

Contents

Foreword	v
Table of cases	ix
Introduction	xiii
1 Genesis: UCLAF and the Transition to OLAF	1
UCLAF's genesis	1
UCLAF's weaknesses	5
The move to OLAF	9
An evaluation of UCLAF	12
2 Mandate	15
Introduction	15
Legal basis	15
A first evaluation	32
3 The Regulatory Framework: The Status Quo and Recent Proposals for Reform	35
Introduction	35
OLAF's administrative and operational dependence	37
OLAF's accountability	48
OLAF's relations with the EP and COCOBU	58
OLAF's regulatory framework: a final evaluation?	70
4 Operational Activities and Due Process	77
Introduction	77
OLAF'S core activities	77
Due process	86
Conclusion	103
5 Operational Safeguards for Persons and Institutions	105
Commission's Proposed Changes to the Regulation	105
The right of access to documents: an operational issue	108
Cooperation with key EU bodies: Europol and Eurojust	112
Whistleblowing	113
Independence and the supervisory committee	115
Conclusion	120

Contents

6	Operational Effectiveness: Expanding the Civil Route	121
	Introduction	121
	Questioning the criminal law path	122
	Harnessing the power of civil law: OLAF and Big Tobacco	129
	Civil recoveries in US and UK law	136
	Inviting more actionable information	139
	Conclusion	142
7	OLAF's Interinstitutional Relationships	145
	Introduction	145
	Fraud and Accountability in the EU	147
	Relationship with the Commission	150
	Relationship with the EP	154
	Relationship with the European Court of Auditors	158
	Relationship with the European Data Protection Supervisor	160
	Relationship with Eurojust	162
	Relationship with Europol	164
	Conclusions	167
8	Relationship with the Member States	169
	Introduction	169
	Relationship with COCOLAF	173
	National versus EU interests	174
	Missing the window of opportunity	178
	Relationship with third countries	182
	Conclusions	184
	Conclusions	185
	Index	189