

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction Michael King and Chris Thornhill	1
I. Theory and Practice in Law	11
1. Reflecting On Reflexive Law John Paterson	13
2. What's The Use of Luhmann's Theory? Michael King	37
II. Politics, Law and Human Rights	53
3. From Subject to System: Some Unsystematic Systems-Theoretical Thoughts on Race Equality and Human Rights Tim Murphy	55
4. Luhmann's Political Theory: Politics After Metaphysics? Chris Thornhill	75
5. Systems Theory and the Paradox Of Human Rights Gert Verschraegen	101
6. The Problem of Power in Luhmann's Systems Theory Samantha Ashenden	127
7. What Is Modern Power? Jean Clam	145
III. Critical Responses	163
8. Some Observations on Social Anthropology and Niklas Luhmann's Concept of Society Anne Friederike Müller	165
9. The Theoretical Context and Foundations of Luhmann's Legal and Political Sociology Bernd R Hornung	187

vi Contents

10. Dealing (With) Paradoxes: On Law, Justice and Cheating
Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos 217

Index 235

<http://www.pbookshop.com>