

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
1. Introduction LIZ TRINDER	1
Section 1: Children and Families
2. Contact and Children's Perspectives on Parental Relationships JUDY DUNN	15
3. Making and Breaking Relationships: Children and their Families CLAIRE HUGHES	33
4. Children's Contact with Relatives JAN PRYOR	47
Section 2: The Law and its Limits
5. Contact as a Right and Obligation ANDREW BAINHAM	61
6. Connecting Contact: Contact in a Private Law Context JONATHAN HERRING	89
7. Supporting Cross-Household Parenting: Ideas about 'the Family', Policy Formation and Service Development across Jurisdictions MAVIS MACLEAN AND KATRIN MUELLER-JOHNSON	117
8. Squaring the Circle—the Social, Legal and Welfare Organisation of Contact ADRIAN JAMES	133
Section 3: Mothers, Fathers and Children
9. Contact: Mothers, Welfare and Rights SHELLEY DAY SCLATER AND FELICITY KAGANAS	155
10. The Real Love that Dare Not Speak its Name BOB GELDOF	171

viii Contents

11. Fathers after Divorce BOB SIMPSON, JULIE JESSOP AND PETER McCARTHY	201
Section 4: The Hand of the State
12. Contact for Children Subject to State Intervention JO MILES AND BRIDGET LINDLEY	223
13. Contact and the Adoption Reform JOHN EEKELAAR	253
14. Adoption and Contact: A Research Review ELSBETH NEIL	275
Section 5: Challenging Contact
15. Assisted Reproduction and Parental Relationships MARTIN RICHARDS	301
16. Contact in Containment BELINDA BROOKS-GORDON	313
17. Making Contact Work in International Cases: Promoting Contact Whilst Preventing International Parental Child Abduction DONNA SMITH	335
18. Disputed Contact Cases in the Courts ANN BUCHANAN AND JOAN HUNT	365
19. Working and Not Working Contact after Divorce LIZ TRINDER	387
Index	407