

INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table.

A

- The abandoner, 217
- Abandonment trigger, 370–371, 376
- Absence of empathy, 245–246
- Accelerating Team Performance (ATP):
ClearFacts’s adoption of, 296;
description of, 265; Duncan’s version of, 301–303; how leader’s profile constrains, 303–304; Ralph’s application for model-building,
297–307. See also Leadership model
- Accenture, 160
- Ackerman, Mona, 235
- Acting in the room, definition of, 121
- Action archetypes: compliance archetypes,
40; courteous compliance, 40,
238–239, 254; covert opposition, 40;
description of, 39; point-counterpoint, 39
- Action sequences: Art’s unexpected outburst and, 34–38; description of, 35; evolution and context of, 36*fig*;
move-oppose-move-follow example of,
35
- Action stance examples: of speech acts, affect domain, and, 53; of speech acts and Level I, 24–32, 35–38; of speech acts, Level II communication domains, and, 49–50, 53–57; of speech acts, meaning domain, and, 57; of speech acts, power domain, and, 56
- Action stance insights: on knowing your most-used action stances, 44–45; on outbursts at ClearFacts, 43–44; on reading the room, 46–47; on structures of action stances in different contexts, 45
- Action stances: during Art’s unexpected outburst, 27–34; bystanding to read the room for, 40–43; of ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence, 110–119;
ClearFacts team domains and, 59–62;
description of, 9; the four-player model of, 9, 23–47; high-stakes structural dynamics and, 176; from insights to action regarding, 44–47;
intro to bystand, 9, 25; intro to follow, 9, 24, 25; intro to move, 9, 23–24, 25;
intro to oppose, 9, 24, 25; intro to pure, compound, and mixed, 26–27;
required for effective communication,
43; structures, sequences, and patterns of, 34–40. See also specific action stance; Speech acts

- Action structures: Art's unexpected outburst and, 34–38; evolution and context of, 36*fig*; structural pattern, 35
- Adjudicator moral posture, 202–206
- Advocate moral posture, 202–206
- Affect domain: behavioral profiles in, 120–122; characteristics of, 52–53*fig*, 54; description of, 9, 49; examples of speech act, stance, and, 53; mismatched closed versus open, 186*fig*; Obama's talent for infusing meaning with, 364; private voices and, 171*t*, 172*t*, 173*t*; productive communication interface between Martha and Ralph using, 65; strengths and weaknesses of, 58–59*fig*
- The Age of Turbulence* (Greenspan), 258
- Albom, Mitch, 321
- Alinsky, Saul, 373, 374–375
- Alive in Time* (Kantor), 321, 322
- Alter, Jonathan, 366, 375, 377
- Andersen, Arthur, 158, 160
- Animal Farm* (Orwell), 241
- Apple, 95, 152
- Archetypal structural patterns: compliance archetypes, 40; courteous compliance, 40, 238–239, 254; covert opposition, 40; point-counterpoint, 39
- Argyris, Chris, 308
- Arrogance-humility balance: leader capacity for, 344–345; maintaining confidence while maintaining, 346
- Arthur Andersen, LLP, 158, 160, 246
- Arthur, Frederick, 373
- Arthur (or Art): behavioral profile of, 120–122; ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence and role of, 110–122; connecting accomplished by, 340–341; introduction to ClearFacts's director of marketing, 4, 23; latest ClearFacts weekly meeting and role of, 50–52, 60; leader capacities and contributions of, 356–357*t*; mismatched communication between ClearFacts team members and, 186*fig*; moves, follows, opposes, and bystander roles taken by, 33–34, 41*fig*; preference for open systems by, 84, 88; Ralph's behavioral impact on, 269; resignation of, 294–295; response to Ralph's Bomb by, 81, 101; speech acts and stances by, 24–25; stances and domains preference of, 59–62; unexpected outburst at ClearFacts by, 27–38, 41*fig*, 43–44; at work and at home, 19*fig*
- Articulating narrative purpose, 346–347
- Art's unexpected outburst: action structures, action sequences, and structural patterns of, 34–38; Art at home with Jane after, 44; behavioral tendencies during, 32–34; bystanding to read the room during, 40–43; first sequence (“business plus strategy”) of, 29–30; a prior moment between Art and Howard, 43; second sequence (“business plus strategy” transition to “culture plus people”) of, 30–31; speech act and description of, 27–29; third sequence (“culture plus people”) of, 31–32
- The Ascent of Money: A Financial History of the World* (Ferguson), 153
- Attitudes toward difference, 177
- Audience effect, 306
- Authors Guild, 237
- Autonomy stage of model building, 290*fig*–291, 306–307

B

- Bachus, Spencer, 378
- Bear Stearns, 154, 158

- Behavioral profiles: acting in the room ability and, 121; of Barack Obama, 362–366; of the coach and their clients, 312–313; consciously expanding your repertoire, 267–268; how childhood stories impact, 11–12, 130–149; how communication is impacted by, 11; how Ian’s behavior is impacted by his, 109–110; how the ATP model handles leader’s, 303–304; importance of understanding your, 109–110; insights into model-building process and your, 308–309; insights into using, 123–124; private voices and, 171t–173t; relevance to high-stakes structural dynamics, 176–177; remedies for correcting mismatched, 357; revealed during ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence, 119–121; stories behind a, 131; tendency toward fraud, 253–257. See also Heroic leaders; The shadow behaviors; specific level of structural dynamics
- Behavioral Propensities Profile (BPP), 267, 298, 302, 385–386
- Behavioral tendencies (Level I): Art’s unexpected outburst, 32–34; for fraud, 253–257; strong behavioral tendency, 32; stuck behavioral tendency, 32; weak behavioral tendency, 32
- Bell System, 91, 95
- Berardino, Joe, 160
- bin Laden, Osama, 382, 383, 384
- Birthers, 375
- Born, Brooksley, 258, 292
- Boundaries: closed system, 90; open system, 86
- Brandeis, Louis D., 205
- Breakdown-breakthrough story: Gordon Murray’s, 316–317; models for living and, 319–320
- The Bridge* (Remnick), 363, 366
- Buckley, William F., Jr., 374–375
- Bush, George, 375
- Business mismatches: closed affect versus open affect, 186fig; closed meaning versus open/random meaning, 186fig; closed power versus random power, 185fig; description and famous examples of, 184; remedies for correcting, 357
- Butts, Cassandra, 363
- Bystander action stance: Barack Obama’s, 362–363, 377–378, 381; description of, 9, 25; meaning domain and, 11; speech act, affect domain, and, 53; speech act, meaning domain, and, 57; speech act, power domain, and, 56. See also Action stances; Reading the room
- ## C
- Capacity for responsible self-evolution, 17
- Carroll, James, 221
- Casebook of Marital Therapy*, 130
- Cassandra of Troy, 220
- Catholic Church, 157
- Cayne, James, 154
- Chad (Ralph’s roommate), 272–273
- Change: narrative purpose impacted by, 157–158; rise and fall of Arthur Andersen through leadership, 158, 160; theory of, 287–288, 301, 310, 322, 372; theory of practice applied to, 288, 310–311, 322, 372
- Cheney, Dick, 377
- Childhood stories: Barack Obama’s formative, 366–367fig; description and behavioral impact of, 11–12, 130–149; disclosing your, 271; insight into behavioral profile of Ian, 122; insight into choice of domains by Ian, 67–69;

- Childhood stories (continued) insight into Ralph's system preference, 98–99; insights on importance of, 149–150; issues regarding coaches' eliciting, 342; knowing the self through personal, 343; linking structure-forming stories and, 271–273; of Martha and Lance's marital relationship, 134–145; narrative purpose of, 151–166; narrative structure of, 133; of perfect love and imperfect love, 131–134, 137–140, 248–249; Ralph's relationship with women and men based on his, 272–273; on Ron's shadow, 146–149; seven features of mythically toned, 133–134; understanding Howard's fraud through adult and, 247–253; young-adult hero myth ("When I Grow Up"), 134, 145, 207, 208. See also Level IV (identity and structured behavior); Narrative structure; Stories
- Christensen, Clayton, 163
- Circular causal reasoning, 82
- Civil Rights Act (1964), 153
- ClearFacts crisis: background on TJ's character relevant to the, 196–197; events following return from Asia, 199–200; events leading into the, 193–196; Ian and Duncan's experience in Asia, 197–199; insider-outsider complex during, 194, 200–202; moral postures and heroic modes during, 224*t*; structural dynamics on enemy "other" during, 200–202
- ClearFacts latest weekly meeting: examining the stances and domains of, 50–52, 59–62; surprise at the end of the, 69–73
- ClearFacts leadership model: adoption of moral, 232–233; model building process for, 292–307; move from personal model to, 265–278
- ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence: behavioral profiles revealed during, 119–121; speech acts, stance, domain, and system of, 110–119
- ClearFacts story: Art's departure from ClearFacts, 294–295; Art's unexpected outburst, 27–39, 41*fig*, 43–44; capacities of individual leadership team members, 347–357; ClearFacts's narrative purpose, 161–164; closed-system preferences at, 92–93; the crisis mounts at ClearFacts, 193–202; Howard's fraud, 251, 247–257; introduction to main characters of the, 1–6; latest weekly meeting, 50–52, 59–62, 69–73; Martha's eruption, 168–170, 201–202; mismatches and resulting high-stakes situation in, 185*fig*–186*fig*; moral postures and heroic modes of, 224*t*; moving from personal to leadership model, 265–278; open-system preferences at, 88; Ralph's Bomb, 79–83, 88, 92–93, 96–101; stances and domains across the ClearFacts team, 59–62; team members at work and at home, 19*fig*
- ClearFacts team capacities: Arthur Saunders, 356–357; Howard Green, 351*t*–352; Ian Maxwell, 349–351; Martha Curtis, 352–354; Ralph Waterman, 347–349*t*; Ron Stuart, 354–356. See also Twenty leader capacities
- Clinton, Bill, 241, 362, 364
- Clinton, Hillary, 362, 383
- Closed systems: characteristics of, 88–92; definition of, 10; domain of power preference for, 11; Ian and Howard's general preference for, 84, 88, 92–93;

- preferences at ClearFacts for, 92–93;
private voices and, 171*t*; story opener suggesting, 132
- Co-opting the inner circle, 239–241
- Coaches: behavioral profiles of clients and their, 312–313; eliciting childhood stories of love, 342; getting stuck in Level II (communication domains),
75–76; having their own models, 311–
312; insights on developing a leadership model, 279; narrative purpose suggestions for, 166;
operating systems issues for, 106–107;
reading the room for high-stakes situations, 192
- Coaching: connectedness/connecting encouraged through, 340–341;
emphasizing the value the intimate partners, 342; models used for, 311– 312, 343; overcoming hesitation to incorporate Level IV into your, 339– 343; personal stories used in, 129–130; role of love and empathy in, 339–340;
why empathy matters in, 340; why so much focus on fraud in, 343
- Coaching structural dynamics: stage 1:
functional awareness, 16, 266–278;
stage 2: system awareness, 16, 345;
stage 3: moral awareness, 16–17, 305– 306, 345–346; stage 4: responsible self-evolution, 17
- Coca-Cola, 161
- Coles, R., 305
- Collective intelligence, 296
- Communication: all four action stances required for effective, 43; behavioral profiles and effective, 11; collective intelligence competency for effective, 296; how models drive, 12; Level I:
action stances, 9, 23–47; Level II:
communication domains, 9–10, 49–78;
Level III: operating systems, 10–11,
79–107; Level IV: childhood stories,
11–12; structural levels of, 8*fig*–12. See also Cross-model conversations;
Language
- Communication domains: of ClearFacts
meeting in Ralph’s absence, 110–119;
of the ClearFacts team, 59–62;
ClearFacts weekly meeting and use of,
50–52, 59–62, 69–73; description of,
9–10, 49–50; examples of speech act, stance and, 49–50; high-stakes structural dynamics and, 177; insights into effective use of, 76–78; intro to affect domain, 9, 49; intro to meaning domain, 9, 50; intro to power domain, 9, 50; propensities toward different, 62;
strengths and weaknesses of each,
58–59*fig*; trilingual use of, 65–67;
where coaches can get stuck using,
75–76. See also specific domain
- Communication interface: becoming trilingual, 66–67; description of,
62–63; example of positive Martha and
Ralph, 65; between trilingual leaders,
65–66*fig*; between two individuals,
63–65
- Communication problems: of attitudes toward difference in cross-model conversation, 177; between Martha and Ian, 64*fig*; mismatched language and resulting high-stakes situations, 185*fig*–186*fig*; unseen influence of structural dynamics as causing, 7
- Communicative competency, definition of, 13
- Compliance archetypes, 40
- Compound action stance, 26–27
- Compromising with others, 344
- Confidence, 346
- Confucius, 233

- Connectedness/connecting: Arthur's experience his team and, 340–341; Howard's failure to, 341; leader capacity for, 344; Sonia's dilemma between independence versus, 330–331; as source of love and intimacy, 342; systematically developed through stories, 131. See also Love
- Constraint stage of model building, 289–290*fig*
- Constraints: definition of, 286; how Ralph's moral integrity functions as model-building, 305–306; model building and definition of, 286; Ralph's model-building phase of, 303
- Contemplative time, 322
- Corporate culture: ATP on establishing learning as part of, 302; Bell System, 91; evolution of change in, 102; influence of celebrity culture on, 207; memories making up, 242, 259; model-building and role of, 284*fig*; moral corruption of, 239, 256; structural pattern of group's, 35; transition from business plus strategy to people plus, 30–31. See also Organizations
- Courteous compliance archetype, 40, 238–239, 254
- Cover-ups, 245
- Covert opposition archetype, 40
- Crises: ClearFacts moral postures and heroic modes during, 224*t*; examining structural dynamics of, 200–202; the fixer heroic type during, 194*fig*, 206, 209*fig*–213; heroic square-offs in times of, 221–224*t*; insights on dealing with, 226–229; knowing your behavior during, 273–274; leader capacity for operating under pressure during, 345; mounting ClearFacts, 193–200; postures of moral justice during, 202–206; the protector heroic type during, 194*fig*, 206, 217–221; shadow work and why it is needed for, 224–227; the survivor heroic type during, 194*fig*, 206, 213–217; three heroic types in, 194*fig*. See also High-stakes situations
- Cross-model conversations: constraints and practice of, 286; description and issues related to, 12, 177; social models and, 282; uses of, 283. See also Communication
- The Crucible* (Miller), 217, 380
- Culture. See Corporate culture
- Curtis, Lance. See Lance
- Curtis, Martha. See Martha
- ## D
- Dark sides: functional awareness of, 16; Jung's concept of the shadow and, 207. See also The shadow
- Darrow, Clarence, 206
- “Davos” (World Economic Forum), 161
- De Pree, Max, 154
- Debs, Eugene, 205, 213
- Deception story theme, 134, 142–144
- Defender-advocates, 218
- Deliberative democracy, 373
- Democratic National Convention (2004), 384
- Deviation: closed system ways of managing, 90–91; open system ways of managing, 87–88; random system ways of managing, 95
- Dewey, John, 373
- Different “other.” See “Other” structural dynamics
- Disfavor story theme, 134, 142–144
- Displayed model, 283–284*fig*
- Domains. See Communication domains

Dominant heroic mode, 208
Dreams from My Father (Obama), 366, 369, 380
 Du Bois, W.E.B., 373
 Duncan: Accelerating Team Performance (ATP) version used by, 301–303; Art’s unexpected outburst and role of, 27–38; asked to help create a leadership model, 265–278; ClearFacts crisis and role of, 193–202; as ClearFacts team member, 19*fig*; ClearFacts weekly meeting and role of, 50–52, 60–62, 71–73; helping to interpret Martha’s childhood stories, 137–145; introduction to ClearFacts’s coach, 2, 3, 4–5; on Martha’s eruption, 170; model-building with Ralph, 292–294, 297–307; perspective of Duncan-Ralph relationship by, 15; Ralph’s Bomb debrief by, 81–82, 96–100; shift in role from observer to facilitator, 232–233; on stance and domain preference of ClearFacts team, 59–62; as survivor hero, 219; working on Ralph’s awareness to improve high-stakes situations, 179–181
 Dysfunctional closed system, 91–92
 Dysfunctional open system, 88
 Dysfunctional random systems, 95–96

E

Eat, Pray, Love (Gilbert), 320
 Edwards, Elizabeth, 240–241
 Edwards, John, 240, 241, 255
 Ellison, Ralph, 373
 Empathy: absence of, 245–246; as critical to good moral judgment, 245; Obama’s ability to express, 364, 382; tendency toward fraud and absence of, 254–255; why it matters, 340

Empowerment paradox, 238
 Enemy and “other”: how empathy impacts perception of, 246; structural dynamics of the, 200–202
 Enron scandal (2001), 246
 Escalations: drivers of, 183–184; noise and impact on, 184
 Euripides, 221
The Examined Life (Novick), 321
 Excessive ambition, 256
Executive Wisdom (Kilburg), 158, 305

F

Family insider-outsider shifts, 201–202
 Fanon, Franz, 373
 Fastow, Andrew, 246
 Fear of dying, 335–336
 Feedback loops: closed and open system mechanisms of, 87, 90; control devices in, 83; increasing output with positive, 82–83; leader solicitation of feedback through, 344; as protecting moral integrity, 234–235; reduced output with negative, 83
 Feedback mechanisms: closed system, 90; open system, 87
 Ferguson, Niall, 153
Final Accounting (Toffler), 305
 Five Leadership Pathways, 295
 The fixer hero: characteristics and behaviors of, 209*fig*–213; fixer-protector pairing, 222; fixer-survivor pairing, 223–224; overview of heroic leader modes including, 206–209
 Follow action stance: during Art’s unexpected outburst, 27–34; description of, 9, 24; speech act, affect domain, and, 53; speech act, meaning domain, and, 57; speech act, power domain, and, 56. See also Action stances

- Forgetting history, 241–242
- Forster, E. M., 340
- Fortune* magazine's 2010 list of best managed companies, 154
- Fortune* magazine's 2010 list of most admired companies, 152
- Four-player model. See Level I (four-player model of action stances)
- Frank, Barney, 375, 377, 378
- Frank (Howard's uncle), 249–250, 254
- Frankl, Victor, 215
- Fraud: characteristics showing tendency toward, 253–257; ClearFacts story on Howard's, 231, 247–257; coaching focus on, 343; “fraudster” character of TJ's, 196–197; Howard's childhood stories for understanding his, 247–253; Madoff's ponzi, 235–236. See also Moral corruption
- French Revolution (1789), 241
- Friedman, Milton, 291
- From insight to action: on behavioral profiles, 123–124; on childhood stories, 149–150; on dealing with crisis, 226–229; on Level I: action stances, 44–47; on Level II: communication domains, 76–78; on Level III: operating systems, 104–107; on model-building, 308–314; on models for living, 336–337; on moral leadership and corruption, 259–261; on narrative purpose, 164–166; on personal and leadership model building, 278–279; on twenty leader capacities, 358–359
- Functional awareness: applying to your relationships, 277–278; Ralph's current personal model and, 266–277; what happens during stage of, 16
- Functional closed systems, 91–92
- Functional open system, 88
- Functional random systems, 95–96
- ## G
- Gaddafi, Muammar, 213
- Game Change* (Heilemann and Halperin), 361, 362
- Gawande, Atul, 102
- Giffords, Rep., 364
- Giffords speech, shooting at (2011), 364, 376, 382, 384
- Giuliani, Rudolph, 253
- Goldie, Dan, 316
- Goldman Sachs, 315
- Google, 157
- Google Books, 237
- Gould, Jay, 213
- Gourevitch, Philip, 213
- Great Recession (2008), 157, 256, 315, 383
- Green, Christina Taylor, 382
- Green, Howard. See Howard
- Greenberg, Alan C., 154, 291–292
- Greenspan, Alan, 258
- Guilt story theme, 134, 142–144
- ## H
- Halperin, Mark, 361
- Hart, Gary, 241
- Harvard Business Review*, 74, 163, 383
- Harvard Law Review*, 205, 364
- Hayward, “Big Bill,” 213
- Heilemann, John, 361
- Hemingway, Ernest, 215
- Herman Miller, 154
- Heroic leaders: ClearFacts crisis and emergence of, 193–200; fixer-protector pairing, 222; fixer, survivor, and protector modes taken by, 206–221; fixer-survivor pairing, 223–224; insights into, 226–229; moral justice

- postures taken by, 202–206; Obama’s moral posture and choice of, 375–377; showing tendency toward fraud by choice of, 253–254; square-offs modes taken in times of crisis by, 221–224*t*; structural dynamics on enemy “other” by, 200–202; survivor-protector pairing, 222–223; why shadow work is needed by, 224–226. See also Behavioral profiles; Leaders
- Heroic modes of leaders: ClearFacts moral postures and, 224*t*; dominant heroic mode of, 208; the fixer, 206, 209*fig*–213; light, gray, and dark zones of, 208–209; overview of the three, 206–209; the protector, 206, 217–221, 376; the survivor, 206, 213–217, 376
- Heroic self, 134, 145
- High-stakes behaviors: Barack Obama’s tendencies and, 375–379; insights into your own, 189–191; six phenomena of, 178–179; system in crisis due to, 178, 179*fig*; working on Ralph’s awareness to improve, 179–181
- High-stakes situations: ATP used for deepening skills in, 302–303; Barack Obama’s tendencies during, 375–379; description of, 167; getting in touch with triggers for, 167–168; insights into, 189–192; knowing your behavior during, 273–274; leader capacity for operating under pressure during, 345; Martha’s eruption, 168–170, 201–202; three types of moral posture in, 202–206; working on Ralph’s awareness to prevent, 179–181. See also Crises; Organizations
- High-stakes structural dynamics: between Martha and Howard, 187, 189; competing themes and their shadows impacting, 177–178; escalation of, 183–184; illustrated diagram of rising, 188*fig*; learning to listen to voices, 181–182; mismatches in a business setting, 184–187; noise impact on, 184; relevance of behavioral profiles to, 176–177; sender voices, receiver reactions, 182–183; six phenomena of, 178–179; stress and behaviors of, 178, 179*fig*; voices, themes, and triggers of, 170–178; watching shadows, 183; what makes them personal, 175–176
- Hiring guidelines, 295–297
- Hitler, Adolf, 213
- Holmes, Oliver Wendell, Jr., 205
- Holocaust, 201
- Howard: Art’s unexpected outburst and role of, 27–38, 41*fig*, 43; behavior under pressure, 251–252; behavioral profile of, 120–122; behind closed doors with TJ, 189, 257; choice of hero by, 249–250; ClearFacts crisis enemy role of, 193–202; ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence and role of, 110–122; failure to connect by, 341; high-stakes structural dynamics between Martha and, 187, 189; introduction to ClearFacts’s director of sales, 4, 23; lack of empathy by, 254–255; leader capacities and contributions of, 351*t*–352; Martha’s eruption at, 168–170, 201–202; mismatched communication between ClearFacts team members and, 186*fig*; preference for closed systems by, 84, 93; prosecutor moral posture taken by, 206; Ralph’s behavioral impact on, 269–270; relationship between Vera and, 250–251; response to Ralph’s Bomb by, 80–81, 101; sex and power in adult life of, 250–251; speech acts and stances preference of, 24–25; stances and

- Howard (continued) domains preference of, 59–62; as strong mover, follower, and opposer in different contexts, 33; understanding moral corruption of fraud by, 231, 247–257; weekly ClearFacts meeting and role of, 59–60, 69–73; at work and at home, 19*fig*
- Howard's End* (Forster), 340
- Huffington Post*, 235
- Hughes, Langston, 373
- Humility-arrogance balance: leader capacity for, 344–345; maintaining confidence while maintaining, 346
- Hunter, Rielle, 240
- The hurtful monarch story, 133, 141–142
- Hussein, Saddam, 213
- I
- Ian: Art's unexpected outburst and role of, 27–38; blended prosecutor and adjudicator moral postures taken by, 206; as branded leader prototype, 353; childhood story insight into behavioral profile, 122; childhood story insight into choice of domains by, 67–69; ClearFacts crisis and role of, 193–202; ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence and role of, 110–122; communication interface between Martha and, 63–65; communication problems between Martha and, 64*fig*; failed marriage of, 122; how his behavioral profile impacts his behavior, 109–110, 120–121, 122; insider-outsider shift on TJ's status by, 202; introduction to ClearFacts's CFO and COO, 3–4, 23; leader capacities and contributions of, 349–351; mismatched communication between ClearFacts team members and, 185*fig*, 186*fig*; preference for closed systems by, 84, 92; Ralph's behavioral impact on, 270; response to Ralph's Bomb by, 80–81, 101; speech acts and stances by, 24–25; as strong mover, 33; weekly ClearFacts meeting and role of, 50–52, 59–62, 69–73; at work and at home, 19*fig*
- IBM, 155
- Ideal mate story, 134, 145
- Identity: Barack Obama's quest for, 368–375; high-stakes situations and role of, 175–176; insights on childhood stories and, 149–150; Ron's childhood story on awakening of an, 148–149; understanding how love is linked to, 128–129; the “When I Grow Up” hero and emerging sense of, 145. See also Level IV (identity and structured behavior)
- Ignatier, Michael, 322
- Imagining possibilities, 346
- Imitation stage of model building, 289, 290*fig*
- Imperfect love story: childhood stories on sexual abuse and/or, 248–249; description of, 131–134; Martha's childhood story revealing, 137–140
- Information access: closed system, 90; open system, 86
- Insider-outsider shifts, 194, 200–202
- Intimate partners, 342, 342
- The Investment Answer* (Murray and Goldie), 315, 316
- J
- Jane: following Art's outburst and at home with, 44; as Ian's wife, 19*fig*
- Jobs, Steve, 184
- Johns Hopkins University, 129
- Johnson & Johnson Tylenol crisis (1982), 153–154

Johnson, Lyndon B., 153

Jung, Carl, 207

K

Kent, Muhtar, 161

Kilburg, Richard, 17, 129, 130, 158, 305

King, Martin Luther, Jr., 213, 217, 377

Kloppenber, James, 364, 366, 373–374

Knowing the self, 343

L

Lance: as husband of Martha, 2, 101; insider-outsider shift of Martha and, 202; past and present stories of, 136–137; ritual impasse of relationship of Martha and, 38–39, 176; stories of relationship with wife Martha, 134–145

Language: Barack Obama's preference for meaning domain, 363–365; effective communication requiring common, 158; leader ability to tolerate differences in, 344; mismatches and resulting high-stakes situation, 185*fig.*–186*fig.* See also Communication

Lani (Ron's Fiancée), 187

Law, Cardinal Bernard, 242–243

Leaders: as being great in face-to-face talk, 20; capacity for responsible self-evolution by, 17; communicative competency by, 13; cultural shift in ideologies regarding, 361–362; expectations demanded of, 13; in high-stakes situations, 167–192; how systems thinking benefits, 101–103; insights on developing a leadership model, 279; insights on model-building for, 308–314; moral corruption in, 231–261; narrative purpose suggestions for, 165; operating systems and leadership issues for, 107;

self-assessment of your moral and heroic choices, 227–228; self-assessment of your shadows, 229; structural dynamics of Barack Obama as a, 339; trilingual capacity of, 65–67; twenty leader capacities of, 343–347, 358–359, 382–384; unifying the love and work schism of today's, 14; why shadow work is necessary for, 224–226. See also Heroic leaders

Leadership: moral, 153–154, 232–233, 345–346; moral challenges and means of correction, 233–236; rise and fall of Arthur Andersen through, 158, 160

Leadership Is an Art (De Pree), 154

Leadership model: building ClearFacts 292–307; ClearFacts's model-building process, 292–307; ClearFacts's move from personal to, 265–278; insights on establishing and using, 278–279; personal, model for living, and, 317*fig.* See also Accelerating Team

Performance (ATP); Models; Personal model

Leadership system, 102

Leadership teams: Art's departure from ClearFacts, 294–295; capabilities of individual ClearFacts team members, 349–357; guidelines for hiring onto a, 295–297; insights on model-building for your, 313; leader abilities for managing, 346; structural dynamics on performance of, 385–386

Legitimate constraint, 258

Lehman Brothers, 155

Level I (four-player model of action stances): bystanding to read the room using, 40–43; of ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence, 110–119; description of, 9, 23; examining action structures, action sequences, and structural

- Level I (continued)
 patterns using, 34–40; examining Art’s unexpected outburst at ClearFacts using, 27–39, 43–44; examining behavioral tendencies at Level I using, 32–34; high-stakes structural dynamics and, 176; insights from using the, 44–47; on move, follow, oppose, bystand action stances, 23–25; on pure, compound, and mixed actions, 26–27; on voice of a speech act, 25–26. See also Behavioral profiles; Models
- Level II (communication domains): affect domain, 9, 49, 52–54, 58–59*fig*; of ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence, 110–119; ClearFacts weekly meeting and use of, 50–52, 59–62, 69–73; description of, 9–10, 49–50; high-stakes structural dynamics and, 177; insights into effective use of, 76–78; meaning domain, 9, 50, 54–58*fig*; power domain, 9, 50, 54–56, 58–59*fig*; propensities toward different domains, 62; value of all three domains of, 58–59*fig*; where coaches can get stuck, 75–76. See also Behavioral profiles
- Level III (operating systems): of ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence, 110–119; during ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence, 110–119; closed system, 10, 11, 83–84, 88–93; description of, 10–11, 79; high-stakes structural dynamics and, 177; how leaders benefit from understanding, 101–103; insights into, 104–107; open system, 10, 11, 83–84, 85*fig*–88, 92; Ralph’s Bomb, 79–83, 88, 92–93, 96–101; random system, 10, 83–84, 93*fig*–100; recognizing preferences for systems, 84–85; three types of system, 10, 83–84; understanding systems approaches in general, 82–83. See also Behavioral profiles
- Level IV (identity and structured behavior): childhood stories of love, 131–134; childhood story’s narrative structure, 140–145; description of, 127–128; how identity is linked to love, 128–129; insights into using childhood stories, 149–150; overcoming hesitation to incorporate into model of coaching, 339–343; ritual fight of Martha and Lance, 134–140; shadows, 145–149, 177–178, 183; stories component of, 11, 129–131. See also Childhood stories; Identity; Stories
- Limits on speech: closed system, 90; open system, 86–87; random system, 94
- Lives of Moral Leadership* (Cole), 305
- Longing for ideal mate story, 134, 145
- Love: childhood stories on sexual abuse and/or imperfect, 248–249; connectedness as source of intimacy and, 342; high-stakes situations and role of, 176; imperfect love story, 131–134, 137–140, 248–249; importance of discussing, 339–340; insights on childhood stories of, 149–150; perfect love story, 131–134; relationship between identity and, 128–129; schism between work and, 14; “shadow” putting you in touch with disappointment in, 145–149; survivor hero choosing the cause over, 216. See also Connectedness/connecting

M

- Mack, Kenneth W., 364
- Madoff, Bernard L., 235, 254–255
- Madoff’s ponzi fraud, 235–236
- Making Change Happen* (Kantor), 15

- Malcolm X, 373
- Mandela, Nelson, 214
- Man's Search for Meaning* (Frankl), 215
- Martha: Art's unexpected outburst and role of, 27–38; “Cassandra syndrome” of, 220; ClearFacts crisis and role of, 193–202; ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence and role of, 110–122; ClearFacts weekly meeting and role of, 50–52, 69–73; communication interface between Ian and, 63–65; communication problems between Ian and, 64*fig*; eruption by, 168–170, 201–202; high-stakes structural dynamics between Howard and, 187, 189; insider-outsider shift of Lance and, 202; introduction to ClearFacts's HR director, 2, 23; leader capacities and contributions of, 352–354; mismatched communication between Ian, Howard, and, 186*fig*; as mover with an opposing edge, 33; open affect behavioral profile of, 110, 120–122; positive communication interface between Ralph and, 65; preference for open systems by, 84, 88, 92, 93; prosecutor moral posture taken by, 206; Ralph's behavioral impact on, 209; response to Ralph's Bomb by, 80–81, 101; ritual impasse of relationship of Lance and, 38–39, 176; speech acts and stances by, 24–25; stances and domains preference of, 59–62; stories of relationship with husband Lance, 134–145; at work and at home, 19*fig*
- Martha's stories: childhood Stories and features, 137–145; Lance's Past and Present, 136–137; The Quarrel, 134–136
- Martyr (survivor hero), 213, 217
- Maura (Ian's ex-wife), 122
- Maxwell, Ian. See Ian
- McCain, John, 375, 377
- McNamara, Robert, 256
- Meaning domain: Barack Obama's preference for, 363–365, 381; behavioral profiles in, 120–122; characteristics of, 56–57*fig*, 58; description of, 9, 50; example of speech act, stance, and, 57; mismatched closed versus open/random, 186*fig*; Obama on interface of meaning and power in, 364; private voices and, 171*t*, 172*t*, 173*t*; productive communication interface between Martha and Ralph using, 65; strengths and weaknesses of, 58–59*fig*
- Measured time, 322
- Medea story, 221
- Melancholic disappointment story, 134, 144
- Melville, Herman, 246
- Mentors, 357
- Meta-model (model of models), 286, 300–301, 372–373
- Mideast uprisings (2010–11), 157
- Miller, Arthur, 217, 380
- Mismatches. See Business mismatches
- Mixed action stance, 26–27
- Moby-Dick* (Melville), 246
- Model building: defining constraints for, 286; description of, 283, 285; essential message for leaders on, 308; failure of Greenspan's, 291–292; insights into, 308–314; leader capability for, 344; of personal models, 267–279; by Ralph and Duncan, 292–294, 297–307; three stages of, 289–291
- Model-building process: Duncan's version of ATP for, 301–303; how a leader's profile constrains, 303–304; how clients or team constrain leader's,

- Model-building process (continued)
 304–305; how Ralph’s moral integrity functions as constraint, 305–306; learning by doing, 297–299; overview of the, 284*fig*, 285–286; Ralph’s constraint phase of, 303; Ralph’s meta-models used for, 300–301
- Model-building stages: autonomy, 290*fig*–291, 306–307; constraint, 289–290*fig*; imitation, 289, 290*fig*
- Models: clashes between, 12; coaching, 311–312, 343; cross-model conversations and social, 12, 282; definition of, 12, 281; displayed, 283–284*fig*; functions of, 281–282; leadership, personal, and model for living, 317*fig*; meta-model (model of models), 286, 300–301, 372–373; practice, 155. See also Leadership model; Level I (four-player model); Personal model; Theories
- Models for living: breakdown-breakthrough story and, 316–317, 319–320; building a, 320–322; description of the, 317*fig*–319; insights into building, 337; perils of success to, 318; Ralph and Sonia’s building a life worth living through, 322–336; temporal anxiety and, 319; theories of the thing, of change, and of practice, 321–322; timefulness practice for, 321
- Moral awareness: leader capacity for, 345–346; Ralph’s moral integrity as model-building constraint, 305–306; what happens during stage of, 16–17
- Moral compromise, 255
- Moral corruption: examining Howard’s fraud and, 231, 247–257; good models that go bad and end in, 257–258; hourglass of moral corruptors and, 236*fig*–247; importance of recognizing, 231–232; insights on how to avoid, 259–261; ten dimensions or indicators tending toward fraud and, 253–257. See also Fraud
- Moral corruption indicators: absence of empathy, 254–255; behavioral profile, 253; choice of hero, 253–254; evidence of moral compromise, 255; excessive ambition and aggressive striving, 256; narcissism, 255; not knowing and admitting no error, 242–244, 255–256; proneness to insidious forms of courteous compliance, 254; weak intimate ties, 257
- Moral corruptors: absence of empathy, 245–246; co-opting the inner circle, 239–241; courteous compliance, 40, 238–239, 254; empowerment paradox, 238; external events, 237; face-to-face structures, 237; forgetting history, 241–242; hourglass diagram of verbal interaction, 236*fig*; individual structures, 242; not admitting error, 245, 255–256; “not knowing,” 242–244, 255–256; recklessness, 246–247; reverence for power, 245; silencing the witnesses, 241, 256; unquestioning loyalty to the chief, 244–245
- Moral integrity: insights on model-building and, 313–314; leader capacity for, 345–346; model-building constraint of Ralph’s, 305–306
- Moral intelligence, 261
- Moral justice postures: Barack Obama’s hero choice and, 375–377; ClearFacts heroic modes and, 224*t*; overview of the three, 202–206; three types in high stakes situations, 203*t*–204*t*

- Moral leadership: capacity for, 345–346; challenges and means of correction, 233–236; ClearFacts’s adoption of, 232–233, 258–259; Duncan’s focus on creating ClearFacts, 232–233; feedback loops used to protect, 234–235; insights on, 259–261; Johnson & Johnson’s example of, 153–154; models of, 257–258; need to increase understanding of, 257
- Moral story, 346
- Moral voice, 184
- Morgan, J. P., 213
- Move action stance: during Art’s unexpected outburst, 27–34, 41*fig*; description of, 9, 23–24; Obama’s Bush-era White House meeting adoption of, 377–378; speech act, affect domain, and, 53; speech act, meaning domain, and, 57; speech act, power domain, and, 56. See also Action stances
- Muir, John, 218
- Murray, Gordon, 315–316
The Music of Silence (Steindl-Rast), 321–322
My Lover, Myself (Kantor), 129, 130
- Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, 207
- ## N
- Narcissism, 255
- Narrative purpose: broken, 159*fig*; clarity of purpose aspect of, 152–153; description of, 151–152; how to build and secure a, 160–161; illustrated diagram of broken, 159*fig*; insights into, 164–166; leader ability to articulate, 346–347; a moral, social dimension aspect of, 153–154; obstacles without and within that impact, 157–158; presence or absence of, 155–160; Ralph’s and ClearFacts,’ 161–164; a shareable big picture aspect of, 154; an underlying practice model aspect of, 155
- Narrative structure: description of, 133; of Martha’s childhood story, 140–145; seven recurring features of, 133–134. See also Childhood stories; Stories
- National Right to Life Committee, 157
The Needs of Strangers (Ignatieff), 322
- Nemesis, 175, 182
- New Deal policies, 239
New York Times, 300, 315
New Yorker blog, 213
New Yorker magazine, 334
9/11, 200
- Nixon, Richard, 212
- Noise, 184
- Not admitting error, 245, 255–256
“Not knowing,” 242–244, 255–256
- Novick, Robert, 321
- ## O
- Obama administration: in-fighting over the Afghanistan war (2010) by, 158; U.S. foreign policies of, 157
- Obama, Barack: behavioral profile of, 362–366; challenges facing, 378–379, 384; empathy expressed by, 364, 382; exit memo from Duncan (aka David Kantor) to, 379–384; formative stories and behavior-triggering themes of, 366–371; Giffords shooting speech (2011) by, 364, 376, 382, 384; high-stakes tendencies of, 375–379; identity quest by, 368–375; structural dynamics analysis as a leader, 17, 339, 361–384; twenty leader capacities rating of, 358–359, 382–384
- Obama, Michelle, 362, 371

- Obama's behavioral profile: bystander stance, 362–363; language preference of meaning, 363–365; preference for open systems, 365–366, 381
- Obama's formative stories: books which retell, 366; childhood story, 366–368*fig*; ongoing triggering themes of, 370–371; post-childhood stories in search of an adult identity, 368–370; the shadow in, 371
- Obama's high-stakes tendencies: abandonment trigger and, 370–371, 376; Bush-era White House meeting and, 377–378; choosing between survivor and protector modes, 376; moral posture and hero choice, 375–377; political and personal attacks on Obama, 375
- Obama's identity quest: cultivating his scholarly bent, 373; establishing theory of justice to frame his cause, 372–373; finding his racial identity, 371–372; framing his models of practice, 373–375; post-childhood stories in search of an adult identity, 368–370
- The Old Man and the Sea* (Hemingway), 215
- Open systems: Art and Martha's general preference for, 84, 88, 92; Barack Obama's preference for, 365–366, 381; characteristics of, 85*fig*–88; definition of, 10; opposer domain preference for, 11; private voices and, 172*t*; story opener suggesting, 132
- Operating systems: during ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence, 110–119; description and functions of, 10–11, 79; general understanding of systems approaches, 82–83; high-stakes structural dynamics and, 177; how leaders benefit from understanding, 101–103; how Ralph's Bomb disrupts the, 79–83, 88, 92–93, 96–101; insights into, 104–107; intro to closed, 10, 11, 83–84; intro to open, 10, 11, 83–84; intro to random, 10, 83–84; recognizing preferences for different types of, 84–85; story openers and suggested, 132; three types of, 10, 83–84. See also specific type of operating system; Systems thinking
- Oppose action stance: during Art's unexpected outburst, 27–34, 41*fig*; courteous compliance ostracizing, 40, 238–239, 254; description of, 9, 24; speech act, affect domain, and, 53; speech act, meaning domain, and, 57; speech act, power domain, and, 56. See also Action stances
- Optimizing ability, 346
- Organization stories: building and securing narrative purpose for, 160–161; clarity of purpose aspect of, 152–153; moral and social dimension of, 153–154; practice model underlying the, 155; presence or absence of narrative purpose in, 155–160; shareable big picture aspect of, 154; understanding narrative purpose of, 151–152
- Organizations: broken narrative purpose of, 159*fig*; common language of, 158; leader capacity for managing, 345; leader vision for, 346; narrative purpose of stories of, 152–160, 346–347. See also Corporate culture; High-stakes situations
- Orientation: closed system, 89; open system, 85*fig*, 86; random system, 94
- Orwell, George, 241
- “Other” structural dynamics: description of, 194, 200–202; expanding your

- tolerance for difference, 275; how empathy impacts, 246; of successful intimacy, 340
- O'Toole, Fintan, 243
- P
- Partner intimacy, 342
- Pasternack, Boris, 315
- Patterns: definition of, 7, 11; leader capacity for recognizing, 345; recognizing model clashes and their repetitive, 270–271; team speech act, 11
- Patton, George S., 222, 253
- Paulsen, Hank, 375, 378
- Paulson, Henry, 377
- Pelosi, Nancy, 378
- People access: closed system, 90; open system, 86
- Perfect love story, 131–134
- Personal model: ClearFacts's move to leadership model from, 265–278; description of, 12; leadership, model for living, and, 317*fig*; legitimate constraint to, 258; Madoff's fraud as product of his, 235–236; moral corruption when good models go bad, 257–258; Ralph's current functional awareness and, 266–277. See also Leadership model; Models
- Personal model building: consciously expanding your behavioral profile repertoire, 267–268; disclosing your childhood stories and themes, 271; expanding your tolerance for difference, 275; identifying and taking responsibility for your shadow, 274–275; insights on, 278–279; knowing your behavior in high stakes and crises, 273–274; linking childhood story and structure-forming stories, 271–273; linking work and personal relationships, 275–277; recognizing and taking responsibility for your impacts on others, 268–270; recognizing model clashes and their repetitive patterns, 270–271; taking Behavioral Propensities Profile (BPP), 267, 298, 302
- Planned Parenthood, 157
- Point-counterpoint escalation, 39
- Point-counterpoint structural pattern, 39–40
- The Politician* (Young), 240
- “Ponderosa Boys” (Lehman Brothers), 155
- Ponzi, Charles, 235
- Power: Obama on interface of meaning and, 364; reverence for, 245; self-assessing your relationship to, 259–260
- Power domain: behavioral profiles in, 120–122; characteristics of, 54–56; description of, 9, 49; example of speech act, stance, and, 56; mismatched closed versus random, 185*fig*; private voices and, 171*t*, 172*t*, 173*t*; productive communication interface between Martha and Ralph using, 65; strengths and weaknesses of, 58–59*fig*
- The Power of Now: A Guide to Spiritual Enlightenment* (Tolle), 320
- Practice model: description of, 155; leader capability for building, 344; Obama's framing of his, 373–375; theory of practice and, 288, 310–311, 322, 372
- Present time, 322
- Primary mover, 303
- Private voices: behavioral profiles and, 171*t*–173*t*; our high-stakes, 170–171, 174
- Problematic tendencies, 242
- The Promise* (Alter), 366, 375, 377

Prosecutor moral posture, 202–206
The protector hero: characteristics and behavior of, 217–221; fixer-protector pairing, 222; Obama’s choice of survivor and, 376; overview of heroic leader modes including, 206–209; survivor-protector pairing, 222–223
Pure action stance, 26–27

R

Rabbit Hill Inn (Vermont), 331

Ralph: Art’s resignation meeting with, 294–295; Art’s unexpected outburst and role of, 27–38; brought in as ClearFacts’s CEO, 18, 23; “Building a Green Economy Is the Most Alluring Challenge of the 21st Century” article written by, 74; building a model for living with Sonia, 322–336; childhood stories impacting relationship with men and women, 272–273; childhood story roots of random system preference by, 98–99; ClearFacts crisis debriefing by Duncan for, 195; ClearFacts meeting in Ralph’s absence and role of, 110–119; as ClearFacts team member at work and home, 19*fig*; ClearFacts weekly meeting and role of, 50–52, 60–62, 69–73; coaching perspective of Duncan-Ralph relationship, 15; current functional awareness and personal model, 266–277; first meeting with Ron, 73–75; on his fear of dying, 335–336; introduction to ClearFacts’s CEO, 1–6, 11; leader capacities and contributions of, 347–349*t*; leadership model for ClearFacts instituted by, 232–233, 258–259, 292–307; Martha’s eruption and role of, 168–170; mismatched communication between Ian and, 185*fig*; model-building by, 292–294, 297–307; moving ClearFacts from personal to leadership model, 265–278; narrative purpose of, 161–164; positive communication interface between Martha and, 65; preference for random systems by, 84, 96–99; preventing high-stakes situations by working on awareness, 179–181; Ralph’s Bomb role by, 79–82, 96–101; random meaning profile of, 110; relationship between Sonia and, 2, 62; Sonia reining in, 232–233, 273; Sonia’s warning about Ron to, 75; speech acts and stances by, 24–25; stance and domain preference of, 59–62; as strong mover, 33; as survivor hero, 213, 216.

See also Sonia

Ralph’s Bomb: debriefing by Duncan on impact of, 81–82, 96–100; how Ron fared after, 101; responses to, 80–81; on Ron Stuart’s demands, 79

Rand, Ayn, 291–292

Random systems: characteristics of, 93*fig*–96; description of, 10, 83–84; private voices and, 173*t*; Ralph’s preference for, 84, 96–99; story opener suggesting, 132

Rawls, John, 373

Reading Obama (Kloppenber), 366, 373–374

Reading the room: ClearFacts story on, 1–6; coaching perspective of, 15–17; insights into high-stakes situations and, 191–192; insights on behavioral profiles for, 124; insights on childhood stories for, 150; insights on communication domains for, 77–78; insights on four action stances for, 46–47; insights on operating systems

- used for, 106; for structural patterns of interaction as a bystander, 40–43. See also Bystander action stance; Structural dynamics
- Realities: addressing social interaction, 13–14; damage of life, 14
- Recession (2008), 157, 256, 315, 383
- Rechtschaffen, Stephen, 322
- Recklessness, 246–247
- Reflective time, 322
- Remnick, David, 363, 365, 366
- Resonant themes: description of, 134; of Martha's childhood stories, 142–144; shades of anger and resulting, 143*fig*
- Responsible self-evolution: leader capacity for, 17; what happens during stage of, 17
- Reverence for power, 145
- The Rise and Fall of Bear Stearns* (Greenberg), 154
- Risk-taking capacity, 345
- Ritual impasse, 38–39, 176
- Robinson, Michelle, 372
- Rockefeller, John D., 213
- Ron: childhood shadow story of, 145–149; ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence and role of, 110–119; first meeting with Ralph, 73–75; introduction to, 18, 73; leader capacities and contributions of, 354–356; Ralph's behavioral impact on, 269; Ralph's Bomb on demands by, 79–83, 88, 92–93, 96–101; role in high-stakes structural dynamics between Martha and Howard, 187, 189
- Roosevelt, F. D., 239
- Rubin, Robert, 258
- S
- Sadness story theme, 134, 142–144
- Sam (Howard's brother), 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 257
- Saunders, Arthur. See Arthur (or Art)
- Saunders, Jane. See Jane
- Schön, Donald A., 308
- Sculley, John, 184
- September 11th, 200
- Sequences, definition of, 7, 11
- The shadow: Barack Obama and, 371; being aware of, 183; as buried memory of betrayed child, 145–146; of competing themes impacting high-stakes situation, 177–178; identifying and taking responsibility for your, 274–275; Jung's concept of, 207; Ron's story on, 146–149; why we need to understand, 224–226. See also Dark sides
- The shadow behaviors: of fixer hero, 212–213; functional awareness of, 16; of protector hero, 221; self-assessment of your, 229; of survivor hero, 215–217. See also Behavioral profiles
- Shadow dance, 222
- Silencing witnesses, 241, 256
- The silent conspirator story, 133, 142
- Smith, Adam, 373
- Soliciting feedback, 344
- Sonia: building a model for living with Ralph, 322–336; her connection versus independence dilemma, 330–331; reining in Ralph, 216, 273; relationship between Ralph and, 2, 62; taking Ralph on needed vacation, 232–233; warning to Ralph about Ron, 75; working on high-stakes situations between Ralph and, 179–180. See also Ralph
- Spacek, Leonard, 160
- Speech act examples: of affect domain, stance, and, 53; during Art's unexpected outburst, 27–38;

- Speech act examples (continued)
of Level I action stances and, 24–32, 35–38; of Level II communication domains and, 49–50, 53, 57; of meaning domain, stance, and, 57; of power domain, stance, and, 56; of productive communication interface between Martha and Ralph, 65
- Speech act structure: illustrated diagram showing levels of, 8*fig*; Level I: action stances, 9, 23–27; Level II: communication domains, 9–10; Level III: operating systems, 10–11; Level IV: childhood stories, 11–12
- Speech acts: acting in the room ability to execute the right, 121; of ClearFacts meeting in Ralph's absence, 110–119; description of, 7; four levels of structure, 8*fig*–12; sequences and patterns of, 7, 11, 270–271, 345; team patterns of, 11; the voice of a, 25–26. See also Action stances
- Spitzer, Eliot, 205, 206, 253
- Spousal intimacy, 342
- Stalin, Joseph, 213
- Stances. See Action stances
- Steindl-Rast, David, 322
- Stewart, Martha, 243
- Stories: Barack Obama's post-childhood search of adult identity, 368–370; behind behavioral profiles, 131; breakdown-breakthrough, 316–317, 319–320; coaching role of personal, 129–130; knowing the self through personal, 343; leader ability to tell, 346; linking childhood stories and structure-forming, 271–272; making sense of the world through, 130; of Martha and Lance's marital relationship, 134–145; narrative purpose of, 151–166, 346–347; operating systems indicated by openers of, 132; organization, 151–166; the power of, 11; seven features of mythically toned, 133–134; structure versus moral, 346; systematic development through connections, 131; understanding Howard's fraud through his, 247–253. See also Childhood stories; Level IV (identity and structured behavior); Narrative structure
- Storytelling ability, 346
- Structural dynamics: analysis of Barack Obama as a leader, 17, 339, 361–384; coaching perspective of teaching, 15–17; for discerning universal structures of conversations, 6–7; leader behavior in high-stakes situations, 167–192; on leader crisis response to enemy "other," 200–202; linking work and personal relationships, 276–277; origins and description of, 6; "other," 194, 200–202, 246, 275, 340; on speech as an act, 7–12; on team performance, 385–386; on three postures of moral justice, 202–206. See also Reading the room
- Structural dynamics analysis: examining Barack Obama's leadership using, 17, 339, 361; exit memo from Duncan (aka David Kantor) to Obama, 379–384; Obama's behavioral profile, 362–366; Obama's formative stories, 366–371; Obama's high-stakes tendencies, 375–379; Obama's identity quest, 371–375
- Structural dynamics model: behavioral profiles of, 11–12, 109–110, 119–124, 131; Level I: four-player model, 9,

- 23–47, 110–119; Level II: communication domains, 9–10, 49–78, 110–119; Level III: operating systems, 10–11, 79–103, 110–119; Level IV: identity and structured behavior, 11, 127–150, 339–343
- Structural dynamics theory: future empirical testing of the, 386; origins of, 385; value of understanding and using the, 385–386. See also Theories
- Structural patterns: archetypal, 39–40; bystanding to read the room for, 40–43; description of, 35; evolution and context of, 36*fig*; how behaviors are molded by, 38–39; ritual impasse of, 38–39
- Structure story, 346
- Stuart, Ron. See Ron
- Summers, Larry, 258
- The survivor hero: characteristics and behavior of, 213–217; fixer-survivor pairing, 223–224; Obama’s choice of protector and, 376; overview of heroic leader modes including, 206–209; survivor-protector pairing, 222–223
- System awareness: leader capacity for, 345; what happens during stage of, 16
- System thinking benefits: guiding development and change, 102; “having a life,” 103; improved problem solving and decision making, 102–103; increasing capacity to communicate with multiple audience, 103; leadership system development, 102
- Systems thinking: circular causal reasoning role in, 82; control devices in feedback loops, 83; description of, 10; how leaders benefit from, 101–103; negative feedback loops that reduce output of, 83; positive feedback loops impacting output of, 82–83. See also Operating systems
- ## T
- Team profiles: of ClearFacts leadership team, 349–357; insights into, 124
- Teams. See Leadership teams
- Template Jones. See TJ (Template Jones)
- Temporal anxiety, 311
- Terry (TJ and Howard’s assistant), 198
- Themes: Barack Obama’s ongoing triggering, 370–371; definition of, 174; disclosing your childhood stories and their, 271; high-stake situations and competing, 177–178; resonant story, 134, 142–144; ten universal, 174–175; toxic, 175; triggering receiver reactions, 182–183
- Theories: constraints generated by, 286; theory of change, 287–288, 301, 310, 322, 372; theory of justice, 372, 372–373; theory of practice, 288, 310–311, 322, 372; theory of the thing, 286–287, 309, 321–322, 372–373. See also Models; Structural dynamics theory
- Teresa, Mother, 218
- Three Stallions Inn (Vermont), 329
- Time: four conceptions of, 322; timefulness practice for experiencing, 321
- Time-shifting* (Rechtschaffen), 322

- Timefulness practice, 321
- TJ (Template Jones): background on “fraudster” character of, 196–197; behind closed doors with Howard, 189, 257; ClearFacts crisis enemy role of, 193–202; corruption of power by, 212; insider-outsider shift of, 202; introduction to, 70
- Tkaczyk, Christopher, 152
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 373
- Toffler, Barbara Ley, 305
- Tononi, Giulio, 300, 301
- Tough Choices* (Toffler), 305
- Toxic themes, 175
- Travis, Duncan. See Duncan
- Tribe, Lawrence, 373
- Trilingual communication domains:
  - leaders with the ability for, 65–66;
  - process of becoming competent in, 66–67
- The truant hero story, 134, 144–145
- Tuesdays with Morrie* (Albom), 321
- Twenty leader capacities: acting morally, 345–346; articulating narrative purpose, 346–347; balancing arrogance and humility, 344–345; Barack Obama’s rating in, 358–359, 382–384; building a practice model, 344; compromising with others, 344; connecting with others, 344; imaging possibilities, 346; insights into, 358–359; knowing the self, 343; maintaining confidence, 346; managing organizations, 345; managing teams, 344; mobilizing energy and morale, 346; operating under pressure, 345; optimizing, 346; recognizing patterns, 345; soliciting feedback, 344; storytelling, 346; taking risks, 345; tolerating language differences, 344; understanding systems, 345. See also ClearFacts team capacities
- “Tyranny of process,” 93
- “Tyranny of the monarch,” 92
- ## U
- An Unmarried Woman* (film), 328
- Unquestioning loyalty, 244–245
- ## V
- Values: closed system, 89–90; open system, 86; random system, 94
- Vanderbilt, Cornelius, 213
- Vera (relationship with Howard), 250–251, 257
- Victimization, 221
- Vietnam War, 256
- Vision: articulating narrative purpose and, 346–347; leader capacity for imagining possibilities and, 346
- Voices: behavioral profiles and private, 171*t*–173*t*; escalation driven by one’s moral, 184; high-stakes situations and receiver reactions to sender, 182–183; improving high-stakes situations by listening to, 181–182; our high-stakes private, 170–171, 174
- ## W
- The Warning* (PBS Frontline documentary), 258
- Waterman, Ralph. See Ralph
- Waterman, Sonia, 2, 62

Watson, Thomas J., Jr., 155

Weak intimate ties, 257

“What Good Is Wall Street? Mostly

What Investment Bankers Do Is Socially Worthless” (New Yorker), 334

The “When I Grow Up” (young-adult)

hero myth, 134, 145, 207, 208

William, James, 373

Wilson, Joe, 370

Work: linking personal relationships and, 275–276; schism between love and, 14

Wright, Frank Lloyd, 281

Wright, Reverend, 384

Wright, Richard, 373

Y

Young-adult hero myth, 134, 145, 207, 208

Young, Andrew, 240

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>