

INDEX

A

- Ability to give, 86–87
The Accidental Fundraiser (Roth and Ho), 389
- Accountability: board of directors' fiscal, 51; lack of board member, 61–63; organization structure as key to, 46; orientation role in creating, 485–486
- Accounting errors, 457–458
- Acquisition cost, 150, 152
- Acquisition strategies: canvassing, 233–242; description of, 34; direct mail as, 147–161, 163–191; online fundraising program, 213–224; opportunistic fundraising, 243–260; phone-a-thons and telephone, 193–211; retaining donors acquired through canvass, 240–242; smaller-scale direct mail as, 153–154; special events, 103–109, 471–473; voluntary service fees, 225–232. See also Fundraising strategies; Upgrading strategies
- Action plans, 377–378
- Adbooks: advantages and issues to consider for, 138–140; distribution and design of, 140; getting ready to sell and selling the, 142–144; IRS rules regarding, 139–140; pricing the ads, 140–141; producing the, 144–145; timeline for, 142
- Advisory boards: description and functions of, 68–69; process of forming the, 70; when to form, 69–70
- Affordable Housing for Working People: background information on, 450–451; fundraising plan developed by, 451–453
- Agency. See Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
- American Association of Fund Raising Counsel, 9
- The American Freshman*, 215
- Anniversary appeals, 188
- Annual dinner events: additional committees needed for, 128–130; cleanup planning, 129–130; day of the, 130–132; description of, 126–127; getting money ahead of time, 130; Master Committee for, 127–128, 129; post-event tasks, 132; recruiting volunteers, 128
- Annual fund drive: description of, 27; matching fundraising strategies to, 27–29
- Annual funding: description, 339; drives for, 27–29
- Appalachian Community Fund, 62–63
- Association of Fundraising Professionals, 400, 425
- “Assume good intent,” 427, 429

B

Baby Boomers, 215
Beliefs, and values: identifying prospects, 84–86; mission statement expression of a nonprofit's, 40–43, 48
Benefits program, 178–180
Bequest types: bequest of a percentage, 299; bequest of residue, 299; contingent bequest, 299; designated bequest, 300; general bequest, 299; income only to be used, 300
Bequests: as simple form of legacy giving, 298; wording and types of, 298–300
Blacetti, Judy, 175
Board member problems: board avoids making decisions, 59; decisions are made and then forgotten, 59–60; free riders among members, 60; lack of accountability for behavior, 61–63; members feel overworked, 58–59; moving past, 63; power sharing issues, 60–61; too many expectations of members, 58
Board member recruitment: assessing board needs for, 63, 65–66; Current Board Evaluation used for, 64; orientation of new members, 67–68; process of, 66–67
Board of directors: advisory boards working with, 68–70; authorization and endowment policies by, 323–326; common problems and solutions for, 57–63; fiscal accountability of, 51; fundraising role of the, 55–57; purpose and functions of the, 50–51; recruiting and involving new members, 63–68; responsibilities of the, 50, 51–52; statement of agreement, 53–55; structure and size of the, 52; time and money contributions by, 56–57; using volunteers to augment work by, 71.

See also Meetings

Boston College, 13
BREs (business reply envelopes), 174–175
Brochures: direct mail enclosure, 177; major gift solicitation, 286
Budget development: estimate expenses and income separately, 434–438; meet, compare, negotiate, 438–443
Budgets: case statement on, 47, 48; Community Arts Initiative, 440–441; developing, 433–443; financial needs considered in, 27–34; financial statement, 47, 48; fiscal accountability of the board and, 51; importance of, 431–432; North Fork Watershed Protection, 441–442; ongoing monitoring of, 443; special event, 113, 114. See also Financial problems; Fundraising plans
Bush, George W., 19

C

Calendars: avoiding having both home and work, 376; effective use of “year-at-a-glance,” 374–376, 445–446; fundraising plan on, 445–446
The Canadian Nonprofit and Voluntary Sector (Hall and others), 8
Canvass director, 238
Canvass field managers, 238
Canvass preparation: checking laws and ordinances, 236–237; organizing staff and volunteers, 238–239; studying the demographics, 237–238
Canvass support person, 238
Canvassers: materials to be used by, 239; recruiting and training the, 238–239; typical work day of, 239–240;

- volunteer and paid staff as, 233–234, 238–239
- Canvassing: advantages and disadvantages of, 234; canvasser's work day, 239–240; common street, 233; description of, 233; door-to-door, 233; four elements needed for, 235–236; retaining donors acquired through, 240–242; setting up, 236–239; volunteer and paid staff roles in, 233–234
- Capital Campaign Gift Range Chart, 346
- Capital campaign phases: launch phase, 350–351; public phase, 351–352; quiet (or pre-campaign) phase, 348–350; wind-up phase, 352
- Capital campaign tasks: accounting systems, 344; building-related costs, 345; cost of staff time, 344; estimating costs, 343–344; final approval, 347; fundraising materials, 344; gift range chart preparation, 345–347; office extras, 344; preparing case statement for, 345; reviewing legal issues of donor records, 353; timing the campaign, 345
- Capital campaigns: beginning, 343–347; best use of, 342–343; four phases of, 347–352; issues to consider for, 339; organizational financial needs to consider for, 29, 52, 339–340; post-campaign tasks, 352–353; sample pledge agreement for, 351
- Capital funding, 340
- Capital needs: annual funding, 27–29, 339; board of directors' responsibilities to fill, 52; capital funding, 340; description of, 29; endowment funding, 340; financial vehicles to provide income for, 340–341
- Case statement sections: financial statement and a budget, 47, 48; fundraising plan, 46–47, 48; goals, 43, 48; history, 44–46, 48; mission statement, 40–43, 48; objectives, 44, 48; structure, 46, 48
- Case statements: capital campaign, 345; description of, 39; developing the, 48; differences between strategic plan and, 47–48; major gifts campaign, 310; sections and content of the, 39–47, 48
- Cash flow problems, 456
- Center on Philanthropy Panel Study (COPPS) [Indiana University], 13
- Center on Wealth and Philanthropy (Boston College), 13
- Charity: definition of, 7; language roots and meaning of, 8
- “Charity muggers,” 234
- Christmas appeals, 188
- Chronicle of Philanthropy*, 401
- “Chuggers,” 234
- Clinton, Kate, 77
- Coalition for the Medical Rights of Women, 496–497
- Coalition fundraising: evaluate any problems in, 476–478; example of local arts coalition's approach to, 479–481; issues to consider for, 475–476; some solutions for improving, 478–479
- “Code of Ethics” (AFP), 425
- Cold lists, 155, 159
- Columbus Day appeals, 187
- Community Arts Initiative, 440–441
- Community benefit organizations (CBOs), 7
- Comparative Perspective* (Hall and others), 8

Confessions of a Board Member
 (Mathiasen), 63
 Confidential donor records, 385
 Consultants: challenges of finding good,
 407–408; description and functions of, 406; fundraising tasks by, 408–409;
 how to choose, 409–411; paying, 411–
 412; realistic expectations for work by,
 412; three characteristics of work by,
 407; what they don't do, 409
 Contact. See Prospect contact
 Contingent bequest, 299
 Corporation funding: comparing foundation and, 16–17; myth of, 9–10
 Costs. See Expenses
 Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, 400
 “Creating a Fundraising Plan” (Roth), 451
 Credit card donations, 259
 Current Board Evaluation, 64
 Cygnus Research, 393

D

Defensiveness: constructive handling of executive directors, 422–423;
 definition of, 421; NIMF (Nothing Is My Fault), 423
 Deficit spending, 456–457
 Designated bequest, 300
 Development directors: assessing fundraiser problems before hiring, 398–399; executive director
 working relationship with,
 417–423; fundraising tasks of,
 397; how to hire capable,
 401–404; paying the, 399–401;
 role of, 395–397; sample job description of, 402–404. See also
 Fundraising

Development staff: anxiety and turnover
 by, 413–416; coach, 407; consultant, 406, 407–412; high turnover of,
 393–394; hiring development director, 395–404; mentor, 406; situations that require, 405–406; trainer, 506. See also Staff

Development staff stress management:
 detach from results of your work,
 414–415; keep your priorities clear,
 414; recognize external forces beyond your control, 415; recruit volunteers and delegate, 413; take care of yourself, 415–416

Direct mail: acquisition cost of, 150; acquisition function of, 149–150, 152;
 advantages of, 149; appealing to current donors, 185–186; benefits and premiums included in, 178–181;
 developing lists for, 155–161;
 evaluating your appeal, 189–191;
 handling responses to your, 189;
 history of use of, 147, 148; logistics of, 163–191; phoning after, 209–210;
 retention function of, 150–151;
 seeking renewal gifts through, 181–185;
 using smaller-scale, 153–154; tallying up responses to, 190; types of appeals included in, 186–189; understanding psychology of, 147–148; upgrade function of, 151

Direct mail appeal package: carrier (outside) envelope, 163–164; description of, 163; getting personal through, 164–165; the letter, principles of writing, 166–172; other enclosures in the, 175–177; putting together the, 177–178; reply device,
 172–174, 182–183; return envelope,
 174–175; suggestions for drawing

- attention to, 165; “teaser copy” used in, 166; timing for sending the, 178; using common sense when designing, 165–166
- Direct mail enclosures: brochure, 177; fact sheet, 176–177; internal memorandum, 176; lift note, 175–176; newspaper article, 176
- Direct mail letters: closing paragraph of, 171; the length of, 170; opening paragraph of, 169–170; order in which they are read, 168; principles of writing, 167–168; P.S. (postscript), 168; rest of, 171–172; things to consider for, 166–167. See also Letters
- Direct mail lists: cold, 155, 159; discarding old, 161; dos and don’ts of sharing, 159–161; legacy giving, 303; renting and trading, 158–159; types of, 155–158. See also Donor records
- Dirty money problem: amount of money issue of, 497–498; bad publicity and loss donations related to, 497, 498; Coalition for the Medical Rights of Women’s approach to, 496–497; description of the, 495; letting go solution to, 496; “vomit test” for, 497
- Diversifying sources, as key principle of fundraising, 21–22
- Do Not Call Act (2003), 193
- “Donate Now” icon (Web site), 217, 231
- Donor acquisition: canvassing for, 233–242; cost of, 150, 152; direct mail for, 147–161, 163–191; online fundraising program, 213–224; opportunistic fundraising for, 243–260; phone-a-thons for, 194–209; smaller-scale direct mail for, 153–154; special events used for, 103–109. See also Fundraising strategies
- Donor base: importance of building, 73–74; personal solicitation to build, 83–102
- Donor database: purchasing a, 380–381; six functions of, 379–380; specific information kept in, 381–383
- Donor giving: legacy form of, 295–305; major gift form of, 279–292; matching organizational needs to, 34; monthly donor pledge programs for, 271–278; renewal gifts form of, 181–185
- Donor records: action plans as part of, 377–378; confidentiality of, 385; donor database, 379–383; importance of keeping, 383–384; keeping up to date, 385–386; security and backups for, 386. See also Direct mail lists
- Donor renewal, direct mail function of, 151
- Donor retention: from canvassing, 240–242; description of strategies for, 35; direct mail function of, 150–151; keeping in touch with major donors, 287–289; renewing major donor gifts, 289–291. See also Retention strategies
- Donors: attention to structure section by sophisticated, 46; direct mail appeals to current, 185–186; fundraising plans for your, 446–447; “Gina Generous” scenario on developing, 30–33; individual giving by, 17–20; keeping action plans on, 377–378; legacy, 295–305; major gift, 279–292; managing information on, 367; monthly donor pledge programs for, 271–278; organization goals for, 33–34; rates of retaining, 29; renewal gifts of, 181–185; segmenting, 265–270. See also Giving contributions; Prospective donors; Thank you notes

Dubay, Kristen, 470

Dying intestate, 396

E

E-mail fundraising: building an e-list for, 219; e-appeals, 221–224; e-newsletter, 219–220

E-mails: caution against information management using, 369; fundraising using, 219–224; house party e-vite, 122; keeping in touch with major gift donors with, 289; prospects contacted through, 93–94; rural community issues related to, 465; thank you to donors using, 259; as time sink, 372–373; voluntary fees for services delivered by, 231–232

E-newsletters: legacy gift program information in, 302–303; as online fundraising strategy, 219–220; segmenting donors facilitating, 269

Eastern Countries Native Plant Society, 35–36

Embezzlement, 457–458

empty tomb, inc., 13

Enclosures: direct mail appeal, 175–177; phone-a-thon letter, 199–201

End-of-year appeals, 186

Endowment Campaign Gift Range Chart, 331

Endowment campaign steps: step 1: set a goal, 329–331; step 2: create the gift range chart, 331–332; step 3: create the timeline, 332; step 4: form a solicitation team, 332–334; step 5: compile and organize list of prospects, 334–336; step 6: solicit the gifts, 336–337

Endowment funding, 340

Endowment (or reserve fund): benefits of, 320; board authorization and policies for, 323–326; checklist for organizational readiness for, 327; considerations for setting up, 322–323, 328; description of, 30, 319–320; disadvantages of, 321–322; French laws on, 322; “Gina Generous” scenario on, 30–33

Endowment policies: gift acceptance, 325–326; invasion, 324; investment, 326; setting use of, 323–324

Envelopes: BREs (business reply envelopes), 174–175; direct mail carrier (outside) 163–164; direct mail return, 174–175; major gift campaign stationery and, 310–311. See also Letters

Estate gifts. See Legacy donors

Ethical dilemma examples: being asked to be a spy, 426–427, 428–429; good endings for, 428–429; more difficult endings for, 429–430; question of when to tell “the truth,” 426, 428; religious behavior as condition of gift, 427, 429

Ethical dilemmas: “assume good intent,” 427, 429; clean versus dirty money, 495–498; “Code of Ethics” (AFP), 425; three examples of good and difficult endings of, 426–430; three tools for resolving, 427–428

Evaluations: direct mail appeal, 189–191; house party, 126; raffle, 138; Special Event Evaluation Form, 118

Executive directors: barriers to productive relationships with, 417–420; dealing with defensiveness of, 421–423; description of, 417;

- development director working relationship with, 417–421
 - Expenses: capital campaign, 343–345; estimating, 434–435; of fundraising in rural communities, 465; matching income and projected, 440; projecting income to cover, 435, 437–438, 439; sample expense projections, 436
- F
- Face-to-face opportunity fundraising, 247
 - Face-to-face prospect meeting: etiquette issues of, 98–99; following-up after the, 101–102; prospect's possible responses during, 99–101; rural community fundraising and, 473–474; tips for preparing for, 97–98
 - Facebook, 384
 - Fact sheet enclosure, 176–177
 - Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, 19
 - “Famous people”: direct mail appeals, 188; phone-a-thons promotion by, 206
 - Feasibility studies: description of, 355; increasing your chance of success with, 359; the information provided by, 358; making the decision to conduct or not to conduct, 356–358; who conducts the, 355–356
 - Financial mismanagement, 457–458
 - Financial needs: annual, 27–29, 339; capital, 27–29, 52, 339–341; endowment and reserve funds, 30–33; matching donor giving to, 34
 - Financial problems: accounting errors, mismanagement, or embezzlement, 457–458; cash flow, 456; deficit spending, 456–457; keeping calm when facing, 455. See also Budgets; Fundraising challenges
 - Financial statement, 47, 48
 - Fiscal accountability, 51
 - 501(c)(3) status: description of, 8, 22, 49–50; “one-third rule” and risk of losing, 22
 - Foundation Center, 13
 - Foundation funding: comparing corporation and, 16–17; myth of, 9–10; realities of, 15–16
 - Franklin, Ben, 298
 - Franklin Institute, 298
 - Friends of the Library, 467–468
 - Friends of Progress, 149–150
 - Funding Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Programs in North Carolina* (Dubay and Rosch), 470
 - Fundraising: board of directors' role in, 55–57; budgeting for, 47, 48, 113, 114, 431–443; for a coalition, 475–481; ethical dilemmas common to, 425–430, 495–498; foundation and corporation giving myth of, 9–10; for new nonprofit organizations, 491–493; paid staff role in, 57; in rural communities, 463–474; understanding that anyone can do, 25–26; when everyone is a volunteer in, 483–489. See also Development directors; Money; Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
 - Fundraising barriers: fear of asking for money, 76–80; fear of consequences of “asking a friend for money,” 81; fear that “the person will say no,” 80–81; quid pro quo fear, 81–82
 - Fundraising challenges: clean versus dirty money, 495–498; fundraising for a coalition, 475–481; identifying any

Fundraising challenges (Continued)
real and serious, 460–461; mistakes in identifying nonprofit's, 460; of new nonprofit organizations, 491–493; of raising money in rural communities, 463–474; when everyone is a volunteer, 483–489. See also Financial problems

Fundraising events: adbooks, 138–145; annual dinner, 126–132; house party, 119–126; phone-a-thon, 194–209; raffles, 132–138; special events, 103–118

Fundraising management: managing donor data, 379–386; managing your information component of, 365–369; office issues of, 363–364; time management component of, 371–378. See also Volunteer management

Fundraising office, 363–364

Fundraising plan development: step 1: set a goal, 445; step 2: include certain details in each income strategy, 445–446; step 3: plot out plans for individual donors, 446–447; step 4: match numbers of donors to strategies, 447; step 5: write out the timeline of tasks, 447

Fundraising plans: Affordable Housing for Working People case study on, 450–453; case statement section on, 46–47, 48; creating, 445–453; developing a budget role in, 433–443; importance of, 431–432; People's Theater case study on, 447–450. See also Budgets

Fundraising principles: diversifying sources, 21–22; understanding that anyone can fundraise, 25–26; understanding why people give, 22–24

Fundraising strategies: available in rural communities, 470–474; getting comfortable asking for money, 75–82, 280; matching financial needs with, 27–37; organizational importance of having, 1–2; organizational learning to correctly use, 35–36; personal solicitation of prospects, 83–102; religious organizations' successful, 19–20; retention of donors, 35, 150–151, 240–242, 287–291; working smarter at, 37. See also Acquisition strategies; Large-scale fundraising; Upgrading strategies

G

Garlic Festival (Gilroy, CA), 469

Gates, Bill, 13

Gaywill.com, 302

General bequest, 299

GIFT (grassroots-fundraising.org), 401

Gift Pyramid, 282

Gift Range Charts: calculating a major gift, 282; Capital Campaign Gift Range Chart, 345–347; Endowment Campaign Gift Range Chart, 331; major gift prospective donors, 284

Gifts of assets, 340

Gifts of income, 340

Giving and Volunteering in the USA, 13

Giving contributions: challenges of collecting data on, 10–13; corporate funding share of, 16–17; foundation funding share of, 15–16; myths of foundation and corporate, 9–10; power of individual, 17–20; sources of 2009, 10; uses of 2009, 18

Giving motivation: understanding individual, 22–23; understanding multiple reasons for, 23–24

Giving USA: annual funding reports by, 9; itemized tax returns data reported by, 11, 12; reporting on consistent pattern of gift uses, 18
Global Civil Society: Dimensions of the Nonprofit Sector (Salomon and others), 8
 Goal statement section, 43, 48
 Goals: case statement section on, 43, 48; differences between objectives and, 44; endowment campaign, 329–331; fundraising plan, 445; hints on writing, 43; major gift campaign, 308–309; major gift programs, 280–281. See also Objectives
 Government funding programs, 9
Grassroots Fundraising Journal, 3, 308, 451
 Guidestar Web site, 8

H

Haiti earthquake relief (2010), 193–194
 Hall, M., 8
 Handwritten thank you notes: suggestions for writing, 255; valuable lesson on power of, 251–252
 Hanukkah appeals, 188
 Higher Education Research Institute (UCLA), 215
 History section: description of, 44–45, 48; hints on writing the, 45–46
 Ho, Mimi, 389
 Holiday appeals, 187–188
 Holiday cards to major donors, 287
 Honorary annual dinner committee, 128
 Hot lists, 155, 155–157
 House party: choreographing the, 123–124; evaluation and follow-up to, 126; finding the host, 120–121; how to put on a, 119–120; the invitation to a, 122;

planning around the pitch, 124–126; whom to invite, 121–122
How Five Trends Will Reshape the Social Sector (La Piana and Associates), 224
 “How to Raise $50,000 in Six Weeks” (Klein), 308
 Humane Society, 227

I

Idealist (publication), 401
 ImagineCanada.ca, 8
 Income: matching expense projections and, 440; projecting, 435, 437–438, 439; projecting expenses to cover, 434–435, 436
 Income only to be used bequest, 300
 Independent Sector, 13
 Indiana University, 13
 Individual giving: recipients of, 18; to religious organizations, 19–20; understanding the power of, 17–20
 Information management: identifying needed information, 366–367; keeping track of needed information, 367–368; required for fundraising, 365–366; using Post-It system for, 369; your filing system, 368–369. See also Time management
 Insurance legacy gifts, 300–301
 Internal memorandum enclosure, 176
 Internal Revenue Service (IRS): managing information needed for, 367; nonprofit 501(c)(3) status under, 8, 22, 49–50; tax return data on giving reported by, 11, 12–13. See also Legal issues; Tax issues
 Invitations: house party, 122; house party e-vite, 122
 IRA legacy gifts, 301, 303

J

James 4:2 (English Standard Version), 77
James Irvine Foundation, 224

K

Klein, Kim, 308

L

La Piana and Associates, 224
Labor Day appeals, 187
Large-scale fundraising: capital campaigns, 339–353; conducting feasibility studies for, 355–359; endowment campaigns, 329–337; issues to consider for, 317–318; setting up an endowment, 30–33, 319–328. See also Fundraising strategies
Le Guin, Ursula, 79
Leave a Legacy, 302
Legacy donors: gifts from insurance and retirement funds, 300–301; introducing your legacy giving program to, 301–305; making a bequest, 298–300; preparing to talk about legacy giving, 295; speaking to them about making a will, 295–298
Legacy giving mailing list, 303
Legacy giving programs: capital income through, 340–341; description and benefits of, 293; forms of legacy gifts, 298–301; getting ready to develop, 294–295; introducing programs to donors, 301–305; legal issues related to wills and estates, 295–297; preparing to talk to donors about, 295
Legacy giving promotion: holding a seminar, 304; legacy giving mailing list for, 303; strategies for, 301–303; working collaboratively for, 304–305
Legacy society, 303

Legal issues: canvassing, 236–237; history of French laws on endowments, 322; nonprofit sector obligations, 8–9; reviewing capital campaign donor records, 353; voluntary service fees, 228–229; wills and dying intestate, 295–296. See also Internal Revenue Service (IRS)

Letters: holiday cards, 287; keeping in touch with major gift donors, 287–289; phon-a-thon, 199–201, 205; for prospect contact, 93–94; for renewing major donor gifts, 289–291; thank you notes, 126, 251–260. See also Direct mail letters; Envelopes
Life insurance legacy gifts, 300–301
Life note, 175–176
LinkedIn, 384
Liquor license, 115

M

Mailing lists. See Direct mail lists
Major Donor Campaign Prospect Tracking Form, 313
Major donors: how to renew, 289–291; keeping in touch with, 287–289; materials for soliciting, 284–286; recognizing and incorporating into fundraising, 315–316; sending annual report with personal note to, 287–288; sending holiday cards to, 287
Major gift renewals: gifts of $1,000 or more, 290; gifts of $500 to $999, 290; gifts of $250 to $499, 289; strategies for, 289–291
Major gift solicitation materials: benefit used as incentive, 284–286; descriptive (pamphlets, brochures), 286; staff and volunteer solicitors, 286

- Major gifts campaign steps: step 1: set a goal, 308–309; step 2: prepare supporting materials, 309–311; step 3: identify and train solicitors, 311–312; step 4: identify prospects, 312–313; step 5: assign prospects and solicit gifts, 313–314; step 6: kick off the campaign with a special event, 314; step 7: hold regular reporting meetings, 314–315; step 8: celebrate end of campaign with special event, 315; step 9: recognize and incorporate donors into ongoing fundraising, 315–316
- Major gifts campaigns: “campaigner’s notebook” used for, 311; case statement for, 310; issues to consider for, 307; materials supporting, 309–310; pledge card reply device for, 310; prospect donors during, 312–314; steps for launching, 307–316; volunteer solicitors, 311–312, 314–315
- Major gifts programs: apportionment of gifts, 282–283; first-year challenges of, 292; getting over the fear of asking, 280; Gift Range Chart or Gift Pyramid, 282; how many people to ask, 283–284; issues to consider for, 279; keeping in touch with major donors, 287–289; materials for major gift solicitation, 284–286; renewing major donor gifts, 289–291; setting a goal for, 280–281
- Master Prospect List form, 88–89
- Mathiasen, Karl, 63
- Meetings: avoiding scheduling too many meetings, 377; face-to-face prospect, 97–102, 473–474; skipping unnecessary, 376–377. See also Board of directors
- Member’s appeal, 188
- Millennial Generation, 215
- Mismanagement of funds, 457–458
- Mission statement: description of, 40–41, 48; hints on writing, 41–42, 43; organizational impact of, 42–43
- Money: annual dinner event payments, 130; board members’ contribution of time and, 56–57; clean versus dirty, 495–498; getting comfortable with asking for, 75–82; getting over the fear of asking for, 280; required for special events upfront, 108; as taboo subject, 76–78; why we’re afraid to ask for, 76–80. See also Fundraising
- Monthly donor pledge programs: advantages of setting up, 271–272; collecting donations from, 275–276; introducing, 273; marketing, 273–275; sample pledge reminder form, 277; tracking pledges, 276–278; two don’ts of, 278
- Motivation. See Giving motivation
- ## N
- Names of Friends Reply Form, 156
- National Association of Hospital Developers, 400
- National Center for Charitable Statistics, 13
- New nonprofit organizations: identifying potential donors to, 492; special challenges facing, 491–493
- New Year’s appeal, 187
- Newspaper article enclosure, 176
- NewTithing Group, 13
- NIMF (Nothing Is My Fault), 423

- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs):
 accountability of, 46, 51, 61–63, 485–486; board of directors of, 50–68;
 description of, 7; Do Not Call Act exemption from, 193; entirely run by volunteers, 483–489; establishing voluntary fees for services, 225–232;
 financial needs of, 27–37; 501(c)(3)
 status of, 8, 22, 49–50; fundraising office of, 363–364; healthy society role of, 49; international laws governing, 49; three goals for every donor, 33–34;
 U.S. laws governing, 49–51; Web sites of, 216–219, 302, 473. See also Fundraising
- Nonprofit programs: benefits, 178–180;
 legacy giving (or planned giving) for,
 293–305; major gifts, 279–292;
 monthly donor programs, 271–278;
 online fundraising, 213–224;
 voluntary service fees for, 225–232
- Nonprofit sector: definition of, 7; Do Not Call Act exemption from, 193; government, legal, and ethical obligations of, 8–9; international size of, 8; public sector funding of, 9;
 sources of contributions (2009), 10
- Nonprofit stories: board member accountability, 62–63, canvassers who build a relationship, 241; Community Arts Initiative's budget, 440–441; of getting over fear of asking for money, 280; "Gina Generous" donor development, 30–33; of how they learned to use strategy correctly, 35–36; of importance of a will, 297;
 local arts coalition rethinking its fundraising, 479–481; North Fork
 Watershed Protection's budget, 441–442; PTA one-woman show (and back), 487–489; of value of political consistency, 106–107
- North Fork Watershed Protection, 441–442
- ## O
- Objectives: description of, 44, 48;
 differences between goal and, 44;
 SMART, 44. See also Goals
- One More Change (OMC), 225–226, 227
 "One-third rule," 22
- Online fundraising programs: advantages of, 213–214; the audience for,
 215–216; technological requirements for, 214
- Opportunistic fundraising: examples of successful, 243–244; finding your own opportunities for, 246–249; scenario of an organization's week in, 244–246
- Opportunistic fundraising opportunities:
 additional examples of, 248–249;
 communicating with people, 246;
 face-to-face communication, 247;
 publications, 247–248; voice mail, 247
- Organizations. See Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs); Religious organizations
- Orientation: of new board members, 67–68; volunteer nonprofits accountability created through,
 485–486
- Outer Banks Hotline Crisis Intervention and Prevention Center (North Carolina), 470
- ## P
- Pamphlets (major gift), 286
- Parking (special event), 116
- People's Theater: background information on, 447–449; fall

- campaign planning by, 450; spring campaign planning by, 449–450
- Personal solicitation logistics:
 - approaching the prospect, 92–93; ask a prospect, 83–87; e-mail or letter contact, 93–94; face-to-face, 97–102; phone call contact, 95–97; steps in creating a prospect list, 87–92
- Philadelphia Foundation, 298
- Philanthropy: definition of, 7–8; funding myths of, 9–10; funding realities of, 15–16
- Phone call contact: issues to consider for, 95; when you do reach the prospect, 96–97; when you don't reach prospect, 95–96
- Phone-a-thon letters: to people with questions about nonprofits, 200–201; for people who say yes to donating, 199; as a reminder of your pledge, 205; “sorry we missed you,” 199–200
- Phone-a-thon steps: step 1: prepare the list, 195–196; step 2: create way to record results of calls, 196–197; step 3: set date for phone-a-thon, 197; step 4: write a script, 197–198; step 5: prepare three letters and appropriate enclosures, 199–201; step 6: determine number of phones and volunteers, 201–202; step 7: find a place, 202; step 8: recruit volunteers, 202
- Phone-a-thons: description and advantages of, 194–195; “famous people” promotion of, 206; getting publicity for your, 205–206; on the night of the, 203–204; preparation steps for, 195–202; recruiting and training volunteers, 201–202, 202–203, 207–209; tasks for after, 204–205. See also Telephone fundraising
- Planned giving. See Legacy giving
- Playboy Corporation, 496–497
- Pledge card reply device, 310
- Pledge programs: advantages of setting up monthly, 271–272; collecting donations from monthly, 275–276; introducing monthly, 273; marketing monthly, 273–275; sample pledge reminder form for monthly, 277; tracking pledges from monthly, 276–278; two don'ts of monthly, 278
- Pledging: capital campaign pledge agreement form, 351; monthly donor programs for, 271–278; two different meanings of, 271
- Premiums, 180–181
- Programs. See Nonprofit programs
- Prospect contact: deciding method of, 92–93; direct mail, 147–161; e-mail, 93, 122; face-to-face, 97–102; identifying any contact of prospect with organization, 84; letter, 93–94; phone call, 95–97
- Prospect Identification List form, 88, 90–92
- Prospect list: creating the, 87–92; Master Prospect List form, 88–89; Prospect Identification List form, 88, 90–92; Prospect Record form, 91
- Prospect Record form, 91
- Prospective donors: ability to give, 86–87; approaching capital campaign, 349–350; audience for online strategies, 215–216; beliefs and values of, 84–86; contact with, 84, 92–102; endowment campaign solicitation of, 332–337; invited to house party, 121–122; issues of consideration related to, 83–84; keeping action plans on, 377–378; legacy, 295–305; major gift campaign,

Prospective donors (Continued)
 312–314; Major Gift Range Chart,
 284; phone-a-thons used to solicit,
 207–209; in rural communities, 468–
 470; “shadow question” asked by, 100–
 101; solicitation of major gifts from,
 284–286; who attend special events,
 104–105. See also Donors
 P.S. (postsript), 168
 PTA one-woman show (and back) story,
 487–489
 Public sector funding, 9
 Publications, opportunistic fundraising using, 247–248
 Publicity: annual dinner event committee for, 128; phone-a-thons, 205–206

Q

Quatmann, Vicki, 62–63
 QuickBooks, 443

R

Raffles: advantages of holding, 132–133;
 getting the tickets, 134–136; getting volunteers for, 134; holding the drawing, 138; organizing, 133–134; selling tickets for, 136–137; sending out prizes, thank yous, and evaluating, 138; setting up the drawings for, 137;
 wrapping up, 137–138
 Ramp Festivals, 469
Reality Check: How Grassroots Environmental Groups Are (or Are Not) Raising Money On-Line
 (Robinson), 224
 Red Cross Haiti earthquake relief (2010), 194
Reliable Fundraising in Unreliable Times
 (Klein), 458, 460
 Religious organizations: individual giving to, 19–20; percentage of giving to, 14;

successful fundraising strategies by,
 19–20

Renewal gift donors: categories of, 181; major gift, 289–291; phoning to contact, 210–211; reply device designed for, 182; using direct mail to solicit, 181–185

Renting mailing lists, 158–159

Reply device: direct mail, 172–174; major gift pledge card included in, 310; psychology of the, 172–173; for renewal gift donors, 182

Reserve fund. See Endowment (or reserve fund)

Retention strategies: description of, 35;
 direct mail functioning as, 150–151;
 following a canvass, 240–242; keeping in touch with major donors, 287–289;
 renewing major donor gifts, 289–291.
See also Donor retention; Thank you notes

Retirement plan legacy gifts, 301

Return envelope (direct mail), 174–175

Robinson, Andy, 224

Rosch, Joel, 470

Roth, Stephanie, 389, 451

Rural communities: fundraising challenges specific to, 464–466;
 fundraising strategies available in,
 470–474; many definitions of “rural”
 and, 463–464; personal solicitation in,
 473–475; prospective donors in, 468–
 470; understanding the characteristics of, 466–468

S

Salomon, L., 8

Seasonal appeals, 186–187

Segmenting donor criteria: frequency of donation, 266–267; longevity of giving, 266; size of donation, 266

- Segmenting donors: benefits of, 267–268; criteria for, 266–267; to facilitate staying in touch with donors, 268–270; understanding your donors by, 265–267
- Service fees. See Voluntary service fees
- “Shadow question,” 100–101
- Shakespeare Festival (Ashland, OR), 469
- Sharing mailing lists, 159–161
- SMART objectives, 44
- Social networking: Facebook, 384; LinkedIn, 384. See also Web 2.0/Web sites
- Special circumstances. See Fundraising challenges
- Special event committees: creating, 111–112; developing a timeline, 114–115; Master Task List for, 112–113, 114; preparing a budget, 113, 114
- Special Event Evaluation Form, 118
- Special event planning: checklist of commonly forgotten items for, 115–117; committee tasks for, 112–115; creating a committee for, 111–112; evaluation step in, 117–118
- Special events: consistency, judgment, and appropriateness of, 106–107; criteria to consider when choosing, 105–106; front money required for, 108; major gifts campaign, 314, 315; organization image reflected by, 107–108; planning, 111–118; and repeatability, timing, and the big picture, 109; rural community and, 471–473; three goals of, 103–104; types of people who attend, 104–105; volunteer energy required for, 108
- Sponsorship (or underwriting) committee, 129
- Staff: board of directors’ responsibilities for, 52; canvassing done by, 233–234, 238–239; capital campaign and cost of, 344; dividing volunteer work from work by, 390; executive director, 417–423; fundraising roles of, 57; major gift solicitation by, 286; post-capital campaign celebration for, 352. See also Development staff
- Standard and Poor’s, 13
- Statement of agreement, 53–54
- Stories. See Nonprofit stories
- Strategic plans: board of directors’ role in, 51; components and functions of, 47–48; differences between case statement and, 47–48; SWOT test of, 47
- Structure section. Description of, 46, 48; key to accountability, 46
- ## T
- Tax issues: adbook rules, 139–140; rule on recording gifts, 384; rules on value of gift benefits, 285; tax return data on giving, 11, 12–13; UBIT (unrelated business income tax), 139–140; value of major gift benefits, 285. See also Internal Revenue Service (IRS)
- “Teaser copy,” 166
- “Technological natives,” 215
- Telephone calls: after a mail appeal, 209–210; opportunistic fundraising through, 247; thank you, 258–259; as time sink, 373; voluntary fees for services delivered by, 231–232
- Telephone fundraising: Do Not Call Act (2003) impact on, 193; history and advantages of, 193–194; opportunistic, 247; phoning after a mail appeal, 209–210; phoning for renewals, 210–211; voluntary fees for phone-delivered services, 231–232. See also Phone-a-thons

Thank you note content: friendly form letter, 258; handwritten, 251–252, 255; non-handwritten, 255–258; salutations when first name is unknown, 259–260

Thank you notes: common questions asked about, 259–260; to house party donors, 126; how to respond to donors who resist, 253–254; importance of prompt, 254; logistics and content of, 254–258; to major gift donors, 287; people like to be appreciated by, 253; thank you calls versus, 258–259; valuable lesson on power of, 251–252. See also Donors; Letters; Retention strategies

Thanksgiving Day appeals, 187

Time management: action plans for, 377–378; avoid bemoaning your busy life, 376; avoid scheduling too many meetings, 377; calendars used for, 374–376; everyday guidelines, 371–372; every week guidelines, 372–373; importance of effective, 371; skipping unnecessary meetings or conferences, 376–377; watching for time sinks, 372–374. See also Information management

Time sinks: catty co-workers as, 374; e-mail as, 372–373; people who drop by as, 374; phone calls as, 373

Timelines: adbooks, 142; capital campaign, 347; direct mail appeals, 186–189; endowment campaign, 332; for fundraising plan tasks, 447; for sending direct mail appeal, 178; special event, 114–115

Timothy 6:10 (Inclusive New Testament), 77

Trading mailing lists, 158–159

U

UBIT (unrelated business income tax), 139–140

UCLA's Higher Education Research Institute, 215

United for a Fair Economy (UFE), 13

United States: collecting data on giving contributions in the, 10–13; rich-poor gap in the, 13; statistics on giving in the, 13–15

Upgrading strategies: building major gifts programs, 279–292; description of, 35; importance of having organizational, 261–263; launching major gifts campaigns, 307–316; legacy giving (or planned giving), 293–305; monthly donor pledge programs, 274–278; segmenting donors, 255–270. See also Acquisition strategies; Fundraising strategies

Urgent need appeal, 188–189

V

Valentine's Day appeals, 187

Voice mail opportunistic fundraising, 247

Voluntary service fees: collecting for e-mail or phone services, 231–232; establishing willingness to pay for services, 226–227; introducing the process of collecting, 230–231; legal issues related to, 228–229; One More Chance (OMC), 225–226, 227; setting, 229–230; willingness to pay for currently free services, 228; willingness to pay for professional information, 227

Volunteer management: giving volunteers time off, 391; history of nonprofit, 387–388; inviting people to

- participate, 388–389; matching volunteers to strategies they are comfortable using, 389–390; orienting volunteers to your fundraising program, 389; showing appreciation to volunteers, 390; understanding that perfection isn't necessary, 390. See also Fundraising management
- Volunteer nonprofits: effective orientation of new volunteers, 485–486; finding volunteers for, 486–487; PTA one-woman show (and back), 487–489; special challenges facing, 483–485
- Volunteers: allowing time off to, 391; annual dinner events, 128; to augment board members' work, 71; canvassing done by, 233–234, 238–239; dividing staff work from work done by, 390; fundraising issues when all are, 483–489; major gift program solicitation by, 286; major gifts campaign solicitor, 311–312, 314–315; phone-a-thon, 201–202, 203–204, 207–209; post-capital campaign celebration for, 352; raffle, 134; showing appreciation to volunteers, 390; special events and required energy of, 108; taking pressure off of staff by recruiting, 413; three different types of, 389–390
- “Vomit test,” 497
- ## W
- Warm lists, 155, 157–158
- Web 2.0/Web sites: building your organization, 216–218; “Donate Now” icon on, 217, 231; driving traffic to your, 218–219; legacy gift program information on your, 302; logo design on your, 217–218; rural community fundraising using, 473. See also Social networking
- Wheelchair availability for events, 116
- White Elephant Shop (Sitka, Alaska), 470
- Wills: estate gifts through, 340–341; importance of having, 295–296, 297; legal issues of dying without (“dying intestate”), 296; motivating donors to make, 296–297; service campaigns encouraging people to make, 302–303
- Winter holiday appeals, 188
- Winter Solstice appeals, 188
- World Social Forum, 342
- ## Y
- “Year-at-a-glance” calendars: fundraising plan and use of, 445–446; time management through, 374–376

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>

<http://www.pbookshop.com>