

Contents

Acknowledgement	xvii
Introductory Preface	xix
About the Authors and Editors	xxiii

Chapter 1 – The Expansion of Copyright Law and its Social

Justification Reto M. Hilty	1
A. Introduction	1
I. Where everything began	1
II. ...and how it got out of hand	6
III. Problems and Critiques	10
IV. Example: The Negative Outgrowth for Research	14
1. From the Book to the Online Media.....	14
2. Databases as Business Models.....	16
3. Conflicting Developments.....	17
4. Perception of the Scientific Society.....	19
5. The “Elsevier Case”	20
6. Reaction of the Max Planck Society.....	21
7. The “Berlin Declaration”	22
8. Some Comments on the “Berlin Declaration”.....	23
V. Thoughts on an Appropriate Copyright System	24
1. Three Conflicting Interests	24
2. Justified Economic Interests of the Industry.....	26
3. Economic Interests vs. Social Impacts of Copyright.....	27
4. Advancement of the Information Society	27
5. Protection of Creators.....	29
VI. Conclusion	30
B. Country Reports	31
I. China	31
II. Hong Kong	31
1. Introduction	31
2. Copyright Ordinance (Cap 528).....	32
3. New Rights.....	32
a) Performers’ Rights and Moral Rights	32
b) Computer Program	32
4. Balance of Interest	33
a) Digital Divide	33
b) Various Amendments to the Law	33
c) PCPO & OSCO.....	34
d) IPMAO.....	35

e) CSAO.....	35
f) Why Only Four Categories?.....	36
III. Taiwan.....	36
1. Vertical Expansion.....	36
2. Horizontal Expansion.....	37
a) Introduction of new exclusive rights.....	37
b) Firming up the reach of the reproduction right: temporary reproduction is explicitly included.....	37
3. Intensifying criminal punishments.....	38
4. Counter-balance to the expansion of copyrights?.....	39
5. Overall evaluation- A tilted scale.....	40
IV. Japan.....	41
1. Introduction.....	41
2. Legislative changes in the last decade.....	41
a) Introduction of 50 years' retroactive protection for performers and phonogram producers and facilitation of damage account on 26 December 1996.....	41
b) First adaptation of Copyright Act to the World Copyright Treaty (WCT) and Performances and Phonograms Treaty (WPPT) on 18 June 1997.....	42
c) Restriction of the rights of publication and being named as author in the case of administrative use of works on 7 May 1999.....	42
d) Second adaptation of Copyright Act to WCT and WPPT on 23 June 1999.....	43
e) New rules on damage calculation, and submission of documents; introduction of special fines for infringement by legal persons and adaptation of WCT-provisions related to foreigners.....	43
f) Enactment of the Act on the Business of Administrating Copyrights etc. on 21 November 2000.....	44
g) Introduction of moral rights for performers, internet transmission right for broadcasting enterprises and other amendments on 19 June 2002.....	44
3. Jurisprudence.....	45
a) Affirming responsibility of Karaoke bar owners, lessors of Karaoke machines and internet service providers for copyright infringements.....	45
b) Balancing exhaustion rules.....	46
c) Broadening moral rights.....	46
d) Strengthening effective enforcement.....	46
V. Korea.....	47
VI. Singapore.....	48
1. Introduction.....	48
2. Singapore's response.....	49
VII. Malaysia.....	53

VIII. Thailand.....	54
IX. Philippines	55
Chapter 2 - Internet Trade, Digital Works and Parallel Imports Christopher Heath	61
A. Introduction	61
I. Starting Point	61
II. Basic Functions of Copyright	62
III. Considerations of free commerce	62
IV. Copyright Exhaustion in the Analogue Environment	63
1. Principles of National Exhaustion.....	63
a) The Remuneration Doctrine.....	63
b) Commercial Use triggering Exhaustion	65
2. Principles of International Exhaustion.....	65
V. Rights over acts of secondary exploitation	69
VI. Exhaustion, Technology and Electronic Distribution	69
1. Additional rights beyond the first commercial distribution	69
2. Exhaustion in the Case of Digitally Transmitted Works	70
B. Country Reports	72
I. China	72
II. Hong Kong	72
1. General.....	72
a) Principle of Exhaustion	73
b) Parallel Imports Legislation.....	73
c) Duration – 18 Months.....	73
2. Copyright (Amendment) Bill 2001.....	73
a) Liberalisation of Parallel Importation of Computer Software	73
b) Parallel Imported Computer Software Permitted – Current Law	74
III. Taiwan	75
1. Introduction	75
2. Indirect Right of importation	76
3. Resale and rental of legally imported genuine copies	78
4. The introduction of the distribution right in 2003—an exhaustible right	79
5. The introduction of the right of public transmission in 2003—a non-exhaustible right	79
IV. Japan	79
1. Introduction	79
2. Domestic exhaustion rules for printed works	80
3. Rules regarding the secondary use for specific types of works	80
4. Rules for international exhaustion	83
5. Exhaustion Rules in the Digital Environment	84
V. Korea	85
VI. Singapore	87

VII. Malaysia	90
VIII. Thailand	92
IX. Philippines	94
Chapter 3 - The Collective Exercise of Copyrights Kung Chung Liu	97
A. Introduction	97
I. Modes of Exercising Copyright	97
1. From the Individual to the Collective	97
2. From the Collective to Rights-Clearance and the Individual	98
II. Functions of Collecting Societies	99
1. Effective Tools to Exercise Author's Rights	99
2. Reducing Transaction Costs	99
3. Facilitating the Expansion of Copyrights	100
4. Cultural and/or Social Functions of collecting societies.....	100
III. Copyright Law and Collecting Societies	100
1. Constituting Procedural Copyright Law	100
2. Transforming Copyright from Property Rights to Liability Rights	101
3. The Organizational Structure and Management of Collecting Societies	101
IV. The Laws and Regulations governing Collecting Societies	102
1. Ex ante Regulation by Copyright or Related Laws.....	102
2. Ex post Regulation by Competition Law	102
a) Control of Cartels.....	102
aa) Rule of Reason	103
bb) Statutory Exemption	104
b) Abuse of Dominant Market Power	104
V. Challenges Facing Collecting Societies—Competition Between National Collecting Societies	105
VI. The Internet	106
VII. Future Prospects for Collecting Societies	106
1. Collecting Societies as Regulatory Instruments?.....	106
2. Streaming Management	106
B. Country Reports	107
I. China	107
II. Hong Kong	107
1. General.....	107
a) Necessity for Collective Management of Copyright	107
b) Collecting Societies in Hong Kong	108
2. CASH.....	108
3. PPL	109
4. Copyright Licensing and Copyright Tribunal	109
5. Challenges	110
III. Taiwan	110
1. Regulatory Setting	110
a) The Enactment of the Copyright Intermediary Organisations Act in 1997	110

- b) Heavy-handed Regulation by the CIO Act.....111
 - aa) Prescribed Membership, Form of Association and Licensing.....111
 - bb) Prior Approval and Possible Withdrawal of Approval for a CIO112
 - cc) Compulsory Management and Licensing of Copyrights112
 - dd) Controlled Royalty Rates.....112
 - 2. Collective Management of Copyrights in Practice113
 - a) Musical Works113
 - aa) The Music Copyright Association of Taiwan (MCAT).....113
 - bb) The Music Copyright Intermediary Society of Chinese Taipei (MUST)113
 - cc) The Music Copyright Intermediary Society of Taiwan (TMCS)113
 - b) Audiovisual Works114
 - aa) The Audiovisual Music Copyright Owner Association (AMCO)114
 - bb) Audio-Video Copyright Disseminated Society of Chinese Taipei (VAST).....114
 - c) Sound Recording Works114
 - aa) The Association of Recording Copyright Owners of ROC (ARCO).....114
 - bb) Recording Copyright & Publications Administrative Society of Chinese Taipei (RPAT)114
- IV. Japan.....114
 - 1. Introduction114
 - 2. Whirlwind Plague115
 - 3. Current Legislation116
- V. Korea.....120
- VI. Singapore121
 - 1. Collecting Societies in Singapore121
 - a) COMPASS121
 - b) CLASS.....121
 - c) RIPS.....121
 - 2. Abuse Control.....121
- VII. Malaysia123
 - a) PPM123
 - b) MACP123
 - c) PRISM123
- VIII. Thailand.....124
- IX. Philippines125

Chapter 4 - The Law on Anti-Circumvention and Digital Rights Management

- A. Introduction.....129
- Part 1 – The U.S Perspective on Anti-Circumvention Andy Y. Sun129

I. Introduction	129
II. The Legislative Structure	131
1. Type of Prohibitions.....	131
2. Liabilities.....	132
3. Exemptions.....	132
III. The Judicial Interpretations	134
1. Universal City Studios, Inc. v. Corley.....	134
2. The Chamberlain Group, Inc. v Skylink Technologies, Inc.	135
3. Lexmark International, Inc. v. Static Control Components, Inc.	137
IV. Analysis and Comments	139
V. Conclusion	141
Part 2 – The 1996 WIPO Treaties Haochen Sun	141
I. Introduction	141
II. The 1996 WIPO Treaties	142
1. Unlawful Acts.....	143
2. Eligible Technological Measures for Protection.....	145
3. Knowledge Requirement.....	146
4. Effective Remedies.....	146
B. Country Reports	147
I. China	147
1. Anti-Circumvention Regulations in China.....	147
a) Unlawful Acts.....	148
b) Eligible Technological Measures for Protection.....	149
c) Knowledge Requirement.....	149
d) Remedies.....	149
2. Conclusions.....	150
II. Hong Kong	150
1. General.....	150
2. Case Law.....	151
3. Digital Rights Management.....	152
III. Taiwan	152
1. Introducing protection for electronic rights management information.....	152
2. Introducing anti-circumvention protection.....	153
a) Discrepancy with regard to the term of technological protection measures.....	153
b) Wording too wide.....	154
c) Exemptions highly uncertain.....	154
d) Laxity of requirement for civil and criminal liability.....	154
e) No obligations imposed on copyright holders to inform the public.....	155
f) No obligations imposed on copyright holders to ensure exemption clauses.....	155

IV. Japan	155
1. Introduction	155
2. Protection against anti-circumvention devices.....	156
a) Legislative Provisions	156
b) Analysis	157
3. Digital Rights Management Information	158
a) Legislative Provisions	158
b) Analysis	159
V. Korea	159
VI. Singapore	160
1. Anti-Circumvention Measures.....	160
2. Digital Rights Management.....	162
VII. Malaysia	163
VIII. Thailand	165
IX. Philippines	165
Chapter 5 – Copyright Contracts, Public Policy and Antitrust Estelle Derclaye	167
A. Introduction—Can adhesion contracts override copyright limits?	167
I. Introduction	167
II. Are Restrictive Copyright Contracts Valid?	169
1. Validity of contracts under contract law	169
a) Preliminary Notions	169
aa) Shrink-wrap licences.....	169
bb) Click-wrap licences.....	170
b) The US Position.....	170
aa) Shrink-wrap licences.....	170
bb) Click-wrap licences.....	173
c) The EU Position.....	174
aa) Shrink-wrap licences.....	174
bb) Click-wrap licences.....	178
d) Conclusion.....	180
2. Validity of contracts under copyright law	180
a) The US Position.....	180
b) The EU Position.....	183
c) Conclusion.....	186
II. Should restrictive copyright contracts be valid? A tentative solution within copyright law itself	186
1. Solutions outside copyright law are not satisfactory	186
2. Satisfactory solutions may be found within copyright law	188
a) Historical Arguments	188
b) Superiority of Copyright Law: Copyright as a Norm of Public Order.....	189

c) Rationale behind the Exceptions.....	192
d) Legal Nature of Exceptions.....	199
e) Wording of the Copyright Acts.....	203
f) Copyright's Aims.....	205
g) Economics of Copyright.....	207
h) Conclusion.....	210
B. Country Reports.....	211
I. China.....	211
II. Hong Kong.....	212
1. Licence.....	212
a) Shrink-Wrap and Click-Wrap Agreements.....	212
b) Contracting Online.....	213
c) Case Law.....	213
2. Antitrust.....	214
III. Taiwan.....	214
1. The Structure of Civil Code and Consumer Protection Act.....	214
2. The Collision of Copyright and Contract Law.....	215
3. Standard Contracts, Copyright and Fair Trade Act.....	216
4. Conclusion.....	216
IV. Japan.....	216
1. Copyright and Contract prior to the Digital Age.....	216
2. Copyright Contracts in the Digital World.....	217
V. Korea.....	218
VI. Singapore.....	220
VII. Malaysia.....	221
VIII. Thailand.....	222
IX. Philippines.....	223
Chapter 6 – Contributory and Vicarious Liability for Copyright Infringement Andy Y. Sun	227
A. Introduction—Is it the Gun or the Man who pulls the trigger who is liable—on Secondary Liabilities of Copyright Infringement.....	227
I. Introduction.....	227
II. Secondary Liability for Copyright Infringement.....	229
III. Statutory Enactment/Codification.....	229
IV. The Sony Betamax Case.....	230
V. The Napster Case—The First Peer-to-Peer Challenge.....	231
VI. The Aimster Case—A Twist But No Cigar.....	234
VII. MGM v. Grokster—Decentralized File-Sharing and Inducement.....	235
VIII. The Aftermath of Grokster—The “Induce Act” Now On Hold.....	237
IX. The Challenge—BitTorrent and Others.....	239
X. The International Developments.....	240
XI. Conclusion.....	246
B. Country Reports.....	248
I. China.....	248

II. Hong Kong	249
1. General.....	249
2. Internet Service Providers.....	250
3. Company Directors.....	251
III. Taiwan	252
1. The Taiwanese Copyright Act and the File-sharing Cases.....	252
a) The Prosecutor’s Arguments.....	252
b) The Liability of the Direct Users.....	253
c) The Liability of Kuro and EZPeer.....	253
d) The District Court’s Decision on EZPeer.....	254
2. Legal Analysis.....	254
a) Loading back-up CD music to MP3 File(s)?.....	254
b) Downloading MP3 files.....	254
c) Intermediate Platform.....	254
d) The Fair Use Exemption.....	254
3. Related Issues.....	255
a) Internet Service Providers (ISPs).....	255
b) Writers of Copying Programs.....	255
c) Manufacturers of Machines.....	255
4. Conclusion.....	255
IV. Japan	255
1. The Karaoke Cases.....	256
2. The File Rogue Cases.....	257
V. Korea	258
VI. Singapore	260
VII. Malaysia	263
VIII. Philippines	264
Chapter 7 – Looking Forward: Contemporary Trends of the Copyright
Economics Research in the Digital Era Wayne Fu.....	269
I. Introduction	269
II. Economic Rationales For and Against Copyright Law	269
III. The Ignored Corner of Copyright Research:
Is Piracy Always so Evil?	271
IV. Legal Copyright Protection or Self-help Piracy
Control?	273
V. Indirect Revenue Appropriation	275
VI. Concluding Remarks	276