

Index

Numbers

9 to 5: anger as motivation, 97–98;
fantasies in, 110; plot of, 35

A

abuse of authority. see also tyranny: as breaking of social norms, 55; fear of revenge deterring, 8–9;
unprofessional conduct in, 162–163
accusations, wrong or unfair, 58–59 acting out need for revenge. see techniques for getting even actor-observer bias: in mind games, 78–79; reality testing for, 153
Alinksy, Saul, 165
amends, 149. see also forgiveness; reconciliation
anger as motivation, 93–107; 9 to 5
examples of, 97–98, about generally, 13, 93–95; in emotional landscape of revenge, 103–107; examples of, 98–103; painful intensity of,
103–104; rage phenomenon, 28–35;
righteousness of, 11–12, 96–97;
tyrannical quality of, 105–106;
violation of expectations and trust in,
103–105
Animal Farm, 48
apologies, 148–149
Aquino, Karl, 136, 157, 181
Archdiocese of Boston, 184
armed robbery, 4
Arnold, Kelly, 156
art of revenge, 157–159
Arvin Meritor, 50
AT&T, 121, 131–132
atom bomb, 165
authority. see abuse of authority

autoworkers, 50
avengers: choices facing, 132; defined, 6; motives of, 10–11; personality factors, 133–135; power factors and,
135–141; questions for. see questions for avengers
avenging in justice. see justice
awareness of offenders, 155

B

Bacon, Sir Francis, 96 bad-mouthing, 36
bad service, 130–131
Barclay, Laurie, 167
Barreca, Regina, 131
Beale, Howard, 96
benefits, 49–50
Bennington, Robert, 99–100
Beyond Revenge: The Evolution of the Forgiveness Instinct, 177
Bierce, Ambrose, 164 blame assignment, 65–92; about generally, 12–14, 65–96; facts vs., 71–72; intentionality and, 68–71;
mind games in. see mind games; in model of revenge, 23–25; origins of conflict, perceptions about, 83–92; in rage phenomenon, 28–35; in revenge phenomena, 28–35; subjective sense-making influencing, 67–68
Bligh, Captain John, 85
bloggers, 121, 125–127
bombardier effect, 166
bonuses: agreements about, 29; changing after the fact, 49; secrecy of, 54–55

224 INDEX

Boothman, Richard C., 174
Bounty, 85
 breach of contract, 49
 Bright, David, 176
 Browning, Vicky, 131
Brutal Bosses and Their Prey, 55–56
 Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2000, 4–5
 Bush, President George W., 2
Business Week, 17, 117, 120
 Byam, Roger, 85
 bystanders: collateral damage to, 163;
 defined, 6

C

Cahn, Edmond, 107
 Cain and Abel, 18
 Callahan, Harry, 159
 Callaway, Justin, 121, 131–132
Calvin & Hobbes, 74
 Cantril, Hadely, 68
 causes of harm, 69
 causes of revenge. see triggers of revenge chairs, 46
 Cherokee lore, 171
 Chicago, 114
 children, 42
 choices facing avengers. see techniques for getting even Christian, Fletcher, 85
 Cingular, 121
 Clinton administration, 2–3
 coach evaluations, 102
 coalitions, 139–140
 collateral damage, 163
 ComCastMustDie.com, 120
 conditional forgiveness, 181 conditions of revenge, 139–140
 confidences, violating: inciting revenge, 18; sacred trust, violation of, 104,
 178; social norms, breaking, 29, 54
 confirmation bias, 80–81
 conflicts of interest, 145 confrontation, 36
 conspiracy theories, 77–78 constructive outcomes, 6–9
 “Consumer Vigilantes”, 120
 ConsumerAffairs.com, 119 control, regaining, 176–177
 cooperation, 8
 corrupt bosses, 56
 counterretaliation. see also retaliation, deserving: causing, 163–164;

 likelihood of, 161–162; managers
 and, 150
 “Counting to 10”, 15
 creativity of revenge, 12
 credit, taking, 29
 criticism, public, 56–57
 customer care groups, 102
 customers: complaining online, 119–121, 124; reconciliation of,
 178–180; server’s revenge on, 1

D

Danow, David, 159
 Dartmouth College, 67–68
 Data General, 7 decisions, correcting, 145
 delaying revenge acts, 140–141 depression, 172, 207
 deserving retaliation, 152–154
Dirty Harry, 26
 disclosure of confidences, 54
 disguising identities, 140 disproportionate harm, 163
 distributive justice, 63–64
 DLPFC (dorsolateral prefrontal cortex), 95 Dobbelle, Evan S., 117
 Donovan, Raymond, 124
 dorsolateral prefrontal cortex (DLPFC), 95
Dragnet, 71
 dreams, 34
 Dressler, Paul, 117
 Drexler, Millard “Mickey”, 117

E

e-mails: effectiveness of, 166–167;
 exaggerated self-reference in, 76–77
The Eagles Live, 84
 earning retaliation, 152–154
 Eastwood, Clint, 159
 eBay, 123
 Eclipse Team, 7
 Ellison, Larry, 17–18
 embarrassment, 123
 emotional landscape of revenge, 103–107. see also anger as motivation empathy, 175–176
 employee-centered perspective, 19–20 employee-employee provocation, 146–151; executioner, manager as,

- 149–151; first responsiveness, 146–147; mediation in, 147–149
- end runs, 122–123
- Epinions.com, 119
- escaping retaliation, 159–162
- ethics, 164–165
- everyday acts of revenge, 110–117; fantasies, 110–112; freeze-outs, 112–113; refusing help, 113–114; working harder, 116–117; working slower, 114–116
- exaggerated self-reference, 75–77
- executioner, managers as, 149–151
- The Executive Way*, 43
- Exline, Julie, 181
- expectations, violation of, 103–105
- external trait attributions, 79
- extreme forms of revenge, 118–141; about generally, 118; end runs, 122–123; firing of offenders, orchestrating, 128–129; litigation, 131–132; poor quality service, 130–131; quitting, 127–128; reputation of avenger, restoring, 124–126; reputation of offender, damaging, 123; stealing, 129–130; tattling, 119–126; unpleasant work assignments, 118–119; warning others, 123–124
- F
- facts vs. blame: preventing revenge, 145; in procedural justice, 61; selective perspectives on, 67–68, 71–72; in unfair accusations, 58
- failure to forgive, 177–179
- fair procedures, 137–138
- fantasies: as mild form of revenge, 110–112; of revenge, 34
- fast-food industry, 2
- FBI, 78
- fear of revenge as deterrent, 8–9
- feedback systems, 123
- “Feeling Cingular”, 121
- fiction, 159
- firing of offenders, orchestrating, 128–129
- first responders, managers as, 146–147
- The First Wives Club*, 26
- Fleder, Don, 84
- forgiveness, 171–185. see also reconciliation; about generally, 15, 171–172; control, regaining, 176–177; denial vs. apology in, 215, 217–219; empathy in, 175–176; failing to achieve, 177–179; identity, for damage to, 178; interpersonal indignities, 179; justice and, 184; leadership and, 182–185; for peace in workplace, 179–181; penance, offering, 175; questions for avengers, 168–169; reasons for, 37; shattered assumptions and, 177–178; truth-telling, 173–174; in workplace generally, 172–173
- Frank, J.D., 88
- Franzen, Jonathan, 114
- freeze-outs: common occurrence of, 35–36; as mild form of revenge, 112–113
- Fremer, Michael, 125–127
- Frey, Glenn, 84
- Friday, Joe, 71
- Friedman, Ron, 156
- frustration-aggression response, 43
- G
- gambling, 58–59
- Gannon, Bill, 71
- Gap Inc., 117
- Garnett, Terry, 17–18
- Gaugin, Paul, 96
- Gellar, Uri, 126
- gender, 133
- getting ahead. see forgiveness
- Gilmour, David, 91–92
- goal obstruction: example of, 41–42; as trigger, 42–47
- Goldman, Barry, 81
- Goodwin, Richard, 79–80
- grades, 65–66, 69–70
- Greenberg, Jerry, 129–130
- Gregoire, Yany, 120–121
- H
- Hardball*, 35, 93, 137, 172
- Hart Jr., Franklin, 97–98, 110
- Hastorf, Albert, 68

226 INDEX

health benefits: agreements about, 49–50; of forgiveness, 173 heated emotions, 33–35
 “Hell Freezes Over”, 84
 Henley, Don, 84, 147
 Hiroshima, 165
 homicides in workplace, 4–5 honor violations, 51–56
 Hornstein, Harvey, 55
 hostile attribution style, 133–135
 hotel management, 102
 how people get even. see techniques for getting even Hughes, Howard, 99
 human resources personnel, 55
 hypervigilance, 73–74

I

identity, damage to, 178
 “I’m Sorry” laws, 174 inaccuracy of blame, 12–14
 incompetence, 78–79
 Ingres Corp., 17
 injustice, 20. see also justice innocent bystanders, 163
 insults, 59
 intentionality. see also malevolent motives: assessing, 152–154; degree of blame and, 30–32, 68–71 interactional justice, 62–63 internal trait attributions, 78–79
 interpersonal indignities, 179
 introduction to workplace revenge
 Iron Man, 43
 IRS, 123
 Israel, 89–90

J

J. Crew, 117
 Jansen, Dan, 165
 Jaocby, Susan, 26
 Japan, 165
 Jefferson, Thomas, 151
 jerkiness, 78–79
 Johnson, President Lyndon, 77–78
 Johnson, Samuel, 17
 Jordan, David Starr, 185
 justice: assessing, 168; distributive, 63–64; forgiveness and, 179–181, 184; injustice as trigger, 60–64; interactional, 62–63; leadership for,

182–185; organizational. see organizational justice; peace in workplace and, 15; procedural, 61–62; in rage phenomenon, 23–28; revenge as search for, 10–13; sloppiness of revenge as, 31

K

Karatz, Abe, 99
 Kearns-Goodwin, Doris, 77–78
 Kidder, Tracey, 7
 Kincaid, Larry, 32
 Kramer, Rod: on exaggerated self-reference, 76; on mind games generally, 72; on reality testing, 154; on sinister attribution error, 79

L

leadership. see management responsibilities
 legal authorities, 61
 Lelyveld, Arthur, 157
 lessons, offender learning, 155–156
 Life, 77
 litigation: against AT&T, 121; as extreme form of revenge, 118; as last resort, 131–132; reasons for seeking, 174 long-lasting desire for revenge, 35
 “Long Way Home”, 84
 lying, 29, 52–53

M

MAD (“Mutually Assured Destruction”), 8
 Magnetic Resonance Imaging (fMRI) machines, 94–95 malevolent motives. see also intentionality: assigning generally, 70–71; exaggerated self-reference and, 75–76; sinister attribution error assigning, 79 management-centered perspective, 19 management responsibilities: for avengers talking, 167–168; avoiding employee provocation, 1–2, 144–146; for communications, 165–167; conflict resolution, 9; in counterretaliation, 161–162; in employee-employee provocation, 146–151; ethics and, 164–165;

- executioner, functioning as, 149–151;
 first responders, acting as, 146–147;
 forgiveness and, 168–169; for justice
 without intervention, 168;
 mediation, 147–149; offender
 learning lessons and, 155–156;
 perspective of employees, perceiving, 13; preventing revenge generally, 14, 143–144, 151–152; in punishment fitting crime, 156–159; regrets, assessing, 162–164; retaliation, avenger getting, 159–162; retaliation, offender deserving, 152–154; social approval and, 160–161; treatment of employees, 144
 Mason, Nick, 91–92
 Matthews, Chris, 35, 93, 137, 172
 McCartney, Paul, 91
 McCullough, Mike, 168, 177
 McGregor, Jena: on ComCastMustDie.com, 120; on Gap
 Inc. CEO dispute, 117; on Oracle controversy, 17
 mediation: management in, 147–149;
 selective perspectives in, 67–68
The Merchant of Venice, 26
 micromanagement, 20–21
 mild acts of revenge. see everyday acts of revenge
 mind games, 72–83; about generally, 72–73; actor-observer bias, 78–79;
 confirmation bias, 80–81; conspiracy theories, 77–78; exaggerated
 self-reference, 75–77; hypervigilance, 73–74; obsession, 74–75; sinister attribution error, 79–80; social information sharing, 81–83
 model of revenge, 23–25
A Momentary Lapse of Reason, 91 morality of revenge, 11–12 Morrill, Calvin, 43, 81
 moving on. see forgiveness multiplicity, 139
 “Mutually Assured Destruction” (MAD),
 8
Mystic River, 32
- N
- Nagasaki, 165
 NATO, 8
 NCAA, 58–59
 negative affectivity, 133–135
 negative thinking, 74–75
Network, 96
 Neuheisel, Rick, 58–59
 neuroeconomics, 94–95
New York Times, 77
Newsweek, 77
The No Asshole Rule, 55
 nonviolent forms of revenge, 5
- O
- obsession, 74–75
 offenders, defined, 6
 O'Malley, Archbishop Séan Patrick, 184
 online tattletales, 119
 Oracle, 17–18
 organization authorities, 61 organizational breakdowns, 6
 organizational justice: fairness, perceptions of, 211, 214; inequity reduction response, 114; injustice and, 10; in model of revenge, 22;
 referent cognitions theory and, 206
 origins of conflict: assessing, 155–156;
 blame and, 83–92
 outcomes, 6–9
The Ox-bow Incident, 32
- P
- pain intensity, 103–104
 Palestine, 89–90
 paranoia: confirmation bias in, 80–81;
 conspiracy theories as, 77–78;
 exaggerated self-reference as, 75–77
 parents, 42
 parking spaces, 44–46
 Parton, Dolly, 35, 97–98
 Paycheck, Johnny, 128
 peace in workplace: desire for, 15; forgiveness for, 179–181; justice and,
 15; leadership and, 182–185
 penance, offering, 175 performance appraisals, 37 personality factors: in avengers, 10, 212;
 in model of revenge, 23–25; in techniques for getting even, 133–135
 pessimistic attribution style, 74–75

228 INDEX

Pink Floyd, 91–92
 poor quality service, 130–131
 Pope, Alexander. see forgiveness
 Pope Benedict XVI, 184
 post.secrets, 130–131
 power: abuse of, 8, 55–56; of anger. see anger as motivation; in model of revenge, 23–25; role in revenge, 135–137
 pragmatism, 176
 presentations, 43–44
 preventing revenge. see management responsibilities
 Priest, Judas, 109
 primal nature of righteous anger, 96–97; 9 to 5, 97–98; Tucker: The Man and His Dream, 98–100; workplace
 examples of, 100–103
 Princess of Power, 43
 Princeton University, 67–68
 private confrontation, 36
 pro-social outcomes, 6–9 procedural justice: defined, 61–62; fairness and, 137; in model of revenge, 23–25; as predictor of revenge, 203, 214
 promises, broken, 52
 promotions: blocking, 28, 41, 70; fairness and, 145; meeting criteria for, 47–48
 proposers, 95
 provoking employees, avoiding, 144–146
 public criticism, 56–57
 public opinion, 125
 punishment fitting crime, 156–159

Q

questions for avengers, 151–169; about generally, 151–152;
 counterretaliation, 161–162; escaping retaliation, 159–162; ethics, 164–165; forgiveness, 168–169;
 justice without intervention, 168;
 lessons, offenders learning, 155–156;
 punishment fitting crime, 156–159;
 regret, 162–164; retaliation, offender
 deserving, 152–154; social approval, 160–161; talking to bosses, 167–168;
 talking to offenders, 165–167
 quitting: as common form of revenge, 36–37; example of, 41–42; as extreme form of revenge, 127–128

R

rainmakers, 49
 Randi, James, 126–127
 randomness, 41–42
 rationality of revenge, 11–12
 Reagan administration, 124–125 reality testing, 154
 reciprocity, 133
 reconciliation. see also forgiveness: as alternative to revenge, 37–38;
 forgiveness and, 180–181; for peace, 15
 refusing help: as common form of revenge, 36; as milder form of revenge, 113–114
 regrets: likelihood of, 162–164; about thinking of revenge, 35 reputations, damaging: of offender, 123;
 restoring, 124–126; as trigger, 56–60
 resources available, 141 retaliation, deserving, 152–154 revenge: defined, 3; theories of, 22 revenge, every day acts. see everyday acts of revenge
 revenge, extreme forms. see extreme forms of revenge revenge phenomena. see phenomenon of revenge
 revenge triggers. see triggers of revenge righteous anger. see anger as motivation rippedoffreport.com, 119
 road rage: actor-observer bias in, 78–79;
 rules violations and, 48
 robbery, 4
 rules: applying consistently, 145;
 breaking as trigger, 41–42, 47–50;
 changing after the fact, 49

S

sacred trust, violation of, 103–105
 Sanfey, Alan, 94–95, 107
 secrets, breaking, 54
 selective perspectives, 67–68
 self-esteem, 133
 selfish motives, 70
The Sense of Injustice, 107
 sexual harassment, 60
 Shakespeare, William, 41
 shaming offenders, 36, 123
 shattered assumptions, 177–178

- shirking responsibilities, 50–52
 sinister attribution error, 79–80
 situational factors, 22
 sleeplessness, 79
 smaller acts of revenge. see everyday acts of revenge social approval, 160–161
 social information sharing, 81–83 social justice philosophy, 164
 social norms, breaking, 50–56
Soul of a New Machine, 7
 sources of revenge, 19–22
 South Africa, 174
 Spiderman, 159
 Stanford University, 185
 Starr, Ringo, 91
 stealing: as extreme form of revenge, 129–130; ideas or credit, 53
 Stempel, Herb, 79–80
Stereophile, 125–127
 stupidity, 152–154
 subjective sense-making, 67–68
 Sutton, Robert, 55
 “Sweet Revenge”, 117
Sweet Revenge, 131
 Syrus, Publilius, 143
- T
- tactical considerations, 139–141;
 conditions, 139–140; multiplicity, 139; timing, 140–141
 “Take This Job and Shove It!”, 128 talking: to bosses, 167–168; to offenders, 165–167 tattling: about generally, 119–126; end runs, 122–123; reputation of avenger, restoring, 124–126; reputation of offender, damaging, 123; warning others, 123–124
 techniques for getting even, 109–141;
 about generally, 109–110; choices facing avengers generally, 132; conditions, 139–140; extreme forms. see extreme forms of revenge; fair procedures, 137–138; fantasies, 110–112; freeze-outs, 112–113; multiplicity, 139; personality factors in, 133–135; power structures, 135–137; refusing help, 113–114; small, everyday acts generally, 110; tactical considerations, 139–141;
 timing, 140–141; working harder, 116–117; working slower, 114–116
 tenure, 47–48
 theft, 129–130
 theories of revenge, 22
 “They Saw a Game”, 67–68
 timing, 140–141
 tit-for-tat feuds, 85–92
 Tomlin, Lily, 35, 97–98
The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson, 126
 transcendence, 176
 treatment of employees: managers preventing revenge, 144; managers’ responsibilities for, 10 triggers of revenge, 41–64; about generally, 14, 41–42; goal obstruction, 42–47; injustice underlying, 60–64; in model of revenge, 23–25; in rage phenomenon, 28–30; reputations, damaging, 56–60; rules, breaking, 47–50; social norms, breaking, 50–56; variations on, 202 trust, violation of, 103–105
 Truth and Reconciliation Commission, 174, 184 truth-telling, 173–174
 Tucker, Preston, 98–100
Tucker: The Man and His Dream, 98–100
 tuition costs, 6
Twenty-One, 79–80
 tyranny. see also abuse of authority: of emotional pain, 105–106; of managers, 21, 85; peace without justice as, 15, 179–180; public vs. private responses to, 140–141, 214
- U
- UCLA, 58–59
 Ultimatum Game, 94
 unions: benefits of, 49–50; “working to rule”, 115
 University of Michigan, 174
 University of Otago, 131
 University of Washington, 58–59 unpleasant work assignments, 118–119 unpredictable outcomes, 163
 unprofessional conduct, 162–163
 U.S. Navy, 116

230 INDEX

U.S. Postal Service, 4–5, 114
utilitarian ideals, 164

V

Van Doren, Charles, 79–80
venting, 81–83
victims of workplace offenses:
 actor-observer bias of, 78–79; alternatives for, 15; intensity of emotions of, 105; obsession of, 74; vigilance and, 73–74; violation of expectations and trust of,
 103–105
Vietnam War, 77, 156
vigilantism, 31–32
violation of expectations and trust, 103–105
violence, 3–5
voice of employees, 145

W

War of the Roses, 89–90
warning others, 123–124
Warren, Frank, 130

Warsaw Pact, 8
Washington Post, 77
Waters, Maxine, 93
Waters, Roger, 91–92
Waterston, Bill, 74 ways of getting even. see techniques for getting even West, Tom, 7–8
whistleblowing. see tattling
White House, 2–3
Wild Justice, 26
Wilde, Oscar, 65
women: discrimination against,
 115–116, 122; sexual harassment
 and, 60
work assignments, 118–119 working harder, 116–117
working slower, 114–116
“working to rule”, 115
Worthington, Everett, 172, 180, 181
Wright, Richard, 91

Y

YouTube, 121