

I N D E X

A

- Ability, direct questioning of, case involving, 49–51
- Acceptance, 126
- Accountability: issue of, 94–95; meaning of, 187; mutual, 126, 186–187
- Action Design, 16, 108, 112, 130, 143, 158, 159, 165, 183, 213, 215, 237
- Action Design Institute, 73, 158, 207, 237
- Action science, 6, 7
- Action-Impact map, 112, 227, 236
- Action-Impact mapping template: for manager-team interaction, 222–228; for the organizational level, 228, 229, 230–235
- Actions: alternative, beginning, with curiosity, 142; capturing our, 133–135; chicken-and-egg type of question involving, 173; committing to new, with the certainty of help from others, 187; corrective, benefits of, 182; describing, for case diagnosis, 241–242; gap between intentions and, 166–167; influence of thinking on, 111; monitoring our, requirement for, 136; new, changes in thinking allowing for, 128, 157, 159; and Newton's third law of motion, 113; pausing and holding off on, 185; proposing, 143–144, 145; resistance to proposed, addressing, 146; shared, creating, 139; stopping the, 155. See also Impact and contribution; Thinking-Action map; Thinking-Action mapping template
- Advanced Action Design Institute, 158
- Advocacy: described, 29; mapping, 226; purpose of, 18. See also High quality advocacy
- Advocacy and inquiry: balancing, 33–35, 170, 200, 205; in crafting interventions, exercise involving, 148; described, 29; experimenting with the quality of, 192; as a foundational skill, 16; identifying all forms of, during case diagnostic process, 241–242; mapping, 225; mistakes made in modeling, 196–197; purpose of, 18; skills in, practicing, in case study groups, 242; transferring the skill set of, 190. See also Advocacy; Inquiry
- Advocacy statement, 150
- Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) slogan, 163, 165, 178
- Alertness, new state of, 168–169, 171
- Alignment, issue of, 139, 168

- Animation, loss of, 5
- Arabian culture, 71, 90–91
- Argyris, C., 3, 4, 5, 6–7, 11, 12, 15, 16, 18, 35, 64, 66, 69, 73, 74, 82, 92, 93, 98, 99, 112, 125, 130, 133, 138, 153, 156, 158, 159, 164, 177, 179, 185, 188, 189, 190, 207, 213
- Argyris, D., 158
- Arrogance, assumption reflecting, example of, 158–159
- Asian cultures, 75
- Assuming partiality, 23, 35, 142, 162–165, 183
- Assumptions: alternative, making, 172; about conflict, 137; about drawing conclusions, 228; embedded, 19, 144, 147–148; false, 163, 182, 208, 230; implicit, example of, reflecting arrogance, 158–159; about intentions, 93–94, 130, 166, 172–173; large-scale, ability to change, 119; and mapping interpersonal defensive routines, 220; neutral, making, 173; of the obviousness of our thinking, 165; about roles and responsibilities, 111; and selecting data, 149; unfair, 161
- Authority, relationships with, issue of, 71, 75
- Avoidance, 68–69
- AWARE, 20, 21
- Awareness: of differences, 154; human, limits of, 131–132, 167; lack of, addressing, opportunity for, 223; of the Ladder of Inference, 141; of trigger points, 20, 44–45, 59, 169; of the Unilateral Control Model, 74; unlearning something outside our, difficulty of, 133
- B
- Babson College, 73
- Background story, telling the, 106
- Bad news, delivering, strategy of, 85
- BALANCE, 29, 30
- Balancing advocacy and inquiry, 33–35, 170, 200, 205
- Behavior: new, learning, through practice, 6–7; unproductive, escalating cycles of, caught up in, 3, 4–5. See also specific behaviors
- Biondi, M., 133
- Blaming: curtailing, in facilitated dialogue, 223; mapping, 235; in organizational culture, 186; reducing tendency toward, 112; refraining from, as a ground rule for mapping, 230; spotting, 130; stopping, result of, 126; when mistakes are made, 181–182
- Blindness, 131–132, 167, 168, 172, 213, 223
- Bracketing defensive reactions, 184–185
- Brainstorming, use of, 231, 233
- Brevity, in paraphrasing, 151
- Broad overview vs. details, questions of, case involving, 201–203
- Business problems, identifying, 230–231, 233
- Bypass strategies: and assuming a false humility, 164; common forms of, 82–92; exercise involving, 92; mapping, 113; purpose of, 81–82; reflecting on, 137; reinforcing, 93–99; scenario involving, 79–81; that have backfired, example of, 158; used by change agents, 125–126
- C
- “Calvin and Hobbes” (cartoon), 153
- Case studies: reflecting practitioner mistakes, 193–207; writing, 134–135. See also LHC-RHC case studies
- Case study groups: strategies for, 241–246; structure of, and process guidelines, 239–240; use of, 134–135

- Catch-22, 178, 182, 208
- Causal explanations: inventing, 95–96, 144, 220; trading, 145
- Certainty, high degree of, holding a, 68
- Change: ability to, as requisite for de-escalation, 119; beginning, by taking the initiative to do something different, 127; chicken-and-egg type of question involving, 173; fundamental, of thinking, 183; gradual, of thinking, 159–160; greatest leverage for, 13; in habits of thought, aspects of, 128; incentives for, 129–131; instant, of thinking, 157–159; internal commitment to, 127; long-term and productive, 129; reality of, adapting to, 68
- Change agents, criticism of, 125–126
- Characters, using, to learn from, 10–11.
See also “Fix It Now or Fix It Later” scenarios
- Chicken-and-egg question, 173
- Childlike emotional mode, 58
- Chinese social reality, 89
- Choices, offering, 74
- Christian scriptures, 94
- Cognitive competence, 190
- Command-and-control management style, 125
- Communication: basic dilemma of, 19; poor, escalating error and, 128; quality of our, improving, importance of, 13, 15
- Competence, cognitive, required of practitioners, 190
- Competency, sense of: eroding our, 180–181; false, hiding a, 181; threatened, understanding, 44, 182. See also Threat and embarrassment, conditions of
- Conclusions, drawing: and advocacy, 30; and arguing them, 145; in case study groups, 243; and conflict between them, 28; as inferences, recognizing, 163–164; and the Ladder of Inference, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28; making assumptions about, 228; variations on, 143–144
- Conflict: assumptions about, 137; benefiting from, 137–138; between conclusions, 28; of personality, writing off defensive routines as a, 138
- Consideration, taking the past into, 187
- Contextual factors, identifying, 231–232, 234, 236
- Contribution to defensive routines. See Impact and contribution
- Control: default response to being out of, 160; exercise of, by management, problem with, 125; giving false assurance of, 126; vs. influence, 126–127; mechanical, 124
- Control, being in: belief about, when using theory, 209, 210; exercise involving, 76; scenario involving, 61–64. See also Unilateral Control Model
- Conversational data, 31, 106, 110, 170, 216
- Conversations: balance in, 34; basic units of, 29; conducted in the spirit of the Mutual Learning Model, 237; ongoing, having, and clear contracting, 187; quality of our, improving, importance of, 13, 15, 213; recalling, 31–32; recording, practice of, 134, 193, 216, 222, 223, 240; starting point for, maps serving as, 237. See also Facilitated dialogue; Point-counterpoint conversations
- Correction, opportunity for, gaining, 169
- Covering up, 82, 92–93, 125–126, 137, 182, 184, 227, 228
- Critical feedback: demeanor while receiving, 210–211; LHC-RHC case study involving, 217–219

Critical thinking skills, use of, 127, 128
Cronkite, W., 163
Culter, J., 213
Cultural history, organizational, 117
Cultural meaning, Western, attached to making mistakes, 179
Cultural norms, effect of, 67, 71, 75, 76, 89, 90–91
Cultural precepts, 90
Curiosity: beginning alternative action with, 142; as the driver of discovery, 156; fostering, 164; having, as a ground rule for mapping, 230; shift to, 155, 185; stage for, 232

D

Data: characteristics of, 23, 149; conversational, 31, 106, 110, 170, 216; eliciting, 106–107; grounding comments in the, during case study groups, 244, 246; pool of, 23, 24, 243. See also Information; Interpreting data and adding meaning; Selecting data
Data document, use of a, 222
Day-to-day errors, unnoticed, 178–179
Decision making: better, information leading to, 32, 33; delay in, 116, 145; poor, dynamic resulting in, 117, 128; prolonging, 72
De-escalation: change requisite for, 119; commitment needed for, 120; incentives for engaging in, 129–132; and inviting reflection, 132–140; key to, 127; as not about fixing something, 124–127; and the power of reflection, 127–128; realization leading to, 123–124; scenario involving, 121–123
Default state of mind, 66, 160, 213
Defense, just cause for, 58

Defensive routines. See Organizational defensive routines
Delivering bad news, strategy of, 85
Denial, 72, 73–74
Details vs. broad overview, question of, case involving, 201–203
Diagnosing case studies, 241–242
Dialogue. See Conversations; Facilitated dialogue
Differences in views, as a constant theme, 56–57. See also Engaging differences
Dilemmas, managing, 138–140, 201–203
Direct questioning of ability, case involving, 49–51
Disconnection, exact point of, locating, 162
Dishonesty, issue of, 86–87
Double-loop learning, 15–16, 141, 157. See also Mutual Learning Model
Doubt, importance of, 163–164
Dueling ladders, 26–27

E

Easing-in strategy, 82–83, 113, 200
Egos, using, as an excuse, 138
Einstein, A., 128
Embarrassment, understanding, 43–44. See also Threat and embarrassment, conditions of Emotional Intelligence (Goleman), 57
Emotional temperature, rising, case involving, 45–48
Emotions: covering up, revealed during mapping, 227, 228; having different, 65; reflection on the role of, mistakes in responding to, case involving, 194–198; role of, 57–58; suppression of, 68–69; surrounding discovery of a mistake, 180; venting, benefit of, 106, 185

- Engaging differences: by adopting a learning stance, 153–155; as an alternative action, 141; by beginning with curiosity, 142; four step process for, 155–156; using the advanced version of the Ladder of Inference for, 143–152; willingness for, 137
- Entitlement, 89–90
- Epicurus, 6
- Errors. See Mistakes and errors
- Escalation, potential, promise of, 75. See also De-escalation
- Evaluating, 143, 144, 145
- Examples, offering, 31, 85
- Exit strategy, 178
- Expectations: dropping, 161; measuring up to, issue of, 90–91, 92
- Experimentation: improvement through, 213; scientific principles of, applying, 164, 172; and skill transfer, 190, 191, 192; using a group setting for, 239, 245
- Explaining, 95–96, 143, 144, 145, 220
- ## F
- Face, meaning of, 89–90
- Face-saving strategy: backfired, 158; cultural norms for, 90–91; described, 88–89; mapping, 113; Western reaction to, 92
- Facilitated dialogue: as an intervention strategy, 104, 105; in mapping defensive routines, 222, 223, 227–228, 234–235
- Facilitated reflection, mistakes made during, case study involving, 194–198
- Facts vs. inferences, 22, 28–29, 114, 125
- False assumptions: being “mugged” by, 163; learning from, 182, 230; not testing, 208
- False competency, hiding a, 181
- False humility, 164
- Favoritism, guarding against, 111, 160, 216
- Fears, covering up, revealed during mapping, 227, 228
- Feedback: demeanor while receiving, 210–211; failure in presenting, 179; initiating, with leading questions, issue with, 200; in interviews, 107; LHC-RHC case study involving, 217–219; using a group setting for receiving, 239; in workshops, asking for, 206–207
- Feelings and emotions. See Emotions
- Fictional narrative, using, to learn from, 9–10. See also “Fix It Now or Fix It Later” scenarios
- Fifth Discipline Fieldbook, The* (Senge), 33
- “Fight-or-flight mode,” 44, 57, 184
- Filters, 220
- “Fix It Now or Fix It Later” scenarios: and being in control, 61–64; and bypass tactics, 79–81; and conditions of threat and embarrassment, 39–42; and de-escalation, 121–123; mapping the, 112–119; using, to learn from, 7, 9
- Fixing defensive routines, believing in, problem with, 124–127
- Fixing metaphor, limits of the, 124–126
- Flawed Advice* (Argyris), 125
- Follett, M. P., 138, 140
- Forgiveness: appropriate candidates for, 166; little evidence of, 97; unwilling to extend, 181–182
- Foundational skill set. See Advocacy and inquiry; Ladder of Inference; Left Hand Column (LHC)
- Frame of mind: access to, 107, 108, 113; eliciting a person’s, 106, 107–110
- Freudian slip, 21–22

G

Gap, spotting the, 130–131, 166–167
Gestalt therapy technique, 186
“Get rid of it” reaction, 72, 74
Godfather, The (movie), 129
Goleman, D., 57–58
Granting legitimacy, 160–162, 183–184
Greek Stoics, 126
Grilled for information, getting, case of, 48–49
Ground rules, 197, 230
Group discussions vs. private interviews, 105–106
Groups, breaking into, for mapping, 230
Groups, study. See Case study groups

H

“Hard data” document, use of a, 222
Help from others: enlisting, 135–136, 185; promise of, 187; reliance on, 165; requesting, strategy of, 83–85, 113
Helping practitioners teach others. See Practitioners as teachers
Helplessness, 98–99, 124
High quality advocacy: attempting, in role playing, 192; benefits of, 29; crafting, 170; and dealing with bypass strategies, 85, 87; described, 30–32; to engage differences, 141; identifying, during case diagnostic process, 241; meaning behind, 35–36; practicing, in case study groups, 242, 243; and shift in thinking, 162
High quality inquiry: and assuming partiality, 163; attempting, in role playing, 192; benefits of, 29; and dealing with bypass strategies, 85, 87; described, 32–33; to engage differences, 141, 145–146, 153, 154–155; identifying, during case diagnostic process, 242; in interviews, 106, 110; meaning behind,

35–36; practicing, in case study groups, 242; and reflection, 128
History: claiming there’s a, 97–98; established, of dysfunctional behavior, and reciprocity, 172
Ho, D. Y., 89, 91, 100
Holding others accountable, 94–95
Home free, coasting, mistaken belief in, case involving, 193–198
Honesty, issue with, 71–72, 86
Humanity, endearing feature of, 187
Humility, virtue of, 164, 168, 186, 209
Hybrid model, 213
Hypotheses, ideas as, 164

I

Impact and contribution: acknowledging our, 167–171, 173, 184, 186, 187; avoiding our own, 181; discussing, in case study groups, 245, 246; meaning of, 168; practitioners staying alert to unintended, importance of, 206–207; reflecting on, when mapping manager-team interaction, 223; registering the, 170, 173; responsibility to talk about another’s, 166, 173; seeing each other’s, 217. See also Action-Impact map; Action-Impact mapping template
Impact, physical, characteristics of, 167–168
Implementation, effective, likelihood of, increasing, 32, 33
Inaction, 98
Incompetence, skilled, 178–179
Inconsistent messages: sending, strategy of, 85–86; types of, 86–88; and using false humility, 164
Inferences, making. See Ladder of Inference
Influence vs. control, 126–127
Information: leading to better decision making, 32, 33; organizing, 110–112. See also Data; Mapping

- Ingenuity, 3
- Injustice, confronting, 116
- Inner critic: as an obstacle to learning, 180, 186; quelling the, 185–186
- Innovation, 3
- Inquiry: described, 29; to discover others' Ladder of Inference, 170; exercises using, to engage differences, 147, 148–149, 149–150; genuine, lack of, 125; lack of, 219; and learning from mistakes, 183–184; line of, pursuing a, 156; and mapping interpersonal defensive routines, 220; muddled instructions for exercise on using, case of, 203–206; in paraphrasing, 151; purpose of, 18; reasonableness waiting to be discovered through, 165; reflection on the process of, mistakes in responding to, case involving, 194–198. See also Advocacy and inquiry; High quality inquiry
- Insanity, 178
- Instructions, muddled, case of, 203–206
- Intentions: categorizing views on, 108; gap between, and actions, 166–167; making assumptions about, 93–94, 130, 166, 172–173; mismatch between results and, occurrence of, 177, 178, 179, 180; positive, attributing, 165–167, 172–173, 184; practitioner, questioning of, mistakes in responding to, cases involving, 193–207; reacting to misinterpretation of, 170; signaling, 154
- Intergroup conflict, turning dilemmas into, 138, 139
- Interpersonal defensive routines, mapping, 113–116, 215–221, 237
- Interpersonal relationships, dynamic motion of, 111
- Interpreting data and adding meaning: and the advanced version of the Ladder of Inference, 143; in case study groups, 243; difference in, understanding, 162; discovering others' means of, 170; and the Ladder of Inference, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30; and mapping interpersonal defensive routines, 220; moving down the ladder to, 146; naming as, 147–149, 156; paraphrasing as, 150–152, 156
- Interruptions, as a strategy, 87–88, 153
- Interventions, strategic. See Interviews; Mapping
- Interviews, 104, 105, 105–110
- Inventing motives, 93–94
- J
- Joyce, J., 182
- Judgments, making, issue of, 90–91, 114, 125, 127, 130
- JUMP, 22, 23
- Justice, pursuit of, 6, 161
- K
- Knots, massaging, 104, 110
- Knowledge for Action* (Argyris), 177
- Knowledge, purpose of, 6
- L
- Ladder of Inference: in action, 18; advanced version of the, using the, 143–152; and advocacy, 30, 31; awareness of the, 141; as a critical thinking tool, 128; described, 21–29; exercises involving the, 146, 147, 148–149, 149–150, 151–152; as a foundational skill, 16; gaining insights into an individual's, 106; good reminder to return to the, 162; hazards of arguing from atop the, 145–146; interjecting doubt or mistrust of your, importance of, 163–164; low level on the, example

- of, 150; neutral terms provided by the, 216–217; presentations on the, learning from, 207; as productive, 85; purpose of the, 17; questions to discover others', 170; and a shared reasoning process, 161; and strategies for case study groups, 242, 243; teaching the, 189–190; trading abstract conclusions from atop the, 113; as a tuning device, 142; visibility of the, in role playing, 192
- Ladders: dueling, 26–27; multiple, 27–28, 243; rungs on, 24, 27
- Lattice Partners, 213
- Leadership, senior, participation of, 138
- Leading questions: and bypass strategies, 83, 85, 200; case involving, 198–201; and inquiry quality, 242; mapping, 113, 220, 225, 226; that come to mind when others make mistakes, 181
- Learning: appetite for, 142; consideration for, 87; continual process of unlearning and, 132, 133; crucibles for, 58–59; double-loop, 15–16, 141, 157; from the dying, 132, 136, 137; environment of, 239; from experienced practitioners, 207–208; explicit contract for, 210; inhibiting, 137; lifelong pursuit of, 173; in the moment, 135–136; as a mutual agreement, 202; mutual, dance of reflection and, first step in the, 168; obstacle to, 72, 208; promoting, technique for, 35; reflective, failure to contract with another person for, effect of, 209; required, limiting, 76; skill transfer essential to, 190; staple of, 133. See also Mistakes, learning from; Mutual Learning Model
- Learning agreements, 202
- Learning stance: adopting a, 153–155, 184, 213, 217; remaining in the, issue of, 193
- Left Hand Column (LHC): access to frame of mind in the, 107, 108, 113; and advocacy and inquiry, 29; and being rational and avoiding upset, 69; blurting out comments from the, during an evaluation, inviting, 135; common types of thinking in the, providing a list of, 201; and denial, 73; described, 18–21; focus on the, in case study groups, 243–244; as a foundational skill, 16; gaining insights into an individual's, 106; and holding others accountable, 95; increasing toxicity of the, mapping the, 114; inventing causal explanations in the, 96; organizing the, 108, 109; productive use of the, 141; purpose of the, 17; and requesting help, 84; teaching the, 189; unfreezing the, 130–131. See also LHC-RHC case studies
- Legitimacy, granting, 160–162, 183–184
- Letting go, 126
- LHC-RHC case studies: accessing private thinking from, 108, 113; comparing columns in, 131; involving conditions of threat and embarrassment, 45–47, 48–49, 50–51, 52, 53, 54; as the object and focus of study groups, 239, 240; and practitioner mistakes, 194–196; process for writing, 134–135; study groups using, process and strategies for, 239, 240, 241–246; and the Unilateral Control Model, 73; for use in mapping defensive routines, 216, 218–219; writing and reviewing one's own, 92
- Lies, telling, strategy involving, 86–87

- Limitations of your thinking, acknowledging, 23, 35, 163–164
- Linus, 181
- Listening: deep, 150–151, 157; purpose of, 106; for reasonableness, 169; selective, 150, 221
- Logic, self-referential, 97
- Loops of human interaction, tracking, 110–112, 216, 219–220, 232–233. See also Mapping
- Losing face, 90, 92
- Low quality advocacy, described, 241
- Low quality inquiry, described, 242
- Low-level inferences, use of, 216–217, 222
- ## M
- Management style, command-and-control, 125
- Manager-team interaction, mapping, 222–228
- Mapping: benefits of, 215; as a facilitative technique, 124; follow-up to, exercise as a, 237; informal, 123; interpersonal defensive routines, 113–116, 215–221, 237; as an intervention strategy, 104, 105, 112–119; manager-team interaction, 222–228; at the organizational level, 117–119, 228–236, 237; as a starting point for conversations, 237; team defensive routines, 116–117, 222–228, 237; techniques and templates for, 215–237
- McArthur, P., 16, 96, 115, 149, 158, 165, 193, 207
- Meaning. See Interpreting data and adding meaning; Shared meaning
- Mechanical control, 124–125
- Meetings: defensive routines in the context of, 116–117; dialogue from, example of, 224–225; recording, practice of, 134, 222, 223
- Mental mishaps, types of, 180. See also Mistakes and errors
- Mental models, 25–26
- Merton, T., 6
- Metaphors, use of, 8, 27, 114, 124–126, 148, 201, 202, 214
- Mirrored reflection, 165
- Misalignment, 139
- Mission and vision, alignment to, issue of, 139
- Mistakes and errors: and blaming, 181–182; Catch-22 when dealing with, 182, 208; dealing with our own, 180–181, 213; detecting and correcting, 119, 169, 177, 178; failure to see, 178–179; “getting help” with discovering, reaction to, 209; inner critic dwelling on, 180, 185–186; prevalent view of, 178, 179–180; in using the Mutual Learning Model, 196, 210; value of, attesting to the, 182; when others make, 181
- Mistakes, learning from: difficulty of, 177–178; guidelines for, 188; importance of, beginning practitioners remembering, 208; during mapping, 230; obstacles to, 178–182; preventing, 70, 91; and self-reflection, 120; that are made in modeling, 193–207; by thinking of mistakes as puzzles, 182–188
- Misunderstanding, exact point of, locating, 162
- Mnemonic devices, use of, 155–156, 162, 171
- Model I thinking, 64
- Model II thinking and behavior, 16
- Modeling: in case study groups, 240; importance of, 126, 141, 157, 190;

- making mistakes in, learning from, 193–207; productive, ability of practitioners to engage in, as requisite, 190–191; of the skills during workshops, 192–193; through role playing, 191–192
- Monitor Group Company, 213
- Motives, inventing, 93–94, 114, 166. See also Intentions
- Muddled expression, dealing with, 29
- Muddled instructions, case of, 203–206
- Multiple defensive routine levels, keeping in mind the, 111
- Multiple ladders of inference, 27–28, 243
- Mutual accountability, 126, 186–187
- Mutual Learning Model: ability to produce the actions of the, in real-time situations, 190–191; adoption of the, widespread, desire for, 130; continued efforts to practice the, importance of, 213–214; conversations conducted in the spirit of the, 237; critical thinking as requisite in the, 128; hybrid of the Unilateral Control Model and the, 213; implementing the, 173; modeling the, 141; proficiency needed in skills of the, for intervention, 104; as a program of attraction, 126, 171; response to speech about the, 124; and strategies for case study groups, 246; as a thinking model, 16; thought enablers and the, 159, 163; using the language of the, while in Unilateral Control Mode, 196, 210. See also Advocacy and inquiry; Ladder of Inference; Left Hand Column (LHC)
- Mutual understanding: assuming, 228; conversation yielding, 170
- N
- Naming, 143, 147–149, 156
- Narrative description, pinning down a, 113
- Neutral assumptions, making, 173
- Neutral maps, importance of, 112
- Neutral terms, use of, 32, 85, 108, 113, 115, 188, 216–217, 222, 225
- New actions: change in thinking allowing for, 128, 157, 159; committing to, with the certainty of help from others, 187
- New behavior, learning, through practice, 6–7
- Newton’s third law of motion, 113
- “Not me” reaction, 72, 73–74
- O
- Omniscience, declaration of, 163
- “On the Concept of Face” (Ho), 89
- One-sided thinking, 67–68
- Operating performance, poor, 3
- Organizational culture: blaming in, 186; defensive routines taking hold of, 4–5, 93; history of, beliefs and values in the, personal views reflecting the, 117
- Organizational defensive routines: defined and described, 4–5; goal to reduce negative impact of, 214; overview of, 3–4; setting the stage for, 42–43; ubiquity of, 214. See also specific types of defensive routines, strategies, and responses
- Organizational reflection, 138–140
- Organization-wide defensive routines, mapping, 117–119, 228–236, 237
- Other category, 108, 109
- Overview vs. details, questions of, case involving, 201–203
- P
- Pain, as an incentive, 129–130
- Paradox, 68
- Paraphrasing: deep listening required for, 157; to engage differences, 143,

- 150–152, 156; exercise on, muddling the instructions for, case involving, 203–206; in mapping, 217, 223; in our own minds, 24; when using thought enablers, 170, 173
- Partiality, assuming, 23, 35, 142, 162–165, 183
- “Peanuts” (cartoon), 181
- Pedagogical approach, versatility in, importance of, 190
- Perpetuating defensive routines, 5, 125
- Personal responsibility, distancing ourselves from, 5
- Personal triggers. See Trigger points
- Personality conflicts, writing off defensive routines as, 138
- Philosophy, study of, 5–6
- Physical cues, being alert to, 171, 184–185
- “Pick your battles” recommendation, issue with the, 75
- Pilot workshops, cases from, 193–207
- Point-counterpoint conversations, 17, 28, 113, 116, 147, 154, 155, 160, 171. See also Stalemates
- Politeness, misguided, 70
- Positive intent, attributing, 165–167, 172–173, 184
- Practice: gap between theory and, 130–131; habits of, engaging in, 7, 157, 189, 207–208, 213–214, 239, 240
- Practitioners as teachers: challenges facing, overview of, 189–190; competencies and abilities required of, 190–192; experienced, learning from, 207–208; mistakes made by, cases reflecting, 193–207; and moving from the script to modeling the skills, 192–193; tips for, on becoming skill proficient and facing challenges, 207–211
- Private assessments, mapping, 219–220, 227, 228
- Private interviews vs. group discussions, 105–106
- Private thinking. See Left Hand Column (LHC)
- Problem solving, limited, 145
- Productivity, lost, 72, 117
- Proposing action, 143–144
- Protective strategies, as a constant theme, 57–58, 103. See also Bypass strategies; Control, being in
- Public speaking skills, importance of, 190, 193
- Punishment: and acknowledging impact, 170; for being on top of the ladder, 27; and ground rules, 230; for making mistakes, 177, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184; mapping, 235; for misunderstandings, 198; practitioner use of, as a sign of not using theory, 210
- Putnam, R., 16, 207, 209, 211
- Puzzles: maps as, 230; mistakes as, 182–188
- ## Q
- Questions: rhetorical, using, 199, 200, 219, 225; why, issue of, 33, 49. See also Inquiry; Leading questions
- Quick thinking, issue with, 22
- ## R
- Rather, D., 163
- Rational, remaining, 68–69
- Reality: of change, adapting to, 68; inaccurate interpretation of, 98–99; of our actions, being subjected to the, 134; outside, inability to acknowledge the difference between our view and, 163; social, Chinese, 89
- Real-time help, enlisting, 135–136
- Real-time reflection, demonstrating, 193

- Real-time situations, ability to model the skills in, importance of, 190
- Reasonableness: acknowledgment of, 160, 161, 162; assuming, as a ground rule for mapping, 230; discovering others', 183; listening for, 169; waiting to be discovered, 165
- Recall, 31–32, 106
- Receiving end, being on the, of others' actions, 169–170
- Recipes, reliance on, 209
- Reciprocity, 91, 171–172
- Recouping ability, 184
- Reflection: alternative avenue into, 134–135; artifacts for, 18, 192, 193; in case study groups, 240, 241–246; commitment to, sustaining, 119; dance of, and mutual learning, first step in the, 168; facilitated, mistakes made during, case study involving, 194–198; failure to contract with another person for, effect of, 209; importance of, 120; invitation to, 132–140, 154; journey of, embarking on the, 123–124; lack of, after making mistakes, 178; and the Ladder of Inference, 23; mirrored, 165; pausing for, 116, 171; power of, 127–128; real-time, demonstrating, 193; reasons for engaging in, 129–132, 214; as requisite, 6; team, 136–138; on trigger points, 185. See also Left Hand Column (LHC)
- Reframing, 159, 244
- Reinforcing defensive routines, 93–99
- Repeated patterns, 220
- Repetition, 67
- Replication, 192
- Reputation on the line, case involving, 51–53
- Requesting help, strategy of, 83–85, 113
- Resignation, 98
- Resistance: addressing, 146; understanding, 165
- Respecting others' views, issue with, 71, 76
- Responsibility: assumptions about, coming to the table with, 111; categorizing views on, 108; issue of, and holding others accountable, 95, 114; to learn from mistakes, 184; mapping, 118, 233; personal, distancing ourselves from, 5; to talk about the impact of another's actions, 166
- Results: describing, for case diagnosis, 241; effective, likelihood of, increasing, 33; identifying, 231, 234, 236; mismatch between intentions and, occurrence of, 177, 178, 179, 180
- Rhetorical questions, use of, 199, 200, 219, 225
- Riceour, P., 8
- Right Hand Column (RHC), 18, 19, 131. See also LHC-RHC case studies
- Rogers, W., 68
- Role playing, 191–192, 240, 244–245, 246
- Roles: assumptions about, coming to the table with, 111; categorizing views on, 108; mapping, 118, 233
- Romans 7:19, 166
- ## S
- Safety, environment of, 239
- St. Paul, 166
- Saudi Arabia, culture of, 71, 90–91
- Saving face. See Face-saving strategy
- Schön, D., 11, 15, 16, 18, 130
- Selecting data: and the advanced version of the Ladder of Inference, 143, 149–150; in case study groups, 243; discovering others' means of, 170; and the Ladder of Inference, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30; moving down the ladder to, 146

- Selective listening, 150, 221
- Self category, 108, 109
- Self-discovery, journey of, embarking on, 132, 214
- Self-fulfilling prophecies, defensive routines becoming, 97–98
- Self-referential logic, 97
- Self-reflection: beginning the journey toward, reason for, 123; challenge of, 133; full commitment to, aspects of, 132–136; importance of, 120; offering to help others with, 132; reasons for committing to, 129–132, 214. See also Reflection
- Senge, P. M., 33, 130, 140
- Senior leadership, participation of, 138
- Shared actions, creating, 139
- Shared meaning: creating, 139; making assumptions about, 144, 147–148
- Shared reasoning process, 161
- Shell Oil Company's Learning and Transformation Services, 7
- Silence, 92, 116, 137, 226
- Simulation, use of, 191
- Skill transfer, 190, 191. See also Experimentation; Modeling
- Skilled incompetence, 178–179
- Smith, D. M., 16, 28, 158, 163, 184, 207
- Social face, 90. See also Face-saving strategy
- Social justice, pursuit of, 6
- Social reality, 89, 90
- Social virtues, 69–72, 75, 86, 87, 158
- Socrates, 120
- Socratic method, 200
- Stalemates, 28, 145, 241. See also Point-counterpoint conversations
- STATE and ASK, 35
- Statements, making. See Advocacy
- STEP process, 155–156
- Storytelling, use of, 8–9, 96–97
- Strategic interventions. See Interviews; Mapping
- Stravinsky, I., 182
- Stress, effect of, 160
- Study groups. See Case study groups
- Subjectivity, 131
- Successful organizations, hallmarks of, 3
- Supporting others, issue with, 69–70, 76, 158
- Systems thinking discipline, 33
- ## T
- “Taking Personal Change Seriously” (Senge), 130
- Task category, 108, 109
- Teachers, helping practitioners be. See Practitioners as teachers
- Teaching style, being questioned about, mistakes in responding to, case involving, 198–201
- Team, defensive routines, mapping, 116–117, 222–228, 237
- Team efficiency, reduced, 145
- Team polarization, 145
- Team reflection, 136–138
- Tension, escalation of, potential, promise of, 75
- Theory: in practice, gap between espoused theory and, 130–131; using, issues with, 208–211
- Thinking: agility of, 164; chicken-and-egg type of question involving, 173; critical, use of, 127, 128; different, effect of, 157; fundamental change of, 183; gradual change of, 159–160; influence of, on actions, 111; instant change of, 157–159; limits of our, acknowledging the, 23, 35, 163–164; obviousness of our, assumption of the, 165; one-sided, 67–68; outside the box, 3; partiality of our, acknowledging, 35,

- 142, 162–165, 183; quick, 22; recording, for case diagnosis, 242; shifts of, 128, 159, 161–162, 166, 172–173; toxic, 20, 106, 110, 217; win-lose, 66–68, 74–75, 93, 123, 128, 145
- Thinking models, 16, 64. See also Mutual Learning Model; Unilateral Control Model
- Thinking privately. See Left Hand Column (LHC)
- Thinking-Action map, 112, 115, 117, 119, 221, 236
- Thinking-Action mapping template: for interpersonal defensive routines, 215–221; issue of using, for mapping manager-team interaction, 222; for the organizational level, 228, 229, 230–235
- Third party, use of a, 104, 105. See also Facilitated dialogue; Interviews; Mapping
- Thomas Aquinas, 7
- Thought enablers: acknowledging impact and contribution as, 167–171, 184; assuming partiality as, 162–165, 183; attributing positive intent as, 165–167, 184; drawing on, to learn from mistakes, 183–184; exercise involving use of, 172–173; gradually changing thinking with use of, 159–160; granting legitimacy as, 160–162, 183–184; instantly changing thinking without use of, 157–159; need for, 157; working with, 171–173
- Threat and embarrassment, conditions of: activating, by talking about undiscussables, 112; and admitting one's impact and contribution, 168; and being in control, 64, 65, 69, 74; breeding grounds for, 68, 182; and bypass strategies, 81, 86, 89, 91, 92, 125, 137, 158; case studies of, 45–55; changing the default response to, 160; constant themes featured in, 55–58; as crucibles for learning, 58–59; denial leading to, 73; difficulty identifying errors and mistakes in, 177; exercises involving, 59; faced by beginning practitioners, 207–208; in facilitated dialogue, addressing, 223; first level of protection against, 181; and “getting help” discovering mistakes, 209; as just cause for defense, 58; potential, features of, 43–45; presence of the “expert” inducting, 210; reaction to, 3, 4, 103, 182; scenario involving, 39–42; ubiquity of, 129
- Threats, understanding, 44
- Time constraints, 198
- Time management, importance of, in conducting workshops, 199
- Time period, for case study group discussion, 239
- Toxic thinking, 20, 106, 110, 217
- Toxic work environment, 5, 98
- Trigger points: awareness of, 20, 44–45, 59, 169; having different, 65; identifying, 107, 113; mapping the, 115, 221; reflecting on, 185; respective actions serving as, realization of, 123; and talking about mistakes, 182
- Trust, environment of, 239
- Twain, M., 27
- ## U
- Understanding: advocating for, 150; asking for, 145–146; assuming mutual, 228; as the basis for taking accountability, 187; deeper, fostering, 153, 157; mutual, conversation yielding, 170

Unilateral Control Model: alternative to the, 159; anticipating seeing every aspect of the, 136–137; causes activating the, 64–66; classic example of the, 114; common reactions to the, 72–75; desire to hold onto the, 81; and the hazards of arguing atop our ladders, 145; hybrid of the Mutual Learning Model and the, 213; main features of the, 66–72; mapping the, 113; mental description of the, 163; playing out being under the influence of the, in retrospect, 133; purpose of the, 64; reasoning typical of the, 103; results of the, 128; sharing the same mindset of the, 114–115, 131; strategy for shifting from the, exercise involving, 172–173; as a thinking model, 64; and using the language of the Mutual Learning Model, 196, 210. See also Control, being in

Unlearning, continual process of, and learning anew, 132, 133

“Unlocking Organizational Defensive Routines” workshop, 7, 193

Unproductive behavior, escalating cycles of, caught up in, 3, 4–5

Untangling defensive routines, approach to, 104–105, 110

Upset, creating, avoidance of, 68–69

V

Value, demonstrating, issue of, 208

Venting, freedom to engage in, 106, 185

Verbal cues, being alert to, 171

Vigilance, 126, 169, 173

Virtues: of humility, 164, 168, 186, 209; of justice, 6, 161; social, 69–72, 75, 86, 87, 158

Vulnerability, showing, 211

W

Weeds, dealing with, 214

Western society, 92, 179

“What’s wrong with it?” reaction, 72, 74

White lies, telling, strategy of, 86–87

Why questions, issue of, 33, 49

Win-lose thinking, 66–68, 74–75, 93, 123, 128, 145

Wisdom, 126

Withdrawal: Catch-22 involving, 208; justifying, 137; silence as, 116

Workplace culture. See Organizational culture

Workshops: modeling the skills during, 192–193; pilot, cases from, 193–207

Wrongly accused, perception of being, case involving, 54–55

Z

Zinged by a question, practitioner getting, case of the, 198–201

<http://www.pbookshop.com>