

Index

A

- Accenture, 99
Acker, Rob, 80–81, 234
ADP, 94, 95
Advertising: developing marketing model for, 44–45;
differentiating company, 28–31; using branding in,
31–32
Advice, 7–8
After-school technology centers, 144–146,
148–152
Alexander, Pam, 24
Allanson, Joe, 211, 213
Amar, Sue, 161–162, 163
Amazon.com, 2, 103, 183, 250
American Medical Response, 86
America's Promise, 130, 144
Ammachi (Mata Amritananadamayi), 2–3, 136
Analog Devices, 86
Angel investments, 206–207
AOL, 145
AppExchange, 125–126, 196–197
Appirio, 109–110, 127–128, 131–132
Apple, 11, 126
Appleby, John, 170
Applications. See AppExchange; PaaS; SaaS
Ariba Corporation, 89
Art of War, The (Tzu), 10–11, 38
Asante, Edmond, 156
Ashoka, 157
Asia-Pacific business strategies, 192–196, 198–199
Astadia, 160, 242
Australia business strategies, 189–191
Autodesk, 209, 211
Automatic Data Processing (ADP), 213
- ## B
- B-52s, 26
Ben & Jerry's, 143
Bennett, Rick, 30–31, 39
Berridge, Eric, 99, 159
Bifurcated business model, 177
Big Switch, The (Carr), 43
Bike to Work grant, 162
BizAcademy, 153–156
BlackBerry, 114
Bloomberg.com, 123
Blue Martini Software, 69, 70
Bluewolf Group, 99, 159–160, 252
Bosworth, Adam, 132
Branding: advertising with, 31–32; corporate consistency and, 244; corporate philanthropy and, 147; establishing End of Software as, 28–32;
expanding globally, 188–192; using, 32
Breakfast at Tiffany's, 245–246
Bridges, Steve, 63
Brilliant, Dr. Larry, 161
Brin, Sergey, 160–161
Brisson, Gigi, 205
Brown, Rafe, 220
Bruzzo, Chris, 129
Bugforce, 70
Bureau of Labor Statistics, 164
Bus 24, 150
Business Today, 156

INDEX

BusinessWeek, 41, 80, 125, 129, 130, 170–171
Butler, Gary, 92–93

C

Cakebread, Steve, 209–210, 215
California Mentor Initiative, 16
Campbell, Bruce, 28, 31, 32, 244
Canon, 184–185
Career development, 19, 250–252
Carr, Nicholas, 4, 43
Case, Steve, 145
Cavalieri, Jim, 16
Center for Venture Research, 206
Certification programs, 253
Chambers, John, 196
Changes: after IPOs, 218–223; envisioning, 1–3; leveraging with customers, 82–85; making career, 19
Checks and balances in hiring, 235
Children's Aid Society Carrera Adolescent Pregnancy
 Prevention, 158
Christensen, Clayton M., 43, 255
Cisco, 13, 91, 100, 140, 145, 203, 220, 258
City Tours, 49–51, 54, 57–58, 62
Clark, Don, 23, 72
Clean Air-Cool Planet, 162
Cleveland, Bruce, 64
Closing, 93
Coca-Cola, 86
CODA, 125
Collaboration: developing communities of, 131–132,
 145; philanthropic, 159–161
Committee Encouraging Corporate Philanthropy
 (CECP), 218
Companies: collaborating with, 131–132; incorporating philanthropic models in existing, 135–139
Competition: going after market leaders, 34, 36–38;
 leveraging, 60–61; relationships with, 39–40;
 surprising, 38
Conde, Cris, 89–91
Confidence, 16
Connery, Nancy, 15, 16, 233–234, 248
Conservation International, 162
Contra Costa Times, 31
Contracts: annual service, 207–208; converting subscriptions to, 82–85, 207–208; writing with light and love, 188–192
Cooperative sales efforts, 92
Corporate philanthropy: choosing cause for, 144–146; creating self-sustaining model for, 153–156;
 employee-inspired foundations, 161–165;
 foundations in business model, 140–144; giving back to communities, 191; Google's commitment to, 160–161; Hasbro's, 141–142; in-kind product donations, 156–158, 166; incorporating in existing company, 135–139; integrating with organization, 139–140; involving new hires in, 243–244; listening to constituents, 148–152; partner and network involvement in, 159–161; reasons for, 147–148; sharing financial successes, 217–218; sharing philanthropic models, 146–147; success of 1–1–1 Model, 256; supporting employee sabbaticals, 1–3; sustaining foundations, 166–168

Corporate sales teams: developing, 88–89; international, 172–173; selling corporate services, 98–100; in sequential growth strategies, 177–178
Costs: event, 57–59; managing while expanding,
 176–177; reducing start-up company, 206–207
Council on Foundations, 148
Critical Metrics, 250
Criticism, 9–11
CRM (customer relationship management): developing international divisions for, 169–170, 173;
 Microsoft's venture into, 42; origins of salesforce.com, 11–12; positioning End of Software mission, 24–25; potential sales via telephone, 77–78; potentials for SaaS online products, 6;
 scalability challenge for, 8–9; Siebel goes public, 5
CRM Fusion, 160
CRM ticker symbol, 213
Crowdsourcing (Howe), 129
Culture: aligning employees to, 242–244; beginning of salesforce.com, 12; defining company, 11–12;
 recruiting new talent into, 15, 16, 17, 19, 233–239;
 transferring globally, 178–179, 192, 195–196, 197
Customer relationship management. See CRM Customers: accessibility and satisfied, 98–99; being involved in dialogues of, 130; building trust with, 110–113; contacting personally, 114; contract for,
 219–220; contracts for, 207–208; developing network of, 53–54; ease of product adoption by, 119; enlisting for sales, 73–76; harnessing ideas of,
 127–130; influencing products, 115–118;
 introducing prospects to happy, 100–101;
 leveraging change with, 82–85; listening to, 13–14, 85–86; special support for professional, 98–100;
 supporting existing, 97–98; testimony of, 47–52;
 treating as partners, 69–71; visiting, 93
CustomerStat, 52
Customization features, 115–118

D

Dalai Lama, His Holiness, 2, 11
Dell, 100, 128–129, 172
Dell, Michael, 128, 129, 130, 151, 196
Deloitte, 99, 148
Dempsey, David, 170
DiBianca, Suzanne, 140, 146
Digg, 127
Disaster relief, 163–164
Discounts, 78–79, 83–84
Disney, Walt, 103, 203
Dominguez, Frank, 11, 20, 106–107, 139–140
Dot-com crash, 27

Index

- Draper, Tim, 153
Dreamforce, 61–63, 65
DuPont, 99
- ### E
- E*TRADE, 100, 203
E-Rate, 144
Earth Council, 163
EBay, 108, 114, 140–141, 183
Ebersole, Scott and Wendi, 247
Editorials, 47
80/20 rule, 12–13, 174
Einstein, Albert, 11
Einstein, David, 24
Ellison, Larry, 14–15, 16–17, 30, 31, 136, 137, 138, 204, 226
Employees: being on-message, 55; career paths for, 250–252; corporate philanthropy and, 147; employee-inspired foundations, 161–165; empowering as volunteers, 141–142, 161–162, 163–164; engaging and growing, 247–248; feedback from, 249–252; finding innovative, 240; firing, 249; fostering loyal, 246–247; incentives for, 245–246; listening to, 81; measuring success of, 251; moving to satellite offices, 193–196; as part of marketing team, 33–34, 35; retaining, 242–244; sabbaticals for, 1–3; training, 252, 253–254
Employees. See also Hiring employees
End of Software mission: branding for, 28–32; creating story with, 40–41; mock protests, 36–37, 65, 197–198; on-demand model vs. hosted choices, 105–106; positioning, 24–25; success of, 256
Enron, 212
Enterprise sales, 177–178
Entrepreneurs: belief in self, 5–6; defining values and culture, 11–12; defying convention, 14; developing vision, 3–4, 198; focusing work, 12–13; getting good advice, 7–8; handling global disputes, 188–192; having mentors, 14–15; hiring best players, 15–17; listening to customers, 13–14, 85–86; making changes, 19; reducing start-up costs, 206–207; responding to criticism, 9–11; sabbaticals for, 1–3; taking risks, 18–20; thinking bigger, 20–21; working with top talent, 7–9, 15–17
Environmental responsibility, 161–163
Ernst & Young, 213
Escalate Retail, 69
European Technology Roundtable Exhibition (ETRE), 24
Evans, Matt, 53
Events: changing strategies for, 65–66; developing strategies for, 37–38; establish market relevance, 60, 63–64; having fun with, 61–63, 65–66; hosting, 54–56; inexpensive, effective, 57–59; planning, 59–60; seizing unlikely opportunities, 63–64; selling to end users, 52–54; staging mock protests, 36–37, 65, 197–198; Street Team concept for, 49–52; tips for great, 55–56; using word-of-mouth phenomenon, 47–49
Expanding: brand globally, 188–192; managing costs and, 176–177; sales, 95, 184–185
- ### F
- Farber, Doug, 177–178, 189, 190, 199
Feedback loops, 71
Field sales teams, 89
Financing: angel investments, 206–207; building financial team, 209–210; estimating need for, 201–203; evolving models of, 207–208; fundraising strategies for, 203–205; growing into public corporation, 218–220; preparing and filing IPO, 210–215; revenue vs. profitability, 208–209; SEC compliance and, 215–218
Financing. See also IPOs
Firing employees, 249
Fisher, Steve, 121
Fleischer, Corinne, 158
Flynn, Erin, 238
Focusing, 12–13
Forbes, 24
Forbes, Michelle Pohndorf, 13
Forbes, Steve, 156
Force.com, 122–123
Fortune, 24, 39
Foundations: employee-inspired, 161–165; including in business model, 140–144; integrating in company, 139–140; mimicking business, 166–168; 1–1–1 Model and, 142–143, 159–161; Oracle's development of, 137–139; sustaining endowments of, 166–168
Foundations. See also 1–1–1 Model
Francis, Bruce, 111, 113
Free trial subscriptions, 67–68, 96–97
Fun: corporate philanthropy as, 148; with events, 61–63, 65–66
Fun facts, 94
- ### G
- Gabriel, Peter, 151
Garnett, Katrina and Terry, 2
Garnett, Steve, 178, 246–247
Gartner, 6, 257
Gateway, 145
GE, 258
GenevaGroup, 205
Girl Scouts, 167
Global leaders, 188
Global strategies: communicating corporate vision, 178–179, 195–196; cultural sensitivity and, 192, 197; cultural sensitivity in marketing, 196–198; demonstrating local commitment, 198–199; developing global product capacities, 169–170; expanding without overspending, 176–177;

INDEX

- guidelines for, 174–175; handling global disputes, 188–192; international partnerships supporting, 179–182; planning, 182–186; selecting global leadership, 186–188; soliciting development advice as, 13; starting Asia-Pacific business, 192–196
- Gloster, Fergus, 170, 171–172
- Goals: aligning organization to, 225–230; matching marketing to intended, 223
- Goldberg, Evan, 136
- Google, 108, 119, 127–128, 160–161, 183, 217
- Google Foundation, 158
- Gore, Al, 151, 162
- Graham, Reverend Billy, 50
- Gratitude, 244–246
- Gray, Jim, 17
- Great Plains, 43
- Greeting new hires, 243
- Grenney, Jamie, 127, 128
- Gretzky, Wayne, 17
- Growth: employing sequential strategies for, 177–178; engaging employees for, 247–248; preparing for sales, 86–91; seed-and-grow strategy, 86–91, 100, 237; thinking big, 91–92
- Gupta, Arjun, 2, 3, 205
- Gynn, Jessica, 31
- ### H
- Habitat for Humanity, 166
- Hambrecht & Quist, 205
- Hammer, MC, 49
- Harris, Parker, 8–9, 11, 18, 20, 24, 104, 106–107, 110–113, 117, 122, 139–140, 227
- Harvard Business Review*, 4
- Hasbro, 141–142
- Hassenfeld, Alan, 141
- HBV Enterprise, 156
- Hewlett-Packard, 140, 145
- Hiring employees: building recruiting culture, 15, 16, 17, 19, 233–239; checks and balances in, 235; finding best players, 7–9, 15–17; finding innovative employees, 240; international guidelines, 175; maintaining hiring standards, 239–242; retaining and, 242–244
- Hotmail, 20, 105
- Howard, Marty, 117
- Howe, Jeff, 129
- Hu, George, 44–45
- Huang, Jessica, 155
- ### I
- IDC, 257
- IdeaExchange, 127, 128, 231–232
- IdeaStorm, 128–129
- In-kind product donations, 156–158, 166
- Inconvenient Truth*, An, 162
- Infocomm Development Authority, 196
- Innovation: announcing regularly, 60; finding innovative employees, 240; IdeaExchange and, 127–130; pursuing in product development, 103–106
- Innovator's Dilemma, The* (Christensen), 43, 255
- Inspiration and vision, 1–3
- Intelligent reaction, 132–133
- International leaders, 188
- International partnerships, 179–186
- Internet File System, 14–15
- Interviewing candidates: checks and balances in, 234–235; establishing relationships, 235, 241; scheduling regularly, 238
- Introductory parties, 25–27
- Investors: angel, 206–207; finding friends and family, 203–205; mentors as, 15
- iPod, 126
- IPOs: evolving to public corporation, 218–220; filing, 213–215; formalities after, 218–223; philanthropic freedom gained by, 153–156; preparing for, 210–215; SEC compliance and, 215–218
- iRobot, 161
- ISyndicate, 70
- ### J
- Japan Post, 123, 105
- Jobs, Steve, 14
- Journalist, 40–44
- Juster, Ken, 221–222
- Jusice, Rick, 91
- ### K
- Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC), 170
- Kirkpatrick, David, 24
- Kitamura, Akira, 182
- Koa, 12, 171
- KPMG, 99, 218
- ### L
- Lam, Cristina, 155, 156
- Landmark Training, 156
- Lane, Ray, 136
- Leadership: building recruiting culture, 15, 16, 17, 233–239; firing employees, 249; focusing and aligning, 225–233; fostering loyalty, 246–247; instilling gratitude, 244–246; international versus global, 188; local, 187–188; looking for top employees, 238–239; maintaining hiring standards, 239–242; motivating employees, 247–248; soliciting employee feedback, 249–252; vision and, 16–17
- Leads, 74–76
- Left Coast Software, 7–8, 9
- Legal teams, 221–222

Index

- Leveraging: business partnerships, 59; competition, 60–61; internal/external resources, 252–254; times of change, 82–85
- Levi Strauss & Co., 140, 141
- Liberty Software, 121
- Licensing software, 6
- Liedtke, Michael, 31
- Light-and-love philosophy, 188–192
- LincVolt, 229
- Listening: to constituents, 148–152; to customers, 13–14, 85–86
- LiveOps, 161
- Local experts, 181
- Local leaders: building new markets with, 187–188; injecting with corporate spirit, 170–172
- LookSmart, 82
- ### M
- Mahalo, 244–246
- Mahowald, Robert, 257
- Mark, Diane, 70
- Market leaders: engaging, 39–40
- Marketing: becoming market leader, 66; branding and, 32; cultural sensitivity in, 196–198; developing strategies, 37–38; differentiating company, 28–31; engaging market leaders, 39–40; establishing product relevance, 60, 63–64; going after market leaders, 34, 36–38; including employees in, 33–34, 35; introductory parties and, 25–27; making into story, 40–41; matching to intended goals, 223; metaphors for, 44; model for, 44–45; persona for, 27–28; positioning and, 23–25; product innovations and, 60, 103–106; relationships with journalists, 41–44
- Marketing. See also Branding
- Marooney, Caryn, 24
- Mata Amritananadamayi (Ammachi), 2–3, 136
- McGraw-Hill, 89
- Measures, 227, 228
- Menefee, Douglas, 123
- Mentors, 14–15, 19, 51, 137
- Merck & Co., 143
- Merrill Lynch, 95
- Metaphors for marketing, 44
- Methods, 226, 228
- Metrics: basing marketing on, 44–45; criticisms of, 227, 228; market segmenting and, 80–81; measuring employee success, 251; monitoring success with, 101; revenue vs. profitability, 208–209
- MGM, 203
- Microloan Foundation, 157
- Microsoft, 42, 43, 66, 172, 176, 253
- Microsoft Hotmail, 20, 105
- Millham, Brian, 83
- Miner, Allen, 180–181
- Minor, Halsey, 205
- Mizuho Information Research, 185
- Moellenhoff, Dave, 9–10, 11, 21, 106–107, 117–118, 139–140
- Monster.com, 53
- Moore, Charlie, 217–218
- Morale, 245
- Morgan Stanley, 123
- Multiforce, 122
- Murase, Haruo, 184–185
- MyStarbucksIdea.com, 120, 129
- ### N
- Nakada, Paul, 12, 237–238
- National Geographic Society, 167
- NativeEnergy, 155, 162
- Negotiating sales terms, 94
- Nestlé, 167
- Netscape, 89
- NetSuite, 161
- Networking, 56
- New York Stock Exchange, 153, 210–211, 212–213, 217, 258
- New York Times*, 41, 215–217, 220
- Newsom, Gavin, 152
- Nikkei*, 185
- No Software logo, 28–29, 32
- Nuro, 255
- ### O
- OASIS (Oracle Automatic Sales and Automatic Systems), 5
- Obstacles: correcting, 233–236; recognizing strategic, 226–227, 228
- 1–1–1 Model: corporate structure for, 164–165; developing globally, 178; evolution of, 141–144; in-kind product donations, 156–158, 166; involving others in, 159–161; sharing publicly, 146–147; success of, 256
- Operation Smile, 141
- Oprah Winfrey Show*, 138
- Oracle, 5, 14–16, 30–31, 63, 64, 104, 109, 137, 170–172, 179, 225–226, 253
- Oracle's Promise, 137, 140, 145
- OutCast Communications, 24, 33
- ### P
- PaaS (Platform-as-a-Service): AppExchange and, 125–126; developing applications with, 123–125; extending SaaS with, 122–123
- Page, Larry, 160–161
- PalmOne, 161
- Panozza, Kevin, 190–191
- Paperwork for sales, 94
- Partnerships: collaborating with, 131–132; leveraging business, 59
- Passion, 16
- PayPal, 160, 172

INDEX

- Peck, Jeffrey, 93
PeopleFinder project, 163–164
PeopleSoft, 218
Performance incentives, 245–246
Philanthropic models: choosing cause for, 144–146;
employee-inspired foundations, 161–165; Google's philanthropic commitment, 160–161; in-kind product donations, 156–158, 166; including foundation in business model, 140–144;
incorporating in existing company, 135–139;
integrating with corporate organization, 139–140;
involving business partners and networks in,
159–161; listening to constituents, 148–152;
self-sustaining, 153–156, 166–168; sharing publically, 146–147
Pinkham, Elizabeth, 37
Planning: events, 59–60; global expansion, 182–186;
headquarters and territories, 172–173; long-term revenue, 223; tax, 220; V2MOM for, 225–230
Planning. See also V2MOM
Platform-as-a-Service. See Paas
Playboy, 217
Positioning: developing strategies, 37–38; importance of, 23–25
Positioning (Ries and Trout), 37
Post-event responses, 56
Powell, General Colin, 136, 137, 138–139, 144, 146
Power: personal, 17
Power of Us, 146–147, 160
PowerUP, 144–145, 148
PR Week, 37
President's Summit for America's Future, 136–137
Pricing products, 78–79
Product development: communities of collaboration for,
131–132, 145; delivering products quickly,
107–108; ease of customer adoption, 119;
encouraging customer feedback on, 13–14; finding talent for, 7–9, 15–17; harnessing customers' ideas, 127–130; including global capabilities in, 169–170;
innovative, 103–106; intelligent reaction in,
132–133; letting customers thrive, 115–118;
Platform-as-a-Service, 120–125; providing marketplace for solutions, 125–126; reusing infrastructure technology, 109–110; speed and simplicity in, 106–107; testing product usability, 13–14; transparency in, 110–113, 114
Product launch: choosing partners for, 179–182;
cultural sensitivity for global, 192, 197; expansion without overspending, 176–177; global strategies for, 174–175; handling global disputes, 188–192;
instilling corporate spirit in global leaders,
170–172; preparing for global capabilities,
169–170; projecting success for, 175–176; selecting global leadership, 186–188; sequential growth strategies, 177–178; telesales teams for, 172–173
Professional services. See Corporate sales teams
Project Homeless Connect, 142–143
Prospects: introducing to happy customers, 100–101;
preparing to talk with, 88
Public relations: capitalizing on competition's, 41–44; changes in public image, 217, 220–221; company story for, 40–41; developing cohesive message, 33–34; market positioning and, 23–25; receiving global, 185–186; regular announcements for, 60;
reliability and, 114; sharing philanthropic models,
146–147
- ## Q
- Quiet-period rules, 215–218
- ## R
- Rainforest2Reef, 157, 160
Recharge time, 1–3
Recruiting: building culture for, 15, 16, 17, 19, 233–239; maintaining hiring standards, 239–242;
retaining top talent, 242–244
Red Cross, 157
Relationships: with competition and customers, 39–40; cultivating with journalists, 41–44; establishing in candidate interviews, 235, 241; establishing with leaders, 241; fostering loyalty with, 246–247; leveraging business partnerships, 59; treating customers as partners, 69–71
Relevance: clients establishing market, 60, 63–64; giving philanthropic efforts, 148–152
Reliability: public relations and, 114; service disruptions and, 110–113
Reusing infrastructure technology, 109–110
Revenue: challenges of subscription model, 218–220;
long-term planning for, 223; profitability vs., 208–209
Rewarding volunteers, 165
Ridout, Bob, 99
Ries, Al, 37
Risks: developing company persona, 27–28; taking,
18–20
Robinson, Phill, 58
Rosebud Sioux Tribe, 162
Rotating assignments, 248
Rudnitsky, David, 89–95
- ## S
- SaaS (Software-as-a-Service): developing regulatory environment for, 221–222; inspiration for, 3–4, 135–139; on-demand model vs. hosted choice,
105–106; PaaS as extension of, 122–123; potentials in CRM for online, 6; providing API, 119; public relations for, 23–25; revenue recognition position paper for, 214; selling directly to end users, 52–54;
testing product usability, 13–14
SaaS (Software-as-a-Service). See also PaaS
Saba, 7, 8, 9
Sabbaticals, 1–3

Index

- Sales: abandoning unsuccessful strategies, 96–97; building with word-of-mouth, 47–49; call preparation for, 92–93; closing, 93; cooperative effort in, 92; corporate and enterprise models for, 177–178; directing with V2MOM, 232–233; enlisting customers for, 73–76; establishing pricing for, 78–79; facts creating credibility for, 94; free trial strategies, 67–68, 96–97; increasing number of reps for, 79–80; introducing prospects to happy customers, 100–101; landing and expanding, 95, 184–185; leveraging times of change, 82–85; metrics monitoring, 101; negotiating, 94; paperwork for, 94; performance incentives for, 245–246; preparing distribution and growth of, 86–91; pursuing game-changing, 95; recruiting as, 236–239; segmenting markets, 80–81; selling corporate services, 98–100; strategies for trial offers, 96–97; supporting existing customers, 97–98; targeting to higher education and NGOs, 166–168; telesales, 76–78; thinking big, 91–92; treating customers as partners, 69–71; visiting customers, 93; Web sites as reps for, 72–73
- Sales force automation (SFA), 5–6
- Sales reps: commissions motivating, 85; increasing number of, 79–80; sharing best practices with team, 94; using Web sites as, 72–73
- SalesForce Australia, 189–191
- Salesforce Foundation: establishment of, 140; 1–1–1 Model of, 142–143, 159–161
- Salesforce.com: AppExchange and, 125–126, 196–197; beginnings of, 11–12, 14–21; branding, 28–32; collaborative spirit of, 131–132, 145; creating story about, 40–41; customer success managers at, 97–98; designing limitless system, 103–106; developing Web-based operating system, 120–125; employee-generated disaster relief at, 163–164; ensuring reliability, 110–113; environmental mission statement of, 163; evolving vision statements, 232; focusing, 12–13; free trial subscriptions, 67–68, 96; going after market leaders, 34, 36–38; harnessing customer ideas, 127–130; initial meetings about, 9–11; initiating product market, 60–61; introductory party for, 25–27; keeping on-message, 33–34, 35; listening to customers, 13–14, 85–86; listing on NYSE, 153, 210–211, 212–213; marking success with donations, 167–168; persona of, 27–28; preparing for sales growth, 86–91; product development at, 106–107, 115–118, 132–133; seed-and-grow strategy, 100; selling to end users, 52–54
- Salesforce.com. See also 1–1–1 Model; V2MOM Salmart, 191
- San Francisco Chronicle*, 42
- Sano, Chikara, 174, 180
- Sarbanes-Oxley filings, 220
- Satellite offices, 193–196
- Schachter, Carl, 83, 87–88, 186–187
- Schellhase, David, 215–216
- Schmidt, Meredith, 218–219
- Schultz, Howard, 129
- Schumacher Group, 123
- Sclavos, Stratton, 205
- Seagate Technology, 124
- Seagull approach, 198–199
- SEC quiet-period rules, 215–218
- Securities Act of 1933, 217
- Security and career change, 19
- Seed-and-grow strategy, 86–91, 100, 237
- Segmenting markets, 80–81
- Seibel, 61
- Sequential growth strategies, 177–178
- Service disruptions, 110–113
- Shankar, Sri Sri Ravi, 2
- Sharing best practices, 94
- Siebel, 63, 64
- Siebel, Tom, 5, 6, 7, 38, 39
- Siebel User Group conference, 34, 36–37
- Sill, Igor, 205
- Simplicity, 106–107
- Singh, Narinder, 109–110, 127, 131–132
- Skoll Foundation, 161
- So, Clarence, 62–63
- SoftBank Commerce, 183
- Software-as-a-Service. See SaaS
- Sohn, Jeffrey, 206–207
- Southwest Airlines, 258
- Speed, 106–107
- Stakeholders' success, 255–260
- Stanford University, 157
- Starbucks, 120, 129, 203
- Start-up companies: adopting formalities after IPO, 220–223; believe in yourself, 5–6; building recruiting culture, 15, 16, 17, 19, 233–239; career development in, 250–252; choosing international partners, 179–182; creating image with events, 54; defining values and culture, 11–12; defying convention, 14; demonstrating commitment, 198–199; developing vision for, 3–4, 178–179, 195–196; differentiating, 28–31; disruptive business models of, 255, 259; ensuring stakeholders' success, 255–260; establishing product relevance, 60, 63–64; estimating financing needed, 201–203; evolving to public corporation, 218–220; expanding without overspending, 176–177; financial team for, 209–210; focusing work, 12–13; fundraising strategies for, 203–205; getting good advice, 7–8; global strategies for products, 174–175; having mentors, 14–15; hiring best players, 15–17; injecting local leaders with corporate spirit, 170–172; integrating philanthropic model in, 139–140; listening to customers, 13–14, 85–86; long-term revenue planning, 223; philanthropic foundation in business model, 140–144; planning global growth, 172–173; preparing and filing IPO, 210–215; pursuing top talent, 7–9, 15–17; recharge time when developing,

INDEX

1–3; reducing costs of, 206–207; responding to criticism, 9–11; revenue vs. profitability in, 208–209; sequential growth strategies for, 177–178; starting satellite offices, 193–196; staying scrappy, 65–66; taking risks, 18–20; thinking bigger, 20–21; venture capital and, 205

Steele, Jim, 89

Story: developing for reporters, 40–41

Street Team concept, 49–52

Subscriptions: advantages of, 10, 90; business model based on, 76; converting to contract model, 82–85, 207–208; donating to nonprofits, 156–158, 166; free trial, 67–68, 96; licensing vs., 6; revenue challenges with, 218–220

Success: End of Software mission, 256; ensuring stakeholders', 255–260; evaluating sales strategies, 96–97; measuring employee, 251; metrics monitoring corporate, 101; planning successful events, 55–56; projecting for product launch, 175–176; sharing financial, 217–218; supporting customers', 97–100

Sugal, Cheri, 157

SunBridge, 181–182

SunGard, 89–91, 94

Susan G. Komen for the Cure, 166

Swift River Consulting, 160

T

Talent. See Hiring employees

Tax planning, 220

Teach First, 157

Telesales: designing teams for, 172–173; preparing for, 92–93; tips for, 78; using, 76–78

Testimony: capturing from events, 56; defined, 47; fine-tuning international, 183; fostering customer, 49–51; managing and using customer, 51–52

Testing product usability, 13–14

Theikos, 160

Thomson Reuters, 123

Trademark infringement, 189–190

Training programs, 252, 253–254

Transparency, 110–113, 114

Trell, Julie, 145, 146, 149

Trial offers, 67–68, 96–97

Tribune Media Services, 53

Trout, Jack, 37

Trust, 110–113, 126

Tyco, 212

Tzu, Sun, 10–11, 38

U

Uda, Eiji, 183–184, 187, 195

UN World Food Programme, 158, 160

United Way, 157

UpShot, 61

V

V2MOM: aligning officers to, 230–233; creating own, 229; evolution of, 225–226; meaning of, 226–227; Salesforce.com's use of, 228

Values: aligning with V2MOM, 225–230; defining company, 11–12

Van Veenendaal, Frank, 85

Vargo, Angela, 130

Veeva Systems, 99

Venrock, 2

Venture capital: angel investments vs., 206–207; estimating and finding, 201–203; start-up companies and, 205

VeriSign, 205

Vision: developing your, 1–4; establishing with V2MOM, 225–230; examples of Salesforce.com, 232; finding employees who share, 241; importance of, 16–17; selling to potential employees, 236–237; sharing with new hires, 244; statement of corporate, 232; staying true to, 198

Visualforce, 122

Volunteerforce, 121

Volunteers: empowering employee, 141–142, 161–162, 163–164; rewarding, 165

W

Waitt, Ted, 205

Wall Street Journal, 23, 31, 39, 41, 43, 72, 73

Wallace, Mitch, 16, 99

Wardrobe for Opportunity, 160

Web sites: placing event content on, 56; positioning with, 24

WITNESS, 157

Wooster, Peter, 72

Word-of-mouth phenomenon, 47–49

Wright, Steve, 149

Y

Yahoo!, 105, 108

Yazdani, Bobby, 7–8

Yesil, Magdalena, 18, 82–83, 204

Yoshimoto, Kazuhiko, 185

Young, Neil, 229

Youssefnia, David, 250

Youth Media Festival, 150–152

Z

Zweben, Monte, 69