

Index

- Aggressiveness, when trading well, 237
- Average true range (ATR), scenario development and, 129
- Back testing:
 high probability trades and, 146
 in trading plan, 20–21, 23
 of trading systems, 46, 49–50
- Bad trades. See also Losses avoiding with trading system, 21 importance of getting out of, 77–79 learning from, 32
- Bernstein, Jake, 263
- Black box programmed trading systems, 44
- Capital. See Money management
- Charting, market knowledge and, 63–68
- Choppy markets, avoiding overtrading in, 192–196
- Close of markets, 77–93 evaluating closed trades at, 89–92 evaluating open trades at, 79–89 importance of getting out of bad trades, 77–79 importance of knowing closing times, 60 reviewing plans and strategy at, 92–93
- Closed trades:
 evaluating at close of market, 89–92
 in review and management process, 185
- Come Into My Trading Room* (Elder), 263
- Commission costs:
 accounting for in risk-reward calculations, 144
 back testing and, 23, 49–50
- Complete Day Trader, The* (Bernstein), 263
- Consistency, focus and, 247
- Contracts, deciding upon number of, at entry points, 159–160. See also Multiple positions
- Correlations of markets, knowing, 69–75
- Counseling, discipline and, 248–249
- Cutoff levels:
 importance of having, 260
 money management and, 215–217, 221
- Day traders:
 money management and, 214–215
 overtrading avoidance and, 194–195
 scenario development and, 122–123
 types of, 104–105
- Detachment, discipline and, 252–253
- Discipline. See also Focus discretionary strategies and, 44–45
 game plan and, 30–31, 35
 high probability trades and, 148
 mental aspects of, 248–251
 overtrading avoidance and, 194
 stress relief and, 253–254
 trading rules for, 228, 232–233
 ways to monitor, 251–253
- Disciplined Trader, The* (Douglas), 263
- Discretionary strategies, versus systematic strategies, 44–45
- Distractions, avoiding, 242–244
- Dollar value cutoff level, 216
- Douglas, Mark, 263
- Earnings, knowing for various stocks, 71
- Education, about trading:
 importance of, 262
 sources of, 263–264

- Elder, Alexander, 263
- Emotions, controlling of, 249, 258–259.
See also Fear; Greed
- Entry points, 149–160 avoiding chasing the market, 154 deciding size of trade, 159–160 finding patterns in long-term trade, 155–159
 high probability trading and, 135–136 knowing risk, 159 planning trade, 150–151
 scenario development and, 108–114, 125, 152–154
 spotting opportunities, 149–151 timing of, 154–155
 trading rules for, 227–228, 229–231
 trading strategies and, 52
- Equity, limiting percentage at risk, 237
- Exit strategies, 161–176
 cutting losses, letting profits ride, 162–163
 in game plan, 9
 gray area between stop and target, 175
 high probability trades and, 135–136, 146–147
 how to exit, 174
 importance of, 21
 parts of trades and, 186 planning risk, 164 planning target, 173–174 preestablishing of, 161–162
 scenario development and, 128
 trading rules for, 228, 231–232
 trading strategies and, 52–54
 trading the gap, 167–170, 184
 using stops, 163–164 Extraordinary Popular Delusions & the Madness of Crowds (Mackay), 263
- Fear:
 avoiding, 239, 251
 risk parameters and, 204
- Federal Reserve Open Market interest rate announcements:
 day traders and, 123
 exit strategy and, 165
 review and management of trades and, 178, 179
 scenario development and, 117–119
- Fixed-dollar stop, 167–168
- Focus, 241–248, 249. See also Discipline distractions and, 242–244
 game plan and, 31, 244–246
 importance of, 242
 tips for maintaining, 246–248
- Foreign exchanges rates, knowing market's sensitivity to, 71
- Fundamental strategies, 43–44
- Future trades:
 in review and management process,
 182–184
 thinking about at close of market, 88–89, 91–92
Futures Magazine, 264
- Game plan, 7–8, 11–12, 25–32
 benefits of, 3, 26–27 example of good, 9–11
 focus and, 31, 244–246
 importance of, 9
 making daily, at open, 104–105
 money management and, 222–223
 overtrading avoidance and, 192–205
 review of trades and, 29–30
 scenarios and, 27–29
 trading plan and, 11, 12
 trading plan execution and, 25–26
 trading rules and, 229
- Gap, trading in, 167–170, 184
- Getting in. See Entry points
- Getting out. See Exit strategies
- Good day ratio cutoff level, 216
- “Grain of salt,” origin of phrase, 166
- Greed:
 avoiding, 239
 risk parameters and, 204
- High probability trades, 131–148 getting favorable odds, 145–148 going long example, 136–139 going short example, 139–142 good trades and losses, 132–135
 knowing entry and exit points, 135–136
 measuring risk-to-reward ratio, 143–145
 waiting for right opportunities, 143
High Probability Trading (Link), 263

- Holding times, trading strategies and, 54–55
 Hope, not a trading strategy, 239
 Illiquid markets, avoiding, 237
 Indicators. See Technical strategies
 Interest rates, knowing market's sensitivity to, 71 Journal:
 discipline and, 251–252
 focus and, 246–247
 value of keeping, 188–189
 Kase, Cynthia, 263
 Krutsinger, Joe, 263
 Lefèvre, Edwin, 156, 263
 Limits, setting to avoid overtrading, 198–200
 Link, Marcel, 263
 Liquidity, market knowledge and, 61
 Lock limits, risk and, 62
 Long positions:
 high probability trading example and, 136–139 looking for patterns in, 155–159 Losses:
 cutting of, 162–163
 discipline and, 250
 keeping small, 235–236
 not adding to, 236
 predetermining for every trade, 234–235 putting behind you, 259 taking break from, 237 taking responsibility for, 257 targets for, 54 thinking of as expense, 257
 Losing trade, 90
 Mackay, Charles, 263
 Margins, money management and, 213–214
Market Wizards (Schwager), 48, 263
 Markets, 57–76
 avoiding chasing of, 154, 235 correlations and, 69–75 focus and monitoring of, 247 importance of knowing, 239–240 knowing differences in various, 57–59 knowing who moves, 68–69 learning basics of, 60–62
 review and management of trades and, 187 risk and various, 62
 scenarios and, 107–108
 seeing big picture of, 75 times frames and charting of, 63–68
 Martingale System, 210–211
 Mega traders, market movements and, 58
 Midday reverses, scenario development and, 129–130
 Mistakes, learning from, 2, 258
 Money management, 207–224
 capital preservation and, 260
 cutoff levels, 215–217, 221
 game plan and, 222–223
 high probability trades and, 147
 importance of, 259
 multiple positions and, 214–215, 220–221 open positions and, 223–224
 position size and, 217–218, 221
 review and management of trades and, 187
 reward-to-risk ratio, 219 risk amount, 211–212, 220 risk and benefits of, 208–209 risk at a time, 212–213, 220 risk per trade, 213–214, 220 stops, 218–219
 trading plan and, 16, 21–22, 220–222
 trading rules for, 227, 228–229
 trading size changes, 219–220
 trading strategies and, 51–52
 Multiple positions:
 money management and, 214–215, 220–221
 review and management of trades and, 186
 too many, 196–198
 Murphy, John, 43, 263
 Natenberg, Sheldon, 263
New Market Wizards, The (Schwager), 263

- News events:
- evaluating open trades at close of market, 87–88
 - evaluating trades at opening of market, 96–97, 98
 - high probability trades and, 134–135
 - knowing market's likely reactions to, 73–74
 - scenario development and, 123–125
 - "No position is a position," 134, 143
- Odds, getting in your favor, 145–148
- Open interest, 68–69
- Open positions:
- evaluating at close of market, 79–89
 - money management and, 214–215, 223–224
 - review and management of, 177–185
 - scenarios and monitoring of, 114–122, 125–130
- Opening gap, trading against, 167
- Opening of markets:
- checking for big overnight moves, 100–101
 - evaluating market action at, 98–99
 - knowing markets and, 97
 - looking for opportunities at, 101–103
 - making adjustments after, 99–100
 - news events and, 96–97, 98
- Opportunities:
- spotting entry points, 149–151
 - waiting for, 142
- Option Volatility & Pricing* (Natenberg), 263
- Options, lock limits and, 62
- Overconfidence:
- discipline and, 249
 - risk parameters and, 204
- Overnight moves:
- checking for big moves at market opening, 100–101
 - knowing market's, 73
 - review and management of trades and, 185–186
 - risk and, 62
 - scenario development and, 113–114
- Overseas markets:
- checking at open, 98
 - knowing market's sensitivity to, 72
- Overtrading, avoiding, 191–205
- game plan and discipline to follow it, 192–196
 - position number and, 196–200
 - position size and, 201–203
 - risk management and, 200–204
- Paper trading, 248
- Patterns, finding in long-term trade entry points, 155–159
- Percent of capital cutoff level, 216
- Pivot points, scenario development and, 129
- Pliny the Elder, 166
- Points, thinking of profits and losses in terms of, 250
- Poker, example of trading plan, 18
- Position size. See also Multiple positions
- close of markets and, 85–86
 - focus and, 247
 - money management and, 217–218, 219–220, 221
 - opening of markets and, 103–104
 - overtrading avoidance and, 201–203
 - review and management of trades and, 185–186
 - scenario development and, 128
- Practice trading, 248
- Profits:
- having target for, 54
 - letting ride, 162–163
 - protecting, 216–217
 - taking some as reward, 240, 259–260
- Purchased trading systems, 46–47
- Ratio of maximum loss to potential win, 144–145
- Reminiscences of a Stock Operator* (Lefèvre), 156, 263
- Repeated patterns, knowing market's, 73
- Reports, knowing for various markets, 70–71
- Review and management, 177–189
- of closed trades, 185
 - discipline and, 253, 254
 - of future trades, 182–184
 - game plan and, 29–30
 - journal and, 188–189
 - of markets traded in, 187

- money management and, 187
- of multiple positions, 186
- of open trades, 177–182
- of position size, 185–186
- throughout day, 184–185
- Risk parameters, 200–201. See also
 - Money management
 - entry points and, 159
 - exit strategy and, 164
 - high probability trades and, 143–145, 146
 - limiting equity at risk, 237
 - market knowledge and, 62
 - overtrading avoidance and, 197, 200–204
 - in trading plan, 21–22
 - trading strategies and, 42
- Rules. See Trading rules
- Scenarios of trading, 107–130. See also
 - Review and management
 - big picture and, 108–113
 - day traders and, 122–123
 - end of day and, 113–114
 - entry points and, 152–154
 - game plan and, 27–29
 - market knowledge and, 107–108
 - news events and, 123–125
 - open position monitoring, 114–122, 125–130
 - opening of markets and, 103
- Schwager, Jack, 48, 263
- Seasonal patterns, knowing market's sensitivity to, 72
- Self-destructive behavior, avoiding, 257
- Sentiment, market's sensitivity to, 74
- Seykota, Ed, 48
- Short positions, high probability trading
 - example and, 139–142
- Simple methods, value of, 239
- Slippage:
 - accounting for in risk-reward calculations, 144
 - back testing and, 50
- "So what?" learning to say, 250–251
- Stocks:
 - laggards and leaders and, 70
 - learning basics of movements of, 60–62
- Stops, 111. See also Exit strategies
 - evaluating open trades at close of market, 83–85
 - in exit strategy, 163–164, 167–170
 - gray area between target and, 175
 - money management and, 218–219
 - placed in market, not mentally, 163–164
 - in review and management process, 178–184
 - scenario development and, 127–128
 - trading rules and, 231–232
- Strategies. See also High probability trades
 - entry points and, 150–151
 - exit points and, 161–162
 - using proven, 261–262
- Strength, buying on, 234
- Stress relief, 253–254
- Style of trading, 33–39. See also Trading mentality
 - focus and, 247
 - importance of knowing own, 35–38, 238, 261
 - losses and, 38–39
 - trading strategies and, 42
 - types of traders and, 34–35
- Systematic strategies, versus discretionary strategies, 44–45
- Tandy, Bruce, 139, 141
- Targets:
 - evaluating open trades at close of market, 81–83
 - exit strategy and, 163–164, 173–174
 - gray area between stop and, 175
 - importance to high probability trading, 138
- Technical analysis. See also High probability trades; Scenarios of trading
 - confirming fundamentals with, 236–237
 - market opening opportunities and, 101–103
 - strategies and, 42–43
- Technical Analysis of Stocks and Commodities* magazine, 48, 264
- Technical Analysis of the Futures Markets* (Murphy), 43, 263
- Technical indicator stop, 168, 170

- Technical stop, 168
- Tharp, Van K., 263
- Thin markets:
- dangers of trading in, 61–62
 - time frames and, 63
- Tick, knowing worth in various markets, 60
- Time frames:
- entry points and, 154–155
 - market knowledge and, 63–68
 - in trading plan, 22
 - trading rules and, 235
 - trading strategies and, 54–55
 - winning trades and, 260–261
- Time of day, knowing market's sensitivity to, 72–73
- Time stop, 167
- Tips, avoiding trading on, 262
- Trade Station, 23
- Trade Your Way to Financial Freedom* (Tharp), 263
- Traders, types of, 34–35
- Trades:
- having reason for every, 147, 236
 - importance of knowing entry and exit points, 135–136
 - making to gain experience, 258
 - tips for winning, 255–265
- TradeStation, 44, 49
- Trading breaks, 217
- Trading for a Living* (Elder), 263
- Trading mentality. See also Style of trading
- game plan and, 27
 - in trading plan, 22
- Trading plan, 11–12, 15–23
- advantages of, 17, 23
 - as business plan, 18–19
 - elements of, 19–23
 - example of simple, 16
 - execution of, see Game plan
 - methodology and, 15–16
 - money management and, 16, 220–222
 - overtrading avoidance and, 192, 203–204
 - poker example, 18
 - review and management of, 189
 - rules and, 226–227
 - trading rules and, 234
- Trading rules, 225–240
- for discipline, 228, 232–233
 - for entering trades, 227–228, 229–231
 - for exiting trades, 228, 231–232
 - focus and, 246
 - importance of creating, 225–226, 261
 - for money management, 227, 228–229
 - top 25, 233–240
 - using in trading plan, 226–227
- Trading strategies, 41–55
- advantages of, 51
 - building of systems, 45–50
 - discretionary versus systematic, 44–45
 - entry signal, 52
 - evaluating open trades at close of market, 79–81
 - evaluating trades at close of market, 92–93
 - exit signals, 52–54
 - fundamental, 43–44
 - reexamining regularly, 50–51
 - technical, 42–43
 - times frames and holding times, 54–55
 - trading styles and, 42
 - types of, 41–42
- Trading Systems Toolkit, The* (Krutsinger), 263
- Trading with the Odds* (Kase), 263
- Trends, trading and, 230–231, 233–234
- “Tuition of trading,” 35, 42
- Volatility:
- evaluating open trades at close of market, 86–87
 - market knowledge and, 61
- Volume, using to help trade, 236
- Weakness, selling on, 234
- Weather, knowing market's sensitivity to, 71–72
- Worst-case scenarios, preparing for, 28–29, 125–127