

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	vii
Contributing authors	ix
INTRODUCTION
Opening address	3
Introduction	7
PART 1: LEGAL ISSUES IN TAX ADMINISTRATION
Chapter 1: A fair share of taxes — a bridge too far?	15
Chapter 2: A bridge too far — the prospect of a successful misfeasance claim against the Commissioner of Taxation in the wake of Futuris	43
Chapter 3: Is the penalty system in South Africa an effective deterrent to tax evasion?	61
Chapter 4: The scope for judicial review of the assessment process	82
PART 2: UNDERSTANDING TAXPAYER COMPLIANCE
Chapter 5: A critical review of ethics and moral dilemmas in tax compliance research	117
Chapter 6: Corporate taxpayers' compliance variables: findings from a study of focus groups in Malaysia	132
Chapter 7: Building bridges to compliance — Inland Revenue New Zealand property case study	153
PART 3: IMPROVING TAXPAYER COMPLIANCE AND TAX ADMINISTRATION
Chapter 8: The bridge to no return — the need for simplification versus the "refund culture"?	173
Chapter 9: Standard business reporting — a bridge of hope or the bridge of sighs?	196
Chapter 10: Building bridges to the community — using customer-centric measures of satisfaction and perceptions	222
Chapter 11: Performance of the indirect tax administration in Malaysia — a comparison with international benchmarks	239
Chapter 12: Tax amnesty effectiveness in developing countries — the analysis of Sunset Policy in Indonesia	274
Index	299
