ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

GARP's Certificate in Energy Risk Management was developed by internationally recognized experts in the energy industry and energy risk management under the leadership of the Energy Risk Oversight Committee of the GARP Risk Academy. The Committee guided and reviewed works of contributing authors.

The Committee oversees the strategic development of the Certificate.

The Committee that developed the syllabus on which this Fundamentals of Energy Risk Management course was built, consisted of the following globally respected leaders in the energy industry and energy risk management.

- Ken Abbott, Managing Director, Morgan Stanley
- Richard Apostolik, President and CEO, Global Association of Risk Professionals, Inc.
- Gordon Goodman, Trading Control Officer, Occidental Petroleum Corp.
- Karl-Peter Horstmann, Legal & Communication, RWE Trading GmbH
- Mark Jenner, Director Credit Risk, BG Group
- Jeff Jewell, Chief Risk Officer, DTE Energy
- Glenn Labhart, Principal, Labhart Risk Advisors
- Spyros Maragos, Manager, Quantitative Analysis, Chevron
- Mark May, Manager, Regional Risk Supply & Trading Americas, ConocoPhillips
- Andrew D. Sunderman, Chief Risk Officer, Williams Power Company
- Jeff Parke, Senior Director, Risk Management, Koch Industries
- Jonathan Stein, Chief Risk Officer, Hess Corporation
- John Wengler, Chief Risk Officer, Entergy Services, Inc.
- Peter Went, Senior Researcher, GARP Research Center

GARP Risk Academy and the Committee wish to expressly thank Chris Donohue and Maryann Appel, and all those who contributed by reviewing the material and provided invaluable guidance in the development of the Certificate.
