

INDEX

- Accenture, 224–225
- Accidents, scandals and, 167
- Accountability, x, 203–205
- Accounting scandals, 190–191
- Ad avoidance, DVRs and, ix, 66–68, 88, 91
- Add Attention, Turned on by Ads experiences, 32
- Addressability, 92–93, 94, 97–98, 110
- Ad Interference experiences, 14–15
- Ad selections, customization of, 53
- Advertisements. See also TV commercials
 - banner, 62, 77
 - customized, x, 53
 - engagement with, 49–50
- Advertisers:
 - benefits of iTV to, 49–54
 - future concerns for, 81–82
- Advertising. See also TV advertising; Video advertising
 - challenges facing, vii–viii
 - changes in, ix–x
 - congruence between media vehicle and, 22–26
 - contextual, 113–114
 - direct-response, 41
 - effectiveness of, and engagement, 19–26, 144–146
 - historical perspective on, 267–270
 - Internet, ix, 62–63, 77
 - media content integration and, xi, 66–67, 266–281
 - political, 111, 268
 - profitability of, 273–274
 - radio, 60
 - traditional views of, 1
- Advertising expenditures, 65, 66
- Advertising medium, engagement with, 1–2
- Advertising messages. See also Message strategies
 - design of, x–xi
 - effectiveness of, 107
 - processing fluency of, 148–154
 - processing of, by consumers, 139–140, 144–146
 - sources of, 142–143
 - strong, 141–142
- Advertising prices, 68, 90–91
- Advertising Research Foundation (ARF), 2
- Advertising strategy, 227–228. See also Message strategies
- Alternative media, ix
- American Girl, 280
- American Idol* (TV show), 44
- Apologies, 165, 169–170
- Apple Computer, 111
- Approach experiences, 4–5, 6–7
- aQuantive, Inc., 81
- Arthur Andersen, 191
- Auction models, 80–81
- Audience fragmentation, 91, 104, 118, 124
- Audience measurement, x
 - developments in, 127–134
 - economics of, 135–136
 - evolution of, 123–127
 - nontraditional media and, 133–134
 - people meters for, 126–131, 135–136
 - political economy of, 134–136
- Audio content distribution, 69
- Audit Bureau of Circulations, 123
- Avoidance experiences, 4, 7–8
- Awareness, brand, 144–145, 146
- Banner ads, 62, 77
- Baron's theory of the media, 188–189
- Bausch & Lomb, 179, 180, 185–186
- Blended-screen interactivity, 45
- Blogs, 74, 75
- BMW, 111–112, 118–119, 153–154
- Boeing Company, 217–222
- Bookmarking, 52–53
- Bottom-up approach, to experiences, 9
- Brand awareness, 144–145, 146
- Branded content, 112–113
- Branded entertainment, ix, 266–281
- Brand equity, 142–143

- Brand knowledge, 145
- Brand messages, x–xi, 1. See also Advertising messages
- Brands:
- affect of scandals on, 161–164
 - attitude toward, 145–146
 - changes in, 257
 - engagement with, 28–30
 - future of, 30
 - perceptual fluency of, 148–149
 - perpetrating, 161–163
 - spillover, 162–164
- Bravo cable network, 43
- Broadband penetration, 39, 62, 89
- Broadcast Rating Council, 136
- Broadcast television, 37, 38, 39, 60, 80, 90, 124–125
- Budget allocation, 115, 119–120
- Bud.TV, 112
- Burger King, 112
- Business centrality, 187, 188
- Business models, 67
- Business-to-business (B-to-B) marketing, xi
- Accenture case example, 224–225
 - Boeing case example, 217–222
 - Caterpillar case example, 223–224
 - conventional, 208–209
 - expanding role of, with multimedia, 212–213
 - personal selling cycle and, 209–212
 - THREE I*, 213–225
- CAB. See Cooperative Analysis of Broadcasting
- Cable networks, 57, 60
- Cable operators, one-screen interactivity and, 50–51
- Cable television, 38–39, 56–57, 60, 85
- Cable zone ads, 92
- Car manufacturers, 52
- Caterpillar, 223–224
- Cell phones, 129–130
- CGI. See Computer-generated imagery
- Changes:
- in marketing, 255–260
 - need for, 254–255
- Chief marketing officers (CMOs), 254
- Civic Looks Out for My Interests experiences, 31
- Commercial opportunities, of iTV, 49
- Commitment conversations, 236–247, 250
- Commitment loop, 238–240
- Commitments:
- identifying, 235–236
 - integrated marketing and, 249–250
 - at John Lewis, 233–235
 - at Lloyds TSB, 229–231, 240–247
 - managing communication through, 228–235
 - mapping, 240–246, 250–252
 - at Pacific Trust Bank, 231–233
- Commitment strategy:
- designing a, 235–247
 - internal communications and, 248–249
 - need for, 227–228
- Commodity products, 30
- Communication:
- with customers, 226–253
 - internal, 248–249
 - managing through commitments, 228–235
- Community, 47
- Community Connection experiences, 15
- Comparative value, 101–102
- Compensation, 166, 263–265
- Competence-based scandals, 169
- Competition, increased, 68
- Complementary value, 101–102
- Computer-generated imagery (CGI), 214–215
- Computer technology, 57
- Conceptual fluency, 149–150
- Congruence:
- defining, 22
 - role of, 28
- Congruency hypothesis, 22–26
- Consciousness, 3
- Conscious processing:
- of advertising messages, 140
 - measuring effects of, 144–146
- Constitutive experiences, 15–16
- Consumer engagement. See Engagement
- Consumer experiences. See Experiences
- Consumer insights, 139–140
- Contacts, 30
- Content. See also Video content
- branded, 112–113
 - data-driven, 109
 - integration of, with advertising, xi, 66–67, 266–281
 - user generated, 74–77, 88–89, 178, 256–257
- Content distribution, 67, 69, 126
- Content expansion, 67
- Contextual relevance, 113–114

- Control:
 lack of, 183
 user, 59, 85, 126
- Cookies, 132, 215
- Cooperative Analysis of Broadcasting (CAB), 123–124
- Corporate reputation management. See Reputation management
- Cost-per-thousand (CPM) viewers, 90, 97, 99
- Counterfactuals, 171–172
- Creative agencies, 60, 64, 81, 114, 258
- Creative expression, 76–77
- Creativity, power of, 111–114
- Credibility, 183–184, 197–199, 205–206
- Credible and Safe experiences, 12
- Crisis management. See Scandal management framework
- Customer communications, 226–253 commitment conversations and, 236–247, 250 commitment strategy for, 227–228, 235–247
 managing through commitments, 228–235
- Customer-focused perspective, 179–180
- Customer perceptions, 180, 181
- Customer relationship management (CRM), xi, 119–120, 227
- Customization: of ad selection, 53
 early efforts in, 104–106
 media, 47–48, 95
 of online video, 109–110
 of video advertising, 98–102, 104–106, 109–111
- CyWorld, 73
- Data-driven content, 109
- Data fusion, 134
- Deal or No Deal* (TV show), 44–45, 49
- Dean, Howard, 111
- Demand management, 82
- Demographic data, 63, 124, 131
- Differentiation, 46
- Digital media:
 future of, 70–77
 media mix and, 78
 migration to, 58–59
- Digital TV, 86, 88
- Digital video recorders (DVRs), vii, ix, 42, 66, 67, 88, 126
- Direct marketing, ix
- Direct purchase, 53–54
- Direct-response advertising, 41
- Direct response television (DRTV), 108–109
- “Don’t Count Us Out” (DCUO), 136
- DoubleClick, 81, 110
- Duke University lacrosse scandal, 161, 162, 163
- Dutch Media Monitor Experience, 9
- DVRs. See Digital video recorders
- Dynamicism, 96, 100–101
- Emerging markets, 82
- Engagement, vii–viii
 advertising effectiveness and, 19–26 with brand, 2, 28–30 concept of, x, 1–9, 113 consequences of, 2 experiences and, 4–9
 interactive, 17–18, 29, 40–55
 measuring, 16–19, 33–34
 with the medium, 1–2
 as motivational experience, 4–5 personal, 17–18, 20 potential negative effects of, 26–28 strategy, xi with TV ads, 49–50
 viewer, 37–55
- Enron, 191
- Enterprise-critical issues, 187–190
- Entertainment experiences, 32
- ESPN, as media brand, ix–x
- Ethics, of integration, 276–277
- Experience items, 10
- Experiences:
 add attention, turned on by ads, 32
 ad interference, 14–15 approach, 4–7
 avoidance, 4–5, 7–8
 civic looks out for my interests, 31 community connection, 15 concept of, 3
 constitutive, 15–16
 credible and safe, 12
 engagement and, 4–9
 entertainment, 32
 hedonic, 4, 5
 identifying, 6–16
 idiosyncratic, 8–9
 inspirational, 19, 31
 irritation, 7, 8, 14, 14–15 levels of description, 8 makes me smarter, 12
 measuring, 16–19, 33–34

- Experiences (Continued)
 motivational, 4–6
 overload, too much, 14 participation and socialization, 33 positive emotional, 31–32 prevention, 12
 promotion, 7, 10–12, 15
 regular part of my day, 13–14 rejection, 7–8, 14
 talking about and sharing, 3, 5, 7, 10–11
 timeout, 13
 transportation, 6–7, 13–14, 27–28 types of, 7
 utilitarian, 10, 11–12, 19
 visual imagery, 13
- Experiential congruence, 24–26
 Extended commercials, 52
 Extrinsic motivation, 6, 7
- False allegations, 166
 Financial data, 63
 Framing effects, 184
Friends (TV show), 279–280
- Gaming devices, 57–58
 Gaming industry, 72–73
 Gibson, Mel, 166, 172, 173, 175–176
 Google, 81, 132–133, 261
 Greenpeace, 193
- Hedonic experience, 4, 5
 Home Shopping Network (HSN), 42
 Humor, 143–144
 Hypercustomization, 39
- Ideas, multiple iterations of important, 142
 Identity-linked marketing, 215
 Idiosyncratic experiences, 8–9
 Immersive experiences, 214
 Implicit Association Test (IAT), 156–157
 Income sources, 68
 Incongruity, 143–144
 Industry consolidation, 81
 Information:
 dissemination of, by iTV, 48–49
 requests for, 51–52
 Infrastructure, 67
 Insight, consumer, 139–140
 Inspirational experiences, 19, 31
 Integrated content, 66–67, 266–281 advantages and disadvantages of, 271–277 drawing the line on, 277–279
 historical perspective on, 267–270
 Integrated marketing communications (IMC), 29–30, 116–117, 249–250
 Integrity-based scandals, 169–170
 Intellectual property (IP) model, 264
 Intentional actions, 169
 Interactive ads, 93, 95, 98
 Interactive engagement, 17–18, 20
 Interactive television (iTV), x advertiser benefits of, 49–54 blended screen model, 45 development of, 40–42
 engagement and, 45–55
 future of, 55
 multiscreen model, 44–45
 one-screen interactivity, 42–43, 50–54
 programmer benefits of, 45–49 slow adoption of, 89–90
 three-screen interactivity, 44
 two-screen interactivity, 43–44
 Interest groups, 192–193
 Internal communications, role of, 248–249
 Internet:
 advertising, ix, 62–63, 77
 audience measurement, 130–133 changes brought by, 37, 54, 58 content expansion and, 67 radio broadcasts on, 69 time spent on, 84–85
 two-screen interactivity and, 43–44
 Internet protocol television (IPTV), 89
 Internet servers, 132–133
 Internet video. See Online video
 Intrinsic motivation, 6, 7
 Intrusion, 26, 28
 Irritation experiences, 7, 8, 14, 14–15
- Jack-in-the-Box scandal, 162, 165, 166
 Jackson, Michael, 170, 171
 John Lewis, 233–235, 247
 Jungles, 150
- Kraft Foods, 280
- Liking, 4–5
 Lloyds TSB Scotland, 229–231, 240–247
 Localization, 118–119
 Local people meters (LPMs), 135, 136
 Long tail marketing, 82
- Magazine Fit Index, 26
 Magazines, 61
 Major League Baseball, 168
 Makes Me Smarter experiences, 12

- Marketing:
- business-to-business, 208–225
 - changes in, ix–x, 255–260, 263–265
 - by consumers, 65
 - evolution of, 37
 - integrated, 29–30, 116–117, 249–250
 - long tail, 82
 - mobile, 71–72
 - obstacles to change in, xi
 - operating systems and, 254–255
 - research and development for, 260–263
 - search, 62–63, 71, 80
 - viral, 112
- Marketing briefs, 264–265
- Marketing mix, 115–116
- Marlboro man, 111
- Mass-market vehicles, 37, 38
- Mattel, 179, 180
- Measured performance, in public relations, 203–205
- Measurement. See also Audience measurement
- of experiences and engagement, 16–19, 33–34
 - of reputational risk, 192
- Media:
- broadcast, 37, 38, 60, 80, 90, 124–125
 - changes in, 56–57
 - congruence between advertising and vehicle, 22–26
 - digital, 58–59, 70–78
 - future of, 65–78
 - history of, 59–65
 - out-of-home, 61–62, 77–78, 80
 - print, 61, 70
 - technological advancements affecting, 57–58
- Media agencies, 59–60, 64, 80–81, 258
- Media brands, ix–x
- Media budgets, 115, 119–120
- Media centrality, 187–190
- Media companies, 64–65
- Media consumption habits, 64, 86
- Media content. See Content
- Media coverage, of issues, 188–190, 192–194
- Media efficiency, 106–107
- Media engagement. See Engagement
- Media experiences. See Experiences
- Media industry, changes in, 81
- Media integration, 82
- Media mix, changes in, 78–82
- Media Rating Council (MRC), 136
- Media strategy, 63–64
- Message optimization, 119–120
- Messages. See Advertising messages
- Message strategies:
- consumer insight and, 139–140
 - directed at unconscious processing, 147–154
 - measuring effects of conscious processing and, 144–146
 - measuring effects of unconscious processing and, 154–157
 - processing fluency, 148–154
 - traditional approaches, 141–144
 - value-by-association, 147–148
- Metrics, for measuring experiences and engagement, 16–19
- Microsoft, 41, 81
- Mobile devices, 58
- Mobile marketing, ix, 71–72
- Mobile TV, 89
- Mobile web sites, 48
- Motivation, 6, 7
- Motivational experiences, 4–6
- Motivational systems, 150–151
- MP3 players, 57–58
- MTV, 269
- Multimedia:
- in B-to-B marketing, 212–213
 - evolution of, 213–215
 - THREE I*, 213–225
- Multiscreen interactivity, 44–45
- Music players, 57–58
- MySpace, 40, 74–75
- Narrowcast, 47–48
- Negative effects, of engagement, 26–28
- Negligence, 167–169
- Network television, decline in, ix–x, 60, 90, 124–125
- Newspapers, 61, 268–269
- News tickers, 47
- NFL Sunday Ticket, 48
- Nielsen Media Research, 124, 126, 128, 131–136
- Olympic Games, 48
- One-screen interactivity, 42–43, 50–54
- One-way overlays, 51
- Online advertising, ix, 62–63, 77
- Online communities, 33, 47
- Online statistics, 63
- Online video:
- addressability issues with, 92–93, 94
 - adoption of, 88–89

- Online video (Continued)
 advertising, 109–110 user control and, 85
 viewer engagement and, 39–40
 Oprah's Book Club, 277–278
 Out-of-home (OOH) media, 61–62, 77–78, 80
 Overload, Too Much experiences, 14
 Ownership rights, 67
- Pacific Trust Bank, 231–233
 Parity products, 30
 Participation and Socialization experiences, 33
 Participation rates: to multiscreen model, 45
 with one-screen interactivity, 43 with two-screen interactivity, 44 with three-screen interactivity, 44
 PC Meters, 130
 People meters, 127–131, 135–136
 Perceptual fluency, 148–149
 Perceptual identification tasks, 155
 Perpetrating brands, 161–163
 Perrier benzene scandal, 161, 165
 Personal engagement, 17–18, 20
 Personalization, 47–48
 Personal selling cycle, 209–212
 Political campaigns, 111, 268
 Portable people meters (PPMs), 129–130, 136
 Portfolio management, 119–120
 Positive emotional experiences, 31–32
 Prevention experiences, 7, 12
 Prevention goals, 150–153
 Print media, 61, 70, 80
 Privacy laws, 131–132
 Processing fluency, 148–154
 Procter & Gamble (P&G), 196, 268
 Product demonstrations, 141
 Product placement, ix, 66, 78
 Programmer benefits, of iTV, 45–49
 Program ratings, 90–91, 124, 136
 Projective techniques, 155–156
 Promotion experiences, 7, 10–12, 15
 Promotion goals, 150–153
 Psychographic data, 63
 Public officials, 182–183
 Public relations (PR):
 accountability and measured performance and, 203–205
 as broader view of market, 199–203 contribution of, 206 credibility and, 197–199, 205–206
 marketing strategies and, 196–197 role of, xi
 Public Relations Society of America (PRSA), 203–204
 Punishment, 167, 170
 Purchase behavior, 64, 146
 Purchase intent, 145–146
 Putnam Investments, 179, 180
- Qualitative research, 3, 4, 10
- Radio, 60, 69, 123
 Radio frequency identification (RFID), 215
 Regular Part of My Day experiences, 13–14
 Regulators, 182–183
 Regulatory goal fluency, 150–153
 Rejection experiences, 7–8, 14
 Relevance, 46
 Reputation management, xi, 178–195.
 See also Scandal management framework complexity and, 184–185 control and, 183
 credibility and, 183–184
 early warning systems, 185–192 importance of, 178–183 measurement and, 192
 situational assessment, 192–194
 Requests for information (RFIs), 51–52
 Research and development, 260–263
 Resource allocation models, 119–120
 Response rates: to one-screen interactivity, 43 to three-screen interactivity, 44 to two-screen interactivity, 44
 Response times, 156
 Retrieval fluency, 153–154
 Rhymes, 150
 Risk perception, 184
 Risk segmentation, 187–188
 Risk-taking, 112
 Royal Dutch Shell, 192–193
- Sampling error, 136
 Satellite radio, 69

- Scandal management framework, 159. See also Reputation management
- step 1: assess likelihood brand will be affected, 161–164, 174–175
 - step 2: issue immediate acknowledgement, 164–166, 175
 - step 3: choose strategic approach, 166–170, 175
 - step 4: design specific response, 170–174, 175
- Scandals, defined, 160–161
- Scandal spillover, 161–162, 163–164
- Search marketing, 62–63, 71, 80
- SecondLife, 73
- Self-marketing, 65
- Self-regulatory goals, 150–153
- Set-top boxes, 131–133
- 70/20/10 model, 261–263, 265
- Silver Anvil Awards, 204–205
- Situational assessment, 192–194
- Skill sets, 80
- Social networking, 75
- Spillover brands, 162, 163–164
- Spokespersons, 142, 143, 173–174
- Sponsored applications, 51
- Stakeholder maps, 200–203
- Starbucks, 179, 238–239, 279–280
- Stewart, Martha, 160, 165, 167, 169, 170, 171
- Stickiness, 46–47
- Story telling, 142
- Strong messages, 141–142
- Supply chain management, 82, 118
- Taglines, 150
- Tailored ads, x
- Talking About and Sharing experience, 3, 5, 7, 10–11
- Target audience:
 - addressability and, 92–93
 - understanding, 63–64
- Technology:
 - advancements in, 57–58
 - audience measurement, 126–133
 - multimedia, 213–215
 - RFID, 215
 - TV, 85–90
- Telescoping, 52, 53
- Television (TV):
 - broadcast, 37, 38, 39, 60, 80, 90, 124–125
 - cable, 38–39, 56–57, 60, 85
 - CGI, 214–215
 - decline in network, ix–x, 60, 90, 124–125
 - digital, 86, 88
 - evolution of, 37, 60
 - future of, 66–69
 - history of, 38–40
 - interactive (see Interactive television)
 - richness of experience of, 45–46
 - viewer engagement and, 37
 - viewing levels, 84–85
- Testimonials, 142
- Thin-slicing, 147
- Third parties, 183–184
- Third-party credibility, 198–199, 205–206
- THREE I* media, 213–225
- 3M, 260–261
- Three-screen interactivity, 44
- Timeout experiences, 143
- Time Warner, 81
- Tivo, 41–42
- Top-down approach, to experiences, 9
- Top-of-mind awareness, 144–145, 146
- Trace-leaving technologies, 131–133
- Tracking technologies, 127–131, 135–136, 215
- Transportation experiences, 6–7, 13–14, 27–28
- Trend Micro, 167–168, 170
- Tribune, 81
- TV advertising:
 - challenges facing, 90–91
 - changes in, 84–85
 - contextual, 113–114
 - creativity and, 111–114
 - customization of, 98–100, 104–106
 - DVRs and, 66–68, 88, 91
 - dynamic, 96, 100–101
 - effectiveness of, 107, 119–120
 - enhanced capabilities for, 91–120
 - future of, 65–69
 - interactive, 93, 95, 98
 - leveraging enhanced, 96–104
 - marketing impact of enhanced, 104–120
 - media mix and, 80
 - timeliness and, 108–109
- TV commercials:
 - early efforts in customized, 104–106
 - engagement with, 49–50
 - skipping of, 66–68, 88, 91
- TV networks, 38–39, 124
- TV ratings, 90–91, 124, 136
- TV remote control, 85

- TV technology:
 adoption of, 87, 88–90
 evolution of, 85–90
- Two-screen interactivity, 43–44
- Two-sided arguments, 141
- Tylenol scandal, 165
- Unconscious processing:
 advertising directed at, 147–154 versus conscious processing, 140
 measuring effects of, 154–157
- User-centric approach, to audience measurement, 130
- User control, 59, 85, 126
- User generated content, 74–77, 88–89, 178, 256–257
- Utilitarian experiences, 10, 11–12, 19
- Value-by-association message strategies, 147–148
- Value framework, for enhanced TV advertising, 96–101
- Value-per-message (VPM), 99
- Video advertising:
 addressable, 92–93, 97–98
 assessing effectiveness of, 119–120
 creativity and, 111–114
 customization of, 98–102, 104–106, 109–111
 interactive, 93, 95, 98
 online, 109–110
 short- and long-form, 110–111
- Video cassette recorder (VCR), 85–86
- Video content. See also Online video
 customization of, 95
 distribution of, 67
 expansion of, 67
 future of, 65–69
 increased competition in, 68
 mobile, 89
 online, 88–89
- Video games, 133–134
- Video on demand (VOD), 52, 88, 126
- Video players, 57–58
- Viewer engagement, 37–55
 cable television and, 38–39
 history of, 38–40
 interactive television and, 40–55 online video and, 39–40
 television and, 37
- Vioxx, 168–169, 171
- Viral marketing, 112
- Virtual worlds, 73–74
- Visual Imagery experiences, 13
- Wal-Mart, 118, 178, 180
- Watermarks, 128
- Web-based interactivity, 43–44
- Web sites:
 mobile, 48
 for television shows, 48
- WebTV, 41
- Wendy's, 161, 163
- Wikipedia, 74–75
- WorldCom, 160, 161, 190
- YouTube, 68, 74–75