

Index

- acknowledgment, customer
 - customer objections and, 147–150
 - positive customer attitudes and, 8
 - two customers at once, 52–54
- adaptability/flexibility in salespeople, 7, 18–19
- add-on close, 131, 169
- add-on selling/adding on, 124, 125–130, 131, 134–138
- advantages, defined, 103
- appearance
 - clothing
 - professional appearance, benefits of, 16–17
 - qualifying customers by, 9–10, 158–159
 - salesperson socializing and, 7–8
 - architect, as occupational model, 20–22, 31
- ask-for-it close, 168–169

- benefits, defined, 103–104
- benefits vs. features, 90–91, 116
- Bennett, Tony, 23
- birthday cards, 203–204
- broad-based questions, 56, 74, 149, 160
- business people, salespeople as, 200
- business topics, avoiding, 38, 55
- buyers remorse
 - avoiding, 193–194
 - overview, 189–192
- buying, reasons for
 - trust, 70
 - value, 70, 87–89, 116
- buying rooms, 128–129
- buying signals, 182–185
- buy vs. shop*, 69–70

- cars, personalizing remarks and, 49, 56
- children, personalizing remarks and, 49, 56
- clerking*, avoiding, 31, 37
- closing techniques
 - add-on close, 131, 169
 - ask-for-it close, 168–169
 - to the bone* close, 172–173
 - do something different* close, 174
 - either/or close, 166–167
 - order form close, 171–172
 - overview, 166, 184, 185
 - penalty close, 174–175
 - reflexive close, 167–168
 - sales, asking for, 168–169, 184, 185, 191, 206
 - third-party reference close, 169–171
- closing the sale
 - awkwardness of, 122–124
 - buying signals, 182–185
 - closing techniques, 163–175
 - discount requests, handling, 175–177, 185
 - dislike of, 121–125, 136
 - fun during, 183–184
 - getting started, 164–166
 - hot tips/key insights, 184–185
 - inability to close, 180
 - intent, importance of, 163–164
 - as step to success, 21–22, 163
 - turning over sales (TOs), 178–181, 185
- clothing
 - personalizing remarks and, 49
 - professional appearance and, 16–17
 - qualifying customers by, 9–10, 158–159

- communication, nonverbal eye contact, 8, 123
 opening sales, physical aspects of, 42–43
- communication, verbal conversation busters, 45
 empathy vs. sympathy, 11–12
 to express vs. impress, 13–14
 humor, using, 41, 168, 174 interrupting customers, avoiding, 14 listening to ideas vs. words, 12–13
 names, avoiding, 10
 opening lines, 37–41
 opening moves, 41–44
 painter, as occupational model, 19–20
 person-to-person relationships and, 37, 39–40
 persuasive words, 91
 schmoozing/small talk, 41, 43, 45, 56
 two-way conversations, 15
 verbal contracts, 52–54, 57
See also language and wording;
 opening the sale; probing
- comparison trap, avoiding, 109–111, 116
- competition
 in current retail environment, 3, 31
 knowing about, 26–27
- confidence
 control, maintaining and, 17
 preparation, positive effect on, 4–5, 32
 product knowledge and, 28
- confirmations and invitations
 buyers remorse, 189–192, 193–194
 complimentary behavior and, 191–194, 206 customer names, using, 193 customer reassurance and, 191, 199, 206
 follow-up techniques, 201–205, 208
 hot tips/key insights, 206–208
 invitations, 194–200, 207, 208
 personal newsletters, 204–205
 personal trade, building, 200–206, 208
 sales, cementing, 192–194
 as step to success, 21–22, 189, 206
 thank-you notes, 201
- consumer schizophrenia, 3
- contracts, verbal, 52–54, 57
- control, knowledge and, 25, 62–63
 control, maintaining, 17, 133–134
- conversation busters, 45
- Cordry, Marlene, 41, 45
- counselor, as occupational model, 22–23, 31
- current events, personalizing remarks and, 49, 56
- customer/consumer behavior acknowledge of customers and, 8 adaptability/flexibility to, 7, 18–19 buying signals and, 182–185
consumer schizophrenia, 3
 control, maintaining and, 17 defense shields to questions, 45–48 empathy and, 11–12, 22–23, 62, 147–150 fibbing, 145
 getting to know customers, 201
 “just looking” customers, 37, 40, 42, 45–47, 54, 56
 mission-based behavior, 96–97
 negative customer reactions, avoiding, 36–37, 39 personal space and, 10–11, 42 positive customer attitudes, 8 reactive behavior, 35–36
 salespeople, negative views about, 36–37 service expectations and, 7
- customer defense shields, 46–48
- customer involvement, encouraging, 97, 98–99, 116
- “customer is always right,” 8, 14
- customer needs, identifying objections and, 82, 143–144, 159
 probing and, 25, 62–63, 82
- customer objections, handling
 customer needs, identifying, 82, 143–144, 159 decision-making delays, 144–145
 hot tips/key insights, 159–160
 identifying objections, 147–150, 159–160
 layaway plans, avoiding, 152, 157, 160
 occurrence of, reasons for, 143–146
 overview, 141, 158

- price objections, 147, 148–149, 153–159, 160
- road map to, 158
- six-step process for, 147–149, 159
- smoke-out technique, 148, 150–153, 160
- as step to success, 21–22
- trial and error, learning from, 141–143
- value vs. budget, 154–155, 160
- working with customers, 146–153
- customer qualification, avoiding, 9–10, 158–159
- customer service points/satisfaction, 5–6, 18
- daily prechecks. See prechecks
- demonstrations
 - comparison trap, avoiding, 109–111, 116
 - customer involvement, encouraging, 97, 98–99, 116
 - desire, creating in customer, 89
 - experts/friends, killing deals, 112–115, 117
 - Feature-Advantage-Benefit-Grabbers, 101–110, 116, 150, 155–156, 160, 184
 - goals of, 89, 116
 - hot tips/key insights, 115–117
 - million-dollar items, showing, 100–101
 - mystery, creating, 97, 100, 116
 - opinions, sharing, 111
 - overview, 87–89, 97–101
 - ownership, creating desire for, 94–97
 - persuasive words, using, 91
 - product features, saving for later, 97–98, 116
 - product features vs. benefits, 90–91, 116
 - product knowledge, importance of, 92–94
 - selling items on merits, 110–11
 - showtime presentations, 24, 210
 - special demo techniques, 99–100
 - as step to success, 21–22, 87–89
 - value, establishing, 87–89, 116
- demonstration tools. See Feature-Advantage-Benefit-Grabbers
- Diamond, Neil, 23
- Dickens, Jon, 89
- discount requests, handling, 175–177, 185
- do something different* close, 174
- either/or close, 166–167
- elearning training programs, 215–216
- empathy and understanding
 - customer objections, acknowledgment of, 147–150, 159
 - importance of in sales, 11–12, 22–23
 - probing and, 62, 82
 - “tell me more” technique, 22–23
 - vs.* sympathy, 11–12
- “enhancer” trial close step, 131, 137
- enthusiasm
 - after probing, 87
 - for selling, 17–18, 206
 - showtime presentations, 24, 210
- entrepreneurs, salespeople as, 200
- expensive items, sale of
 - buyers remorse and, 190, 191
 - confirmations of, 199, 207
 - demonstrations of, 100–101
- experts/friends, killing deals, 112–115, 117
- eye contact, 8, 123
- Feature-Advantage-Benefit-Grabbers (FABGs)
 - advantages, defined, 103
 - beginning demos, 102
 - checking, 107
 - examples of, 150, 155–156, 160, 184
 - features, defined, 102–103
 - giving possession in demo, 107
 - grabbers, defined, 104–105
 - overview, 101–109
 - transitioning into demo, 101–102
- Feature-Advantage-Benefit statements, 101, 102
- features, defined, 102–103
- features, saving for later, 97–98, 116
- features vs. benefits, product, 90–91, 116

- follow-up techniques
 - birthday cards, 203–204
 - FYI correspondence, 202–203
 - holiday cards, 203
 - personal newsletters, 204–205
 - phone calls/notes, 202
 - thank-you notes, 201
- Ford Falcon, 94
- Friedman Group, 24, 89
 - contact info, 216
 - training and speakers, 214–215
- friendly test, 10
- fun takeaway technique, 47–48
- furnishings, sales ideas for, 81
- FYI correspondence, 202–203

- grabbers, defined, 104–105

- hairstyles, qualifying customers by, 9–10
- hanging out, process of, 44, 71–73
- hardball closers, 203
- holiday cards, 203
- holidays, personalizing remarks and, 49
- home decorating, sales ideas for, 81
- hot tips/key insights
 - closing the sale, 184–185
 - confirmations and invitations, 206–208
 - customer objections, 159–160
 - demonstrations, 115–117
 - opening the sale, 54–57
 - preparation/preparedness, 31–32
 - probing, 81–84
 - trial close, 136–138
- “how about” trial close step, 131, 137
- “how much” questions, avoiding, 69
- “how” questions, 64, 67–68
- Hubbard, L. Ron, 35n
- humor, using, 41, 168, 174

- I and you*, using, 193, 207
- “Im just looking.”, 37, 40, 42, 45–47, 54, 56
- inexpensive add-ons, 135–136
- in-house training and speakers, 214–215
- intent, in closing, 163–164
- invitations, 196–200, 207, 208
 - See also* confirmations and invitations
- jargon, avoiding
 - in demonstrations, 93
 - exceptions to, 13
 - listening to ideas vs. words, 12–13
 - words, using to express vs. impress, 13–14
- jargon, using
 - industry-specific examples, 93
 - technically-educated customers, 13, 83
 - women and, 13
- judging customers, 9–10, 158–159
- “just looking” customers, 37, 40, 42, 45–47, 54, 56

- Kardon, Brian E., 3
- knowledge and information
 - certainty and, 17
 - competition, knowing, 26–27
 - as power, 25, 62–63
 - probing to gather, 62–73
 - professional occupational models and, 19–24, 31
 - See also* probing; product knowledge
- language and wording
 - articulation and variance in, 20
 - buy vs. shop*, 69–70
 - choosing carefully, 69–70
 - I and you*, 193, 207
 - “Im just looking.”, 37, 40, 42, 45–47, 54, 56
 - maam/sir, avoiding, 11
 - “May I help you?”, 39, 54
 - need vs. want*, 69–70
 - persuasive words, 91
 - used to express vs. impress, 13–14
 - word pictures, 20
 - See also* communication, verbal
- layaway plans, avoiding, 152, 157, 160
- listening
 - to customer ideas vs. words, 12–13
 - to customer objections, 147
 - interruptions, avoiding, 14
 - talking vs., 14–15
 - two-way conversations, 15
- logical sequence, 74–78, 83
- logical sequence guide, 78
- long-range* precheck activities, 31

Index

223

- ma'am/sir, avoiding, 11
- "May I help you?", 39, 54
- Merchandise Approach, ineffectiveness of, 38–39, 55
- mistakes, learning from, 6, 141–143
- Mitty, Walter, 19
- Multiple Store Supervision Course, 212, 213–214
- "must have" trial close step, 131–132, 137
- mystery, creating, 97, 100, 116
- names
 - avoiding use of in opening, 10
 - using to confirm sales, 193
- negative customer reactions, avoiding, 36–37
- newsletters, personal, 204–205
- noncompanion add-ons, 134
- nonverbal communication, 8, 42–43, 123
- objections. See customer objections, handling
- 180-degree pass-by, 42–43, 56
- open-ended fact-finding questions, 45, 63–64, 73, 82–83
- opening lines
 - business topics, avoiding, 38, 55
 - conversation, encouraging, 39–40, 56
 - examples of, 39, 56–57
 - importance of, 54–57
 - Merchandise Approach, ineffectiveness of, 38–39, 55
 - overview, 37–41
 - personalizing remarks for, 49–50, 56
 - shopper satisfaction and, 40
 - as unique, sincere and different, 40–41, 56
 - worst lines, examples of, 39
 - writing and practicing, 54, 57
- opening moves
 - hanging out, process of, 44, 71–73
 - 180-degree pass-by, 42–43, 56
 - overview, 41–44
 - schmoozing/small talk, 41, 43, 45, 56
 - verbal contracts, 52–54, 57
- opening the sale
 - conversation, examples of, 43–44
 - hot tips/key insights, 54–57
 - physical aspects of, 42–43
 - as step to success, 21–22
 - transitioning to, 44–50
 - for two customers at once, 52–54
- opinions, sharing, 111
- order form close, 171–172
- ownership, creating desire for, 94–97
- painter, as occupational model, 19–20, 31
- penalty close, 174–175
- personal characteristics, salesperson
 - adaptability/flexibility, 7, 18–19, 31
 - certainty, 17
 - confidence, 4–5, 17, 28
 - customer conflicts and, 178–179
 - enthusiasm and, 17–18, 24, 87, 206
 - professional occupational models and, 19–24, 31
- personal newsletters, 204–205
- personal space
 - defined, 10
 - respecting customers, 10–11, 42
- personal trade, building, 200–206, 208
- person-to-person relationships
 - customer resistance and, 37, 39–40, 55
 - vs.* salesperson-to-customer, 37, 55
- pilots, prechecks and, 4
- "possession" trial close step, 132
- power
 - customers love of, 14
 - knowledge and information as, 25, 62–63
- practice, importance of
 - in learning sales techniques, 166, 185
 - mistakes, learning from, 6, 141–143
 - opening lines, 54, 57
 - in trial closes, 134–135
- prechecks
 - architect, as occupational model and, 21, 31
 - competition, knowing, 26–27
 - daily prechecks, 24–25
 - importance of, 3–5, 31
 - long-range* precheck activities, 31
 - pilots, comparison to, 4
 - prices, knowing and, 25–26

- prechecks (Continued)
 product knowledge and, 28–29
 as step to success, 21–22
 time and energy needed for, 30, 31
 walking the store, 29–30, 32
See also salesperson techniques
- prejudging customers, 9–10, 158–159
- preparation/preparedness confidence, effect on, 4–5, 32
 hot tips/key insights, 31–32
 importance of, 3–5, 30, 31–32
 losing customers due to lack of, 24 opening lines and, 50–52, 54, 57
 probing and, 70
 professional occupational models for, 19–24, 31
 salesperson techniques for, 3–5
See also prechecks
- presentations
 salespeople, four types of in, 122
 showtime presentations, 24, 210
See also communication, verbal; demonstrations
- prices to the bone closing technique and, 173 customer objections to, 147, 148–149, 153–159, 160
 discount requests, handling, 175–177, 185
 knowing by memory, 25–26
 knowing competition, 27
- probing
 closed vs. open questions, 64–65
 customer needs, identifying, 25, 62–63, 82
 defined, 62
 developing skills for, 61–63
 empathy and understanding in, 11–12, 22–23, 62, 82 home decorating/furnishings, ideas for, 81
 hot tips/key insights, 81–84
 “how much” questions, avoiding, 69
 “how” questions, 64, 67–68
 logical sequence, 74–78, 83
 logical sequence guide, 78, 78f
 open-ended fact-finding questions, 45, 63–64, 73, 82–83
 overview, 62–73
 preparedness for, 70
 Question-Answer-Support (QAS), 73–74, 83
 as step to success, 21–22
 switching/selling in-stock items first, 78–81
 “tell me” questions, 64, 68
 transition questions, 44–46
 trust, developing, 62–63, 70–73, 82–83
 “what/when/where/who/why” questions, 64, 66–69, 82
 words, choosing, 69–70
- product features vs. benefits, 90–91, 116
- product knowledge benefits of, 28–29
 competition, knowing, 27
 control, maintaining and, 17
 demonstrations and, 92–94
 describing with word pictures, 20 lack of, problems and, 179–180 prices, knowing by memory, 25–26 trust and, 29
 professional appearance, benefits of, 16–17
- Professional Golfers Association, 70
- professional occupational models, salesperson architect, 20–22
 counselor, 22–23
 overview, 19–24, 31
 painter, 19–20
 showbiz personality, 23–24
- Professional Retail Management Course, 213
- Project Gold Star, 215
- QAS, 73–74, 83
- qualifying customers, avoiding, 9–10, 158–159
- Question-Answer-Support (QAS), 73–74, 83
- questions
 broad-based questions, 56, 74, 149, 160
 closed vs. open questions, 64–65
 customer defense shields to, 45–46
 “how much” questions, 69

Index

225

- “how” questions, 64, 67–68
- logical sequence and, 74–78, 78f, 83
- open-ended fact-finding questions, 45, 63–64, 73, 82–83
- permission, obtaining to ask, 147–149, 160
- “tell me” questions, 64, 68
- trial close five-part questions, 131–132, 137
- “what/when/where/who/why” questions, 64, 66–69, 82
- yes or no questions, 55, 166
- See also* opening lines; probing; transition questions

- race/religion, qualifying customers by, 9–10
- reactive customer behavior, 35–36
- reflexive close, 167–168
- relationship building, 37, 39–40
 - See also* communication, verbal; trust, developing
- resistance, overcoming
 - customer defense shields, 45–48
 - person-to-person relationships and, 37, 39–40
 - transition questions and, 45–46, 55
- Retail Employee Development Course, 212–213
- Retailers Complete Book of Selling Games and Contests*, 212
- Retail Management Training Camp, 212
- Retail Policies Manual*, 213
- retail training resources, 213–216

- sales, asking for, 168–169, 184, 185, 191, 206
- sales and management books, 211–213
- Sales Masters Course, 214
- salespeople
 - as business people/entrepreneurs, 200
 - negative views about, 36–37
 - retail training resources for, 211–216
- salesperson techniques
 - adaptability/flexibility, 7, 18–19, 31
 - certainty as key, 17
 - clerking*, avoiding, 31, 37
 - congregating/socializing on floor, avoiding, 7–8
 - control, maintaining, 17, 133–134
 - customer acknowledgment, 8
 - empathy vs. sympathy, 11–12, 22–23
 - enthusiasm, selling with, 17–18, 24, 87, 206
 - interrupting, avoiding, 14
 - listening to ideas vs. words, 12–13
 - personal problems, keeping off floor, 7
 - personal space, respecting, 10–11, 42
 - power, customers love of, 14
 - practicing, importance of, 134–135, 166, 185
 - preparation, 3–5
 - professional appearance, 16–17
 - qualifying customers, avoiding, 9–10, 158–159
 - sir/ma'am, avoiding, 11
 - talking vs. listening, 14–15
 - trust, gaining, 15
 - two-way conversations, 15
 - words to express vs. impress, 13–14
- salesperson-to-customer relationships, 37, 55
- schmoozing/small talk, 41, 43, 45, 56
- self-confidence. See confidence
- selling, mandate of
 - current vs. past trends, 3, 31
 - as salespersons main job, 18, 24, 32, 87, 117, 137
 - in trial closes, 122, 132–133
- selling techniques. See closing techniques; salesperson techniques
- Seven Steps to Success*, 20–21
 - See also* closing the sale; confirmations and invitations; customer objections, handling; demonstrations; opening the sale; prechecks; probing; trial closes
- shop vs. buy*, 69–70
- “Show, Show, Show Until They Say No!”, 127, 136, 138, 141
- showbiz personality, as occupational model, 23–24, 31
- showtime presentations, 24, 210
- sir/ma'am, avoiding, 11
- smoke-outs, 148, 150–153, 160

- socializing while working, avoiding, 7–8
- switching/selling in-stock items first, 78–81
- sympathy vs. empathy, 11–12
- takeaway technique, 46–48, 56
- talking
 - average rates of speaking, 14
 - getting customers to talk, 48
 - vs.* listening and trust, 14–15
 - See also* communication, verbal
- “tell me” questions, 64, 68
- thank-you notes, 201
- theft, avoiding
 - by acknowledging customer presence, 8
 - by walking the store, 30
- third-party reference close, 169–171
- TOs*, 178–181, 185
- to the bone* close, 172–173
- transition questions
 - customer defense shields to, 45–48
 - customer resistance, overcoming, 45–46, 55
 - examples of, 50–52
 - overview, 44–50
 - personalizing remarks for, 49–50, 56
 - takeaway technique, 46–48, 56
 - talking, getting customers, 48
- trial closes
 - add-on selling/adding on, 124, 125–130, 131, 134–138
 - awkwardness of closing, 122–124
 - buying rooms, 128–129
 - constructing, 131–136
 - control, maintaining, 133–134
 - five-part questions for, 131–132, 137
 - history of, 124–125
 - hot tips/key insights, 136–138
 - inexpensive add-ons, 135–136
 - noncompanion add-ons, 134
 - overview, 121–125
 - practice, importance of, 134–135
 - selling, mandate of, 117, 122, 132–133, 137
- “Show, Show, Show Until They Say No!”, 127, 136, 138, 141
- as step to success, 21–22, 121, 137
- trust, as reason for buying, 70
- trust, developing
 - customer objections and, 159
 - open-ended fact-finding questions, 45, 63–64, 73, 82–83
 - probing and, 62–63, 70–73, 82–83
 - product knowledge and, 29
 - Question-Answer-Support (QAS), 73–74, 83
 - reactive customer behavior and, 35–36
 - talking vs. listening, 14–15
- turning over sales (TOs), 178–181, 185
- turnover technique, 47
- uniqueness/sincerity, opening lines and, 40–41
- value
 - defined, 88, 116
 - demonstrating, 87–89, 116
 - price objections and, 154–155, 160
 - as reason for buying, 70, 87–89
 - selling value, 90–94
- verbal communication. See communication, verbal
- verbal contracts, 52–54, 57
- video training programs, 211–213
- walking the store, 29–30, 32
- want vs. need*, 69–70
- “what/when/where/who/why” questions, 64, 66–69, 82
- winging it, 17
- women, jargon and, 13
- word pictures, 20
- words and language. See language and words
- Worlds Number One Retail Sales Training Course, The*, 211–212
- yes or no* questions, 55, 166
- you and I*, using, 193, 207