

Index

- After-market trading:
 avoiding, 49, 54
 on perfect trading day, 160–161
 on worst trading day, 168–169
- Amateur traders:
 paper trading for, 134–139
 training seminars for, 116–119
- Amazon.com (AMZN), 94, 103
 emotions and, 19–21
 risk management and, 68–71
- Anxiety. See Fear factor
- Average daily volume, 100–101
- Averaging-down, 79–82
 experience and, 75–77 mastery of, 74–75
 paper trading and, 135–136
 Rules to Remember, 77, 178
- Bankruptcy, avoiding stocks at risk of, 104, 108
- Biotech stocks, 103
- Bloomberg.com, 152
- Breaks, taking of, 34–42
 Rules to Remember, 42, 176
 what to do during, 39–42
 when to take, 38
 why to take, 38
- Budgeting, 59–64
 breaks and, 40–41
 cushion cash, 63–64
 day job and, 60–62
 performance gauging and, 62–63
 Rules to Remember, 64, 177
 stop/losses and, 66
- Budweiser (BUD), 103
- Capital:
 minimum requirements for trading,
 60, 63, 125–126
 pay-per-trade and, 127
 in perfect trading day, 157
 risk management and allocation of, 46–47
 timing for allocation for trading, 47–48
 trading for skill and, 143 trading skill level and amount traded, 10–12
- Cash, as trading cushion, 63–64
- CEO resignations, news about, 108
- Class action lawsuits, news about, 108
- Closing bell:
 on perfect trading day, 160
 on worst trading day, 168
- CNBC Business News Channel, 109, 152
- Companies. See Stocks
- Competition, news about, 108
- Concentration, need for constant, 87–89
- Confidence. See Overconfidence
- Consistency, importance of, 93–98
 Rules to Remember, 98, 178–179
- Cushion cash, 63–64
- Day job, taking leave of absence from, 60–62
- Day trading:
 benefits to market, 9–10
 contrasted with investing, 8–10 defined, 7–8

- Early morning activities:
 - on perfect trading day, 151–153
 - on worst trading day, 163–164
- Earnings news, 90, 108, 110–111
- Education. See Training and preparation
- Emotions, 15–21
 - fear factor, 16–18
 - greed factor, 18–21
 - mistakes and, 15–16
 - paper trading and, 136–137
 - on perfect trading day, 158
 - Rules to Remember, 21, 175
- End-of-day recaps, 161–162
- Enron, 36–37
- Equity call, 126
- Equity investment specialists, 4
- Equity trading firms, 128
- Exercise, to start day, 152
- Exit strategy:
 - importance of, 55
 - mistakes and, 88
- Experienced traders:
 - averaging-down, 79–82
 - income versus skill and, 142
 - paper trading and, 139
 - training programs for, 119–120
- Fear factor, 16–18
- Federal regulations, stock choices and, 49, 102–103
- Federal Reserve Board news, 90, 108
- Fees:
 - pay-per-share, 126–127, 129
 - pay-per-trade, 125–126, 144
 - training programs, 116, 117, 118
- Financial limitations, 59–64
 - breaks and, 40–41
 - cushion cash and, 63–64
 - day job and, 60–62
 - performance gauging and, 62–63
 - Rules to Remember, 64, 177
 - stop/losses and, 66
- First level trading skills, 144–146, 149
- Focus, need for constant, 87–89
- Food and Drug Administration (FDA), news about, 103
- Frequency of trades:
 - breaks and, 39
 - skill level and, 10
- Fund management pros, 4
- Gambling, 79–82
 - versus paper trading, 134–135
 - risk management and, 50–51
 - Rules to Remember, 82, 178
- Government regulations, stock choices and, 49, 102–103
- Greedy factor, 18–21
- Holding too long, overconfidence and, 24–26
- Homework:
 - on perfect trading day, 161–162
 - on worst trading day, 169
- Impatience. See Patience
- Income, trading for skill rather than, 141–150
 - building foundation of skills, 141–144
 - first level, 144–146, 149
 - Rules to Remember, 150, 180
 - second level, 146–147, 149
 - third level, 147–148, 149
- Interest rate news, 90
- Intraday holds, 30
- Intraday price swings, 102
- Intraday trading truths, 83
 - consistency, 93–98
 - mistakes, 85–91
 - news, 107–111
 - stock picking, 99–105
- Investing, contrasted to day trading, 8–10
- Investopedia.com, 133
- Knowing self, 7–14
 - day trading versus investing, 7–10
 - Rules to Remember, 14, 175
 - skill level assessment, 10–14

- Last hour of trading:
 on perfect trading day, 159–160
 on worst trading day, 167–168
- Leave of absence, from day job, 60–61
- Length of trading history, skill level and, 12
- Leverage:
 pay-per-share trading and, 127–130
 pros and cons of high, 130–131 trading skill level and amount traded, 10–12
- Licensing, of brokers, 9
 Series 7 license, 13–14, 122, 131
- Liquidity. See also Capital day traders and investment cash, 9–10 stock's average daily volume and, 100–101
- Log, for paper-trading, 137–138
- Losing trades:
 analyzing of, 86
 never holding overnight, 95–96 tolerance level for, 97–99
- Market exposure, consistency and, 97
- Market Makers (MMs), 101
- Mentorships, 14, 61, 120
- Mergers, avoiding, 103, 108
- Met Life (MET), 94
- Microsoft (MSFT), 103
- Midday activities:
 on perfect trading day, 157–159
 on worst trading day, 161–162
- Mistakes, 85–91
 concentration and, 87–89 market-moving news and, 90–91 profit and losses in market and, 85–86
 Rules to Remember, 91, 178
 stock picking, 86–87
- Monthly profit/loss calculations, 62–63
- News, 107–111
 about earnings, 90, 108, 110–111 avoiding stocks directly affected by, 104–105 critical news announcements, 108, 111 from Federal Reserve, 90, 108 paying attention to market-moving, 90–91 perfect trading day and, 152–154
 Rules to Remember, 111, 179
 trading on versus monitoring of, 109–111
- New York City, advantages of trading from, 128–129
- 9:45 A.M., not trading until after, 50, 156
- 100-share blocks:
 emotions and, 20–21
 overexposure and, 53–54
 patience and, 29–30
 risk management and, 47, 48–49
 starting trading with, 11
 staying with, 94–95
- Online broker, selection of, 125–132 leverage and, 130–131 pay-per-share and, 126–130
 pay-per-trade and, 125–126, 131–132
 Rules to Remember, 132, 180
- Opening bell:
 on perfect trading day, 156
 on worst trading day, 160
- Overconfidence:
 fear and, 16
 greed and, 18–19
 holding too long, 24–26
 ignoring stop/losses and, 24, 25
 Rules to Remember, 26, 176
 taking breaks and, 38
 using confidence as tool, 23–24
- Overexposure, 39–40, 48–49, 53–58
 averaging-down, 76
 Rules to Remember, 58, 177
 time versus timing and, 54–58
- Overnight news, 153–154
- Paper-trading strategy, 133–140
 advanced, 139
 for amateurs, 134–139

- Paper-trading strategy (Continued)
 emotions and, 136–137
 Rules to Remember, 140, 180
 sample log for, 137–138
 for skill, not income, 144–145
- Patience, 27–33
 importance of, 18
 income versus skill and, 142
 learning more and, 31–33 learning to control annoyance, 27–28
 Rules to Remember, 33, 176
 trading with professional level of, 32–33
 waiting and, 29–31
- Pattern day trader, 126
- Pay-per-share:
 lack of instruction and, 117, 118–119
 mentoring and, 120
 online broker selection, 126–130
 in perfect trading day, 158
 transitioning from pay-per-trade to,
 126–130
- Pay-per-trade:
 capital requirements and, 125–126 keeping account for, 131–132
 online broker selection, 125–126, 131–132
 transitioning to pay-per-share, 126–130
- Penny stocks, avoiding, 101
- PepsiCo (PEP), 56–57, 94, 103
- Perfect trading day, 151–162
 after-market trading, 160–161
 closing bell, 160
 early morning activities, 151–153
 homework, 161–162
 last hour of trading, 159–160
 midday activities, 157–159
 opening bell, 156
 pre-market trading, 153–155
- Pharmaceutical stocks, 103
- Pre-market trading:
 avoiding, 49, 54
 on perfect trading day, 153–155
 on worst trading day, 164–166
- Price action, 80–81
- Price swings, intraday, 102
- Private equity traders, 8
- Product issues, as news, 108
- Profits and losses, market and, 85–86
- Prudence, importance of, 16
- Psychological truths, 5 control of emotions, 15–21 importance of patience, 27–33
 knowing yourself, 7–14
 preventing overconfidence, 23–26
 taking breaks, 35–42
- Qualcomm (QCOM), 103
- Resilience, mistakes and, 85
- Resistance and support levels:
 averaging-down, 77
 stop/losses and, 67–69
- Retracement:
 averaging-down, 75
 mistakes and, 89
 stop/losses and, 68–70
- Risk management, 12, 43
 averaging-down, 73–77
 fear and lowering of, 17
 financial limitations and, 59–64
 gambling versus day trading, 50–51, 79–82
 importance of, 45–51
 overexposure and, 48–49, 53–58
 patience and, 32
 risk factors, 46, 80
 Rules to Remember, 51, 176–177
 stop/losses and, 65–71
- Rules to Remember:
 averaging-down, 77, 178
 consistency, 98, 178–179
 emotions, 21, 175
 financial limitations, 64, 177
 gambling versus day trading, 82, 178
 knowing yourself, 14, 175
 mistakes, 91, 178
 news, 111, 179
 online broker selection, 132, 180
 overconfidence, 26, 176

- overexposure, 58, 177
- paper trading, 140, 180
- patience, 33, 176
- risk management, 51, 176–177
- stock picking, 105, 179
- stop/losses, 71, 177–178
- taking breaks, 42, 176
- trading for skill, not income, 150, 180
- training programs, 123, 179
- Scalping, 157–158
- Second level trading skills, 146–147, 149
- Self-discipline, mistakes and, 85. See also Patience
- Series 7 license, 13–14, 122, 131
- Share size, skill level and, 11
- Skill, trading for, 141–150
 - building foundation of skills, 141–144
 - first level, 144–146, 149
 - Rules to Remember, 150, 180
 - second level, 146–147, 149
 - third level, 147–148, 149
- Skill level assessment, 10–14
 - risk management, 47–48, 51
- Stocks:
 - average daily volume and, 100–101
 - federal regulations and, 49, 102–103
 - intraday price swings and, 102
 - limiting exposure to new, 87
 - news and, 104–105
 - picking with care, 86–87, 99–100
 - priced between $10 and $100, 101–102
 - researching during breaks, 41
 - risk management and choosing of, 49
 - Rules to Remember, 105, 179
 - short and long term investments in, 8–9
 - skill levels and trading of, 144–149
- Stop/loss, 65–71
 - consistency and, 97
 - financial limitations and, 65–67
 - mistakes and, 88
 - overconfidence and ignoring of, 24, 25
 - overexposure and, 48–49
 - predetermining of, 67–71
 - Rules to Remember, 71, 177–178
 - skill levels and trading of, 146
- Strike threats, stock picking and, 108
- String trading, 130
- Taxes, planning for, 62–63
- Third level trading skills, 147–148, 149
- Time, versus timing of trades, 54–58
- Time of day, risk management and, 49–50. See also Perfect trading day; Worst trading day
- Tolerance level, for losses, 97–99
- Trading days:
 - on perfect, 151–162
 - on worst, 163–169
- Trading volume, 100–101
- Training and preparation, 60, 113
 - importance of training, 14
 - increasing of, for patience, 31–33
 - paper-trading strategy, 113–140
 - picking online broker, 125–132
 - skill versus income training, 141–150
 - training programs, 115–123
- Training programs, 115–123
 - amateurs, seminars for, 116–119
 - experienced traders, programs for, 119–120
 - pros and cons of, 117–119
 - Rules to Remember, 123, 179
 - tips for selecting, 120–122
- 200-share blocks, averaging-down, 76
- Volatility:
 - overexposure and, 57
 - stop/loss and, 66
- Volume, picking stocks with high
 - average daily, 100–101
- Wal-Mart (WMT), 103
- Washington Mutual (WM), 109, 152

Withdrawals, pay-per-share and, 127
Worst trading day, 163–169
 after-market trading, 168–169
 closing bell, 168
 early morning activities, 163–164
 homework, 169

 last hour of trading, 167–168
 midday activities, 161–162
 opening bell, 160
 pre-market trading, 164–166
Yahoo! Finance, 152–153

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>