

Contents

About the Authors	vii
Preface	ix
1 The What and Why of Budgeting: An Introduction	1
2 Strategic Planning and Budgeting: Process, Preparation and Control	21
3 Administering the Budget: Reports, Analyses, and Evaluations	35
4 Break-even and Contribution Margin Analysis: Profit, Cost, and Volume Changes	45
5 Profit Planning: Targeting and Reaching Achievable Goals	61
6 Master Budget: Genesis of Financial Forecasting and Profit Planning	75
7 Cost Behavior: Emphasis on Flexible Budgets	95
8 Evaluating Performance: The Use of Variance Analysis	105
9 Manufacturing Costs: Sales Forecasts and Realistic Budgets	155
10 Marketing: Budgeting for Sales, Advertising, and Distribution	167
11 Research and Development: Budgets for a Long-term Plan	185
12 General and Administrative Costs: Budgets for Maximum Productivity	197
13 Capital Expenditures: Assets to Be Bought, Sold, and Discarded	201

14 Forecasting and Planning: Reducing Risk in Decision Making	225
15 Moving Averages and Smoothing Techniques: Quantitative Forecasting	233
16 Regression Analysis: Popular Sales Forecast System	243
17 Cash Budgeting and Forecasting Cash Flow: Two Pragmatic Methods	253
18 Financial Modeling: Tools for Budgeting and Profit Planning	265
19 Software Packages: Computer-based Models and Spreadsheet Software	277
20 Capital Budgeting: Selecting the Optimum Long-term Investment	289
21 Zero-base Budgeting: Priority Budgeting for Best Resource Allocation	321
22 Managers' Performance and Balanced Scorecard: Evaluation on the Division Level	329
23 Budgeting for Service Organizations: Special Features	359
24 Budgeting for Nonprofit Organizations: Diverse Types	367
25 Using Management Games for Executive Training	387
Appendix I Present and Future Value Tables	405
Appendix II Statistical Table	411
Glossary of Budgeting and Planning Terms	413
Index	427