

Index

A

Abilene Paradox
described, 142–145
sessions for solving, 149–151
sharing story with team members, 151 team symptoms of, 146–148
accountability, 56, 67, 205, 206
action planning
goals and options for, 106–107
team building and, 83, 88, 113
action summaries, 176
ad hoc committees. See temporary teams
Agree-Disagree Statements on Team Leadership, 96, 97–98
agreement-management dilemmas formats for sessions solving, 149–151
symptoms of, 145–148
agreements. See also Abilene Paradox;
unhealthy agreements
inabilities to manage, 145
negotiating, 122
symptoms of unhealthy, 145–148
alliance teams, 197–214. See also managing alliance teams ambiguous boundaries of, 222
annual health checks for, 207–214
failures of, 198
growth and challenges of, 197–198
internal teams vs., 198–200
Lilly's structure for, 200–201
managing, 200–214
size and duplication within, 199–200
Amazon.com, 33
analyzing data. See also data gathering consultant's role in, 98–99
for team building, 83, 87–88, 98–100 annual health checks for alliances, 207–214 appreciative inquiry (AI), 102–104

articulating goals, 8–9
assignments
developing system for, 46
external, 138
making clear, 55–66
tracking for temporary teams, 175–176
Association of Strategic Alliance Professionals, 200
Atomic Energy Committee, 168–169
Attitudes About Change, 94
audio conferences, 181, 190, 191, 193 authority within temporary teams, 169–170

B

Bain & Company, 29, 33–36, 218
chemistry and composition of teams, 37–38 developing and testing team leaders, 35–36 expectation of teams, 34–35
interdependency and productivity at, 36–37 measuring team member satisfaction and performance, 39–40 structure of teams at, 37
team building at, 33–34
Banting, Frederick, 200
Beckhard, Dick, 150
Best, Charles H., 200
Bonds, Barry, 15
Boss, Wayne, 108–110, 111
Bucksbaum, John, 72, 73–74
Bucksbaum, Martin, 71
Bucksbaum, Matthew, 71
building teams. See team building
bulletin board communications, 181, 191
Burke, Warner, 150
Bushe, Gervase, 103

C

case studies

- Bain & Company, 29, 33–36
- Eli Lilly and Company, 200–214
- high-performing teams, 71–74
- interteam conflict, 160–164
- change, 75–90
  - asking team's views on, 94–95
  - guidelines for temporary teams, 176–177
  - initiating with outside help, 82–83
  - planning, implementing, and evaluating, 83, 88–89
  - problems requiring, 75–78
  - skills for managing, 5, 6, 9–10
  - team building as initiating, 78, 81
- Chrysler, 136, 180–181
- close-ended surveys, 84–85
- coaching by team leaders, 63–64
- commitment
  - measuring for alliances, 209, 212
  - productivity and team, 38
- communications
  - Abilene Paradox and, 142–145
  - alliance team, 205–206
  - cross-cultural, 181–182, 183, 185–186
  - fostering open, 59–60, 68
  - improving with alliance health check, 213
  - temporary team, 169–170, 175, 177
  - virtual team, 181, 186–187
- competencies, 47–74
  - about, 5, 6, 8–9, 47
  - developing team, 47–48, 54–62
  - identifying effective team's, 53–54
  - measuring, 65–71
  - relationship-related, 51–52
  - shifting to team leadership, 49–50
  - task-related, 50–51
- composition, 29–46
  - about, 5, 6, 7–8
  - assessing context and, 40, 41–43
  - context contributing to team, 33–34
  - creating team context and, 40, 44–46
  - cultural expectations for effective team, 34–35
  - emphasizing interdependency and productivity, 36–37
  - managing teams based on, 30–31
  - size of team, 32–33, 199–200
  - team chemistry and, 37–38
  - team performance and, 29–32

- conflict, 117–139, 153–164
  - alliance team, 201–202
  - difficulties among team members, 78
  - diversity as source of, 133–136
  - exercises resolving, 122–130
  - expectation theory of, 117–121
  - interteam, 153–164
  - manager as center of, 131–133
  - negotiating agreements and, 122
  - team member and leader differences, 76–78
  - temporary team's, 175
  - virtual team, 188–189
- conflict management, 60, 68–69
- constructive controversy, 134
- consultants
  - giving feedback to team leaders, 132, 133
  - identifying team problems, 83
  - initiating change with, 82
  - observing Abilene Paradox symptoms, 146
  - reveal team's unhealthy agreements, 149–150
  - role in group data analysis, 98–99
  - working with, 82–83, 90
- context, 13–27
  - about, 5–7
  - assessing composition and, 40, 41–43
  - choosing type of team needed, 21–24
  - contributing to team composition, 33–34
  - creating organizational, 17
  - creating team composition in, 40, 44–46
  - determining need for teamwork in tasks, 17–21
  - ineffective teamwork and, 13–15
  - organizational support for teamwork, 24–27
- controversy, 134, 136
- Coons, Tom, 189
- core mission, 173
- corporate culture. See culture
- critiquing teams, 136
- cross-cultural communications, 181–182
- culture
  - assessing support for teamwork, 45–46
  - checking fit of alliance, 207, 208, 211
  - clashes in alliance teams, 198–199
  - expectations for effective teams, 34–35
  - identifying potential conflicts for alliances, 201

- support for teamwork, 24–27
  - team development and corporate, 33–34
  - variables influencing multicultural virtual teams, 184–185
  - virtual teams and conflicts in, 180–182
  - Culture's Consequences* (Hofstede), 185
- D
- Daimler-Benz, 180–181
  - data gathering, 84–87. See also analyzing data
    - creating open climate for, 93–98
    - determining ways for, 90
    - diagnosing team data, 83, 87–88
    - group analysis of team data, 98–100, 113
    - illustrated, 83
    - revealing unhealthy agreements, 149–150
    - surveys for, 84–85
    - team leader feedback through surveys, 132
    - within team, 86–87
  - decision making
    - alliance, 202, 203–205
    - alliance teams and shared, 199
    - establishing team process for, 55–56
    - measuring team's abilities in, 66–67
    - team size and, 33
    - team-building exercises in, 96–98
    - temporary team, 174
    - virtual team, 187
  - decision teams, 21–27
  - designing team-building programs, 92–14
    - appreciative inquiry, 102–104
    - creating climate for data gathering, 93–98
    - feedback and performance, 104–106
    - follow-up for programs, 107–113
    - getting started, 92–93
    - goals and options for action planning, 106–107
    - group data analysis, 98–100
    - interteam building models, 154–160
    - maintaining performance with PMI, 108–110
    - overview, 91–92, 113–114
  - developing team competencies, 54–62
    - accountability for performance, 56, 67, 205, 206
    - building trust, 57–59, 68
    - conflict management, 60, 68–69
    - encouraging risk-taking and innovation, 61, 62, 70
    - engaging in team building, 61–62, 70
    - establishing decision-making process, 55–56, 66–67
    - fostering open communications, 59–60, 68
    - making clear assignments, 55, 66
    - respect and collaboration, 60, 69
    - running effective meetings, 56–57, 67
    - setting measurable goals, 54–55, 65
    - shifting from staff to team, 47–48
  - diagnosing
    - interteam conflict, 153–154
    - team problems, 218–219
  - diversity
    - cross-cultural communications, 181–182
      - as source of conflict, 133–136
      - trust-building for virtual teams, 182–185
    - variable: influencing multicultural virtual teams, 184–185
  - Drucker, Peter, 197
  - “due diligence” teams, 201–202
  - duplication in alliance teams, 199–200, 205
  - Dyer, Jeff, 33–34
  - Dyer, Robert, 97–98
- E
- e-mail communications, 181, 190, 191, 213
  - Edgemont Company, 173
  - ElectriGov case study, 160–162
  - Eli Lilly and Company, 200–214
    - annual alliance health checks at, 207–214
    - communication and work planning documents at, 205–206
    - developing decision-making template, 203–205
    - “due diligence” teams for, 201–202
    - Office of Alliance Management, 200–201
    - origins and scope of, 200
    - “spider web” chart, 208, 209
    - strategic futures exercise at, 203
    - survey items for health check, 209, 210–212
  - employees. See also team members
    - finding and developing for team, 220–222

monthly lunch with managers, 39 views on team building, 16
 evaluating team building plans, 83, 88–89
 ExactCorp case study, 162–164
 exercises
   interteam conflict resolution, 154–160
   Role-Clarification, 122–129
   “Start-Stop-Continue,” 129
   strategic futures, 203
 expectation theory of conflict, 117–121
 expectations
 effective teams’, 34–35
 exercise determining, 122–129
   sharing for temporary teams, 172–173 violations within teams, 120–121
   virtual teams’, 180, 186–189
 external assignments, 138

F

feedback
 developing guidelines for, 59–60
 improving performance with, 104–106, 218
 providing for team leaders, 131–132, 133
 role-clarification, 127
 follow-up, 107–113
 after resolving interteam conflict, 159
 annual check up for alliance teams, 207–214
 Personal Management Interview as, 108–110
 sessions with teams, 110–113
 Four Cs. See also change; competencies;
 composition; context
 defined, 5
 implementing, 217–219
 functional pairs, 205
 future challenges, 219–213

G

Gartner group, 179
 Genentech Inc., 200
 General Growth Properties (GGP),
   71–74
 globalization
   cross-cultural communications and,
     181–182
   rise of virtual teams with, 179, 195, 223
   trust-building for virtual teams, 182–186

variables in multicultural virtual teams, 184–185
 goals
   articulating, 8–9
   clarifying temporary team, 173
   focusing on, 24, 134
   group data analysis, 98
   measuring and achieving, 65
   setting measurable, 54–55
   setting team-building feedback, 104–106
 guidelines
   developing team, 54
   diverse membership team, 135
   feedback, 59–60
   temporary team, 174–177

H

Haase, David, 202
 Harvey, Jerry, 141–148, 220–221
 high-performing teams. See also teams;
 virtual team
   case study of General Growth Properties, 71–74
   change and, 5, 6, 9–10
   competencies of, 5, 6, 8–9
   composition and, 5, 6, 7–8 context and, 5–7
   defined, 4–5
   developing competencies of, 47–48, 54–62
 Hofstede, G., 183, 185

I

implementing team building plans, 83, 88–89
 interorganizational teams. See alliance
 teams
 interteam conflict
   case studies of, 160–164
   diagnosing, 153–154
   follow-up after resolving, 159
   solutions for, 154–160
 interviews
   revealing unhealthy agreements, 149–150
   with team members, 85–86

K

kaizen philosophy, 9, 81
 Katzenbach, J. R., 32–33

L

leadership

- Agree-Disagree Statements on Team Leadership, 96, 97–98
- identifying potential conflicts in styles of alliance, 202
- managing virtual teams, 193
- promoting those with skills of, 35–36
- shifting to team, 49–50, 52–53
- transitioning from staff to team, 48–49

Likert, Rensis, 110–111

Lilly. See Eli Lilly and Company

limiting team participation, 137–138

Lutz, Bob, 136

M

making time to develop teams, 45, 218

managers. See also managing alliance teams; team leaders; top management boss unsupportive of team building, 16–17 choosing type of team, 21–24

conflict centering on, 131–133

creating team context and composition, 40, 44–46

determining tasks for teamwork, 17–21

employees don't support team building, 16

fears about team building, 15

feel team building unrewarded, 15–16

identifying team problems, 83

initiating change with outside help, 82

lack skills to build effective teams, 14–15

leadership skills for, 35–36

making time to develop teams, 45, 218

monthly lunch with team members, 39

transitioning from staff to team, 48–49

working with consultants, 82–83, 90

managing alliance teams, 200–214

checking up on team health, 207–214

communication and work planning documents for, 205–206

decision-making templates for, 203–205

identifying potential conflicts, 201–202

Lilly's structure for, 200–201

strategic futures exercise, 203

survey items for health check, 209, 210–212

measuring

alliance health, 208

competencies, 65–71

decision-making processes, 55–56, 66–67

goal achievement, 54–55, 65

satisfaction and performance, 39–40

meetings

design for Role-Clarification, 125–126

effective, 56–57, 67

follow-up team, 110–113

monthly manager and employee, 39

modular interdependence, 17–18

motivation vs. skills, 30–31

Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 183, 184–185

N

negotiation

conflict resolution and, 130

reaching agreements, 122

O

open-ended surveys, 84

operational fit, 207, 208, 210–211

organizations. See also case studies

assessing support for teamwork, 45–46

process for team assignments within, 46

questions for creating context within, 17

rewarding teamwork, 44–45

support for teamwork, 24–27

outside facilitators. See consultants

P

Parker, Glenn, 33

partnerships. See alliance teams

performance

feedback for improving, 104–106, 218

follow-up team sessions and, 110–112

improving alliance team's, 213–214

inabilities to manage agreements and, 145

maintaining with PMI, 108

periodic reviews of team, 219

team accountability for, 56, 67, 205, 206

team composition and, 29–32

Personal Management Interview (PMI), 108–110

philosophy of change, 10

pooled interdependence, 17–18

Pricewaterhouse Coopers, 198 problem members, 136–139
 problems
   common team, 75–76
   failures in alliance teams, 198
   identifying team, 83
   learning to diagnose team, 153–154, 218–219
   requiring change, 75–78
   solving in team-building programs, 101–104
   virtual teams' common, 182–193 process-related competencies, 51–52 productivity, 36–37, 38

R

RACI process, 205–206
 Ransom, Michael, 206
 reciprocal interdependence, 19–21
 regression effect in teams, 108 relationship-related competencies, 51–52 responsibility
   adding for problem members, 137
   assigning for alliance teams, 205, 206
   flat teams and greater, 37
   member skills and increased, 30–31 shared leadership and team, 52–53
 rewards
   differing styles of alliance, 202
   missing for team building, 15–16
   organizational styles for, 44–45
   team member, 218
 risk-taking and innovation, 61, 70
 Role-Clarification exercise, 122–129, 219
   examples of outcomes, 127–129
   feedback in, 127
   goals of, 124–125
   meeting design for, 125–126
   personnel required for, 124
   preparing for, 125
   reasons to use, 122–123
   steps for clarifying roles, 126–127
   time required for, 123–124
   using for virtual teams, 188

S

Schein, Ed, 150
 selecting alliance team leaders, 202
   team members, 218
 self-directed teams, 22–24
 sequential interdependence, 18–19, 20
 Shell Chemicals, 189

Sims, Nelson, 202, 212
 size
   alliance team, 199–200
   team composition and, 32–33
 skills
   managers lacking team building, 14–15
   for managing change, 5, 6, 9–10
   motivation vs., 30–31
   promoting those with leadership, 35–36
 Smith, D. K., 32–33
 “spider web” chart, 208, 209
 Stach, Gary, 205
 staffs vs. teams, 47–48
 stakeholders communications, 169–170, 177
 “Start-Stop-Continue” exercise, 129
 strategic fit, 207, 208, 210
 strategic futures exercise, 205
 structure
   assessing support for teamwork, 45–46
   Bain & Company team, 37
   defined, 25–26
   Lilly's alliance team, 200–201
 surveys. See data gathering symptoms
   interteam conflict, 153–154
   unhealthy agreements, 145–148
 systems
   assessing support for teamwork, 45–46
   defined, 26–27
   developing for team assignments, 46

T

task teams, 22
 tasks
   competencies related to, 50–51
   modular independence and, 17–18
   teamwork needed for, 17–21
 team building. See also designing team-building programs; developing team
 competencies
   action planning for, 83, 88
   analyzing team data for, 83, 87–88
   assessing composition and context, 40, 41–43
   as competency, 51
   context and ineffective, 13–15
   countering regression effect in, 108 creating team context and composition, 40, 44–46
   cultural expectations for effective, 34–35
   cycle of, 83–90

- data gathering in cycle of, 83, 84–87
- developing team competency, 47–48
- employees' views of, 16
- implementing and evaluating plans for, 83, 88–89
- lacking skills for, 14–15
- managers' fears of, 15
- measuring effectiveness of, 61–62, 70
- models for interteam building, 154–160
- process of, 78, 81
- starting programs for, 92–93
- tasks for temporary teams, 170
- team chemistry and composition, 37–38
- trust building for virtual teams, 182–186
- unrewarded, 15–16
- unsupported by bosses, 16–17
- virtual teams approaches to, 194–195
- Team Competencies Scale, 65–71
- team leaders. See also managing alliance teams
  - coaching by, 63–64
  - composition and team management, 30–31
  - conducting effective PMIs, 108–110
  - conflict centering on, 131–133
  - confronting problem members, 137
  - developing and testing, 35–36
  - developing team competency, 50–52
  - differences between team members and, 76–78
  - engaging in team building, 61–62, 70
  - facilitating teams, 64
  - feedback to, 131–132, 133
  - fostering open communications, 59–60, 68
  - identifying team's competencies, 53–54
  - implementing Four Cs, 217–219
  - managing virtual teams, 193
  - role in follow-up sessions, 110–111
  - selecting alliance, 202
  - sharing power with team members, 52–53
  - solving interteam conflict, 154–160
  - understanding team composition, 7–8
  - violating subordinates' expectations, 120–121
  - virtual teams' demand on, 180, 182, 188–189
  - working with consultants, 82–83, 90
- team members
  - Abilene Paradox symptoms in, 146–148
  - accepting team guidelines and metrics, 54
  - differences between team leader and, 76–78, 131–133
  - difficulties among, 78
  - discussing view of team, 95–96
  - engaging in team building, 61–62, 70
  - finding new, 220–222
  - follow-up team sessions for, 110–112
  - interviews with, 85–86
  - making clear assignments for, 55, 66
  - measuring satisfaction and performance of, 39–40
  - PMIs with, 108–110
  - problem members, 136–139
  - revealing unhealthy agreements, 150
  - selecting and rewarding, 218
  - serving as alliance manager, 200–201
  - shared power with team leaders, 52–53
  - sharing expectations with temporary teams, 172–173
  - stating priority to temporary teams, 171–172
  - strategic futures exercise with, 203
  - symptoms of interteam conflict in, 153–154
  - telling about Abilene Paradox, 151
  - testing as summer interns, 34
  - using appreciative inquiry, 102–104
  - violating team leader's expectations, 121
- Team-Building Checklist, 79–80
- Team-Development Model, 49
- team-development programs, 81
- teams. See also alliance teams; high-performing teams; temporary teams; virtual teams
  - Abilene Paradox and, 145
  - alliance vs. traditional, 198–200
  - clear assignments for, 55, 66
  - coaching, 63–64
  - common problems in, 75–76
  - conflict management within, 60, 68–69
  - confronting problem members, 137
  - critiquing performance, 136, 219
  - decision-making processes for, 55–56, 66–67
  - discussing change with, 94–95
  - encouraging risk-taking and innovation, 61, 70
  - engaging in team building, 61–62, 70
  - facilitated by team leaders, 64
  - follow-up sessions with, 110–113

fostering respect and collaboration, 60, 69 future challenges for, 219–213 growth and challenges of alliance, 197–198 guidelines for diverse membership, 135
 high-performing, 4–5
 impact of composition on performance, 29–32
 implementing Four Cs, 217–219
 limiting member participation in, 137–138 negotiating agreements among, 122 participating in data gathering, 86–87
 processes for assigning, 46
 sharing views of, 95–96
 shifting leadership models, 49–50, 52–53
 size of, 32–33, 199–200
 staffs vs., 47–48
 structure of Bain & Company, 37
 taking time to develop, 45, 218
 traditional vs. virtual, 179–182
 “two pizza,” 33
 types of, 21–24
 violated expectations in, 120–121

teamwork
 culture and support of, 24–27
 globalization and, 223
 modular independence and, 17–18
 reciprocal interdependence and, 19–21
 sequential interdependence and, 18–19
 temporary teams, 167–177
 assessing members’ priority to, 171–172 authority needed by, 169–170
 case studies of, 167–170
 clarifying goals for, 173
 communications with stakeholders, 169–170, 177
 decision making for, 174
 defined, 167
 ensuring assignments complete, 175–176
 establishing operating guidelines, 174–177 resolving differences for, 175
 sharing expectations with other members, 172–173 steps for designing, 171–177
 team building tasks for, 170
 tracking assignments, 175–176

testing
 team leaders, 35–36
 team members as summer interns, 34

Thoreau, Henry David, 224

top management
 creating teamwork rewards, 44–45
 developing organizational context, 17 support for team development, 40, 44 team building unrewarded by, 15–16
 unsupportive of team building, 16–17

Toyota, 9

trust
 alliance teams lacking, 199
 building, 57–59
 confidentiality in interviews and, 86
 developing for team-building programs, 93–98 lack of in virtual teams, 182–186
 lacking between team leader and member, 77–78
 measuring team, 68

U

unhealthy agreements, 141–151
 about, 141
 consultant interviews to reveal, 149–150
 symptoms of, 145–148
 team members revealing, 150

V

video conferences, 181, 192, 213

virtual teams, 179–195
 common problems of, 182–193
 communication technology for, 181, 189–190, 193
 conflicts in culture, 180–182
 dealing with ambiguous boundaries, 222
 developing trust within, 182–186
 Role-Clarification exercise for, 188 team building in, 194–195
 team leaders of, 180, 182, 188–189, 193
 traditional vs., 179–182
 variables influencing multicultural, 184–185 violated expectations within, 186–189

virtual workspaces, 189–190, 193

W

Walden (Thoreau), 224
 Web pages, 181, 191
Wisdom of Teams, The (Katzenbach and Smith), 32–33 work methods for temporary teams, 175