

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	vii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
1. Introduction	1
Purpose of the Book	1
History and Development	2
German Materials Used	3
A Note on Citation	4
Chapter Overview	4
2. Basic Concepts and Terminology: An Overview	7
The Ideology of German Criminal Law	7
Sources of Criminal Law and Hierarchy of Norms	10
Principles of Interpretation and the Role of Precedent	15
The Tripartite Structure of Offences—an Overview	16
Basic Tenets of German Criminal Policy	18
Nullum Crimen Sine Lege Scripta	18
Rechtsgüterlehre and Schutzzweck der Norm	18
Schuldprinzip	20
Capacity and the Treatment of Juveniles and Young Adults	22
Corporate Criminal Liability	23
Rule-of-law Principles in Substantive Criminal Law	23
Verbrechen and Vergehen	27
3. The Tatbestand —Part One	29
Types and Function of Tatbestand — Deliktskategorien	29
Handlung and Unterlassen —Act and Omission	36
Positive Acts	36
Omissions	40
Duty Based on Legislation	42
Duty Based on Close Personal Relationship	43
Duty Based on Joint Dangerous Enterprise or Mutual Trust
(Vertrauens- and Gefahrgemeinschaft)	43
Duty Based on Assumption of Risk	43
Duty Based on Specific Qualities of the Offender	44
Duty Based on Creation of Dangerous Situations	44

Table of Contents

Causation (Acts and Omissions)	45
Contributory Acts of the Victim	48
Free, Deliberate and Informed Third-party Interventions	48
Alternative and Cumulative Causes	49
Lack of Creation of a Legally Relevant Danger	50
Risk Diminishment	51
Dalloway Scenarios	51
Hypothetical Identical Causation of Result by Third-party Intervention	52
Kennedy-type Cases: Joint Drug Users	52
Negligence in the Actus Reus	54
4. The Tatbestand —Part Two	59
Vorsatz —Intent	60
Categories of Intent and Delineation from Advertent Negligence	63
Coincidence of Intent and Actus Reus Elements; Deviations from the Imagined Chain of Causation	67
Mistakes of Fact and Missing the Target	70
Mistake and General Defences	75
5. Justificatory Defences— Rechtfertigungsgründe	77
General Issues	78
Conceptual Basis and Cumulation of Defences	78
Subjective Elements	79
Provocation of Defence	81
Rule-of-law Aspects	81
Individual Defences	82
Consent	82
Presumed Consent	88
Official Authorisation	89
Acting on the Basis of Official Power or Instruction; Superior Orders	91
Collision of Duties	95
Acting in the Exercise of Justified Interests	97
Citizens' Arrest	98
Self-defence	99
Necessity	106
6. Guilt and Excusatory Defences	115
General Overview	115
Individual Issues	117
Subjective Negligence	117
Mistake of Law	119

Table of Contents

Excessive Self-defence	121
Duress	123
Supra-legal Duress?	129
Insanity	131
Pathological Mental Disorder (Krankhafte Seelische Störung)	133
Profound Consciousness Disorder (Tiefgreifende Bewußtseins- störung)	133
Debility (Schwachsinn)	134
Other Serious Mental Abnormality (Schwere Seelische Abartigkeit)	135
Diminished Responsibility	135
7. Attempts	137
The Definition of Attempt	139
Impossible Attempts and Imaginary Offences	144
Withdrawal—Failed, Finished and Unfinished Attempts	146
Effects of Withdrawal	151
8. Forms of Participation—Principals, Aiders and Abettors	153
Principal by Proxy (Mittelbare Täterschaft)	156
Identity of Agent and Victim	157
Hierarchical Structures	158
Effect of Errors of the Agent	159
Multiple Independent Principals (MIP) (Nebentäterschaft)	160
Joint Principals (Mittäterschaft)	161
Distinguishing Joint Principals from Secondary Participants	161
The Common Plan and the Objective Contribution of the Joint Principals	163
The Limits of Mutual Attribution	164
Effect of Errors of one of the Joint Principals	166
Aiding and Abetting—Secondary Participation (Anstiftung and Beihilfe)	167
Abetting— Actus Reus	168
Abetting— Mens Rea	169
Errors of the Principal and their Effect on the Abettor's Liability	171
Aiding— Actus Reus and Mens Rea	172
Special Personal Characteristics under §§ 28 and 29	173
Attempted Participation or Conspiracy—§§ 30 and 31	175
9. Homicide Offences	179
Structural Overview	179
Beginning and End of Life for the Purposes of Homicide Offences	181
Euthanasia	183
Suicide	184

Table of Contents

Abortion	185
§ 211—the Special Elements of Aggravated Murder	188
§§ 211 and 28	191
10. Sexual Offences	195
Recent Reform History	195
Incest	197
Abuse of Trust Offences	198
Child Abuse Offences	199
Sexual Assault and Rape	201
Vulnerable Persons—Physical or Mental Disabilities and Young Age	202
Exploitative Behaviour—Prostitutes and Juveniles	204
Public Moral and Order Offences; Pornography	205
Unlawful Prostitution	208
Human Trafficking	209
Stalking	211
Forced Marriages	211
11. Property Offences	213
Overview	213
Theft and Unlawful Appropriation	214
Robbery and Blackmail	218
Assistance after the Fact and Handling Stolen Goods	221
Fraud and Embezzlement	223
Index	229