
Index

A

abusive tax shelter, 282 accelerated depreciation, 131 acceptance, 220–221
accounting professionals, 152–153 accrual method, 123
active income, 282
active participant, 283–284 adjusted basis or price, 138 adjusted gross income, 285 after-tax cash flow, 142–143 agency, 218
agent, real estate, 215 all-risk insurance, 180–182 alternative income approach, 226, 227 American Society of Home Inspectors (ASHI), 222
amortization, 83, 103–106
annual cap, 79–80
annual compounding, 100 annualized return, 29–30
appraisal, 223–229
assessed value, 155
asset, 161
assumption clause, 75–76 attorney, 229–233

B

balance sheet, 160–162
balloon mortgage, 82
bank as lender, 86–88
bankable, 163
basic insurance, 179–180, 181 basic services, 305
basis, 124–125, 133–137
basket of stocks, 295 blind pool, 287
book value, 126

borrowing to invest, 89–90
breakeven, 194–195
bridge loan, 85
broad insurance, 180, 181 broker, real estate, 216 Brookings Institution, 22–23 building lot, 304
bundling, 276
buy-and-hold strategy, 271–273 buy-down mortgage, 84
buyer's market, 45–46, 176–179

C

call feature, 76, 78
cap rate, 188–189
cap, 79–80
capital expenditure, 124 capital gain or loss, 137–138
Capital Gains and Losses (Schedule D), 141–142
capitalization, 125
carry, 41
cash flow
after-tax, 142–143
analysis, 191–195, 205–209
basics, 50–52
negative, 142–143
positive, 144–145
risk, 263–265
worksheet, 207, 208
cash method, 122–123
Census Bureau, 31*n*, 301, 303*n*. clear title, 231
collateralized debt obligations (CDOs), 71–72
commercial property, 303 compound interest, 99–100 comprehensive insurance, 181–182 condominium insurance, 181–182 conformity, 56, 175–176 consideration, 218–219

 Consumer Price Index, 32–34 contingencies, 220 conventional financing, 70–71 conversions from flip to rental, 279–281 converting to rentals, 268–269 cost approach, 226, 227–228 Cost of Savings Index (COSI), 80 creative financing, 82–86 credit market, 185

D

daily compounding, 100
 dealer, 267
 deferral rules, 145–149 deferred maintenance, 41–42 Department of Justice, 237 deposit policies, 250–252 depreciation accelerated, 131
 calculations, 127–133
 defined, 125–126
 half-year convention, 132
 midmonth convention, 132–133
 recovery period, 130–133
 straight-line, 130–131
 Depreciation and Amortization (form 4562), 124–135 diversification, 66 down payment calculation, 87–88 due on sale clause, 75–76

E

earned income, 123
 earnest money deposit, 220–221, 222 Electoral College, 22–23 enrolled agent, 214
 entry and exit strategies, 273–276 Equitable Real Estate Investment Management, Inc., 303*n.* equity
 buildup, 108–109
 defined, 9

dividend rate, 199
 line of credit, 91–92
 return, 198–199
 escrow agent, 229–233
 exchange traded funds (ETFs), 294–297 existing home, 32
 expense deductions, 116–118

F

Fannie Mae, 70–71, 298
 Federal Fair Housing Act, 237 Federal Reserve Bank, 74 financial advisers, 213–214, 312–313 financial capability, 203–205 financial statements, 160–163 fixer-upper bargains, 261–263
 cash flow, 263–265
 living in, 265–267
 market, 257–258
 type of, 259–261
 flip-rental conversions, 279–281
 Freddie Mac, 71
 free and clear, 63
 functional obsolescence, 228

G

general ledger, 159
 Ginnie Mae, 70–71, 298
 government-sponsored enterprises (GSEs), 70–71 greater fool theory, 43–44, 262–263 gross rent multiplier (GRM), 186–188 growth management laws, 305–306 growth stocks, 13

H

half-year convention, 132
 hazard insurance, 179–182 highest and best use, 54–55 homes as investments, 36–39 Housing and Urban Development (HUD), 74, 307*n.*
 housing market, 184

I

illiquidity, 27, 203
impounds, 76–77
income approach, 225, 226–227 income statement, 162
incurred expense, 123 industrial property, 303 inspectors, 221–222
interest compound, 99–100
 computations, 99–103
 reductions, 106–110
 significance, 98–99
 time value of money, 99–100
Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 156–157, 320
Interstate Land Sales, 307 investment goals, 309–310
 management, 164–165
 value, 206
 vision, 316–317
irrational exuberance, 35
issuer, 289

L

landlord dilemmas, 240–248 lease options, 85–86, 277–279 legal description, 231
level debt service, 92–100 leverage of cash, 52–65 liability, 161
LIBOR, 80
lifetime cap, 79–81
like-kind exchange, 146–147, 319–331
Like-Kind Exchanges (form 8824), 148–149
limited partner, 284–285 lipstick repairs, 260 liquidity, 27
listing agent, 216–217
loan qualifications, 88 loan-to-value ratio, 86–87 local market conditions, 44–50 locational obsolescence, 227

M

market
 analysis, 183–184
 comparison approach, 225 economy, 16
 value, 55–56, 189–191
meeting of minds, 220
midmonth convention, 132–133 modified adjusted gross income, 126 money supply, 70
monthly compounding, 100, 101 mortgage acceleration, 108–112
 adjustable-rate, 78–82
 amortization, 83, 102–103
 assumable, 75
 balloon, 82
 buy-down, 84
 first, 73
 fixed-rate, 77–78
 interest rate, 75
 investments, 297–299
 multiple, 112–114
 pool, 297–299
 refinancing, 90–92
 rollover, 82–84
 second, 73, 176–177
motivated seller, 17
multifamily residential property, 300–303
Multiple Listing Service (MLS), 217–218

N

National Association of Enrolled Agents (NAEA), 214
National Association of Home Inspectors (NAHI), 222
National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT), 291
National Association of Realtors (NAR), 33, 34
National Association of Securities
 Dealers (NASD), 312
National Council of Real Estate Investment Fiduciaries (NCREIF), 302 negative cash flow, 142, 145, 211–212 neighborhood conditions, 170–172 net worth, 162

 new home, 32

O

nonconformity, 175–176
 obsolescence, 227–228
 occupancy rate, 193–194 offer, 220–221
 offering document, 288
 older home insurance, 181–182 ordinary and necessary, 116–117 ordinary income, 137
 overimprovement, 56–57, 175–180

P

partnership investments, 284–289
 Passive Activity Loss Limitation, 128–130
 passive investments, 282–284 path of progress, 306 performance, 219–220
 personal budget, 211–212 physical obsolescence, 227–228 PITI, 76–77
 points, 76
 portfolio expansion, 39–42
 income, 282–283
 loans, 72, 75
 management, 64–65
 positive cash flow, 144–145 pre-construction market, 11 predatory lending, 11–12 prequalification, 88
 primary residence, 122 prime rate, 80
 professional help (accounting), 152–153 profit upon sale, 200–201 profitability, 50–52
 program, 286
 property conditions, 173–175
 flipping market, 270, 273–276

flipping strategies, 271–276 management firms, 255–256 report, 307
 proration, 232–233
 prospectus, 286–287

Q

quarterly compounding, 100
 Quick Books, 163

R

raw land, 304–308
 real estate agents, 215–218
 appraisal, 223–229
 as a growth fund, 3–15
 attorney, 229–233
 basis, 124–125
 broker, 216
 bubble, 271–273
 cash flow, 50–52
 commercial, 54, 303
 conversions, 150
 cost of, 94–97
 cycle, 15–21
 dealers, 267–268
 defined, 7
 escrow agent, 229–233
 ETFs, 294–297
 industrial, 54, 303
 investment performance, 30–36
 investment trust (REIT), 164, 289–293
 legal description, 231
 long term, 310–314
 losses, 124–127
 markets, 184–186
 mixed use, 53–54
 multiple, 157–160
 negative attributes, 8–9 positive attributes, 8
 pre-construction market, 11
 profitability, 50–52
 questions to ask, 65–68

- Realtor, 216
 - residential, 53–54
 - retirement planning, 314–316
 - rules of thumb, 21–30
 - sales, 137–138
 - seasoned, 15
 - tax benefits, 115–116, 138–145, 319
 - timing of transactions, 165–170
 - Real Estate Research Corporation, 303*n.*
 - Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), 307–308
 - Reason Public Policy Institute, 305*n.*
 - reconveyances, 230
 - recovery period, 130–133
 - refinancing, 90–92
 - rental
 - agreement, 252–255
 - application, 244–246
 - conversions, 268–269
 - market, 184–185
 - trends, 57–59
 - renter's insurance, 180–182
 - replacement cost, 228–229
 - reproduction cost, 229
 - residential property, 300–303
 - retirement planning, 314–316
 - return calculations, 195–200
 - return on equity, 197
 - rights, 7
 - risk, 13–14, 204, 209–211
 - riskless transaction, 12–13, 69–70
 - rollover mortgage, 82–84
- S
- Sales of Business Property (form 4797), 139–140
 - second mortgage, 176–177
 - secondary market, 70–71
 - seller financing, 40–41
 - seller's market, 46
 - selling agent, 216–217
 - selling group, 288–289
 - selling partnership units, 287–289
 - semi-annual compounding, 100
 - specified program, 286
 - speculation, 9–10, 271–273
 - sponsor, 289
 - spread, 190–191
 - State Consumer Protection websites, 307
 - stated loans, 72, 74
 - statement of condition, 248–250
 - straight-line depreciation, 130–131
 - subject property, 224
 - subsidiary record, 158
 - suitability, 202
 - Supplemental Income and Loss (Schedule E), 119–120
 - supply and demand
 - cycles, 20–21
 - defined, 15–16
 - of money, 70–72
 - rental, 58
 - sweat equity, 259
 - syndicate, 288–289
 - system design (accounting), 153–157
- T
- tangible asset, 36
 - tax
 - avoidance, 118, 121
 - benefits, 115–116, 138–145
 - capital gain or loss, 137–138
 - deferral, 145–149
 - enrolled agent, 214
 - evasion, 122
 - form 4562, 134–135
 - form 4797, 139–140
 - form 8582, 128–130
 - form 8824, 148–149
 - like-kind exchange, 146–147, 319–331
 - ordinary income, 137
 - planning, 117
 - professionals, 214–215
 - profit, 192
 - schedule D, 141–142
 - schedule E, 119–120
 - shelter, 282
 - strategy, 118–123
 - tips for real estate, 319

Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, 2 teaser, 79
tenants
 and the law, 236–237
 demographics, 237–240
 risk, 204
time value of money, 99–100
title company, 230
title insurance policy, 231 total return, 200
Treasury securities, 80

U

urban growth area (UGA), 306

V

vacancy rate, 47–48
vacancy risk, 209–211 value factors, 52–57
value setting methods, 186–189

W

weighted average, 113

Y

yield, 199–200

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>