

INDEX

A

Aggression, 51, 54, 59, 106
 Albright, Madeleine, 151
 Allen, Sharon, 73–74, 98
 All-or-nothing thinking. See It's All or Nothing Ambition: and feminine ideal, 42–43; and perfectionism, 127; reluctance to reveal, 112–113; as selfish, 45–46; women's discomfort with, 27–28
 Ambivalence, 14, 64–66, 104
 Apologizing, 60–61, 69
 Asking: for help, 22, 25–26; for job flexibility,
 136–137; for promotions, 31–33,
 48–49, 66; for salaries, 60, 66–67
 Asking permission: and cultural ideal of femininity, 42–43; male bosses' opinion of, 44, 47; promotion lost due to, 41–42; self-assessment of, 48;
 summary of moving away from, 55
 Assertiveness: vs. aggression, 51, 54; asking for promotions as, 48–49; tips on acting with, 50–51
 Assignments, challenging, 16
 Attention: avoiding, 67; focused on others, 14, 20; women's discomfort with being center of, 27–28. See also Take Center
 Stage
 Atwood, Margaret, 57
Authentic Happiness (Seligman), 139
 Awareness: of career goals, 112; as phase of change by individuals, 148–150

B

Babcock, Linda, 42–43, 59, 66–67
 Be Modest: common behaviors for, 66–67; negative consequences of, 59–61; as Old Rule, 14–15; promotion lost due to, 57–59; research findings on,
 61–64; self-assessment of, 70–71, 77;
 summary of moving away from,
 77–78; thought patterns with, 64–69
 Be Politically Savvy: research findings on,
 83–84; self-assessment of, 91, 100;
 success obtained through, 91–92,
 96–97, 99; summary of moving toward, 100–101; thought patterns with, 92–100. See also Politics
 Behavior: “only,” 110; to project personal power, 50, 71–73; projecting confidence, 72–73; projecting lack of power, 68–69; social and cultural expectations influencing, 21–22;
 thinking's influence on, 16–17
 Being liked, 45, 47, 59, 85
 Beliefs. See Thinking; Thought patterns
 Belkin, Lisa, 137
 Bessant, Cathy, 27–28, 53–54, 68, 85–86, 98
 Biology, and empathy, 20–21
 Black-and-white thinking, 133–134
 Blending, 138
 Board of directors, personal, 98, 143, 150
 Boastfulness, 59
 Body language, 72

- Brody, Marjorie, 69
 Buckingham, Marcus, 128
 Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2
 Burns, Davis, 131–132
 Business: as game, 81, 115; as meritocracy, 90, 115
 Butler, Timothy, 116
- C
- Calendars, time allocation on, 35–36
 Caring: for others, 20, 23–24; for ourselves, 36–37, 135, 142–143. See also Focus on others
 Carli, Linda, 59
 Carrey, Jim, 26
 Catalyst, 3
 CEOs, female, 1–2, 7–8, 147
 Change: difficulty of, in thinking, 17–18; overcoming reluctance to, 154–155; phases of, by individuals, 148–151; risk taking required for, 119–120; supporting other women for, 144, 151–153; system-level support for, 153–154; through reinventing yourself, 115–118; vision for, 51–52
 Children. See Family obligations
 Choice, as phase of change by individuals, 150
 Clance, Pauline, 60, 68
 Coaching, professional, 150
 Competencies: for executive-level positions, 62–63; for leading change, 51–52. See also Skills
 Conference Board of Canada, 3
 Confidence: behaviors to project, 71–73; faking, 53–54; lack of, 45, 61; needed to take lead, 111; required of rainmakers, 108
 Confidence markers, 72–73
 Cooper, Cary, 127–128
 Corporate governance, 3
- D
- Deferring to others, 111–112
 Delegating responsibilities, 25–26
 Deloitte, 2, 73
 Dress, professional, 76
- E
- Eagly, Alice, 59
 Edison, Thomas, 121
 Efficiency, 47
 Eldred, John, 81, 85
 Empathy, 20–21
 Entrepreneurial thinking, 140–142
 Evans, Gail, 65, 79, 87, 113–114, 144, 151, 152–153
 Executive stature, 62–63
 Expectations: and happiness, 128; meeting of others, 110–111; unrealistic, 21–22, 131
 Expert power, 62
- F
- Failure: changing perspective on, 121–122; to delegate, 25–26; fear of, 107, 112–113; feeling of, with all-or-nothing thinking, 131, 132, 133, 135, 136
 Faking it: and impostor syndrome, 60, 67–68; when learning job, 53–54. See also Proceed Until Apprehended
 Family obligations: conflict between work and, 45–46; helping other women with, 152–153; perfectionism and, 128, 129–130; superwoman myth and, 19–20, 23–24, 134–135
 Fear of failure, 107, 112–113
 Feedback: difficulty of obtaining honest, 149–150; fixating to negative, 132–133
The Feeling Good Handbook (Burns), 131
 Fels, Anna, 43, 46
 Feminine ideal: and ambition, 42–43; and political skills, 85; and power, 18
 Ferguson, Marilyn, 118
 Financial impact: of female leadership of companies, 2–3, 147; of negotiating salaries, 60, 66–67
Find Your Strongest Life (Buckingham), 128
 Focus on Others: biological and cultural origin of, 20–22; as Old Rule, 14; research findings on, 22–23; self-assessment of, 28–29, 39; summary of moving away from, 39–40; superwoman example of, 19–20, 23–24; thought patterns with, 23–28

Ford, Lynne, 38–39, 117
 Fortune 500 companies, 1–2, 7–8, 147
 Frankel, Lois, 81

G

Game: business as, 81; obtaining promotions as, 115; office politics as, 86, 87
 Gates, Bill, 122
 Gender differences: in ambition-related behaviors, 42–43; in communication styles, 149; in desire to be liked, 45; in likelihood to ask permission, 46–47; in perception of power, 65; in political skills, 85; in response to being told “no,” 47–48; in risk taking, 104–105; in visioning skill, 112; in wages, 2
 General Social Survey (GSS), 128
Getting Unstuck (Butler), 116
 Gilligan, Carol, 82
 Goals: clarifying and aiming for, 33–34; lack of awareness of, 112; outlining plan for achieving, 115–116; taking seriously, 31–33
 Goldsmith, Marshall, 13, 150

H

Hair style, professional, 76
 Hard work. See Work Harder
 Heifetz, Ronald, 155
 Helm, Pat, 112
 Help, asking for, 22, 25–26
 Hewlett, Sylvia Ann, 3
 Hudnell, Rosalind, 112

I

Ibarra, Herminia, 98, 112, 117
 Imes, Suzanne, 60, 68
 Impostor syndrome, 60, 67–68
In a Different Voice (Gilligan), 82
Influencing with Integrity (Laborde), 134
 Innovation, 141
 Insecurities, publicly admitting, 74–75
 Integrative thinking, 139–140, 145
 It’s All or Nothing: as Old Rule, 15–16; perfectionism as, 127–129; promotion lost due to, 125–127; research findings on, 130–131; self-assessment of, 137, 144; summary of moving away from, 145; thought patterns with, 131–137

It’s Both-And: research findings on, 130–131; self-assessment of, 137, 144; summary of moving toward, 145; thought patterns with, 138–144
 Ivey, Susan, 125, 127, 134

J

Jobs: comfortable, 107–108; pink ghetto, 110; quitting, 89, 136–137; “women’s work” at office, 34–35, 110–111
 Jobs, Steve, 122
 Jung, Andrea, 4

K

Kanazawa, Saroshi, 60

L

Laborde, Genie, 134
 Language, to project personal power, 50, 72, 75, 77
 Laschever, Sara, 59, 66–67
Leadership on the Line (Heifetz and Linsky), 155
 Leadership positions, top: competencies required for, 62–63; mind-set required for, 13; need for new thinking to achieve, 11–13; number of women in, of Fortune 500 companies, 1–2, 7; vision of women holding, 1, 7–8, 147
 Linsky, Marty, 155
Live Your Joy (St. John), 75, 138
 Luce, Clare Boothe, 110

M

Mandela, Nelson, 35
 Martin, Roger, 139–140, 145
 Matalin, Mary, 71, 83, 135
 Maxfield, Sylvia, 105
 Mayer, Kathryn, 100
 Mentors: learning presentation skills from, 38; serving as, for other women, 144, 154; support from, 98, 143
 Meritocracy, business as, 90, 115
 Mets-Morris, Helen, 48–49, 95–96, 117–118, 120, 154
 Micromanaging, 134
 Modesty. See Be Modest
 Moore, Ann, 91–92, 103, 147, 151, 153
 Morgenstern, Julie, 121

N

- Necessary Dreams* (Fels), 46
Never Check Email in the Morning
 (Morgenstern), 121
 New Rules, 9, 13. See also Be Politically Savvy;
 It's Both-And; Play to Win; Proceed
 Until Apprehended; Project Personal
 Power; Take Center Stage
Nice Girls Don't Get the Corner Office (Frankel), 81
 Nilekani, Nandan, 140
 No": response to being told, 47–48;
 saying, to "women's work" at office, D
 34–35, 110–111
 Nooyi, Indra, 4

O

- Obodaru, Otilia, 112
 Old Rules, 9, 13–16. See also Be Modest; Focus on Others; It's All or Nothing; Play It
 Safe; Seek Approval; Work Harder
 Omidyar, Pierre, 141
 Only behavior,"D
 110
The Opposable Mind (Martin), 140
 Optimism, 141
 Organizational structure, 94, 112–113,
 148

P

- Pepperdine University, 3
 Perception: of change, 17–18; of confidence, 64; personal power and, 117–118; of politics as sleazy, 83, 84–86; of women
 as risk averse, 105
 Perfectionism, 127–130, 135
 Perina, Kaja, 60
 Permission, waiting for, 50–51. See also Asking permission
 Personal power: behaviors exhibiting lack of,
 68–69; behaviors to project, 50,
 71–73; defined, 62; as executive stature, 62–63; and perception,
 117–118; practicing skills to project,
 75–76. See also Project Personal Power
 Pink ghetto jobs, 110
 Planning, needed to reinvent
 yourself, 115–116
 Play It Safe: almost turning down promotion to, 103–104; as Old Rule, 15; research findings on, 105–106; self-assessment of, 113, 122; summary of moving away from, 123; thought patterns with,

 106–113

- Play Like a Man, Win Like a Woman* (Evans), 65, 87, 113, 151
 Play to Win: accepting challenging promotion as, 103–104; research findings on,
 105–106; sacrifices required by,
 113–114; self-assessment of, 113, 122;
 summary of moving toward, 123;
 thought patterns with, 114–122. See also Risk taking
 Poise, behaviors to project, 71–73
 Policies and practices, women-friendly, 16
 Politics: consequences of avoiding, 79–80, 82, 87; dislike and avoidance of, 81–84;
 necessity of involvement in, 87–88;
 perceived as sleazy, 83, 84–86; tips on practicing, at work, 94–99, 100;
 women excelling in, 92–94; women
 seeing themselves as unskilled in,
 84–87. See also Be Politically Savvy
 Position power, 62
 Positive psychology, 139, 145
 Posture, to project personal power, 72
 Power: ambivalence about, 14, 64–66;
 relationship between politics and, 81;
 types of, 62. See also Personal power;
 Project Personal Power
 Presentation skills, 38–39
 Proceed Until Apprehended: research findings
 on, 44; self-assessment of, 48, 54;
 summary of moving toward, 55;
 thought patterns with, 49–54
 Professional image, 76
 Project Personal Power: promotions lost due to failure to, 61, 63–64; research findings
 on, 61–64; self-assessment of, 70–71,
 77; summary of moving toward,
 77–78; thought patterns with, 71–77.
See also Personal power
 Promotions: asking for, 31–33, 48–49, 66;
 being liked more important than, 45;
 declining, 24–25; and letting go of old role, 140; lost due to following Old
 Rules, 41–42, 57–59, 61, 63–64, 79–80, 89–90, 125–127; obtaining,
 as game, 115; relationship with friends

altered by, 113–114; taking risk in accepting, 103–104
Purchasing power, 148

Q

Quitting jobs, 89, 135–137

R

Rainmakers, 108–109, 120–121
Reardon, Kathleen Kelley, 81–82, 85
Reay, Diane, 43
Reframing, to change thinking, 17–18
Reinventing yourself, 115–118
Relationships: and dislike of sales, 109; politics as about, 85; promotions as altering, with friends, 113–114
Research: book's basis on, 5–7; on women leaders and companies' financial performance, 2–3, 147
Responsibility: delegating, 25–26; for fulfilling your own needs, 24–25; sense of, for everyone else, 20, 23–24
Richards, Ann, 153
Risk taking: gender differences in, 104–105; need for women to increase, 105–106; required to achieve change, 119–120; taking promotion as, 103–104
Role models: scarcity of, 45, 65; seeking out, 34
Roosevelt, Eleanor, 147
Rules, necessity of breaking, 12–13, 50–51.
See also New Rules; Old Rules

S

Salaries: negotiating, 60, 66–67; wage gap in, 2
Sales: dislike of, 108–109; power associated with success in, 120–121
The Secret Handshake (Reardon), 81
Seek Approval: as Old Rule, 14; research findings on, 44; self-assessment of, 54; thought patterns with, 44–48
Self-promotion, 59, 89–90. See also Taking credit
Seligman, Martin, 139, 145
Shakespeare, William, 19
Shirtcliff, Elizabeth, 21
Silent, remaining, 67, 110
Skills: conversational, 95–96; executive, 16; getting known for, 37–38; political, 86–87, 94–96; practicing, to project

personal power, 75–77; presentation, 38–39; sales, 108–109, 120–121; visioning, 111–112. See also Competencies

Skoll, Jeff, 141

Social networks: and office politics, 94–95; for support, 98, 143, 150

Speech: admitting insecurities, 74–75; assertive, 50; language to project personal power, 50, 72, 73, 77; practicing presentation skills, 38–39; remaining silent, 67, 110; volume of, 72

Sponsorship, 16, 98

St. John, Bonnie, 29–30, 75, 138

Steinem, Gloria, 134–135

Strength, getting known for particular, 37–38

Success, career: conditions facilitating, 16; and impostor syndrome, 60, 67–68; obtained through being politically savvy, 91–92, 96–97, 99; sponsorship as contributing to, 16, 98; thinking as factor in, 16–17

Superwoman myth, 19–20, 23–24, 134–135

Support: contributing to likelihood of success, 16; creating network for, 143–144; for other women, 98, 144, 151–153; personal board of directors for, 98, 143, 150; for reinventing yourself, 116; system-level, for change, 153–154

Supporting role, women's comfort in, 26–27

T

Take Center Stage: research findings on, 22–23; self-assessment of, 28–29, 39; story of changed thinking about, 29–30; summary of moving toward, 39–40; thought patterns with, 31–39; women's discomfort with, 27–28

Taking credit, 73–74, 112. See also Self-promotion

Taking things personally, 47

Tannen, Deborah, 60–61, 70

Thinking: avoiding excessive, 119; black-and-white, 133–134; difficulty of changing, 17–18; entrepreneurial, 140–142; exaggerated, 131–132; as factor in career success, 16–17; integrative, 139–140, 145; irrational,

- 131–132; limiting women's potential, 3–5; negative, 131–133; new, needed to obtain top leadership roles, 11–13; reframing to change, 17–18. See also Thought patterns
- Thought patterns: with Be Modest, 64–69; with Be Politically Savvy, 92–100; with Focus on Others, 23–28; with It's All or Nothing, 131–137; with It's Both-And, 138–144; with Play It Safe, 106–113; with Play to Win, 114–122; with Proceed Until Apprehended, 49–54; with Project Personal Power, 71–77; with Seek Approval, 44–48; with Take Center Stage, 31–39; with Work Harder, 84–90. See also Thinking
- Through the Labyrinth* (Eagly and Carli), 59
- Time: analyzing allocation of, 35–36; to care for ourselves, 36–37, 135, 142–143
- V
- Videotaping, 71–73
- Vision: for change, 51–52; lack of skill in creating, 111–112; required to reinvent yourself, 119; of women holding top leadership positions, 1, 7–8, 147
- W
- Wage gap, 2
- Welch, Jack, 140
- Winfrey, Oprah, 122
- The Women* (Luce), 110
- Women Don't Ask* (Babcock and Laschever), 42, 59
- Women leaders, and companies' financial performance, 2–3, 147
- Women's work,"D 34–35, 110–111
- Work Harder: as Old Rule, 15; research findings on, 83–84; self-assessment of, 91, 100; summary of moving away from, 100–101; thought patterns with, 84–90
- Working Identity* (Ibarra), 117
- Work-life balance: and ambition, 45–46; blending for, 138; complaining about difficulty of, 144; perfectionism's impact on, 128; and stay-at-home mothers, 137
- Workplace Bullying Institute, 152
- Y
- You Just Don't Understand* (Tannen), 60