence of, 159–162; physical space for, 170–172; strategic management of, 172–173; in sustainable management organizations versus traditional organizations, 29, 162–164; team-based, 166–168; temporary, 168–170; transformation of, 297–300
- Workforce: board data on, 103; changing versus developing, 229–231, 234–235, 290–291; contract labor, 237; education levels of, 11; education of, for transforming to sustainable management organization, 289–291; outsourcing, 217, 237–238, 249; reduction, 264, 283; top management responsibility for, 245–247; trends in today's, 11, 14. See also Diversity; People; Talent management
- Workload arrangements, 238–239
- World Economic Forum: 2007, 127; 2010, 82
- WorldCom, 102–103
- VR Grace Corporation, 43, 46
- X
- Xbox, 52
- Xerox, 24
- Y
- Yom Kippur War, 78
- YouTube, 87