

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Preface	xv
Introduction	1
Managing Change as a Business Process	2
How Do We Get There from Here?	3
Vision/Leadership	3
Value Creation and Performance Management	4
Governance Framework and Criteria	4
Governance Officer	6
Enterprise Architecture: Framework and Implementation	6
Reference Works	7
Looking Forward	9
1 Extended Enterprises	11
Change Agents in the Extended Enterprise Environment	11
Paradigm Shift in the Business Environment/Changes in Processes	15
2 Strategy: Challenge for the Extended Enterprise	19
Business Strategy Challenge	19
New Enterprise Risk Management Structures	20
New Regulatory Compliance Challenge	21
Developing Strategy with Value Innovation	23
Transforming Internal Governance Strategy	25
New Internal Governance Challenge	27
Governance Challenge	27

Bridging the Gap between the Information Technology Organization and Internal Clients	28
Making Strategy a Continual Process: Coevolving and Patching	29
Managing Knowledge for Better Communication: Knowledge Management	30
Sharing Knowledge through a Knowledge Portal	32
3 Value Creation and Management of Performance in the Extended Enterprise	35
Vision and Mission	35
Value Creation and Strategy Implications	36
Necessity of a Core Repository of Knowledge Portal	37
Suggested Architecture for Performance Measurement	37
Delegate and Empower through Performance Management	39
Framework for Measurement	40
Control Objectives for Information and Related Technology	43
Monitoring: Measuring and Comparing Outcomes for Improvements	44
Ongoing Strategy Process: Operational Performance Monitoring	45
4 Operational Business Activities: Value Realization for the Extended Enterprise	49
Value Realization	49
Blueprint for Knowledge Sharing in an Extended Enterprise	52
Objectives, Goals, and Expectations	54
Information and Knowledge Resources (Intangible Business Resources)	54
Information Sharing Activities (Two-way Communication)	57
Operational Business Activities	58
Tangible Business Resources	58
Value Creation Cycle	58
5 Governance Framework for the Extended Enterprise	61
Governance Definition	61
Enterprise Governance Challenge in the Extended Enterprise	64
Governance Structure for the Extended Enterprise	67

Governance Objectives for the Extended Enterprise	70
Comparison with Excellence Models	74
Leadership: Driver for Values and Governance Implementation	76
Maturity Levels of Leadership	77
Maturity Model for Evaluating the Level of Governance of the Extended Enterprise	78
Tools for the Governance of the Extended Enterprise	79
6 Enterprise Architecture: Governance Implementation for the Extended Enterprise	87
What Is Enterprise Architecture?	87
Enterprise Architecture: New Focus for Chief Information Officers	87
Architecture Layers Interrelationships	93
Implementing and Maintaining the Enterprise Architecture	94
Information Technology Governance in the Extended Enterprise	95
Strategic Alignment of IT Strategies with the Business	96
IT Infrastructure to Enable Business	97
Maturity Model of the Enterprise Architecture/IT Architecture	98
Partner Ability for Networking/Information Flows and Relationships	100
Maturity Model for IT Governance	101
Establish Information Model and Data Model for Quick Implementation of a Knowledge Base	102
Appendices
A Questions for the Board and Senior Management	105
B Performance Reference Model	113
C Organizational Structure Evolution: Core versus Central	123
D Framework and Quality Awards	127
E Business Reference Model	137
F Knowledge Work, Knowledge Management, and Knowledge Portal	143
G Enterprise Architecture Processes at Different Maturity Levels	151
H Maturity Model for Business Activities in the Extended Enterprise	161

I	IT Governance	167
J	IT Governance Maturity Model	179
K	COBIT Information Processes	185
	Glossary	187
	References	191
	Other ITGI Publications	197
	Index	201

<http://www.pbookshop.com>