

Index

- Acheson, Dean, 112
- After-action review, 10
- Allen, Paul, 38
- Automobile industry
- and homogeneity of group leaders, 112
 - and quality circle fad, 104, 105
 - underestimation of Japanese automakers as example of tribal thinking, 98
- Avery, Sewell, 143–145
- Baker, Ron, 127, 131
- Barings Bank failure as example of royal thinking, 124–131
- Bay of Pigs invasion as example of tribal thinking, x, 107–115
- Benson, Debbie, 49, 50
- Bissell, Richard, 112, 115
- Black, Fisher, 80
- Black supremacy (racial superiority) as example of tribal thinking, 94–97
- Blunt, John, 30, 32
- Bowles, Chester, 115
- British cavalry myth
- and British attitudes toward innovation, 68, 77
 - as example of mythical thinking, 68–74
 - focus on confirming evidence and ignoring disconfirming evidence, 70, 71, 74
 - and German adoption of tank warfare, 73, 74
 - and military structure, 74
 - reliance on past success, 59, 74
 - resistance to use of tanks, 69–73
- Buffet, Warren, 81, 85
- Bundy, McGeorge, 112
- Calendarcentral.com, 33
- Camp Chesterfield, 19
- Castro, Fidel, 108–111
- Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and Bay of Pigs invasion, 107–115
- Challenger* disaster, x, 119, 132–137
- Chamberlain, Neville, and appeasement of Nazi Germany, 40–47
- Change
- and mythical thinking, xiii, 3, 57, 58, 60, 74
 - and tribal thinking, 90, 91, 104, 106, 107
- Churchill, Winston, 46, 47, 70, 72
- Cognitive science, 149
- Cohn, Robert, 52
- Cole, Robert, 106, 107
- Commitment
- as characteristic of mythical thinking, xiii, 3, 58–61, 66, 91
 - and tribal thinking, 91
- Communication
- with the dead, 17, 19–21
 - executives, 6
- Community/affiliation, 4
- Conan Doyle, Sir Arthur
- as author, 17, 18
 - Catholic background, 18
 - children, attitude toward, 24, 26

- Conan Doyle, Sir Arthur (Continued) communication with the dead, 17, 19–21 death of son and brother, 20 education, 18
 and Edward Gardner, 24–26
 as example of wishful thinking, 17–27 fairies, belief in, 24–26
 gullibility of, 17
 and Harry Houdini, 18, 23–25
 and Henry Slade, 24
 and Lily Loder-Symonds, 21 and need to believe, 26, 27
 occult, interest in, 18, 19 personal qualities, 17, 18 and photography, 24–27
 spiritualism, involvement in, 19–27
- Confidence. See also Overconfidence and awareness of limitations, 11 decision style, 5
 misplaced, 119, 126, 145, 148, 149
 need for, 4
 organizations requiring confident decision style, 5 and success, 11, 76, 83
- Consistency as characteristic of mythical thinking, 60, 61, 66
- Consultants, role of in creating management fads, 102, 103
- Cooper, Bryan, 71
- Cooper, Duff, 45
- Cress Welsing, Frances, 95–97
- Cronyism and royal thinking, 119, 142
- Custer, George, 97, 98
- Decision making
 characteristics of, 1–4
 goals, 5, 6
 habits, 8–11
 information, 6, 7
 people, 7, 8
 process, 8
 rules, 9–11
- Desire as characteristic of wishful thinking, xiii, 2, 14, 38, 40, 47, 49
- Digiscents, 33
- Disconfirming evidence avoidance of and wishful thinking, 15 and avoiding bad decisions, 9 and business myths, 75, 85
 ignoring as characteristic of mythical thinking, 70, 71, 74, 75, 85
- Disdain for the enemy
 as characteristic of tribal thinking, 87, 88, 97, 98
 Saddam Hussein and royal thinking, 138
- Diversity in decision-making groups, 7.
See also Homogeneity of group
- Divine, David, 68
- Dixon, Norman, 68, 69
- Docility fostered by suave leadership, 115
- Dorchak, Glenda, 37, 38
- Dot.com crash and wishful thinking, ix, x, 2, 27, 30, 33–39
- Doubts, suppression of, 51, 66, 112–114
- Drucker, Peter, 99–101
- Dulles, Allen, 112, 115
- Dulles, John Foster, 108
- Dutch tulip craze (Tulipomania), 28
- “Edge” perception of and wishful thinking, 14, 32, 34, 38, 44, 47, 49
- Edwards, Michael, 147–149
- Efficient market theory, 81, 85
- Eisenhower, President, 108, 111, 112, 115
- Error avoidance and learning from mistakes, x, xi and types of thinking, 2–4
- Financial euphoria
 and dot.com run-up, 27, 30, 33–39
 examples of, 28
 South Sea bubble, 28–32
 as tribal thinking, 27
 as wishful thinking, 27
- Following the group as characteristic of tribal thinking, 88, 98, 99
- Ford, Henry, 119, 121
- Ford Edsel (automobile), x, 104
- Formal decision-making process, 8
- Fulbright, William, 114
- Galbraith, John Kenneth, 28
- Gardner, Edward, 24–26
- Goals, importance of having clear goals, 2–6
- Group members

- homogeneity of, 77, 79, 80, 88, 89, 112
 new members, taboo against antagonizing, 115
- Group polarization, 90, 91
- Group support as characteristic of mythical thinking, 59, 67
- “Groupthink”
 and the Bay of Pigs as example of tribal thinking, x, 108–115
 docility fostered by suave leadership, 115 illusion of unanimity and suppression of personal doubts, 113, 114
 new members, taboo against antagonizing, 115 origin of, 107
 self-appointed “mindguards,” 114, 115
- Grove, Andrew, 9, 10
- Guderian, Heinz, 73, 74
- Habits and decision making, 8–11
- Haghani, Victor, 79, 83
- Haig, Douglas, 70
- Haig, Field Marshal Douglas, 70, 73
- Hales, A. G., 69
- Harper, General George, 71
- Hawkins, Gregory, 79
- Heaven’s Gate, xii
- Hedge funds. See Long-Term Capital Management (LTCM)
- Hewlett Packard, 104, 105
- Hierarchy. See Power and hierarchy
- Hilibrand, Lawrence, 79, 83
- Hitler, Adolf
 and appeasement of Nazi Germany, 39–47 underestimation of enemy, 98
- Homogeneity of group, 7, 77, 88, 89, 94, 112
- Houdini, Harry, 18, 23–25
- Hussein, Saddam, 4, 137–142
- IAM.com, 33
- IHarvest.com, 33
- Industrial accidents, 51
- Information
 availability of, 6, 7, 149 data collection and analysis, importance of, 9 lack of objective data as characteristic of mythical thinking, 59
- Innovation, success as deterrent to, 68, 77
- Intel, 9
- Invulnerability
 and mythical thinking, 74, 82
 and tribal thinking, 88, 112, 113
 and wishful thinking, 50–54
- Jackson, Major-General Sir Louis, 72
- James, George G. M., 95
- Janis, Irving, 107, 112–115
- Jones, Simon, 127
- Keech, Marian
 and automatic handwriting, 62 commitment and consistency to beliefs, 64–66 end of the world prophecy, 63, 64
 as example of mythical thinking, 58, 62–68
 and flying saucers, 62, 64–66
 group support, role of, 67 and intelligence of group, 63
 rationalizations for failed prophecy, 64–67
 Samantha as spiritual mentor, 62
- Keene, Lamar, 19, 20
- Kennedy, John F. (President), 108–115
- Kennedy, Robert, 112, 114
- Killian, Mike, 127, 129
- Kitchner, Lord, 70
- Klassen, Ben, 93, 94, 97
- Kranz, Gene, 121
- Leadership
 communication, 6
 and decision makers, 1 and importance of clear goals, 2, 4, 6
 and mythical thinking, 3
 need for, 4
 and royal thinking, 4, 119–121, 123, 124, 142
 and tribal thinking, 3, 113, 115
- Lee, Robert E., 98
- Leeson, Nick
 audit findings, 128, 129
 background in derivative trading, 125, 126 in charge of Singapore office, 126 downfall of, 129, 130
 early employment, 125
 and lack of management knowledge, 127, 131

- Leeson, Nick (Continued) lack of supervision, 126, 127 management distance, 126 misplaced confidence in, 126 mistakes of supervisors, 130, 131 unauthorized trades, 127, 128
- Lessons learned, 10
- Liddell Hart, Captain Basil, 73
- Limitations, awareness of, 11
- Loder-Symonds, Lily, 21
- Long-Term Capital Management (LTCM)
 as example of mythical thinking, 75, 78–85
 and similarities of group members, 79, 80, 112
- Lovell, Jim, 121
- Lund, Bob, 135, 136
- Management fads as example of tribal thinking
 following the group, 3, 98, 99
 quality circles, 98, 101, 104–107
 total quality management (TQM), 99–101
- Management focus on appearance and status, 119, 120, 126
- Management science, 101, 102
- Managerial distance and royal thinking, 119, 120, 124, 126, 131
- McCoy, Bob, 48
- McDonald, Alan, 135, 136
- McDonnell, James, 146
- McNamara, Robert, 112, 115
- Medical quackery as example of wishful thinking, 47–50
- Meriwether, J. M., 78–80, 82, 85
- Merseles, Theodore, 143
- Merton, Robert, 80–84
- Micklethwait, John, 100
- Military structure and British cavalry myth, 74
 and disdain for the enemy, 97, 98
 “Mindguard,” 114, 115
- Mistakes, learning from, x, xi
- Montgomery-Massingberd, Field Marshall Archibald, 73
- Montgomery Ward example of royal thinking, 142–145
- Moore, Gordon, 9, 10
- Mullins, David W., 80, 84
- Murdoch, Rupert, 100
- Mythical thinking
 business myths, 74–76
 cavalry myth, 68–74
 characteristics of, 58, 59
 described, xiii, 57, 58
 Long-Term Capital Management, 75, 78–85
 positive aspects of, 3
 psychological research, 59–61
 religious prophecy example, 61–68
 and royal thinking, 145
 spectrum of decision traits, 4, 5
 Swiss watch industry, 76–78
 and tribal thinking, 61, 91
 and wishful thinking, 59
- Nazi Germany, appearance of as example of wishful thinking, 39–47
- Need to believe, 19, 20, 22
- Newton, Sir Isaac, ix, 29
- Nickell, Joe, 19
- Nonbelievers, eliminating, 59, 63, 74
- Nonconforming beliefs, 59
- Norris, Peter, 129
- Officeclick.com, 33
- Optimism
 and decision-making, 5
 as desirable characteristic, 28 and illusion of invulnerability, 113 and salespeople, 36
 and wishful thinking, 2, 13–17, 28, 36, 43, 46
- Overconfidence
 and royal thinking, 117–120, 122, 124, 131, 138, 145
 and tribal thinking, 88, 96
- People
 and decision making, 7, 8
 thinking partners, 10
- Perkins, David, 59, 60
- Persistence, 13, 150
- Personal benefit as characteristic of mythical thinking, 59
- Personal doubts, suppression of, 51, 66, 112–114
- Perspective on decision-making, 2

- Pessimism, 16, 17
- Peter, Margaret, as example of royal thinking, 123, 124
- Pflug, David, 83
- Phillips, Peter, 147–149
- PNV.com, 33
- Power and hierarchy
 - organizations requiring financial discipline, 5
 - and royal thinking, xiii, 4, 117–119, 138, 142
- Priceline.com, 33, 34
- Process reengineering, 101
- Project Alpha example of royal thinking, 145–149
- Psychology of belief and decision-making, xii
 - mythical thinking, 59–61
 - royal thinking, 122, 123
 - tribal thinking, 89–91, 107
 - wishful thinking, 15–17
- Quality circles, 98, 101, 104–107
- Racial groups, 91, 92
- Racial superiority as example of tribal thinking, 91–97
- Randi, James, 146–149
- Rationalization
 - as characteristic of mythical thinking, 59, 60, 67
 - and perception of an “edge,” 14
- Religious prophecy and mythical thinking, 61–68
- Rieker, Wayne, 106
- Roosevelt, Franklin (President), 47
- Rosenfeld, Eric, 79
- Royal thinking
 - Barings Bank and Nick Leeson example, 124–131
 - Challenger* disaster example, x, 119, 132–137
 - characteristics of, 118–122
 - cronyism, 119, 142
 - cult leader (Margaret Peter) example, 123, 124
 - described, xiii, 117, 118
 - hierarchy, 117, 142
 - and loss of talent, 120, 142, 144, 145
 - management focus on appearance and status, 120
 - managerial distance (overmanagement and undermanagement), 119, 120, 124, 126, 131
 - misplaced confidence, 119, 126, 145, 149
 - Montgomery Ward example, 142–145
 - and mythical thinking, 145
 - overconfidence, 117–120, 122, 124, 131, 138, 145
 - positive aspects of, 4
 - Project Alpha example, 145–149
 - psychological research, 122, 123
 - Saddam Hussein example, 137–142
 - and silence of subordinates, 120, 122–124, 139
 - spectrum of decision traits, 4, 5
- Rusk, Dean, 111, 115
- Salinger, Pierre, 111
- Scatena, Rex, 35
- Schemata, 57, 58
- Schlesinger, Arthur, 112–114
- Scholes, Myron, 80–84
- Seligman, Martin, 16, 17
- Shaw, Steve, 147–149
- Slade, Henry, 24
- Social concerns and tribal thinking, 3
- South Sea bubble example of wishful thinking, 28–32
- Spiritualism, 19–22
- Stalin, Joseph, 47, 98
- Stepping outside of the problem, 9, 10
- Stock speculation. See Financial euphoria
- Strength of culture/worldview, 4
- Subordinates, silence of, 120, 122–124, 139
- Success
 - as deterrent to innovation, 68, 77
 - previous success, 11, 13, 14, 59, 75–78, 82, 83, 85
- Swinton, Colonel E. D., 70
- Swiss watch industry example of mythical thinking, 76–78
- Talent, loss of and royal thinking, 120, 142, 144, 145
- Technology and availability of information, 7
- Thinking partners, 10

- Thought patterns, xii
- Total quality management (TQM) as example of tribal thinking, 99–101
- Trade-offs in ways of thinking, x
- Tribal thinking
- Bay of Pigs example, x, 107–115
 - characteristics of, 87–89
 - described, xiii, 87
 - disdain for the enemy, 88, 97, 98
 - following the group, 88, 98, 99, 107
 - group consensus, inability to challenge, 88
 - “Groupthink” and the Bay of Pigs, x, 107–115
 - homogeneity of group, 88, 89, 112
 - management fads, 98–107
 - and mythical thinking, 61, 91
 - and overconfidence, 88, 96
 - positive aspects of, 3
 - psychological research, 89–91, 107
 - racial superiority example (black supremacy), 94–97
 - racial superiority example (white supremacy), 91–94
 - spectrum of decision traits, 4, 5
 - tribal-centricity (in-group), 87, 88
- Tyron, Admiral Sir George, 120
- Unanimity and suppression of personal doubts, 112–114
- Unconscious decision making, 1, 2
- Value America, 35–38
- Walpole, Robert, 29, 30
- Welch, Jack, 103
- White supremacy (racial superiority) as example of tribal thinking, 91–94
- Winn, Steve, 35–38
- Wishful thinking
- appeasement of Nazi Germany, 39–47
 - characteristics of, 14, 15, 32
 - and cognitive science, 149
 - described, xiii, 13, 14
 - dot.com crash, 33–39
 - Doyle, Sir Arthur Conan, 17–27
 - “edge,” perception of, 14, 32, 34, 38, 44, 47, 49
 - and feeling of invulnerability, 50–54
 - financial euphoria, 27–28
 - gender differences, 15
 - medical quackery, 47–50
 - and mythical thinking, 59
 - positive aspects of, 2, 3
 - psychological research, 15–17
 - Roosevelt, attitude toward Stalin, 47
 - South Sea Company, 29–32
 - spectrum of decision traits, 4, 5
 - “wishful not-thinking,” 50–54
- Wood, Robert, 143
- Wooldridge, Adran, 100
- Worldview and mythical thinking, 4, 5, 57, 58
- Zing.com, 33