

CONTENTS

Anthology Dedication	v
Reflections from the Core Holly McMahon	vii
Introduction Jill D. Rhodes Harvey Rishikof	ix
Section I. The Standing Committee on Law and National Security—Its History and People
Our Mission, Then and Now Richard E. Friedman 1986–1989	3
The ABA Standing Committee on Law and National Security: Historic Player in the Creation and Development of the Field John Norton Moore 1982–1986 Robert F. Turner 1989–1992	9
Considering Current Issues: Standing Committee’s FISA Reform Project John H. Shenefeld 1992–1995	15
National Security Reflections: Importance of Culture and the Past as Prologue Elizabeth Rindskopf Parker 1998–2001	19
The Gold Standard Harvey Rishikof 2009–2012	25

CONTENTS

Section II. Fifty Years of National Security Law— Its Formalization and History

A Brief History of the Field of National Security Law Peter Raven-Hansen, Stephen Dycus, and William C. Banks	31
U.S. National Security Law and International Law: Links and Implications Nicholas Rostow	41
The Law of Armed Conflict David E. Graham	49
The Development of Intelligence Law W. George Jameson and Robert S. Litt	61
ABA 50th Compilation References	67
References—Selected Topics	70
National Security and Civil Liberties Kate A. Martin and Joel F. Brenner	77
Military Justice John D. Altenburg, Jr.	83
Due Process and Terrorism Amos N. Guiora and Laurie R. Blank	101
The Impact of Technology on National Security Law Angeline Chen and Clark Walton	115
Final Thoughts and Considerations for the Upcoming Decades Jill D. Rhodes	135

Section III. Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments	139
-----------------	-----

Section IV. Biographies

Biographies	141
Notes	153