

Contents

---

Foreword	xiii
Preface and Acknowledgments	xv
About the Editor	xxiii
About the Contributors and Peer Reviewers	xxv
Introduction	xxxv

PART ONE

Redistricting

CHAPTER 1

Defining Population for Purposes of Redistricting 3

JOHN HARDIN YOUNG
ELIZABETH L. HOWARD
KARUNA SESHASAI

Introduction	3
Data Collected	3
Decennial Questionnaire	3
American Community Survey	4
Additional Data	5
Use of Decennial Census Data	5
Sampling	5
Public Law 94-171 Data	6
Population Deviation Measurements	7
Constitutionally Permissible Measurements of Total Population	8
Congressional Plans	10
State and Local Plans	11
The 10 Percent Threshold	12
Conclusion	14

CHAPTER 2*The Impact of Noncitizens on Voting Rights Issues 19

C. ROBERT HEATH

Noncitizens and Potential Liability under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act	20
Variance in Citizenship Rates	22
Different Census Products as Sources of Information on Citizenship	25
Constitutional Issues in Drawing Districts Where Noncitizens Are Concentrated	26
Does the Constitution Require Use of a Particular Apportionment Base?	27
Jurisdictions' Discretion in Adopting the Apportionment Base	30
Representation and the Legislative History of the Fourteenth Amendment	30
Section 5 Implications for the Apportionment Base	33
Conclusion	33

CHAPTER 3*Redrawing the Lines: Race, Democracy, and the 2010 Redistricting Cycle 39

KRISTEN CLARKE

Redistricting in a Post-Racial Era	40
Efforts to Turn Back the Clock	41
The Voting Rights Act under Attack	43
Judicial Redistricting	45

CHAPTER 4*Legislative Redistricting: New Challenges 49

TOMMIE S. CARDIN

Introduction	49
One Person, One Vote	49
Section 5: Retrogression	52
Displacement of Majority-Minority Districts	54
Districts "On the Bubble"	56
Population Categories	56
Section 2 Districts	57
Conclusion	59

CHAPTER 5*Practical Suggestions for Local Government Attorneys Facing Redistricting*65

ANDREW J. WHALEN III

Understanding the Legal Framework	66
Adopt a Strategy and Timetable	68
Public Participation: Building Consensus	70
Final Thoughts on Submissions	71
Conclusion	72

CHAPTER 6*Novel (and Not-So-Novel) Alternatives to Legislative Redistricting*75

JUSTIN LEVITT

The Nature of the Redistricting Process	76
The Role of Existing Legislators	77
Alternatives	79
Automation	79
Strictly Binding Rules	82
Redistricting Contests	83
Temporal Shift	84
Nonpartisan Bodies	85
Citizens' Commissions	85
Conclusion	93

CHAPTER 7*Bringing Transparency and Citizen Participation to the Redistricting Process: Lessons Learned and How We Can Prepare for 2020*103

MARY G. WILSON

Few Mandates for Transparency	103
Increased Transparency	104
Varying Degrees of Public Participation	105
Best Practices and Lessons Learned	107
Conclusion	108

PART TWO*The Voting Rights Act*CHAPTER 8*Protecting Language-Minority Voting Rights and Implementation of Section 203 after 2010 113

TERRY AO MINNIS

Introduction	113
Voting Rights Act Protections for Language Minority Voters	114
Section 203	115
Section 2 Protection for Language Minorities	116
Section 208	118
Benefits of Language Assistance	118
Section 203 after 2010	119
Section 203 and the 2006 Reauthorization of the VRA	119
American Community Survey (ACS)	120
Impact of Five-Year Timing	126
Conclusion	131

CHAPTER 9*The New Guidelines for Section 5 Implementation 139

ABIGAIL THERNSTROM

Introduction	139
Scope of the 2011 Guidelines	140
Impact of Beer	141
Impact of Bossier	141
Impact of Arlington Heights	142
Assessing Relevant Factors in the 2011 Guidelines	143
Implications of a Changing Racial Landscape	146
Effect on Representation	147
Consequences in the Broad Political Setting	148

CHAPTER 10*Redistricting Woes after the 2010 Census: Statistical Estimates, Inclusion of College Students and Prisoners, and “Safe” Districts 155

BENJAMIN E. GRIFFITH

Introduction	155
The Redistricting Process	156
Section 5 Preclearance	157
Section 2 Vote Dilution	157
Significance of Racially Polarized Voting	157

Statistical Estimates	158
Equal Opportunity to Elect Representatives of Choice	159
The Brennan Analysis: Ecological Regression and Extreme Case	159
Determining Minority-Preferred Candidate Status	163
Evidence Contrary to Existence of Racial Bloc Voting	165
Estimated Actual Voters Analysis and Reconstituted Election Analysis	165
Probit Analysis	165
College Students and Prisoners: The Usual Residence Rule	167
Apportionment Base upon Which Voting Districts Are Based	168
Census Inclusion of Prisoners: Prison-Based Gerrymandering	169
“Safe” Districts	172
Competitive Elections and Competitive Districts	173
Safe Districts Based Predominantly on Race	175
Moving Beyond the Problem of Race	175
Impact of Black Flight on Safe Districts	178
The End Game of Safe Districts: A Gift to Republicans	179
Safe Majority-Minority Districts under DOJ’s Regulations	180
Conclusion	183

CHAPTER 11

Nondistrict Vote Dilution Remedies under the Voting Rights Act

199

STEVEN J. MULROY

Single-Member Districts as the Presumed Section 2 Remedy	200
Alternative Electoral Systems	200
Generally	200
Legal Availability	202
Suitability of Alternative Systems	205
Arguments for Alternative Systems	205
Arguments Against Alternative Systems	206
Where Alternative Remedies Are Most Appropriate	207
Applying the Threshold of Exclusion Formula	208
VAP, CVAP, and Turnout	208
Suitability of Voter Education Plan	209
Conclusion	210

CHAPTER 12

The California Voting Rights Act

219

MARGUERITE MARY LEONI
CHRIS SKINNELL

Introduction	219
Background: Plaintiffs’ Losing Record under the Federal Voting Rights Act	220
Enactment and Constitutional Challenge in Sanchez v. City of Modesto	221

Highlights of the California Voting Rights Act	222
Departure from Federal Voting Rights Law	222
Lack of Minority Candidates	224
Possible Defenses	224
New Remedies	224
Financial Incentives: All Upside for Plaintiffs, All Downside for Defendants	225
History of Post- Sanchez Litigation under the California Voting Rights Act	226
Madera Unified School District	227
Tulare Local Healthcare District	227
City of Tulare	228
Ceres Unified School District	228
City of Compton	229
Compton Community College District	229
San Mateo County	230
Cerritos Community College District	230
City of Escondido	231
Demand Letters and Other Threatened Litigation	231
Proposed Washington State VRA	231
Conclusion	232

PART THREE

Registration, Ballot Access, and Reform Measures

CHAPTER 13

The Voter Registration Gap: Why It Exists and How to Narrow It

239

ESTELLE H. ROGERS
NICOLE KOVITE ZEITLER

Introduction	239
The National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA)	240
Public Agency Voter Registration	240
Success in NVRA Compliance: Court Rulings and Voluntary Improvements	245
Community Voter Registration Drives: Homegrown Efforts to Assist Low-Income Americans	253
Playing Chutes and Ladders: The Voter Registration Process and Its Hidden Traps	256
Photo ID	257
Proof of Citizenship	259
Bounced Back Mail	260
Match Rules	261
Interstate Matches	262

Some Creative Solutions to Voter Registration Problems	263
Paperless Voter Registration	263
Online Voter Registration	263
Same-Day Voter Registration	264
Automatic Voter Registration	264
Conclusion	265

CHAPTER 14

The National Voter Registration Act 277

HANS A. VON SPAKOVSKY

Introduction	277
The NVRA's Requirements	277
NVRA Enforcement	280
The Effectiveness of the NVRA	284
Conclusion	286

CHAPTER 15

Significant Ballot Access Issues 291

RICHARD WINGER

Introduction	291
The State Laws	291
The Judicial Decisions	292
Definitions of a "Political Party"	293
Signature Requirement to Qualify for Ballot	294
Petition Deadline	295
Restrictions on Who Can Circulate a Petition	296
Restrictions on Independent and Party Candidates	296
Candidate and Political Party Loyalty Oaths	297
Fees for Insufficient Petitions	297
Ability of Political Parties to Substitute a New Nominee If the Original Nominee Withdraws	298
Laws Barring Candidates from the General Election Ballot Based on Primary Results	298
Conclusion	299

CHAPTER 16

Electoral College Reform at the State Level 305

ROBERT W. BENNETT

Introduction	305
Recent Reform Efforts	309
Districting and Proportional Award of Electors	309
National Popular Vote Proposal	310

Uniform Law on Faithless Electors	313
Problems in Simultaneous Pursuit of the NPV and the ULC Reforms	317
Conclusion	317

CHAPTER 17

Voting Technology and the Quest for Trustworthy Elections 321

CANDICE HOKE

Background: Performance Records of E-Voting Systems	323
South Carolina 2010	323
Illustrative E-Voting Equipment Deficiencies	324
Florida 2000	327
Federal Compulsion to Adopt Software-Based Voting Technologies	328
HAVA	328
Eliminating the Human Element in Vote Tabulation	331
The EAC's Future	332
Litigation and Enforcement Strategies	333
Litigating Voting Technology Deficiencies	333
Enforcement by the U.S. Department of Justice	336
Federal Promotion of Problematic Internet Voting	340
Federal Legislation: UOCAVA, MOVE, and Defense Authorization Acts	342
The FVAP's Cheerleading for Internet Voting	345
Internet Voting: Separating Legally Relevant Facts from Fantasy	345
FVAP's Legally Problematic Promotion of Internet Voting	349
Moving Forward	356
Appendix: Contradictory State Laws Governing Election Fraud and Integrity	358
Table of Cases	413
Index	423