

---

Contents

---

|   |    |
|---|----|
| 1 Introduction: Human Rights in Healthcare   | 1  |
| I. Sources of Human Rights Law .....  | 4  |
| (a) International Human Rights Treaties .....   | 4  |
| (b) The British Constitution and Common Law Rights .....                                  | 7  |
| (c) The Human Rights Act 1998.....  | 9  |
| II. The Human Rights Relevant to Medical Law.....   | 12 |
| (a) Privacy-related Rights.....   | 12 |
| (b) The Right to Life .....   | 13 |
| (c) The Right to Dignity.....   | 14 |
| (d) Reproductive Autonomy.....  | 15 |
| Recommended Further Reading.....  | 15 |
| 2 A Right to Treatment? The Allocation of Resources in the National Health Service | 17 |
| I. Rights, Health and Resources .....   | 17 |
| (a) Rights to Healthcare.....   | 17 |
| (b) The Ministerial Duty to Promote a Comprehensive and Free Health Service.....          | 20 |
| (c) Ethical Issues in Resource Allocation .....   | 23 |
| II. The General Rule: No Right to Treatment.....  | 27 |
| III. Procedural Aspects of a Right to Treatment.....                                      | 29 |
| (a) The Equality Principle .....  | 29 |
| (b) Procedural Propriety.....   | 30 |
| IV. A Right to Basic Life-Sustaining Treatment?.....                                      | 33 |
| IV. Conclusion .....  | 36 |
| Recommended Further Reading.....  | 36 |
| 3 Ensuring Quality Healthcare: An Issue of Rights or Duties?                       | 37 |
| I. The Doctor-Patient Relationship.....   | 37 |
| II. The Legal Requirements of Negligence.....   | 39 |
| (a) Establishing a Duty of Care.....  | 39 |
| (b) Proving that the Doctor has Breached his Duty of Care .....                           | 41 |
| (c) The Final Hurdle: Did the Breach Cause the Harm? .....                                | 47 |
| (d) Negligence: Conclusion .....  | 53 |
| III. Non-fault Compensation: Escaping the Blame Culture .....                             | 53 |
| IV. Conclusion .....  | 56 |
| Recommended further reading .....   | 57 |

|          |   |     |
|----------|---|-----|
| 4 | Autonomy and Consent to Medical Treatment  | 59  |
| I.       | Autonomy, Consent and Choices .....   | 59  |
|          | (a) Autonomy: The Ethical Principle.....  | 59  |
|          | (b) Autonomy: The Legal Principle .....   | 61  |
| II.      | The Nature of Consent.....  | 65  |
|          | (a) To what can we consent? .....   | 65  |
|          | (b) How do we consent? .....  | 68  |
| III.     | Competent Consent.....  | 72  |
|          | (a) Assessing Capacity.....   | 72  |
|          | (b) The Capacity Test in Practice .....   | 75  |
| IV.      | Informed Consent .....  | 79  |
|          | (a) The Meaning of Informed Consent.....  | 79  |
|          | (b) The Legal Consequences of a Failure to Inform of Risks .....                                    | 80  |
|          | (c) The Doctor's Standard of Care .....   | 82  |
|          | (d) Causation of Harm .....   | 87  |
| V.       | Conclusion .....  | 89  |
|          | Recommended Further Reading.....  | 90  |
| 5 | Treating Incompetent Patients: Beneficence, Welfare and Rights                               | 91  |
| I.       | The Principle of Beneficence andConflicting Rights.....   | 91  |
| II.      | The Best Interests Test.....  | 94  |
|          | (a) Medical Best Interests .....  | 94  |
|          | (b) Broader Social Interests .....  | 98  |
|          | (c) The Interests of Others.....  | 100 |
|          | (d) Best Interests on a Statutory Footing .....   | 104 |
| III.     | Who Decides?.....   | 106 |
|          | (a) Decision-making under the MCA .....   | 106 |
|          | (b) Conflict Between Parents and Doctors.....   | 108 |
|          | (c) Conflicts between Mature Minors and Parents or Doctors.....                                     | 111 |
| IV.      | Conclusion .....  | 116 |
|          | Recommended Further Reading.....  | 117 |
| 6 | Medical Confidentiality And The Right To Privacy   | 119 |
| I.       | Rights to Privacy and Confidentiality in the Medical Context .....                                  | 119 |
|          | (a) The Concept of a Right to Privacy .....   | 119 |
|          | (b) The Protection of Privacy in English Law.....   | 121 |
|          | (c) Confidentiality and Privacy in the Medical Context .....  | 124 |
| II.      | Exceptions to the Duty of Confidentiality: Balancing PrivacyAgainst Other Public Interests..... | 126 |
|          | (a) Disclosure with Consent.....  | 126 |
|          | (b) Public Safety .....   | 128 |
|          | (c) Freedom of the Press .....  | 130 |
|          | (d) Parental Responsibility.....  | 131 |
|          | (e) Anonymised Data for Research and Other Purposes.....  | 134 |
| III.     | Conclusion .....  | 136 |
|          | Recommended Further Reading.....  | 137 |

|           |  |     |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 7  | Property Rights in the Body   | 139 |
| I.        | The Theory of Self-Ownership and the Role of Rights.....                       | 139 |
| II.       | Property Rights in Human Material taken from Living Persons .....              | 143 |
| III.      | Property Rights and Dead Bodies .....  | 147 |
|           | (a) The No Property Rule and Its Exceptions.....                               | 147 |
|           | (b) Organ Retention Scandals .....   | 150 |
|           | (c) The Human Tissue Act 2004 .....  | 154 |
|           | (d) Shortage of Organs for Transplant .....                                    | 155 |
| IV.       | Conclusion .....   | 157 |
|           | Recommended further reading .....  | 157 |
| 8  | Medically Assisted Conception and a Right to Reproduce?                 | 159 |
| I.        | The Origins of a Right to Reproduce.....                                       | 160 |
| II.       | Access to Treatment: A Right to Reproduce in Practice? .....                   | 164 |
|           | (a) Conflicting Interests I: Welfare of the Child .....                        | 165 |
|           | (b) Conflicting Interests II: Consent of Gamete Donors .....                   | 167 |
|           | (c) Conflicting Interests III: Parties to a Surrogacy Arrangement ..           | 170 |
|           | (d) Conflicting Interests IV: Interests of Society.....                        | 173 |
| III.      | Assigning Parentage: Giving Legal Recognition to the Right to Reproduce? ..... | 173 |
|           | (a) Identifying the Mother .....   | 174 |
|           | (b) Identifying the Father .....   | 175 |
| IV.       | A Right to Reproduce a Healthy Child? Selection of Embryos.....                | 177 |
| V.        | Conclusion .....   | 178 |
|           | Recommended Further Reading.....   | 179 |
| 9  | Termination of Pregnancy: A Conflict of Rights                          | 181 |
| I.        | The Fetus.....   | 181 |
|           | (a) A Right to Life for the Fetus? .....                                       | 181 |
|           | (b) The Ethical Background to the Right to Life Debate .....                   | 184 |
|           | (c) The Fetus in English Law .....   | 187 |
| II.       | The Mother .....   | 190 |
|           | (a) A Right to Choose for the Mother? .....                                    | 190 |
|           | (b) The Mother's Rights in English Law.....                                    | 192 |
| III.      | The Father.....  | 197 |
| IV.       | The Medical Professionals.....   | 199 |
| V.        | Conclusion .....   | 201 |
|           | Recommended Further Reading.....   | 202 |
| 10 | Pregnancy and Freedom of Choice   | 203 |
| I.        | Refusal of Medical Treatment During Pregnancy .....                            | 203 |
|           | (a) Freedom of Choice and the Pregnant Woman .....                             | 203 |
|           | (b) Competency during Pregnancy.....   | 208 |
| II.       | Preventing Pre-natal Harm .....  | 212 |
|           | (a) Harming the Fetus .....  | 212 |

ix Contents

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| (b) Harming the Future Child.....  | 214        |
| III. Wrongful Conception and Birth: Financial Recompense for an Unwanted Pregnancy? .....          | 218        |
| (a) The Nature of Wrongful Conception and Wrongful Birth Claims .....                              | 219        |
| (b) Is a Child Always a Blessing? Reasons for Denying Compensation for an Unwanted Pregnancy ..... | 220        |
| (c) The Post-McFarlane Fudge.....  | 223        |
| IV. Conclusion .....   | 224        |
| Recommended Further Reading.....   | 225        |
| 11 The Right to Life at the End of Life .....   | 227 |
| I. The Right to Life in Context.....   | 227        |
| (a) The Right to Life in Article 2 ECHR .....  | 227        |
| (b) The Boundaries of the Right to Life: Defining Death.....                                       | 229        |
| (c) The Sanctity of Human Life.....  | 231        |
| II. The Bland Principles .....  | 233        |
| (a) Was Bland still alive? .....   | 234        |
| (b) Bland's Best Interests.....  | 235        |
| (c) Is Artificial Feeding a Form of Medical Treatment? .....                                       | 238        |
| (d) Is Withdrawing Treatment an Act or an Omission (and does it matter)? .....                     | 239        |
| (e) Conclusion: The Bland Principles.....  | 242        |
| III. The Bland Principles in Practice.....  | 242        |
| (a) The Beginning of a Slippery Slope? .....   | 242        |
| (b) Duty to Provide ANH to Competent Patients .....  | 244        |
| (c) The Bland Principles in a Human Rights Age .....   | 245        |
| IV. Equal Rights to Life: The Conjoined Twins Case.....  | 248        |
| V. Conclusion .....  | 251        |
| Recommended Further Reading:.....  | 251        |
| 12 The Law and Ethics of Assisted Dying: Is There a Right to Die? .....                     | 253 |
| I. The Criminal Law Prohibition on Assisted Dying.....   | 253        |
| II. Life and Death: A Right to Die as a Corollary of a Right to Life? ....                         | 259        |
| III. A Right to Die with Dignity? .....  | 261        |
| IV. Autonomy, Private Life and Death .....   | 264        |
| (a) The Right to Respect for Private Decisions about Dying .....                                   | 264        |
| (b) Proportionate State Interference: Protecting the Rights of the Vulnerable.....                 | 265        |
| V. Discrimination of the Disabled: Suicide versus Assisted Suicide.....                            | 271        |
| VI. Conclusion .....   | 272        |
| Recommended Further Reading.....   | 274        |