

Index

• Symbols and Numerics •

& (ampersands) in CVs, 237
* (asterisks) in CVs, 236
– (dashes) in CVs, 236
2:1 rule for interviews, 329, 338

• A •

absenteeism/sickness, interview questions about, 300
academic curriculum vitae (ACV) format described, 128, 147 executive summary page for, 147
instructions for creating, 151
international curriculum vitae format versus, 151
length of, 147
situations not suitable for, 151
situations suitable for, 128, 151
strengths and weaknesses, 147
template, 149–150
ACAS (Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service) site, 92, 209

accomplishment CV format assistant retail manager example, 238–239
described, 127, 136
for executive recruiters, 138
instructions for creating, 139
situations not suitable for, 138
situations suitable for, 128, 138
strengths and weaknesses, 138
template, 137
achievements. See also keywords; StandOut words achievement statements, 232
in asset statement, 232 importance for work satisfaction, 36
interview questions about, 296–297, 357–358
of most interest to employers, 173
as motivator in Herzberg's theory, 32
smiling when speaking of, 270 Actions in CAR acronym, 292 active listening in interviews, 268

activities
on CVs, 177
Hobbies/Activities-to-Skills Worksheet, 225
interview questions about, 309–310
passion role of work, 10, 11–12
ACV format. See academic curriculum vitae format adaptability. See flexibility administrative jobs. See managerial jobs administrator. See boss Adobe Acrobat PDF format for e-CVs, 157 advancement or promotion evaluating before accepting, 36–37
interview questions about, 349, 353
learning from rejection, 58
mentioning as motivation in interviews, 295
as motivation for job change, 327
as motivator in Herzberg's theory, 32
questions to ask at interviews, 285
advertisements
collecting for your dream job, 20
identifying competency-based questions from, 397–398
keywords from, 195

- advertisements (continued)
 linking to your skills in interviews, 262–264, 293, 299, 323
 position analysis using, 166
- Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) site, 92, 209
- affirmations about presentations, 478
- ageism. See also discrimination contract work for countering, 203
 CV examples handling, 200, 251–252
 interview questions about diversity, 347
 spin control for, 198–199
- agency recruiters. See external recruiters
- agents, personal job, 124–125
- aggressive interviews. See pressure interviews
- alcohol for nervousness, avoiding, 477
- All the Tests site, 65
- alliteration (rhetorical device), 454
- allusion (rhetorical device), 454
- ampersands (&) in CVs, 237
- AMS (applicant management systems), 84
- analogies
 presentation pattern, 424
 for relating abstract statistics, 447
 supporting presentation points, 448–449
- analysis. See also hypothetical and analytical interview questions demonstrating in interviews, 257
 position, creating, 165–166
 StandOut words for, 189
 SWOT, for future work, 25
- anecdotes. See stories or anecdotes
- anger customer service skills, 318–319
 interview questions about, 306
- animal, interview question about, 375
- annual reports, keywords from, 196
- Answering Tough Interview Questions For Dummies* (Yeung), 1
- anxiety and resistance. See also nervousness, handling
 in change curve, 57, 58
 interview questions about, 378
- apathy, avoiding at work, 19
- Apex Trust site, 212
- apologising in presentations, avoiding, 437, 482
- applicant management systems (AMS), 84
- applicant tracking systems (ATS), 84
- application forms. See job applications
- appraisals and reviews
 getting more out of, 22–23
 interview questions about, 311–312, 320, 324–325, 409
- aptitude tests, 413
- arrogance, avoiding in interviews, 294
- ASCII plain text CVs. See also e-CVs
 as backup, 103
 disadvantages of, 84
 saving CVs and cover letters in, 103
 as second technological wave, 81
 situations suitable for, 155–156
- assertiveness
 as acquired skill, 46
 defined, 46
 fundamentals of, 46–47
 getting the boss to keep promises, 53–55
 practising at work, 18 rejecting bullying, 49–50
 when the boss is wrong, 55
- assessment centres
 group exercises at, 415–416
 in-tray tests at, 414–415
 overview, 414
 role play simulations at, 416–417
- asset statement (skills summary)
- achievement statements
 using, 232
- achievement statements versus, 232
- advantages and disadvantages, 170–171
 benefits of, 232
 bulleted quick-hits for, 170
 defined, 215, 230
 drafting, 230–233
 examples, 168, 231
 fill-in forms for, 232–233
 focus needed for, 169

- job objectives linked to, 168 job objectives versus, 169
 other terms for, 230
 past achievements revived by, 232 powerful but true statements for, 233
 summary page using, 232
 when to use, 170
 assistant retail manager CV example, 238–239
 asterisks (*) in CVs, 236
 ATS (applicant tracking systems), 84
 attachments to e-mail, etiquette for, 113 attitudes to work as learnable and changeable, 72 motivators and dissatisfiers affecting, 31–32 questions revealing, 11–12
 as your responsibility, 18, 42
 audience of presentations. See also nervousness, handling allowing time to digest numerical data, 446 answering questions at the start, 433–434 cueing about the conclusion, 456 developing bond with, 441 highlighting the benefits of the presentation, 432
 imagining naked, 477
 large crowds, coping with, 481–482 provoking at the start, 440
 putting yourself in their shoes, 430–432 realising how they feel, 476 relating numerical data to, 447
 selecting material for, 422
 showing knowledge of, 441 subgroups, 432
 telling what to do in conclusion, 460 authority, interview questions about response to, 307 awards and honours on CVs, 178
- B •
- background checks, 90–92
 banking, keywords for, 193
 ‘Before I begin. . .’ avoiding saying, 436 behaviour. See also competencies defined, 70 identity versus, 75
 maximising effective, 71–72
 modifying unwanted, 72
 online screening assessment of, 89
 questions to ask about, 71
 behavioural competencies, 175
 being in the moment, 18, 48
 Belbin, Meredith (team type originator), 316 beliefs. See also values defined, 73
 for future work, 26
 impact on life, 73–74
 limiting, questions for challenging, 68–69
 questions to ask about, 74–75
 about work, adjusting, 15, 16
 big picture in interviews, 259–260, 285, 303 bizarre interview questions not sounding rehearsed for, 373 on people you admire, 376–377
 on the animal you would be, 375 on the cartoon character you would be, 375–376 on who you’d want to meet, 377 on your favourite teacher, 374–375 on your greatest fear, 378 requests to sell something, 374 requests to tell a story, 376 blame, avoiding in interviews, 298 blasting your CV, avoiding, 112–113 body language. See also body language in presentations; eye contact in group exercises, 416
 in interviews, 267, 268–269, 299
 body language in presentations appearing calm, 480 cultural differences, 465–466
 entering the stage, 468–469
 exiting the stage, 469–470
 eye contact, 466–468

- body language in presentations (continued) facial expressions, 462 gestures, 463–465
 mistakes to avoid, 463, 465
 moving around, 470–471
 podium use, 471–472 posture, 462–463
 power position, 471
- bold text in this book, explained, 2
- Bolitho, William (journalist), 216
- Bolles, Richard Nelson (What Colour is Your Parachute?), 20
- boredom, avoiding at work, 19
- boss. See also managerial jobs dream work, 19–20
 feedback from, 22–23, 53
 interview questions about, 307, 311, 330–331, 382–383
 shielding your job search from, 114–115, 116 telling when wrong, 55
 unfulfilled promises from, 53–55
- branches, visiting before interviews, 261, 336
- breathing techniques, 272–273, 479
- Bright Future* section in CVs, 202
- British History Online site, 440
- broadcast direct letters, 119, 159
- Building Self-Confidence For Dummies* (Burton and Platts), 1
- bullets in CVs, 236
- bullying, 48–50
- Burton, Kate
Building Self-Confidence For Dummies, 1
Neuro-Linguistic Programming For Dummies, 1, 295
- business directories, job leads from, 100
- C •
- candidate specification, position analysis using, 165–166
- capabilities. See also skills, StandOut words
 defined, 72
 interview questions about yours, 364
 as learnable, 72–73
 online screening assessment of, 88
 questions to ask about, 73
- CAR (Challenges, Actions, and Result), 292, 302
- career. See also work career changer CV example, 250
 deciding on, Web sites for help with, 65
 defined, 9
 interview questions about changing, 366–373
 interview questions about yours, 321–328
 work versus, 9
 worksheets for rethinking direction of, 220
- Career Key site, 65
- career portals, 94, 107–110, 115, 196
- caring professions, StandOut words for, 189–190
- CAROL site, 164
- Cartesian logic, 67
- cartoon character, interview question about, 375–376
- Cartwright, Alastair (recruitment consultancy director), 86–87
- cause/effect presentation pattern, 424
- CEO Express site, 164
- certifications, 119, 171, 178–179
- challenges
 breaking into smaller chunks, 39–40
 CAR acronym for examples, 292
 interview questions about changing current job, 342 interview questions about handling conflict, 319, 403–404
 mentioning as motivation in interviews, 295
 as motivation for job change, 327
- Challenges, Actions, and Result (CAR), 292, 302
- change
 in behaviours, 70–72
 career, getting experience for, 368 career, getting insight for, 372 career, interview questions about, 366–373
 corporate, dealing with, 57–59

- interview questions about response to, 303–304
 for its own sake, 20–21
 making it easy, 69–77
 requirements for, 69
- change curve, 57–58
- Changing Careers For Dummies* (McClelland), 216
- Chartered Management Institute site, 108
- chemist CV example, 240–241
- chemistry, creating in interviews, 256
- children, interview questions about, 383–384
- chronological presentation pattern, 423
- Churchill, Winston (statesman), 183
- clean language for questions, 62–63
- closed interview questions
 on breaking rules to get a job done, 363
 defined, 361
 on doubts about your abilities, 364
 on overqualification, 365
 on paperwork, 362–363
 on regular hours and routine working patterns, 361–362
 on relocation, 365–366
 on taking work home at weekends, 364
 on travelling, 366
- clothing. See dressing
- coaching questions. See question-asking strategies
- Coleridge, Samuel Taylor (poet), 183
- colleagues. See team or colleagues, interview questions about; teamworking
- college, job leads from, 101
- commitment
 in change curve, 57, 58
 demonstrating in interviews, 256
 interview questions about, 370–371, 373
 in three C's of interviews, 255–256
- communication. See also interviews; presentations
 appraisals and reviews, 22–23
 assertive, 18, 46–47
 about bullying, 49–50
 clean language for questions, 62–63
 demonstrating in interviews, 256–257
 feedback, 22–24, 51–53, 405–406
 getting the boss to keep promises, 53–55
 interview questions about people skills, 315–320, 404–407 making positive statements, 64
 in meetings, 47–48
 pausing to think before speaking, 63
 preparing questions for interviews, 281–287 saying when the boss is wrong, 55
 StandOut words for, 185
- companies. See also organisational culture
 e-mail monitoring by, 116
 employee message boards at, 165 interview questions about the employer, 335–341, 384–385 interview questions about your current company, 328–333
 keywords from annual reports, 196
 research needed for, 163–164
 researching before interviews, 260–261, 335–337
 resources for researching, 164–165
 tailoring interview questions to, 283, 284
 tailoring your CV to, 163–165
 visiting premises before interviews, 261, 336
- company policies dealing with corporate change, 57–59 interview questions about response to change, 303–304
- company talent pool programmes, 123
- company Web career portals, 94, 107–110, 115, 196
- competencies. See also competency-based interviewing; skills; StandOut words accomplishments of most interest to employers, 173

- competencies (continued)
- behavioural, 175
 - competency-based CVs, 175–177
 - competency-based recruiting model, 174–177
 - core, 174, 177
 - defined, 393
 - demonstrating in interviews, 256
 - functional listings versus, 177
 - interview questions about yours, 364
 - keyword profiles versus, 177
 - skills versus, 174
 - technical, 175
 - in three C's of interviews, 255–256
 - varying definitions of, 174
- competency-based interviewing
- at assessment centres, 414–417
 - basic advice for, 393–394
 - defined, 393
 - identifying competency-based questions, 394
 - on leading and managing, 402–404
 - likely questions, 397–398
 - on people and customer skills, 404–407
 - on personal effectiveness, 408–410
 - skilled, handling, 394–396
 - on thinking and planning skills, 399–402
 - unskilled, handling, 396–397
 - using adverts to prepare for, 397–398
- competitors, interview questions about, 339
- Completer Finisher team type, 316
- conclusion of presentations
- announcing availability for questions, 457
 - asking a question, 459
 - asking for help, 460
 - cueing the audience, 456
 - length of, 457
 - making obvious, 456
 - making strong, 458–460
 - memorable last words, 457
 - mistakes to avoid, 458
 - poem for, 460
 - quotations for, 459
 - referring to the opening, 459
 - telling a story, 459
 - telling the audience what to do, 450
 - writing out, 457, 480–481
- conferences, keywords from programs, 196
- confidence
- becoming assertive, 46–47
 - with boss, 50–55
 - breaking tasks into smaller chunks for, 39–40
 - during corporate change, 57–59
 - dreams as key to, 46
 - finding value in your work, 45–46
 - getting recognition, 56–57
 - getting the boss to keep promises, 53–55
 - in interviews, 276–277, 294, 299
 - in meetings, 47–48
 - in presentations, 482
 - in professional life, developing, 42–46
 - rejecting manipulation and bullying, 48–50
 - saying when the boss is wrong, 55
 - signs in the workplace, 41
 - trust as key to, 55
 - turning negative feedback around, 53
 - as your responsibility, 42
- conflict, interview questions about handling, 319, 403–406
- contact information
- in CV header or footer, avoiding, 113
 - figuring out e-mail addresses for contacts, 105
 - privacy protection, 118
 - recommendations for CVs, 167–168
- contents of CVs. See CV contents
- contingency recruiters, 83
- contract work, 203
- Co-ordinator team type, 316
- corporate career portals, 94, 107–110, 115, 196
- Corporate Information site, 164
- corporate recruiters, 83
- cover letters
- asset statements for, 215
 - company letterhead for, 168
 - explaining gaps in your record, 210
 - further information, 103

- for international
 - curriculum vitae, 154
 - saving in useful formats, 103
- Cover Letters For Dummies* (Wiley), 103
- creativity, StandOut words for, 185
- credit history, 91, 92
- criminal record, 91, 181, 212
- Criminal Record Bureau (CRB) Disclosure service, 91, 181
- cultural differences in body language, 465–466
- culture, organisational
 - culture-relevant behavioural competencies, 175
- interview questions
 - about, 309
 - questions to ask at interviews, 286
- current job
 - assessing attitudes, 10–12
 - conscious choice regarding, 13
 - dealing with negative situations, 19
 - evaluating, 13–15
 - improving, 16–19
 - interview questions
 - about, 322–325, 342
 - making adjustments, 15–16
 - making the best of, 17–18
 - New Job Worksheet, 217–219
 - promoting yourself at, 24
- customer service
 - interview questions about skills, 318–319, 406–407
 - keywords for, 194
- CV contents
 - activities, 177
 - asset statement (skills summary), 168–171, 230–233
 - basic purpose of CV, 161–162
 - competencies statements, 174–177
 - contact information, 167–168
 - education and training, 171–172
 - essential parts, 166–167
 - experience, 172
 - focus needed for, 169
 - honours and awards, 178
 - job objectives statement, 168–170
 - licenses, 178–179
 - organisations, 178
 - references, 180–182
 - salary history and requirements, 179
 - samples of your work, 178–179
 - skills, 172–174
 - tailoring to company and position, 162–166
 - top accomplishments of interest to employers, 173
- CV examples. See also templates
 - assistant retail manager, 238–239
 - career changer, 250
 - chemist, 240–241
 - financial executive, 246
 - gap in history, 249
 - health club manager, 242–243
 - non-profit manager, 244
 - nuclear engineer, 247–248
 - re-entering the workplace, 205
 - seasoned ace, 251–252
 - speech-language pathologist, 245
- CV formats. See also templates; specific formats
 - academic curriculum vitae, 128, 147–151
 - accomplishment, 127, 136–139
 - ASCII plain text, 81, 84, 103, 155–156
 - choosing, 159
 - competency-based, 175–177
 - defined, 127
 - e-CV, 154–157
 - for executive recruiters, 138
 - functional, 127, 132–134
 - hybrid, 127, 134–136
 - international curriculum vitae, 128, 151–154
 - keyword, 128, 145–147
 - lazy approach, avoiding, 141
 - linear, 127, 141–143
 - portfolios, 158–159
 - professional, 128, 143–145
 - reverse chronological, 127, 129–132
 - situations suitable for, 128
 - targeted, 127, 139–141
- CVs. See also marketing your CV; online screening
 - activities on, 177
 - ASCII plain text, 81, 84, 103, 155–156

- CVs (continued)
- asking if received,
 - avoiding, 120
 - asset statement (skills summary) on, 168–171, 230–233
 - avoiding ageism, 198–199, 200, 203
 - back-up self-marketing content for, 103
 - Bright Future* section in, 202
 - checking before sending, 102
 - company e-mail address or letterhead for, 168
 - competencies statements on, 174–177
 - contact information, 113, 167–168
 - with degree lacking, CV letters versus, 120
 - direct letters as
 - alternative to, 159
 - for disabled workers, 208–209
 - drafting several versions, 102
 - e-CVs, 154–157
 - education and training on, 171–172
 - e-mail attachment etiquette, 113
 - e-mail networking newsletters supplementing, 159
 - e-mail versus post, 120–121
 - essential parts, 166–167
 - experience issues, 197–203
 - experience on, 172
 - focus needed for, 169
 - following-up, 120, 125–126
 - formatted e-CVs, emergence of, 81, 85–86
 - gaps in your record, 210–212, 249
 - glut online overloading recruiters, 82–84
 - honours and awards on, 178
 - identity theft issues, 91, 116–119
 - inaccuracies and falsehoods in, 211
 - for interviews, 265
 - job objectives statement on, 168–170
 - job title never changed, dealing with, 201
 - keywords from, 196
 - lazy approach, avoiding, 141, 233–234
 - legal issues for, 102
 - licenses on, 178–179
 - marketing, 99–105
 - need for, 97
 - omitting inappropriate data, 198, 208–211, 213
 - organisations on, 178
 - overqualification issues, 198–201, 203
 - paper, 96, 110, 111, 168, 234–236
 - posting versus blasting, 112–114
 - privacy protection techniques, 117–119
 - purpose of, 161–162
 - recruitment trends affecting, 93–96
 - for re-entering the workplace, 203–208
 - references on, 180–182
 - research needed for, 141, 163–164
 - rewriting, 233–234
 - salary history and requirements on, 179
 - as sales tool, 162
 - samples of your work with, 178–179
 - saving in useful formats, 103
 - scannable, 81, 84–85
 - scraping, 115–116
 - sending to the right places, 105–111
 - skills on, 172–174
 - software packages list on, 305
 - StandOut words for, 183–196
 - tailoring to company and position, 162–166
 - targeted e-mail campaigns, 119–122
 - targeting your job market, 100
 - technological waves for, 81
 - for too much experience in one job, 199, 201–203
 - for two occupations in same database, 101
 - Web portals for submission, 84–85
 - worksheets for, detailed, 216–226
 - worksheets for, summary, 227–229
- CVs For Dummies* (Shipside and Kennedy), 1
- D •
- daily checkpoint questions, 77
 - dashes (–) in CVs, 236
 - Data Protection and employment legislation, 92

- day-to-day nature of work questions for interviewers, 283
 questions from interviewers, 322
- decisions
 career, Web sites for help
 with, 65
 ecology check for, 67
 interview questions about decision-making skills, 399–402
 questions for help making, 66–67
- definitions in presentations, 448
- denial or shock in change
 curve, 57, 58
- Department of Trade and Industry site, 92
- design structure of paper
 CVs, 236
- detail, interview questions
 about capabilities for, 303
- detailed worksheets. See
 worksheets for CVs,
 detailed
- determination, demonstrating in
 interviews, 258
- development. See also advancement or promotion; education and training
 as motivation for job
 change, 327
 interview questions
 about, 409–410
 of team member,
 interview question
 about, 403
 quick, demonstrating in interviews, 259
- diaphragm, breathing through, 272–273
- dilemmas
 ageism, 198–200, 203
 disabled workers, 208–209
 gaps in your record, 210–212, 249
 job title never changed, 201 omitting inappropriate
 data, 198, 208–211, 213
 overqualification, 198–201, 203
 re-entering the workplace, 203–208
 resources for solving, 211–212
 too much experience in one job, 199, 201–203
- diplomacy, interview
 questions about, 319
- direct letters, 119, 159
- Disability Discrimination Act, 209
- Disability Rights Commission (DRC), 209
- disabled workers, 208–209
- disappointment, interview
 questions about handling, 307–308
- discovery documents for CVs. See also specific kinds asset statements, 230–233
 detailed worksheets, 216–226
 summary worksheets, 227–229
- discrimination
 ageism, 198–200, 203
 disabled workers, 208–209
 gender bias, 203–204, 208
 interview questions about
 diversity, 347
 discussion groups online, 198–199
 dislikes at job, interview
 questions about, 324
 dissatisfiers, Herzberg's theory of, 31–32 diversity. See
 discrimination
 divide a quote presentation
 pattern, 424
 divide a word presentation
 pattern, 424
 doubts, interview questions about yours, 364 DRC (Disability Rights Commission), 209
 dream job folder, 20 dressing
 for interviews, 274–275, 278–279
 scouting the situation, 274
 for video conferencing
 interviews, 413
 drive. See motivation
 drugs for nervousness,
 avoiding, 477
- E •
- earnings. See salary ecology check for
 decisions, 67
 e-CVs. See also ASCII plain text CVs; CVs emergence of, 81, 85–86, 155 instructions for creating, 157
 knowing when ASCII
 format is needed,
 155–156

- e-CVs (continued)
 - questions to ask before submitting, 155
 - as third wave of technology, 81
- education and training. See also development; keywords; StandOut words
- CV letters without a degree, 120
- experience versus, 172
- interview questions
 - about, 325–326
- listing on CVs, 171
- as motivation for job change, 327
- privacy protection issues, 117–118
- questions for interviews
 - on possibilities for, 285
- training information
 - online, 21
 - worksheet for, 221
- egotism, avoiding in interviews, 294
- Ekman, Paul (researcher), 265
- The Elephant and the Flea* (Handy), 77
- e-mail
 - alias for true name, 117
 - attachment etiquette, 113
 - company address on CVs, 168
 - company monitoring of, 116
 - figuring out addresses for contacts, 105
 - for follow-up, telephone versus, 125–126
 - free accounts, 101, 118
 - for interview follow-up letters, 287
 - networking newsletters supplementing CVs, 159
 - preferred delivery mode for CVs, 111
 - privacy protection, 117–118
 - targeted CV campaigns, 119–122
- Employability Skills Worksheet, 226
- employee message boards, 165
- employee referral programmes (ERPs), 94, 96, 122–123
- employer. See boss
- employment history. See also experience; keywords
 - in academic curriculum vitae format, 151
 - avoiding ageism, 198–200, 203
 - dividing a job into modules, 199
 - explaining why you left your jobs, 213, 217
 - in functional CV format, 132
 - gaps in your record, 210–212, 249
 - in hybrid CV format, 134, 136
 - inaccuracies and falsehoods in, 211
 - interview questions about, 367–368
 - job title never changed, dealing with, 201
 - in keyword CV format, 146
 - in linear CV format, 143
 - memorising before interviews, 321
 - omitting inappropriate data, 198, 210, 211, 213
- Paid Work Worksheet, 222–223
- privacy protection issues, 118
- in professional CV format, 145
- re-entering the workplace, 203–208
- references from employers, 90–91, 180–182, 288–289, 332–333
- in reverse chronological CV format, 127, 129, 131
- too long in one job, 199, 201–203
- Unpaid Work Worksheet, 224
- employment sites. See job sites
- environment of work
 - adjusting, 15, 16
 - defined, 70
 - good, interview request to define, 387–388
 - questions to ask about, 70
- Equifax credit bureau, 91, 92
- ERPs (employee referral programmes), 94, 96, 122–123
- esteem, in Maslow's hierarchy of needs, 29, 30
- ethics, interview questions about, 382, 385
- Europages site, 165
- EXE files, avoiding as e-mail attachments, 113

- executive search consultants. See
 external recruiters
- Executives Direct talent pool, 123
- Experian credit bureau, 91, 92
- experience. See also employment history;
 keywords; StandOut words
 avoiding ageism, 198–200, 203
 contract work for countering too much, 203 describing on CVs, 172 education versus, 172 getting when changing careers, 368
 interview questions
 about, 292–293
 pejorative status of, 197
 as predictor of job success, 393
 seasoned ace CV
 examples, 251–252
 too much in one job, 199, 201–203
 experimenting in change
 curve, 57, 58
 extended metaphor or analogy presentation
 pattern, 424
 eXtensible Markup Language (XML), 95
 external recruiters
 defined, 83
 executive, CV formats for, 138
 job leads from, 100
 other terms for, 83
 protecting your identity
 for, 104, 116
 retained versus contingency, 83
 eye contact
 in one-on-one interviews, 268 in panel interviews, 411
 in presentations, 466–468
 during question and answer sessions, 491
- F •
- Facebook site, 100
 facial expressions. See body language; body language in presentations
- failures and faults
 interview questions about mistakes, 401–402
 interview questions about
 projects, 400
 interview questions about your boss's, 330–331
 interview questions about yours, 297–298, 312, 314, 408
 faxing CVs, as last resort, 111
 feedback
 examples, ineffective and effective, 51–52
 getting more out of, 22–23
 giving effective, 52–53 negative, interview questions about giving, 405–406
 negative, turning around, 53
 for self-employed people, 23–24
 financial management CV example, 246
 StandOut words for,
 190–191
Financial Times (FT), 100, 165, 335, 446
 first impression in interviews, 275–279
 flexibility demonstrating in interviews, 259, 263, 319
 interview questions about,
 303–304, 361–364,
 386, 397
 following-up
 asking if CV was received,
 avoiding, 125
 e-mail versus telephone
 for, 125–126
 frequency for calls, 126
 interviews with letters, 287–288
 interviews with positive references, 288–289
 on targeted e-mail campaigns, 120
 voicemail for, 126
 fonts for paper CVs, 235–236
 formatted e-CVs. See e-CVs forums online, 198–199 Frankl, Viktor (Man's Search for Meaning), 76
 free e-mail accounts, 101, 118 freedom in work, adjusting, 15, 16
 friends, interview questions about how yours see you, 313–314
 Friends Reunited, 100

FT (Financial Times), 100, 165, 335, 446
functional CV format
 competency-based CV
 format versus, 177
described, 127, 132
hybrid format similar to, 136 instructions for creating, 134 situations not suitable for, 134 situations suitable for, 128, 134
strengths and weaknesses, 132, 134
template, 133

• G •

gaps in your record, 210–211, 212, 249
gardening leave, 332
gender bias. See also
 discrimination
 interview questions about
 diversity, 347
 women re-entering the workplace, 203–204, 208 gestures in presentations, 463–465
ghostwriter, keeping invisible, 437
goals
 asking what they will do for you, 66
 challenging limiting beliefs, 68–69
 change for its own sake, 20–21
 expanding horizons, 21

figuring out what you
 really want, 64–66
increasing challenge, 21
interview questions about failing to achieve, 408 job objectives, creating, 56–57
for job search, 20–21
organisation's, mentioning as motivation in interviews, 295
 setting for your current job, 17
Google Groups, 199
gossip, negative energy of, 19 Grant, James P. (UNICEF Executive Director) 440 greeting interviewees, 269, 279
grooming. See dressing Grossman, Loyd
 (presenter), 328–329
group exercises at
 assessment centres, 415–416

• H •

haircut for interviews, 276
Handy, Charles
 The Elephant and the Flea, 77
 The New Alchemists, 77 Handy, Elizabeth (The New Alchemists), 77
head-hunters. See external recruiters
health club manager CV example, 242–243

help, asking for when concluding presentation, 460
helping professions, StandOut words for, 189–190
Helvetica typeface, 235, 236
Heriot-Watt University Careers Service site, 164 Herzberg, Frederick (psychologist), 31–32 hierarchy of needs model (Maslow), 28–30
highlights statement. See asset statement (skills
 summary)
historical events, as presentation opening, 439–440
History Channel Web site, 440 history, job. See
 employment history
hi-tech interviews, 412–413
hobbies. See activities
Hobbies/Activities-to-Skills
 Worksheet, 225
homemaker skills, 204, 206–207
honours and awards on CVs, 178
Hoover's Online, 100, 165
Hotmail free e-mail accounts, 101, 118
HTML (HyperText Markup Language), 95
human capital marketplace, 95. See also job market human networking. See networking
human resources,
 keywords for, 195

- humour
 breaking the ice, 437
 caution for using in interviews, 310
 odd, cautions for, 437 offensive, avoiding, 436
 one-liners on
 presentations, 429
 in presentations, adjusting timing for, 428
 in pressure interviews,
 avoiding, 356
- hybrid CV format
 described, 127, 134
 functional format similar to, 136
 instructions for creating, 136 situations not suitable for, 136 situations suitable for, 128, 136
 strengths and
 weaknesses, 136
 template, 135
- hyperbole (rhetorical device), 453
- HyperText Markup
 Language (HTML), 95
- hypothetical and analytical
 interview questions
 on being a big fish in a small pond or vice versa, 384–385
 on being asked to go against your principles, 382 on colleague coming to you in tears, 385–386
 on defining key concepts, 387–388
 on disagreement with managerial decisions, 383
- on immediate job offer, 386–387
 numerical challenges, 388–392
 reason for, 381
 on sudden illness in your child, 383–384 telling interviewers what they want to hear, 382 on unethical actions by a colleague, 385
 on working weekends, 386
 ‘would’ in, 382
- 1 •
- identity
 attached to work, 10, 42, 43 behaviour versus, 75
 defined, 75
 diagramming your job in broad context, 42–43 professional, defining for yourself, 42–43
 protecting for external recruiters, 104, 116
 questions to ask about, 76
 theft of, 91, 116–119
- Implementer team type, 316
- inaccuracies in CVs, 211
- independent recruiters. See
 external recruiters
- industry
 finding keywords for, 196
 interview questions about desire to work in, 342–343
- inflection in interviews, 270–271
- information technology,
 keywords for, 194
- in-house recruiters, 83
- innovation, interview
 questions about,
 302–303
- interests. See activities
- internal dialogue about
 presentations, 477–478
- internal recruiters, 83
- internal summaries in presentations, 450, 451–452
- international curriculum vitae format
 ACV format versus, 151
 cover letter for, 154
 described, 128, 151
 instructions for creating, 154
 length of, 151
 privacy issues, 151, 154
 situations not suitable for, 154 situations suitable for, 128, 154
 strengths and
 weaknesses, 151
 template, 152–153
- international differences in body language, 465–466
- Internet resources. See
 online resources
- interviewers’ questions.
See also interviews;
specific kinds of questions
 on absentee/sickness, 300
 on achievements, 296–297, 357–358
 on approaching referees, 332–333
 on attraction to the company, 338–339, 384–385
 on basic job skills, 299–306

- interviewers' questions
 - (continued)*
 - on being a big fish in a small pond or vice versa, 384–385
 - on being asked to go against your principles, 382
 - bizarre or strange, 373–378, 380
 - on breaking rules to get a job done, 363
 - on career changes, 366–373
 - closed, 361–366
 - on colleague coming to you in tears, 385–386
 - on colleagues' views of you, 312–313
 - on commitment, 370–371, 373
 - common, preparing answers to, 261–264
 - on common worries of employers, 306–310
 - on company competitors, 339
 - on the company you are interviewing for, 335–341
 - on the company's Unique Selling Point, 340
 - on comparing this job with others, 344
 - on comparing yourself to other candidates, 358–361
 - competency-based, 393–410
 - on concerns about the company, 340–341
 - on creativity or innovation, 302–303
 - on current and previous work, 321–331, 367–368, 369
 - on customer service skills, 318–319, 406–407
 - on day-to-day nature of current job, 322
 - on dealing with disappointment, 307–308
 - on decision-making skills, 399–402
 - on defining key concepts, 387–388
 - on desire to work in the industry, 342–343
 - on detail-oriented work, 303
 - on disagreement with managerial decisions, 383
 - on dislikes at current job, 324
 - on diversity, 347
 - on doubts about your abilities, 364
 - on dream job, 345
 - on duration of employment sought, 348
 - on employment history, 367–368
 - on failure and mistakes, 297–298, 400–402, 408
 - on faults of yours, as seen by others, 314
 - on friends' views of you, 313–314
 - on future expectations, 349, 353
 - on getting your last job, 322–323
 - on handling conflict, 319
 - handling questions you don't have an answer for, 378–379
 - hypothetical and analytical, 381–392
 - on ideal employer, 346
 - on immediate job offer, 386–387
 - on kind of manager you'd prefer, 348
 - on knowledge of the company, 336–339
 - on knowledge of the position, 337
 - leading, 356–361
 - on leaving previous employers, 326–327
 - on leaving your current company, 331, 341–342
 - on lessons learned at previous jobs, 325–326
 - on likes at current job, 323
 - on losing your temper, 306
 - on making your current job more challenging, 342
 - on managerial skills, 327–328, 402–404
 - on managing the company differently, 341
 - on money's importance to you, 351
 - on motivation, 295–296
 - on not being the best candidate, 358–359
 - on notice period for your job, 331–332, 349
 - numerical challenges, 388–392
 - on organisational culture, 309, 348
 - on organisational skills, 301, 399–402

- on other job applications, 343–344
- on other job offers, 344–345
- on others' views of you, 311–314
- on overqualification, 365
- on paperwork, 362–363
- on passion, 296
- on people skills, 315–320, 404–407
- on performance, 311–312
- on performance measures at current job, 324–325
- on personal effectiveness, 408–410
- on personality defects, 357
- on planning skills, 399–402
- pop psychology questions, 373–378
- on presentation skills, 317–318
- on products/services/ company Web site, 338
- on rating the interviewer, 359–360
- on rating yourself, 305–306
- on reasons to hire you, 299, 349
- on regrets, 298
- on regular hours and routine working patterns, 361–362
- on reliability, 299–300
- on relocation, 365–366
- on responding to change, 303–304
- on response to authority, 307
- on risk-taking, 308–309
- on salary, 350–353, 372–373
- on self-development, 409–410
- on skills learned at previous jobs, 325–326
- on software packages you're familiar with, 305
- on starting at the bottom, 371–372, 384–385
- on strengths of yours, 293–294
- on stress and pressure at work, 302, 308
- on sudden illness in your child, 383–384
- on tact and diplomacy, 319
- on taking personal criticism, 320, 409
- on team member's views of you, 313
- on teamworking, 312–313, 315–317, 346–347, 402–404
- on technological abilities, 304
- ten most popular, 291–299
- on time management skills, 300–301
- on travelling, 366
- two-to-one rule for answers, 329, 338
- on unethical actions by a colleague, 385
- on weaknesses of yours, 294–295
- on what keeps you up at night, 360
- on what you're looking for, 341–346
- on why you're better than other candidates, 360–361
- on working weekends, 364, 386
- on your boss's view of you, 311
- on your current boss, 330–331
- on your current company, 328–333
- on your current earnings, 350–351
- on your fit with the organisation, 346–349
- on your Unique Selling Point, 310
- on yourself in general, 291–299, 309–310
- interviews. See also interviewers' questions; pressure interviews
 - active listening in, 268
 - appearance important for, 275–279
 - aptitude tests, 413
 - arrogance in, avoiding, 294
 - at assessment centres, 414–417
 - being oneself versus acting in, 268
 - body language in, 267–269, 299
 - building rapport in, 271, 272
 - competency-based, 393–410
 - confident appearance in, 276–277
 - CVs for, 265
 - dressng for, 274–275, 278–279
 - eye contact in, 268
 - first impressions, 275–279

- interviews (continued)
- follow-up letters, 287–288
 - greeting the interviewers, 269, 279
 - grooming for, 277–278
 - haircut for, 276
 - hi-tech, 412–413
 - humour in, cautions for, 310, 356
 - intonation and inflection in, 270–271
 - keeping answers relevant to work, 292, 296, 297
 - key skills and qualities looked for, 256–260
 - linking your skills to adverts, 262–264, 293, 299, 323
 - lying, avoiding, 311, 342, 345, 346
 - lying, signs of, 265
 - panel, 411–412
 - personality questionnaires, 413, 414
 - points to explain in examples, 292
 - for position turning around the business, 229
 - positive references as follow-up, 288–289
 - practising for, 271
 - preparation during days before, 264–265
 - preparing questions for, 281–287
 - providing examples to justify claims, 291–292
 - psychometric tests, 413–414
 - research companies before, 260–261
 - shopping for clothing for, 278–279
 - smiling in, 269–270
 - speaking with confidence in, 271–273, 294, 299
 - tape recording yourself as practise, 271, 272
 - telephone, 412
 - three C's of, 255–256
 - three P's of, 271
 - two-to-one rule for answers, 329, 338
 - video conferencing, 412–413
 - vocal mistakes to avoid, 270
- intonation in interviews, 270–271
- in-tray tests, 414–415
- introduction to presentations
- answering audience questions, 433–434
 - breaking the ice, 437
 - developing bond with the audience, 441
 - editing, 435
 - emphasising the subject's importance, 441
 - event on the same date in, 440
 - greetings and acknowledgements, 434, 436
 - historical event in, 439–440
 - including necessary background, 434
 - length of, 434
 - making strong, 435
 - mistakes to avoid, 435–437
 - presentation title in, 440
 - provoking the audience, 440
 - quotations for, 438
 - referring to the occasion, 442
 - relating your presentation to previous ones, 442
 - rhetorical questions for, 438
 - show biz formula for, 435
 - showing knowledge of audience, 441
 - starting remarks, 437–442
 - startling facts in, 439
 - statistics in, 438–439
 - stories or anecdotes in, 435, 438
 - writing last, 435
 - writing out, 435, 480–481
- italics in this book, explained, 2

- job. See career; work
- job agents, personal, 124–125
- job applications. See also online screening guidelines for filling out, 181
- interview questions
 - about, 343–344
 - requests during online screening, 93
- job boards. See job sites
- Job Choices* magazine, 169
- job descriptions. See also job objectives
- identifying competency-based questions from, 397–398
- keywords from, 195
- linking to your skills in interviews, 262–264, 293, 299, 323

- memorising before
interviews, 337
- position analysis using,
166
- vague, glut of responses
to, 82–83
- job history. See
employment history
- job market
changed by knowledge revolution, 161
- targeting, 100
- volatility of, 95–96
- job objectives. See also job descriptions
- advantages and disadvantages, 169–170
- focus needed for, 169
- interview questions
about, 324–325
- setting for yourself, 56–57
- skills summary versus, 169
- statement on CVs, 168–170
- when to use, 169
- job offers during interview, 386–387
- interview questions about others, 344–345
- job share positions, questions to ask
about, 282
- job sites
advantages of, 106
- big general sites,
94, 105–106
- bookmarking, 102
- CV life cycle on, 115
- CV scraping on, 115–116
- disadvantages of, 105–106, 114–116
- getting a name before sending your CV, 105
- job leads from, 100
- shielding your job search
from your employer, 114–115, 116
- specialist sites, 106–107
- job targets. See job
objectives
- job title never changed, dealing with, 201
- privacy protection issues, 118
- job-relevant behavioural competencies, 175
- Joyce, Susan (Job-Hunt.org CEO), 116
- K •
- Keirse Character/
Temperament
Sorter tests
online, 65
- Kellysearch site, 165
- Kennedy, John F.
(president), 183
- Kennedy, Joyce Lain (CVs
For Dummies), 1
- keyword CV format. See
also keywords
- career changer example, 250
- competency-based CV
format versus, 177
- described, 128, 145–146
- instructions for creating, 146–147
- number of keywords to use, 147
- seasoned ace example, 252
- situations not suitable for, 146
- situations suitable for, 128, 146
- strengths and
weaknesses, 146
- template, 148
- keyword summary. See asset statement (skills
summary)
- keywords. See also StandOut words
- action verbs for, 192
- for administration and management, 193
- for banking, 193
- for customer service, 194
- CV format, 128, 145–147
- to demonstrate essential skills, 183
- for human resources, 195
- for information technology, 194
- job computer preferences, 192
- for manufacturing, 194–195
- number per CV, 147
- resources for finding,
195–196
- for soft skills versus hard
skills, 192
- tips for using, 184
- varieties of, 192
- Kimeldorf, Martin (educator), 159
- King, Martin Luther (civil rights activist), 183
- Kline, Nancy (Time to Think), 63

knowledge, online screening assessment of, 88 knowledge revolution, 161
 Kushner, Malcolm (Public Speaking and Presentations For Dummies), 1

• L •

language. See StandOut words language for questions, cleaning up, 62–63 leadership, interview request to define, 388 leading interview questions
 on not being the best candidate, 358–359
 on personality defects, 357
 on poor achievement, 357–358
 on rating the interviewer, 359–360
 staying likeable and human, 357
 on what keeps you up at night, 360
 on why you're better than other candidates, 360–361
 leaving your job
 gardening leave, 332
 interview questions about, 326–327, 331–332, 341–342
 notice period for, 331–332, 349
 legal issues. See also discrimination for background checks, 92 for CVs, 102

for disabled workers, 208–209
 for job applications, 181 for references from employers, 90–91, 180, 182 Lennon, John (songwriter), 183 letters as interview follow-up, 287–288 letters, cover. See cover letters
 licenses
 on CVs, 178–179
 privacy protection issues, 119
Life Coaching For Dummies (Mumford), 1 likes at job, interview questions about, 323 limiting beliefs, challenging, 68–69
 linear CV format
 described, 127, 141
 financial executive example, 246
 instructions for creating, 143
 seasoned ace examples, 251–252
 situations not suitable for, 143
 situations suitable for, 128, 143
 strengths and weaknesses, 143
 template, 142
 location of interview, knowing, 264 interview questions about relocating, 365–366 online screening for relocation willingness, 87

love
 in Maslow's hierarchy of needs, 29, 30 about working, discovering, 44 lying avoiding in interviews, 311, 342, 345, 346
 falsehoods in CVs, 211
 interview questions about, 319
 signs of, 265

• M • management style, 32–33 manager. See boss managerial jobs

 assistant retail manager CV example, 238–239
 financial, 190–191, 246
 health club manager CV example, 242–243
 interview questions about skills, 327–328, 402–404
 interview request to define leadership, 388
 keywords for, 193
 linking your skills to adverts for, 262
 non-profit manager CV example, 244 online screening assessment of capabilities, 88–89
 questions to ask at interviews, 282
 re-entering the workplace, 204, 206
 StandOut words for, 184–185, 190–191
 manipulation or bullying, 48–50

- Man's Search for Meaning* (Frankl), 76
- manufacturing, keywords for, 194–195
- marketing executive, linking your skills to adverts for, 263–264
- marketing summary. See asset statement (skills summary)
- marketing your CV
- corporate sites for, 107–109
 - delivery mode choices, 111
 - determining your online CV strategy, 104
 - drafting back-up self-marketing CV content, 103
 - drafting cover letters and cover notes, 103
 - drafting your CV(s), 102
 - evaluating online job search troubles, 110–111
 - getting a name and e-mail address, 105
 - job site pros and cons for, 105–106
 - making master list of job leads, 100–101
 - paper CVs for, 111
 - posting versus blasting, 112–114
 - reviewing submission technology, 103
 - saving your CVs and cover letters in useful formats, 103
 - sending to the right places, 105–111
 - specialist sites for, 106–107
 - steps for, 99–100
 - taking care of house-keeping chores, 101–102
 - targeted e-mail campaigns, 119–122
 - targeting your job market, 100
 - time to try again, 115
 - tips for choosing sites, 112
 - tracking your progress, 104–105
- Maslow, Abraham (psychologist), 28–30
- McClelland, Carol L. (Changing Careers For Dummies), 216
- McGregor, Douglas (management theorist), 32–33
- medical records, online screening for, 31
- meetings, power and presence in, 47–48
- Mehler, Mark (CareerXroads consultant), 116
- memberships, privacy protection issues, 119
- metaphor
- presentation pattern, 424
 - rhetorical device, 454
- mistakes at work. See failures and faults
- mistakes to avoid
- in presentation body language, 463, 465
 - in presentation conclusion, 458
 - in presentation introduction, 435–437
 - in presentation transitions, 452–453
- vocal, during interviews, 270
- money. See salary
- Monitor Evaluator team type, 316
- monofont type in this book, explained, 2
- monotonous voice, avoiding in interviews, 270
- motivation
- achievement important to, 36
 - demonstrating in interviews, 258
 - focusing on, 18
 - for future work, 26
 - Herzberg's motivators and dissatisfiers theory, 31–32
 - inspiring a team, interview question about, 402
 - interview questions about yours, 295–296, 408–410
 - Maslow's hierarchy of needs model, 28–30
 - McGregor's Theory X and Theory Y, 32–33
 - overcoming procrastination, 37–40
 - for promotion, examining, 36–37
 - self-test, 33–36
 - for work, adjusting, 15, 16
- motivators, Herzberg's theory of, 31–32
- moving around during presentations, 470–471
- mumbling, avoiding in interviews, 270
- Mumford, Jeni (Life Coaching For Dummies), 1
- MySpace site, 100

• N •

- name on CVs, 167, 236
- National Insurance (NI)
number, 90, 91, 117
- National Statistics Web site, 439
- needs
Maslow's hierarchy of, 28–30
in work, determining, 44
- negative situations at work
bullying, 48–50
corporate change, 57–59 dealing with, 19
feedback, giving, 52–53
feedback, responding
to, 53
redundancy, 59
rejection, learning from, 58 unfulfilled promises from boss, 53–55
- nervousness, handling anticipating problems, 481 appearing calm, 480 arriving early, 481
changing your perceptions, 475–478
internal dialogue for, 477–478
large crowds, 481–482
not apologising, 482 popular cures that don't work, 477
practising, 482
prevalence of nerves, 475 realising how your audience feels, 476
stress-busting exercises, 479 transforming terror, 478–480
- visualising success, 476–477 writing out your intro and conclusion, 480–481
- networking
defined, 122
demonstrating in interviews, 323
e-mail newsletters
supplementing
CVs, 159
for employee referral
programmes, 122–123
interview questions about using in business, 406
for job leads, 101
for talent pool
programmes, 123
as top job-finding technique, 122
usefulness in job search, 22, 96
- Neuro-linguistic Programming For Dummies* (Ready and Burton), 1, 295
- The New Alchemists*
(Handy), 77
- New Job Worksheet, 217–219
- newsgroups online, 198–199
- newsletters, e-mail, supplementing CVs, 159
- newspapers
bringing to interview, 265
job leads from, 100
paper CVs as marketing tools, 111
- NI (National Insurance)
number, 90, 91, 117
- non-profit manager CV
example, 244
- notice period, interview
questions about,
331–332, 349
- nouns. See keywords;
StandOut words
- nuclear engineer CV
example, 247–248
- numerical challenges in interviews, 388–392
- numerical data in presentations, 438–439, 446–447
- numerical lists for presentation
organisation, 425, 451
- Nurrenbrock, Mary (recruiter), 105

• O •

- objective summary. See asset statement (skills
summary)
- objectives. See job
objectives
- occupational career guides,
position analysis using,
166
- Occupational Outlook Handbook* (US Department of Labor), 166
- office support, StandOut words for, 187–188
- online resources. See also
job sites Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service site, 92, 209
for age discrimination issues, 203
Apex Trust, 212
bookmarking, 102

- career decision help, 65 companion site for this book, 20 for company research, 164–165, 260, 261, 335 credit bureau sites, 91, 92
 Criminal Record Bureau disclosure site, 91, 181
 Department of Trade and Industry site, 92 Disability Rights Commission, 209 discussion groups, 198–199
 employee message boards, 165
 Executives Direct talent pool, 123 Financial Times site, 100, 165, 335 free e-mail addresses, 101 guide to, 108
 historical information for presentations, 440 job leads, 100–101
 keywords, 196
 for ‘overqualified’ rejection issues, 203 portfolio examples, 159
 for position research, 165
 quotations, 438
 Reed Internet recruiter, 120
 rights for online screening, 92 salary information, 90 for solving dilemmas, 211–212 statistics, 439
 training information, 21
 WorkingMums site, 207
 online screening advantages and disadvantages, 89
 background checks, 90–92
 common filtering techniques, 88–89
 defined, 88
 Internet searches used for, 87 job application requests, 93
 National Insurance number request during, 90, 91
 overview, 86–88
 practising for, 102
 questions encountered in, 87
 rejection, avoiding, 92 rejection, CVs retained after, 93 rights in background checks, 92 for salary requirements, 87, 90
 as third wave of technology, 81
 organisational culture culture-relevant behavioural competencies, 175
 interview questions about, 309
 questions to ask at interviews, 286
 organisational skills demonstrating in interviews, 259
 interview questions about, 301, 399–402
 organisations, professional on CVs, 178
 job leads from, 101
 outline for presentation, 425–426
 overqualification contract work for countering, 203
 CV examples handling, 200, 251–252
 interview questions about, 365
 spin control for, 198–199, 201
- p •
- Paid Work Worksheet, 222–223
 panel interviews, 411–412 paper CVs company letterhead for, 168 design structure of, 236
 as marketing tools, 111
 as online submission backups, avoiding, 110
 overview, 234–236
 paper stock for, 235 printing, 234
 stapling, avoiding, 236
 typefaces and fonts for, 235–236 typos and spelling errors, avoiding, 236 usefulness of, 96
 white space in, 235
 word-processing software for, 234 paperwork, interview questions about, 362–363
 paralanguage in presentations, 473–474
 part-time positions, questions to ask about, 282 passion role of work. See also motivation; work balance with other roles, 11
 defined, 10
 interview questions about, 296
 questions to reveal attitudes, 11–12

- passive job seekers, 124
- password-protected documents, 113
- patterns for presentation organisation
 - choosing appropriately, 423
 - commonly used, 423–424
 - key rules for, 422–423
 - making obvious, 423
 - numerical lists, 425, 451
- pauses during presentations, 474
- pausing to think before speaking, 63
- pay role of work, 10, 11–12. See also salary; work
- PDF format for e-CVs, 157
- people
 - admired, interview questions about, 374–377, 380
 - role of work, 10, 11–12
 - skills, interview questions about, 315–320, 404–407
- performance
 - appraisals, getting more out of, 22–23
 - interview questions about, 311–312, 324–325, 408–410
- personal criticism, interview questions about handling, 320, 409
- personal growth
 - Maslow's hierarchy of needs model, 28–30
 - as motivator in Herzberg's theory, 32
 - self-development as motivation in interviews, 295
- personal information, sharing too much, 292
- personal job agents, 124–125
- personality
 - defects, interview questions about, 357
 - online screening assessment of, 88
 - questionnaires, 413, 414
- Personality Tests site, 65
- persuasion. See also sales demonstrating in interviews, 257
 - interview questions about, 404–405
 - StandOut words for, 186
- physical location presentation pattern, 424
- physiological needs in Maslow's hierarchy, 28, 30
- Pitt, William, 276
- plain text CVs. See ASCII plain text CVs
- planning abilities demonstrating in interviews, 259
 - interview questions about, 399–402
- Plant team type, 316
- Platts, Brinley (Building Self-Confidence For Dummies), 1
- podium use for presentations, 471–472
- poem concluding presentations, 460
- pop psychology. See bizarre interview questions
- portfolios, 158–159
- positions
 - creating a position analysis, 165–166
 - researching before interviews, 337
 - resources for researching, 166
 - revamp or turning around the business, 229
 - tailoring interview questions to, 282
 - tailoring your CV to, 165–166
- positive statements, making the norm, 64
- postal address on CVs, 167
- posting versus blasting CVs, 112–114
- posture in presentations, 462–463
- power position for presentations, 471
- power summary. See asset statement (skills summary)
- PR Newswire, 100
- practising
 - assertiveness at work, 18
 - for interviews, 271, 272
 - for online screening, 102
 - presentations, 482
- pre-employment screening. See online screening
- pre-screening. See online screening

- presentations. See also audience of presentations; body language in presentations
 breaking the ice, 437
 cards for organising, 428–429 commonly used patterns, 423–424
 conclusion, 456–460
 cutting at the last minute, preparing for, 428
 entering the stage, 468–469
 exiting the stage, 469–470
 eye contact in, 466–468
 ghostwriter for, keeping invisible, 437 highlighting the benefits of, 432 hot topics, 431
 interview questions about skills, 317–318
 introduction, 433–442
 key rules for organising, 422–423
 length of, 427, 458, 482
 making personal experiences universal, 430–431
 mistakes to avoid, 435–437, 452–453, 458
 moving around during, 470–471 names in, getting right, 436
 nervousness, handling, 475–482
 one-liners on, 429
 organising effectively, 428–429 outline creation for, 425–426 paralanguage (voice concerns), 473–474 patterns of organisation for, 422–425 pauses during, 474 podium use for, 471–472
 power position for, 471
 practising, 482
 questions and answers, 457, 482, 483–495 quotations in, 424, 438, 444–445 relating to your audience, 430–432
 reserve material for, 422
 rhetorical devices, 453–456
 selecting material for, 421–422
 stage fright, 475–482
 starting remarks, 437–442
 stories or anecdotes in, 435, 438, 443–444, 459
 supporting points in, 442–445 tell-tell-tell formula for, 421 timing, 426–428
 transitions, 449–453
 volume as tool for, 474 writing out your intro and conclusion, 435, 457, 480–481
- press releases figuring out e-mail addresses for contacts using, 105
 keywords from, 196
- pressure at work. See stress and pressure at work
- pressure interviews. See also specific kinds of questions bizarre or strange questions in, 373–378, 380 closed questions in, 361–366
 flippant responses, avoiding, 356
 handling questions you don't have an answer for, 378–379
 leading questions in, 356–361 maintaining composure in, 356, 373 playing for time, 379
 pop psychology questions in, 373–378 preparation needed for, 355 talking about career changes in, 366–373 principles. See beliefs; values printing paper CVs, 234 privacy protection for e-mail, 117–118
 e-mail monitoring by companies, 116
 identity theft issues, 91, 116–119
 international curriculum vitae format issues, 151, 154
 for National Insurance number, 91, 117 shielding your job search from your employer, 114–116 techniques for, 117–119
 UK and European legislation, 116
- problem solving, demonstrating in interviews, 258
- problem/solution presentation pattern, 423
- procrastination
 breaking tasks into smaller chunks, 39–40 negative effects of, 37–38

- procrastination (continues) quick secret to ending, 38 X then Y gridlock, breaking, 38–39
- products, interview
 questions about, 338
- professional CV format
 career changer example, 250
 chemist example, 240–241
 described, 128, 143
 instructions for creating, 145 samples of your work
 with, 178–179
 situations not suitable for, 145 situations suitable for, 128, 145
 speech-language
 pathologist example, 245
 strengths and
 weaknesses, 145
 template, 144
- professional history
 capsule. See asset statement (skills
 summary)
- professional organisations
 on CVs, 178
 job leads from, 101
- professionalism, pride in, 45–46
- profile. See asset statement (skills summary)
- profile-based recruiting systems, 94–95
- progress in work life, measuring, 25
- projects
 breaking into smaller chunks, 39–40
 interview questions about
 managing, 399
- promises, getting the boss to keep, 53–55
- promoting yourself in answer to interview
 questions, 291–292, 298, 299
 CV as sales tool, 162
 providing examples to justify claims, 291–292
 at your current job, 24
- promotion. See advancement or promotion
- Prospects site, 164
- protecting privacy. See
 privacy protection
- psychometric tests,
 413–414
- Public Speaking & Presentations For Dummies* (Kushner and Yeung), 1
- purpose of CVs, 161–162
 impact on life, 76
 questions to ask about,
 76–77
- Q •
- qualifications summary. See
 asset statement (skills
 summary)
- Queendom Web site, 65
- question-asking strategies
 behavioural questions, 70–72
 beliefs and values
 questions, 73–75
 breaking the X then Y
 gridlock, 39 capability and skills
 questions, 72–73
 career decision Web sites, 65
- Cartesian logic for, 67
 challenging limiting beliefs, 68–69
 daily checkpoint, 77
 for e-CVs, 155
 environmental questions, 70
 evaluating your current job, 14–15
 figuring out what you really want, 64–66
 general tips, 62–64 getting feedback, 23 identity questions, 75–76
 job motivation response
 self-test, 33–36
 making change easy, 69–77
 making decisions, 66–67
 making positive statements, 64
 measuring your progress, 25
 pausing to think before speaking, 63
 for powerful stories, 444 preparing for future
 work, 26
 purpose questions, 76–77 revealing attitudes to
 work, 11–12
 setting job objectives, 56 testing your questions, 64
 uncovering your ideal
 work, 44–45
 usefulness of, 61
 using clean language for
 questions, 62–63
 visualising your dream
 work, 19–20
- questionnaires, personality, 413, 414
- questions concluding
 presentations, 459

- questions for interviews
 on advancement and promotion possibilities, 285 avoiding interrogation, 287
 on day-to-day nature of the job, 283 demonstrating the bigger picture, 285
 on future prospects, 284–285
 on job share positions, 282 on learning and development options, 285 for managerial roles, 282 need for preparation, 281–282
 number to ask, 282, 283
 on the organisational culture, 286 on part-time positions, 282
 on short-term contracts, 282 showing enthusiasm for the job, 283–284 tailoring to the company, 283, 284
 tailoring to the position, 282
 turning into discussions, 286–287 on why the vacancy is open, 283–284
 questions from audience members
 admitting you don't know, 486 announcing availability for, 457 anticipating, 484
 basic rules for, 484–487
 building a bridge, 493 delivering your answer, 490–491 encouraging brief questions, 485 ending the session strongly, 486–487 exposing a hidden agenda, 492 guidelines for formulating answers, 489–490 hostile, handling, 493–495
 listening to, 485
 not allowing a few people to dominate, 484–485 putting in context, 492–493 redirecting, 491 rehearsing, 482 repeating, 486
 rephrasing, 491–492
 reversing, 491
 taking after the presentation, 484 techniques for handling, 491–493 treating the questioner properly, 487–489 questions from interviewers. See interviewers' questions questions, rhetorical, 438, 455 quitting your job. See leaving your job
 quotations
 online resource for, 438 for presentation conclusion, 459
 as presentation opening, 438
 presentation pattern, 424
 supporting presentation points, 444–445
 tips for using, 445
- R •
- race. See discrimination rapport, building in interviews, 271, 272 ratings, interviewers asking for the interviewer, 359–360
 your boss, 330
 yourself, 305–306
 RC CV format. See reverse chronological CV format Ready, Romilla (Neuro-linguistic Programming For Dummies), 1, 295 recognition getting for your work, 22–24, 56–57
 mentioning as motivation in interviews, 295
 as motivator in Herzberg's theory, 32
 recruiters. See also external recruiters
 defined, 83
 internal, in-house, or corporate, 83 online CVs overloading, 82–84 recruitment consultancies, 21. See also external recruiters
 redundancy, 59, 161
 Reed Internet recruiter, 120–121
 re-entering the workplace
 example CV, 205
 gender bias, 203–204, 208

- re-entering the workplace
(continued)
homemaker skills, 204, 206–207
StandOut words for, 204, 206, 207
years-only approach, 207–208
- references from employers
bad, damage control for, 182
choosing, 180
coaching referees, 180–181
with CVs, 180–182 drafting your own, 181
interview questions about checking, 332–333
online screening for, 90–91
positive, ensuring, 288–289
- referrals employee referral programmes, 94, 96, 122–123
for job leads, 101
- regrets, interview questions
about, 298
- regular hours, interview
questions about,
361–362, 364
- rehearsing. See practising
- rejection. See also dilemmas
learning from, 58
in online screening,
avoiding, 92
in online screening, CVs retained after, 93
for overqualification, resources for, 203
- reliability, interview
questions about,
299–300
- relocation
interview questions
about, 365–366
online screening for willingness, 87
- remuneration. See salary
- repetition (rhetorical device), 456
- research
benefits of, 163
about the company, 163–165, 335–337
for interviews, 260–261
need for, 141
about the position, 165–166
about products or services, 338
StandOut words for, 183
- reserve material for
presentations, 422
- resistance and anxiety
in change curve,
57, 58
- Resource Investigator team type, 316
- responsibility in work
adjusting, 15, 16
for attitude, 18, 42
interview questions
about, 364
knowing before
interviews, 337
as motivation for job
change, 327
as motivator in Herzberg's theory, 32
- Results in CAR acronym, 292
- retained recruiters, 83
- revamp, being hired for, 229
- reverse chronological (RC)
CV format
described, 127, 129
for executive recruiters, 138 health club manager
example, 242–243
instructions for creating, 131–132
for international curriculum vitae, 151
non-profit manager
example, 244
nuclear engineer example, 247–248
situations not suitable for, 131 situations suitable for, 128, 131, 138
strengths and
weaknesses, 129
template, 130
unrelated jobs with, 129, 132
- reviews and appraisals
getting more out of, 22–23
interview questions
about, 311–312, 320, 324–325, 409
- rewriting CVs, 233–234
- rhetorical devices, 438, 453–456
- risk-taking, interview
questions about,
308–309
- role play simulations at
assessment centres, 416–417
- roles of work balance important for, 11 identity attached to, 10
main roles, defined, 10
promotion, evaluating, 36–37

questions to reveal attitudes, 11–12
 team type descriptors, 316
 routine, interview questions about, 361–362, 364 rule breaking, interview questions about, 363, 382 rule of three (rhetorical device), 455

• S •

safety, in Maslow's hierarchy of needs, 29, 30 salary history on CVs, 179
 information online, 90
 interview questions about, 350–353, 372–373
 as motivation for sales jobs, 296, 351 online screening for requirements, 87, 90 pay role of work, 10, 11–12 stating expectations for, 179 sales demands for, during interviews, 374
 interview questions about, 406–407
 linking your skills to adverts for, 262–263
 salary as motivation for jobs, 296, 351
 StandOut words for, 186
 scrapping of CVs, 115–116
 seasoned ace CV examples, 251–252 security, as motivation for job change, 327 self-actualisation, in Maslow's hierarchy of needs, 29, 30 self-development. See development self-employment, feedback process for, 23 self-esteem. See confidence self-promotion. See promoting yourself self-tests. See also tests job motivation, 33–36
 online resources, 65
 selling yourself. See promoting yourself sending your CV. See marketing your CV services, interview questions about, 338
 sexual orientation. See discrimination
 Shaper team type, 316
 Shipside, Steve (CVs For Dummies), 1 shock or denial in change curve, 57, 58
 shopping for clothing, 278–279
 shops, visiting before interviews, 261, 336 short-term contracts, questions to ask about, 282 showrooms, visiting before interviews, 261, 336 sickness/absenteeism, interview questions about, 300
 simile (rhetorical device), 454–455 skills. See also capabilities; competencies; keywords; StandOut words accomplishments of most interest to employers, 173
 competencies versus, 174
 on CVs, 172–174
 defined, 173
 Employability Skills Worksheet, 226
 examples, 172–173
 Hobbies/Activities-to-Skills Worksheet, 225
 homemaker, 204, 206–207
 interview questions about, 299–306, 325–326
 linking job adverts to yours, 262–264, 293, 299, 323 NLP focus on, 72–73
 online screening assessment of, 88
 questions to ask about, 73
 soft versus hard, keywords for, 192 skills summary. See asset statement (skills summary) sleepless nights, interview questions about, 360
 smiling
 during in-person interviews, 269–270
 during telephone interviews, 412 software packages, 305 specialist job sites, 106–107

- Specialist team type, 316
- speech-language pathologist CV example, 245
- spelling errors in CVs, avoiding, 236
- spin control
 - for ageism, 198–199, 200, 203
 - defined, 197, 212
 - for disabilities, 208–209
 - for gaps in your record, 210–212, 249
 - importance of, 212
 - for job title never changed, 201
 - omitting inappropriate data, 198, 208–211, 213
 - for overqualification, 198–201, 203
 - for re-entering the workplace, 203–208
 - resources, 211–212
 - for too much experience in one job, 199, 201–203
- stage
 - entering for presentation, 468–469
 - exiting after presentation, 469–470
- stage fright. See nervousness, handling
- StandOut CVs. See CV examples
- StandOut words. See also keywords
 - action verbs to describe strengths, 183
 - for administration and management, 184–185
 - clean language for questions, 62–63
 - for communications and creativity, 185
 - for financial management, 190–191
 - for helping and caring professions, 189–190
 - keyword CV format, 128, 145–147
 - for office support, 187–188
 - power of, 183
 - for re-entering the workplace, 204, 206, 207
 - for research and analysis, 189
 - for sales and persuasion, 186
 - for teaching, 188
 - for technical ability, 186–187
 - tips for using, 184
 - verbs for competencies, 176
- stapling paper CVs, avoiding, 236
- starting presentations. See introduction to presentations
- statistics in presentations, 438–439, 446–447
- stories or anecdotes
 - concluding presentations with, 459
 - effective, tips for, 443–444
 - interview demands for, 376
 - powerful, questions for developing, 444
 - in presentation introduction, 435, 438
- strange questions. See bizarre interview questions
- strengths
 - action verbs to describe, 183
 - interview questions about, 293–294
- stress and pressure at work. See also pressure interviews
 - from accumulated irritations, 13
 - adjusting, 15, 16
 - CAR acronym for examples, 292, 302
 - interview questions about, 302, 308
 - stretching to alleviate nervousness, 479
 - summarising transitions in presentations, 450–452
- Summary Worksheet, 228–229
- supervisor. See boss
- support for work, adjusting, 15, 16
- Support4Learning site, 108
- supporting presentation points
 - analogies for, 448–449
 - definitions for, 448
 - examples for, 449
 - importance of, 442–443
 - numerical data for, 446–447
 - quotations for, 444–445
 - storytelling for, 443–444
- SWOT analysis for future work, 25
- synopsis. See asset statement (skills summary)

• 7 •

- tactfulness, interview
 questions about, 319
- tailoring your CV to company and position
 benefits of research, 163
 finding out about the
 company, 163–165
 finding out about the position, 165–166
 usual approach, 162–163
- talent pool programmes, 123
- talents. See capabilities
- targeted CV format
 described, 127, 139
 for executive recruiters, 138 gap in history example, 249 instructions for creating, 141 situations not suitable for, 139
 situations suitable for, 128, 138, 139
 speech-language pathologist example, 245
 strengths and
 weaknesses, 139
 template, 140
- targeted e-mail campaigns, 119–122
- targeting company Web career portals, 108
 CV format for, 127, 139–141
 e-mail campaigns, 119–122
 job market, 100
- teacher, interview question about your favourite, 374–375
- teaching, StandOut words
 for, 188
- team or colleagues,
 interview questions
 about. See also teamworking
- coaching a team member, 403
- colleague in tears, 385–386
- conflict with, 403–406
- defining team work, 387
- diplomacy toward, 319
- giving negative feedback
 to, 405–406
- inspiring a team, 402
- skills and experience
 brought to team, 346–347
- team work versus working alone, 315
- unethical actions by, 385
- view of you, 312–313
- your team role, 316–317
- Team Technology site, 65
- Team worker team type, 316
- teamworking. See also team
 or colleagues,
 interview questions
 about
- defining, 387
- demonstrating in
 interviews, 258
- group exercises, 415–416
- team type descriptors, 316
- teasers in presentations, 452
- technical competencies, 175, 186–187
- technology
 hi-tech interviews, 412–413
 interview questions
 about, 304
 technological waves for CVs, 81
- telephone
 for follow-up, e-mail versus, 125–126
 frequency for follow-up calls, 126
 interviews, 412
 listing number on CVs, 167 work number on CVs, 168
- temper
 customer service skills, 318–319
 interview questions about
 yours, 306
- templates. See also CV
 examples
- academic curriculum
 vitae format, 149–150
- accomplishment CV format, 137
- functional CV format, 133
- hybrid CV format, 135
- international curriculum
 vitae format, 152–153
- keyword CV format, 148
- linear CV format, 142
- professional CV format, 144
- reverse chronological CV
 format, 130
- targeted CV format, 140

- tests
 - aptitude, 413
 - in-tray, 414–415
 - job motivation response self-test, 33–36
 - online resources for self-tests, 65
 - personality, 413, 414
 - psychometric, 413–414
 - role play simulations, 416–417
 - Theory X and Theory Y (McGregor), 32–33
 - theory/practice presentation pattern, 424
 - third-party recruiters. See external recruiters
 - three C's of interviews, 255–256
 - three P's of interviews, 271
 - three, rule of (rhetorical device), 455
 - time. See also timing
 - presentations arriving early for presentations, 481
 - being in the moment, 18
 - for interview, knowing, 264
 - playing for, in pressure interviews, 379
 - proportion spent at work, 9
 - time management, interview questions about, 300–301
 - Time to Think* (Kline), 63
 - Times New Roman typeface, 236
 - timing presentations
 - conclusion, 453
 - defined, 426–427
 - polishing, 427–428
 - questions from audience members, 484
 - setting the length, 427
 - total duration, 427, 458, 482
 - transitions, 453
 - title of presentation, mentioning in introduction, 440
 - topic presentation pattern, 424
 - trade publications
 - bringing to interview, 265
 - job leads from, 100
 - keywords from, 196
 - paper CVs as marketing tools, 111
 - training. See education and training
 - transitions in presentations
 - functions of, 450
 - importance of, 449–450
 - as internal summaries, 450–452
 - leading from one idea to another, 450–451
 - length of, 453
 - mistakes to avoid, 452–453
 - number of, 452–453
 - numerical organisation pattern for, 451
 - teasers for gaining attention, 452
 - variety in, 453
 - travel, interview questions about, 366
 - trends. See workplace trends
 - Tutu, Desmond (bishop), 183
 - two-to-one rule for interviews, 329, 338
 - typefaces for paper CVs, 235–236
 - typos in CVs, avoiding, 236
- U •
- UK Recruiter site, 108
 - Unique Selling Point (USP) the company's, 340
 - you's, 310
 - university, job leads from, 101
 - Unpaid Work Worksheet, 224
 - US Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook, 166
- V •
- Valium for nervousness, avoiding, 477
 - value
 - finding in your work, 45–46
 - as fundamental to assertiveness, 46–47
 - values. See also beliefs defined, 73, 74
 - impact on life, 74
 - interview questions about, 382, 385
 - questions to ask about, 74–75
 - verbs. See StandOut words
 - video conferencing interviews, 412–413

visual aids for numerical data, 447 visualising
 dream work, 19–20
 successful presentation, 476–477
 voice
 mistakes to avoid in interviews, 270
 paralanguage in presentations, 473–474
 volatility of job market, 95–96 volume as tool for presentations, 474

• W • weaknesses, interview questions about, 294–295

 Web resources. See online resources Web sites checking yours before sending out CVs, 102
 interview questions about, 338
 Webcams, 412–413
 weekend work, interview questions about, 364, 386 weird questions. See bizarre interview questions
What Colour is Your Parachute? (Bolles), 20 white lies. See lying white space in paper CVs, 235
 Williams, Wendell (testing expert), 88, 89
 women. See also re-entering the workplace dressing for interviews, 275, 278–279
 gender bias, 203–204, 208
 homemaker skills, 204, 206–207
 shopping for clothing, 278–279
 word-processing software, 234 words. See StandOut words work. See also career areas for adjustment, 15–16 attitudes to, 10–12
 career versus, 9
 conscious choice regarding, 13
 dealing with negative situations, 13
 defined, 9
 diagramming in broad context, 42–43 evaluating your job, 13–15
 as expression of being, 44 finding value in, 45–46
 finding your dream, 19–22 focusing on things you can control, 18 getting recognition for, 22–24
 identity attached to, 10, 42, 43
 improving your current job, 16–19
 interview questions about yours, 321–328
 making the best of your current job, 17–18
 as motivator in Herzberg's theory, 32
 proportion of time spent at, 9 roles, 10–12
 samples with CVs, 178–179 StandOut jobs, 161
 uncovering your ideal, 44–45
 work history. See employment history work permit, online screening for, 87, 90
 WorkingMums site, 207
 workplace trends
 company Web career portals, 94
 employee referral programmes, 94, 96 employment sites, 94 human networking, 96 profile-based recruitment systems, 94–95 technological waves for CVs, 81 volatile job market, 95–96
 XML technology, 95
 worksheets for CVs, detailed described, 215
 education and training, 221
 employability skills, 226
 hobbies/activities-to-skills, 225
 items to get in touch with, 216 new job, 217–219
 paid work, 222–223
 personal inventory, 220–226
 questions needing effective answers, 219 for rethinking your career direction, 220

worksheets for CVs

(continued)

unpaid work, 224

usefulness of, 216

worksheets for CVs,

summary

described, 215

Summary Worksheet,

228–229

using, 227

• X •

XML (eXtensible Markup
Language), 95

• Y •

Yahoo! free e-mail accounts,
101, 118

Yeung, Rob

Answering Tough Interview Questions For Dummies, 1

Public Speaking & Presentations For Dummies, 1

• Z •

ZIP files, avoiding as e-mail attachments, 113

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

