

Frances van Eupen is a Consultant at Allen & Overy Hong Kong, specialising in international arbitration. She has advised a range of banking and corporate clients on arbitration proceedings under the ICC, ICSID, UNCITRAL, HKIAC, SIAC and LCIA Rules, involving jurisdictions such as Hong Kong, Singapore, the UK, Korea, the Philippines, India and the PRC. Frances regularly appears as an advocate at hearings, she is admitted to practice in England and Hong Kong, is a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and one of the founding members of HK45, a new group for young arbitration practitioners in Hong Kong.

Friven Yeob is a partner of O'Melveny & Myers and is based in the firm's Hong Kong and Singapore offices. Friven is experienced in the resolution of business disputes and represents clients in international arbitrations conducted under various institutional and ad hoc arbitration rules including those of the ICC, HKIAC, CIETAC, SIAC, SCC and UNCITRAL. He has also represented clients in a variety of commercial litigation and regulatory investigations involving product risk and liability, energy, corporate affairs and financial services matters. Friven is a solicitor of the High Court of the Hong Kong SAR.

Peter Yuen is a partner of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer's dispute resolution group, based in the firm's Hong Kong and Beijing office. Peter's practice spans a number of areas including international and regional arbitration, having acted for clients in a number of high-profile Mainland China-related commercial arbitrations. Peter regularly acts for clients in complex commercial disputes before Hong Kong courts, and is experienced in acting as coordinating counsel in cross-border multi-jurisdictional disputes, particularly in matters involving court proceedings in Mainland China. He has also established a busy practice in regulatory and corporate compliance, and has conducted a considerable number of corporate internal investigations in Hong Kong and Mainland China.
