

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	xi
List of Abbreviations	xiii

Introduction Poul F Kjaer	xv
-------------------------------------	----

SECTION I: The Financial Crisis in a Systemic Perspective

1. A Constitutional Moment? The Logics of 'Hitting the Bottom' Gunther Teubner	3
2. Towards a General Theory of Function System Crises Rudolf Stichweh	43

SECTION II: Dynamics

Section II.1: The Breakdown of Expectations 61

3. The Financial Market Crisis—a Case of Network Failure? Karl-Heinz Ladeur	63
4. Death by Complexity—the Financial Crisis and the Crisis of Law in World Society Moritz Renner	93
5. Political Epidemiology and the Financial Crisis Urs Stäheli	113

Section II.2: Fundamental Crises of society 131

6. The Return of Crisis Hauke Brunkhorst	133
7. The Culture Form of Crisis Dirk Baecker	173
8. What is a Crisis? Jean Clam	189

SECTION III: Reactions

Section III.1: Regulatory Reactions	221
9. Eroding Boundaries: On Financial Crisis and an Evolutionary Concept of Regulatory Reform Marc Amstutz	223
10. The Failure of Regulatory Institutions—a Conceptual Framework Alberto Febbrajo	269
Section III.2: Individual and Collective Reactions	303
11. Struggles for Law: Global Social Rights as an Alternative to Financial Market Capitalism Kolja Möller	305
12. The Ethics of the Financial Crisis Aldo Mascareño	333
Section III.3: Constitutional Transformation	355
13. The Future of the State Chris Thornhill	357
14. Law and Order within and Beyond National Configurations Poul F Kjaer	395
Index	431