
Contents

Acknowledgments	v
1. Introducing Fatherhood and Law	1
Introduction	1
'Fragmenting Fatherhood'	3
The Structure of the Argument	7
Contexts of Change: New Families, New Fatherhood?	10
Researching Fatherhood, New Questions for Law	15
Family Law, Family Policy and Fatherhood	20
Law, Families, Fatherhood: Conceptual Questions	23
Conclusion	35
2. Fatherhood and 'Natural' Reproduction	37
Introduction	37
Preventing Fatherhood: Contraception, and Abortion	39
Reproductive Agency, Antenatal Responsibility and Foetal Welfare	49
Fathers, Pregnancy and Childbirth	59
Conclusion	64
3. Fatherhood and Assisted Reproduction	69
Introduction	69
Child Welfare and the Need for a Father	72
Diane Blood, Deceased Fathers and the Privileging of Widows	78
The Status Provisions	80
Surrogacy	89
Donor Insemination and Anonymity	92
Rights in Stored Embryos	95
Conclusion	97
4. Marital Fatherhood	101
Introduction	101
(Re)Constructing the 'Family Man' as Breadwinner: From Rights to Responsibility	103
Making the 'Father Figure?': Reconstructing Responsible Fatherhood	114
Gender Equality, Gendered Lives: The Limits of the 'New Fatherhood?'	126

Contents

Concluding Remarks: Policy, Practice and the Contradictions of the New Fatherhood	132
5. Post-Separation Fatherhood	139
Introduction	139
A Context: The Changing Nature of Post-separation Parenting	141
A History: Divorce Law, the 'New Consensus' and the Remaking of Post-separation Fatherhood	145
Law, Contact and the 'Responsible' Post-separation Father	155
Reassessing the Politics of Post-separation Fatherhood: Questions of Conflict, Emotion and Gender	163
Conclusion	170
6. Unmarried Fatherhood	175
Introduction	175
Unmarried Fatherhood and Cohabitation	178
The Law of Illegitimacy	180
Contemporary Legal Treatment of Unmarried Fathers	184
Conclusion	200
7. Fragmenting Fatherhood	205
Introduction	205
Beyond the 'New Fatherhood'	209
Fatherhood, Masculinities and the 'Problem of Men'	213
Equality, Gender Convergence and 'Geneticisation'	222
Fatherhood and Law: Theoretical Issues	226
Conclusion: Fragmentation, Tension and Contradiction	234
Bibliography	239