
INDEX

A

Accounting systems: accrual, 7–8, 9; cash flow, 7–9, 10–11, 12, 24–32

Accrual basis accounting: Cash Flow Forecaster separating cash flow and, 9; described, 7–8

Adaptability: as current financial requirement, 45–47; rolling forecasts to facilitate, 47–48

Administrators. See Managers/administrators

Aesop's fox fable, 96

Against the Gods (Bernstein), 63

Algers, H., 228

Allen, P., 196

Amortization expenses, 49–50

Applicants: cash flow analysis information provided by, 90–92; Cash Flow Forecaster used by, 91–92; definition of, 90. See also Loans

Arnsberger, P., 99

ASB (Annualized Summary Budget): Alice's example of,

25–26; description and example of, 16–17

Assets: collateral, 105, 106, 114–115, 117; liquid, 6

Association for Health Care Philanthropy, 76, 100

B

Baker, N., 181–184

Baumol, W., 235

“Be Careful When It Comes to Accruals” (“The Motley Fool”), 8

Bennett, J., 201

Bernholz, L., 100, 225

Bernstein, P. L., 59, 63

Berra, Y., 6

Beyond Budgeting (Hope and Fraser), 47

Bicker, A., 191

Bill and Melinda Gates (BMG) Foundation, 45–46, 224–225

Board members: allocating monitoring responsibilities, 65–66; capacity for making sound real estate decisions, 192–194; cash flow thinking supported by, 11–12; concerns over nonprofit reputation by, 148, 150; creditholder program support by, 124. See also Nonprofit organizations

Borrowing: collateral required for, 105, 106, 114–115; cost of, 77; dangers of, 110–111; fiscal information required for, 90–92; fully secured, 106; importance of timing to, 110; line of credit, 83–86, 104–105; poor reputation of, 109; purposes of, 107–108; terms of the trade, 106–107. See also Credit; Loans

Bridge loans, 106

Budgets: ASB (Annualized Summary Budget), 16–17, 25–26; as financial strategy foundation, 15. See also Cash flow budgets

Buffet, W., 45, 196, 225

C

- Calder, L., 112
- Capital: cost of borrowing, 77; cost of fundraising, 76–77; impact of time on value of, 79–80; program-related income, 77; three types of nonprofit required, 228; variable cost of, 75–76; withholding payment of bills to maintain, 111. See also Cash reserves; Working capital
- Capital accumulation: harmful effects of, 96–98; as inadequate cash flow strategy, 221–222; nonprofit missions and role of, 94; in the nonprofit sector, 96–102; “The Parable of the Pond” on, 97; pattern of nonprofit sector, 98–100; three reasons for nonprofit, 228. See also Cash reserves
- Capital campaigns: alternatives to, 195–196; costs of, 194–195; time issue of, 195
- Case studies: Northwest Folklife, 151–169; Street Angels, 131–139; symphony orchestra, 207–210; West Sound Academy, 181–190. See also Nonprofit organizations
- Cash flow: Alice’s graph on combined, 30–31; Alice’s projected precipice on, 32; description and implications of, 4; forecasting future, 40–41; Street Angels case study on credit to stabilize, 131–139; used to reassure creditholders, 115–117
- Cash flow accounting: benefits of adopting, 7–9, 10–11, 12; Cash Flow Forecaster to separate accrual and, 9; uses of, 24–32
- Cash flow analysis: answers provided through, 82–83; on cash reserve vs. line of credit, 83–86; donor reactions to bad news about, 87–89; lack of standard fiscal definitions hampering, 85; relative cost of capital and, 75–77; on role of inflation on budgets, 77–80; role of time/timing in financial governance and, 80–86; what funders want to know about, 89–92
- Cash flow budgets: benefits of using, 19, 21, 91; borrowing options from information of, 107–108; Cash Flow Forecaster’s compressed, 26, 29, 30; Cash Flow Forecaster’s generation of Alice’s, 26, 27–28, 29–30; description of, 17, 19; examples of, 18, 20; footnotes on, 33–38; information gathered from graphs of, 21–24; internal workings revealed by, 85–86. See also Budgets
- Cash flow curves: example of one-year, 41–42; example of three-year, 41, 43
- Cash Flow Forecaster: Alice’s cash flow budget generated using, 26, 27–28, 29–30; Alice’s combined cash flow graph, 30–31; Alice’s monthly income and expense graphs generated by, 30; Alice’s projected precipice generated by, 32; cash-basis accounting rule for using, 48–49; cash flow budget compressed by, 26, 29, 30; creating earned revenue scenarios, 218; dealing with unusual events, 54–55; depreciation/amortization expenses left out rule for using, 49–50; development of, 4; education example of using, 52–54; fiscal information provided through, 63–65, 108; forecasting cash flow curves, 41–44; funding assistance by, 91–92, 108; “fuzzy forecast” created by, 59–60; hospital example of using, 50–52; inflation estimates inserted into, 78; monitoring approach using, 72–74; multiple-year cash-flow forecasting using, 146–148, 149; preparation and adaptability benefits of, 44–47; Rhumb line approach to navigating the, 70–72; separating accrual and cash accounting systems with, 9; strategic monitoring using the, 68–70; tasks facilitated by, 92; weighting strategy for determining percentage increases/decreases, 52–53; West Sound Academy case study on use of, 182. See also Forecasting
- Cash flow forecasts: accumulation from $50,000 starting balance, 22, 24; accumulation from zero balance, 22, 23; of cash flow curves, 41–44; combined income and expense graph, 23–24; dealing with deficits using multiple-year, 146–148, 149; future cash flow, 40–41; income and expense graphs, 21–22; preparation and adaptability through, 44–47; for reassuring creditholders, 115–117. See also Forecasting
- The Cash Flow Management Book for Nonprofits* (Dropkin), 111
- Cash flow principles: on cash reserve vs. line of credit question, 83–86; making financial decisions based on, 80–83
- Cash flow strategies: capital accumulation as inadequate, 221–222; defining issues of philanthropy, 222–224; downside of investment-powered philanthropy, 224–228; new requirements by nonprofits for, 95–96; nonprofit access to working capital, 211, 212–213, 228; nonprofit expansion toward broad societal support, 213; philanthropy historic, 221–222; proposed fiduciary rule changes on working capital as, 231–232, 234–236; symphony orchestra’s development of, 208–210; three types of required capital and, 228–229; trends and future of philanthropy, 230–239. See also Financial decisions; Financial strategies

- Cash flow thinking: on deciding what money to use, 77–80; described, 3; key questions related to, 4–13
- Cash flow thinking questions: on board members support of cash flow thinking, 11–12; on cash flow thinking benefits, 10–11; on fiscal answers through cash flow thinking, 9–10; on non-profit adoption to cash flow approach, 12–13; on reasons to add cash flow-based approach, 7–9; on relevance to nonprofit organizations, 5–7; on why it is important, 4–5
- Cash reserves: costs of line of credit vs., 83–86, 107; definition of, 107; permanent capital for, 228; plant funds included in, 193; withholding payment of bills to maintain, 111. See also Capital; Capital accumulation
- Certificates of deposit (CD), 121–122, 123, 127
- Chang, F. C., 112
- Chronicle of Philanthropy*, 85, 100
- Collateral: creditholder hypothecation over, 106, 117; described, 105, 106; required for loans, 114–115
- Compton, J., 155, 156
- Consulting fees footnotes, 35
- Costs: of borrowing, 77; of capital campaigns, 194–195; of cash reserves vs. line of credit, 83–86, 107; of fundraising, 76–77; impact of time on capital, 79–80; variable capital, 75–76
- Creating Philanthropic Capital Markets: The Deliberate Evolution* (Bernholz), 225
- Credit: used for dealing with deficits, 140–169; “deficiency guarantee” to enhance, 201–202; definition of, 108; used for funding venture, 179–190; revolving, 104–105, 130; stabilizing cash flow using, 131–139; as substitute for fundraising, 111–112; tax-exempt financing, 196–197; value of, 108–113. See also Borrowing; Line of credit
- Creditholder programs: advantages and benefits of using, 124–126; avoiding pitfalls in establishing, 123–124; key lessons on setting up, 139; legality of, 117; Northwest Folklife, 157–166; setting up nonprofit special account, 127–128; steps for establishing, 119–123; Street Angels case study on setting up, 133–139; West Sound Academy, 182–190
- Creditholders: cash flow used for reassuring, 115–117; Commercial Pledge and Security Agreement to manage risk of, 162, 164–165; hypothecation by, 106, 117; nonprofits and role of, 105–106; providing financial statements/organizational plans to, 126; risks of, 130, 162, 164–165, 186; status of, 118–119; understanding concept of, 4; West Sound Academy instructions to, 190
- CRIC Capital, 199
- D
- Debt: Alice’s projected precipice on, 32; as substitute for fundraising, 111–112
- “Deficiency guarantee,” 201–203
- Deficits: dealing with unexpected, 141–146; finding a long-term solution to, 143; Linzer’s Law of Littles on, 142; multiple-year cash flow forecast to deal with, 146–148, 149; Northwest Folklife cast study on handling, 151–169; protecting your reputation when faced with, 148, 150; standard operating procedures for dealing with, 144–146
- Depreciation expenses, 49–50
- DiLorenzo, T., 201
- Discounts strategy, 218–220
- Donations footnotes, 34–35
- Donors: cash flow analysis information required by, 89–92; gifts of land by, 204; motivation of high-end, 225–226; reaction to financial bad news by, 87–89; top 5 percent pool of, 102, 225–226. See also Fundraising; Social entrepreneurs
- Dropkin, M., 111
- Drucker, P., 111
- E
- Earned revenue: Cash Flow Forecaster creating scenarios for, 218; footnotes on, 35; offering discounts strategy for, 218–220; subsidizing lack of working capital with, 217–218
- Expenses: Alice’s monthly income and expense graphs on, 30; cash flow comparison of income and, 64; fixed, 19; variable, 19. See also Income
- F
- Facilities: capital required for, 228; owning vs. leasing, 193–194, 198–203; plant funds for maintaining, 193. See also Real estate strategies
- A Fair Share for the Public Interest Act (proposed legislation), 231–232
- Fannie Mae, 203, 232, 237, 238
- Federal Accounting Standards Board (FASB), 7, 82
- Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), 120, 121
- Finance Committee: cash flow thinking of, 4–5; limiting fiscal matters assigned to, 16
- Financial decisions: cash flow thinking to facilitate, 3–13, 77–80; related to real estate, 192–194, 198–203; Vickers’s decision-making analogy on, 80–81. See also Cash flow strategies
- Financial security challenge, 93–94

- Financial statements: cash flow budgets, 17–38, 85–86, 91, 107–108; cash flow forecasts, 21–24, 41–47, 115–117; provided to creditholders, 126
- Financial strategies: described, 66–67; role of monitoring in, 67–70, 74. See also Cash flow strategies
- Financing the American Dream: A Cultural History of Consumer Credit* (Calder), 112
- Fiscal information: allowing borrowing options, 107–108; donor reaction to bad news regarding, 87–89; lack of standard definitions for, 85; making financial decisions using, 80–81; provided by Cash Flow Forecaster, 63–65; required for borrowing, 90–92; sorting out the most meaningful, 63–65
- Fixed expenses, 19
- Fixed income, 19
- Footnotes (cash flow budget): anticipated funds categories included in, 36–37; benefits of using, 38; how to set up, 37–38; types of information included in, 34–36
- “For Nonprofits, Owning Is Becoming the Wave of the Past” (New York Times), 193
- Forbes Magazine*, 101
- Ford, H., 237
- Forecasting: cash flow accumulation, 22–24; cash flow curves, 41–44; classic approach to, 45; combined income and expense graph, 23–24; dealing with unusual events, 54–55; education example of, 52–54; hospital example of, 50–52; income and expense graphs, 21–22; long-range, 55–58; preparation and adaptability through, 44–47; rolling, 47–48; two dimensions of, 39. See also Cash Flow Forecaster; Cash flow forecasts
- Franklin, J. (Jean), 131, 132
- Franklin, J. (Joe), 131, 132
- Fraser, R., 47
- Fringe benefits footnotes, 35
- Frodel, E., 181–182, 183, 184, 187–188
- Funders: cash flow analysis information required by, 89–92; cost of cash reserves vs. line of credit from, 83–86; costs of borrowing from, 77; definition of, 90; reaction to financial bad news by, 87–89
- Funding: cash flow analysis information required for, 89–92; Cash Flow Forecaster to assist, 91–92; using credit for new venture, 140–169; nonprofit patterns of allocation of, 100–102
- Funding ventures: historic use of credit for, 179–180; West Sound Academy case study on, 181–190
- Fundraising: capital campaigns, 194–195; cost of, 76–77; credit as substitute for, 111–112; Street Angel’s No-Show Ball, 131. See also Donors
- Fundraising pyramids, 118
- G
- Gates, B., 224, 225
- Gates Foundation, 45–46, 224–225
- Gates, M., 196, 224, 225
- Gifts footnotes, 35
- Ginnie Mae: bonds covering nonprofit borrowing and role of, 238; origins of, 202–203, 232–233
- Ginnie Mae Pool No 1, 202–203, 232–233
- Government National Mortgage Association, 202–203
- Grants footnotes, 34
- “The Great American Dream syndrome,” 203
- H
- Herschensohn, M., 152–154, 155, 157, 161
- Hertz, N., 227
- Highly probably funds footnotes, 36
- Historical variance analysis, 72
- Hope, J., 47
- Hypothecation, 106, 117
- I
- Income: Alice’s monthly income and expense graphs on, 30; cash flow comparison of expenses and, 64; earning revenue, 215–220; fixed, 19; Pareto’s wealth distribution curves on, 101; program-related, 77; variable, 19. See also Expenses; Working capital
- Inflation: definition of, 78; impact of, 78–79
- IRS (Internal Revenue Service), 98, 100, 117
- IRS Statistics of Income Division report (1998), 98–99, 222, 223
- K
- Korten, D., 227
- Kramer, M., 224
- L
- Land gifts, 204
- The land that time forgot*, 13
- Leasing: debate over ownership vs., 193–194; “deficiency guarantee” of, 201–203; Real Estate Calculator supporting decisions about, 195–196, 202, 203–205; sale and leaseback arrangement, 198–199; traditional, 199–201
- Legal and accounting footnotes, 36
- Levitt, A., 7
- Line of credit: costs of cash reserves vs., 83–86, 107; fiscal stability required for, 109; relationship between working capital and, 104–105; as revolving credit, 104–105, 130; Street Angels case study on use of, 131–139. See also Credit
- Linzer’s Law of Littles, 142
- Liquid assets, 6

Loans: bridge, 106; collateral required for, 105, 106, 114–115; cost of, 77; line of credit, 83–86, 104–105; term, 107. See also Applicants; Borrowing

Long-range forecasts: difficulty of, 55–56; example of seven-year, 56–58

“The Looking-Glass World of Nonprofit Money” (Miller), 215–216

Lowenstein, R., 55, 68

Ludlum, M., 99

M

Managers/administrators: allocating monitoring responsibilities to, 65–66; capacity for making sound real estate decisions, 192–194; creditholder program support by, 124; reasons for adopting cash flow approach, 12–13

Managing Risk in Nonprofit Organizations: A Comprehensive Guide, 85

Mandelbrot, B., 68

Media management, 166–167

Miller, C., 204, 215–216

Monitoring: allocating responsibilities for, 65–66; assessment function of, 62–65; Cash Flow Forecaster approach to, 72–74; described, 61–62; financial strategy and, 66–70, 74; as form of navigation, 70–72; historical variance analysis technique for, 72; strategic, 68–70

Motel T, 237

“The Motley Fool” (Nov 2006), 8

Multiple-year cash-flow forecasting: example of three-year, 149; handling deficits using, 146–148

N

Namkung, I., 152, 153, 156, 165–167

Nessen & Associates, 199

New ventures. See Funding ventures

New York Times, 193

Nonprofit organizations: access to working capital by, 211, 212–213, 228, 233; allocation of fundraising proceeds by, 100–102; capital accumulation by, 94, 96–102, 221–222, 228; cash flow analysis by, 75–86; cash flow principles of, 80–86; dangers of borrowing for, 110–111; donor reactions to financial bad news about, 87–89; establishing financial security challenge of, 93–94; expanding toward broader societal support, 213; imagining a better tomorrow for, 236–239; labor and productivity issues of, 235–236; media management by, 166–167; organizational plans of, 126; protecting the reputation of, 148, 150; relevance of cash flow thinking to, 5–7; restrictions on raising money by, 6–7; social entrepreneurs working with, 45, 180, 181–190, 196, 201–203, 224–228. See also Board members; Case studies; Philanthropy

North Sound Bank, 182, 189

Northwest Folklife case study: actions taken to address deficits during, 152–166; background information on, 151; creditholder program set up during, 157–166; lessons learned from, 167–169; major financial shortfall experienced during, 152–153; media management by Northwest Folklife, 166–167; problem with bank outlined in, 128

Northwest Folklife letters/forms: Bank Signature and Document Instructions, 162; Commercial Agreement Modification Letter, 164; Cover Letter to Prospective Creditholders, 156; Folklife Press Release, 154; Folklife’s Draft Bank Modification Letter, 163; Information Update for Creditholders, 165; Letter for

Creditholders Pledging Stock, 161; Letter on Folklife Creditholder Program, 157–160

O

Organizational plans, 126

Ownership: alternatives to, 198–203; debate over leasing vs., 193–194; Real Estate Calculator supporting decisions about, 195–196, 202, 203–205

P

“The Parable of the Pond,” 97

Pareto, V., 101

Pareto’s wealth distribution curves, 101

Part-time wages footnotes, 35

Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, 85–86

Philanthropy: cash flow perspective in context of, 228–229; changing fiduciary rules for, 231–232, 234–236; changing financial considerations of, 211–213; defining issues in modern, 222–224; downside of investment-powered, 224–228; imagining a better tomorrow for, 236–239; reexamining the basic rules of, 223–224; social issues addressed by, 212; track record of, 221–222. See also Nonprofit organizations

Phillips, K., 86, 97

Plant funds, 193

Porter, M., 224

The Post-Corporate World (Korten), 227

Preparation: classic approach to, 45; rolling forecasts for, 47–48

Printing footnotes, 36

Program-related income, 77

Program-related investment funds (PRIs), 124–125

R

Ratio analysis, 82

Real estate: capacity for making sound decisions about, 192–194;

- Real estate, continued
 gifts of land, 204; leasing vs. owning, 193–194, 198–203; plant funds for, 193
- Real Estate Calculator: cash flow principles applications using, 10; described, 191; development of, 4; real estate decisions supported by, 195–196, 202, 203–205
- Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs), 200–201
- Real estate strategies: capacity for sound real estate decisions factor in, 192–194; costs of capital campaigns factor in, 194–197; owning vs. leasing, 193–194, 198–203; Real Estate Calculator to facilitate, 195–196, 202, 203–205; tax-exempt financing factor in, 197–198; three considerations of, 192. See also Facilities
- Redmond National Bank (now Venture Bank), 153, 155
- Rent footnotes, 36
- Reputation issue, 148, 150
- Revolving credit, 104–105, 130
- Rhumb line, 70–71
- Riley, M., 99
- Risk: Commercial Pledge and Security Agreement to manage, 162, 164–165; differing creditholder, 130; West Sound Academy creditholder program, 186
- Rolling forecasts, 47–48
- Ryan, T., 187, 188
- S
- Salaries footnotes, 35
- Sallie Mae, 203, 232, 238
- Salud Mental, 56–59
- Seattle Post-Intelligencer*, 166
- Seattle Times*, 166
- SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission), 117
- Security funds footnotes, 36
- Shortfalls. See Deficits
- The Silent Take Over* (Hertz), 227
- Social entrepreneurs: Bill and Melinda Gates as, 196, 224, 225; definition of, 180; downside of investment-powered philanthropy by, 224–228; leasing partnerships with, 201–203; Warren Buffet as, 45, 196, 225; West Sound Academy case study on, 181–190. See also Donors
- Social issues: addressed by philanthropy, 212; Ginnie Mae Pool No. 1 as addressing, 202–203, 232–233
- Speculative funds footnotes, 36
- Staff. See Managers/administrators
- Stanford University, 46–47
- Strategic monitoring, 68–70
- Street Angels case study: background information on, 131; Creditholder Agreement, 136–138; creditholder campaign set up during, 133–139; Creditholder Group Questions and Answers, 135–136; Creditholder Letter, 134; need to stabilize cash flow, 132–133
- Supplies footnotes, 36
- Sutton, W., 125
- Symphony orchestra case study: background information on, 207–208; creating a cash flow based strategy, 208–210
- T
- Take on the Street* (Levitt), 7
- Tax-exempt financing: description of, 196–197; downsides to, 197
- Term loans, 107
- Time: borrowing and importance of, 110; capital campaigns costs in terms of, 195; credit and role of, 108; as nonprofit sector issue, 79–80
- Topnagle, T. (Tom), 131, 132
- Topnagle, T. (Tracy), 131, 132
- Tuckman, H. P., 112
- U
- Ullman, J., 153
- Utilities footnotes, 36
- V
- Variable expenses, 19
- Variable income, 19
- Vickers, G., 80–81
- W
- Wealth and Democracy* (Phillips), 97
- The Wealthy: Pareto's wealth distribution curves on, 101; top 5 percent donors among the, 102, 225–226
- West Sound Academy case study: background information on, 181–182; Cash Flow Forecaster used during, 182; creditholder instructions during, 190; creditholder program set up during, 182–190
- When Genius Failed: The Rise and Fall of Long-Term Capital Management* (Lowenstein), 55
- Withholding payment of bills, 111
- Working capital: definition of, 104; imaging greater nonprofit access to, 238–239; nonprofit required access to, 211, 212–213, 228, 233; proposed legislation changing fiduciary rules on, 231–232, 234–236; relationship between line of credit and, 104–105; strategies for obtaining, 227–228; subsidizing lack of, 217–218; withholding payment of bills to maintain, 111. See also Capital; Income