

---

Table of Contents

---

Chapter 1: Preconceptions	1
I. Introduction	1
II. The Importance of Research	3
III. The Project	9
IV. Acknowledgments	10
Chapter 2: The Family Law Bar	11
I. Introduction	11
II. The Demographic Characteristics of the Family Law Bar	12
III. Specialisation	17
IV. Remuneration and Regulation of the Family Law Bar	19
Chapter 3: Overview of the Barristers' Role	31
I. Introduction	31
II. Public Law Children Cases	34
III. Private Law Children Cases	39
IV. Financial Cases	43
Chapter 4: Financial Cases	49
I. Introduction	49
II. George and the 'World Businessman'	51
III. Caroline and the Novelist	55
IV. Louise and the Surprise Ending	57
V. Charles and the Failing Small Businessman	59
VI. Graham: A Final Hearing with Little on the Table	65
VII. Alice's 'Mediation'	71
Chapter 5: Children Cases: Contact	73
I. Introduction	73
II. Jane and the Unrepresented Foster Parent	74
III. David and the Three-Year Old with the Short Fuse	78
IV. Jonathan and the Concerned Mother	82

Table of Contents

Chapter 6: Child Protection Cases	91
I. Introduction	91
II. Nadia's Case Conference	92
III. Claudia and the Underweight Toddler	93
IV. Isobel's Directions Hearing	96
V. Sarah and the Disturbed Client	97
VI. Peter and the Family of Five Children	101
VII. James's Midnight Brief	104
Epilogue	117
I. Case Management and the Court System	117
II. Mentor and Guide	118
III. Image and Reality	122
Index	125

<http://www.pbookshop.com>