

---

Contents

---

1 Reclaiming Fuller	1
I Form and Agency	8
II What is Being 'Reclaimed'?	11
III About the Book: Method, Material and Structure	17
IV Outline of the Chapters	20
2 Before the Debate	25
I The Early Fuller: Positivism and Natural Law at Mid-century	28
II Economics: A 'Science or Theory of Good Order and Workable Social Arrangements'	32
A Economics 'Writ Large'	37
B Economics 'Writ Small': The Models	39
III Navigating the Labels	45
IV Conclusion	48
3 The 1958 Debate	51
I Mapping the Debate	54
A Setting the Agenda: Hart's Claims	54
B Reorienting the Agenda: Fuller's Replies	58
(i) The Fidelity Frame	58
(ii) Diagnosing the Impasse	60
(iii) Moralities, External and Internal	63
(iv) The Incompleteness of Positivism	65
II Reclaiming Fuller through the Nazi Law Debate	66
A Nazi Law according to Hart	66
B Nazi Law according to Fuller	68
C Analysis: Reading Fuller through the Nazi Law Debate	72
(i) Defending a Distinctive Natural Law Analysis	72
(ii) Positivism and Legal Pathology	73
(iii) The Turn to the Subject	75
(iv) Validity and Existence	76
III Fuller and Legal Validity	78
IV Conclusion	84
4 The Morality of Law	86
I Mapping The Morality of Law	88

A	The Story of King Rex	88
B	Situating Fuller's Claims	92
C	Conception of the Person Implicit in Legality	97
II	Hart's Review of The Morality of Law	102
A	Mapping Hart's Response	102
B	Efficacy and Trusteeship	105
C	Lessons from a Tyrant?	108
III	A Different Path?	111
IV	Conclusion	115
5	The Reply to Critics	118
I	Mapping the 'Reply to Critics'	123
A	'The Structure of Analytical Legal Positivism'	124
B	'Is Some Minimum Respect for the Principles of Legality Essential to the Existence of a Legal System?'	125
C	'Do the Principles of Legality Constitute an "Internal Morality of Law"?' Distinction between Law and Managerial Direction	126 127
D	'Some Implications of the Debate'	130
II	Generality, Efficacy and Agency: Insights from the Archive	131
III	Reflections on the 'Reply to Critics'	135
IV	Conclusion	138
6	Resituating Fuller I: Raz	141
I	Fuller and Raz	144
II	Raz on the Rule of Law	148
III	Raz on Authority	154
IV	Conclusion: Form, Agency and Authority	159
7	Resituating Fuller II: Dworkin	161
I	Fuller and Dworkin	161
II	The 1965 Essays	163
III	Dworkin's Project	166
IV	Fuller, Dworkin and Interpretation	168
V	Fuller, Dworkin and Methodology	174
VI	Fuller, Dworkin and the Value of Legality	177
A	Content and Moral Significance of Generality	181
B	Form and Concepts of Law	186
VII	Conclusion: Taking Form Seriously	188
8	Three Conversations	190
I	Morality	191
II	Instrumentalism	193
III	Legality	196

Contents

xi

Fuller and Shapiro: A New Conversation?	198
IV Conclusion	203
Index	205

<http://www.pbookshop.com>